DEATH FOLLOWS DOSE OF MORPHINE

Frank O. Bucher, a Railway Mail Clerk, Latest Victim Of Poison.

AN UNLUCKY LADY TRAVELER

Funeral Services—Effects of Railroad Retrenchment Policy—Fire Alarm System Installed.

Ogden, July 16.—Frank O. Bucher, a railway mail clerk, died late yesterday afternoon of uremic poisoning and an overdose of morphine, which he evidently took to induce sleep. He was found unconscious early yesterday morning on the floor of his home, 3049 Adams avenue. Physicians were called, but he was beyond aid. Deceased was 31 years of age and is survived by his wife and little son, 5 years old.

The theory of the physicians is that after returning from work he was unable to sleep and took a dose of morphine to aid him in doing so. He had suffered for two years with kidney trouble. In some way he swallowed too much of the drug, with fatal results.

UNLUCKY LADY TRAVELER.

Arriving in Ogden yesterday en route to Spokane, Wash., was Mrs. D. R. McCortney, who will be compelled to wait in Ogden for a few days until she can get home and a pocket book containing all her money is returned to her. According to the story told to her, a Master Cunningham by the unfortunate lady, she left Colorado Springs in a hurry the other day and left her pocket book containing $70 in currency, a draft for $130 and some diamond jewelry lying on the bed. As soon as she discovered her loss she had the train conductor send a telegram to the Colorado hotel, but nothing of a satisfactory nature could be learned. While in Salt Lake City, Mrs. McCortney and a lady friend visited DeCoursey. When coming to Ogden she lost a handbag containing her ticket to Spokane. Upon arriving in the pavilion in the evening, which was Depot Master Cunningham, and that official sent out numerous telegrams with a hope of being able to regain some of the lost property for the unlucky lady.

SCHOOL ELECTION.

Will Celebrate Pioneer Day—Short Hay Crop—Church Improvements. Special Correspondence.

Spring City, Sanpete Co., July 14.—At the school election yesterday three candidates were in the field. John P. Johnson received 76 votes, Simon T. Beck, 25, and Emil Erickson, 23. Committees are at work arranging for the proper celebration of Pioneer day. President C. N. Lund is to deliver the oration.

Farmers are busy haying. Owing to the late, cold spring, the hay crop is light, about half an average crop of alfalfa being produced. The water supply is less this season than it has been for years, so the prospects for a second crop of hay are poor.

Work on the annex to the meeting-house is progressing nicely. The cost of this addition to the building will be in the neighborhood of $7,000.

The engine cab splintered and the rails torn and bent by the force of the explosion, which was plainly felt for several miles. HOW THEY RECOGNIZE AMERICANS ABROAD.

"First trip abroad?" said a tourist agent on New York, as he filled out a cabin passage on an Atlantic record-breaker.

"First trip," the Duluth manufacturer replied.

"Then it will surprise you, in London, to see how quickly they will discover your nationality. I don't mean by your accent. Before you open your mouth every soul in London will know you are a Yankee."

"How will they know it?"

"By your padded shoulders, for one thing. Abroad nobody's shoulders are padded. By your shoes, for another, by your shoes' extended soles and their high, heavy heels. By the huge knot of your tie, for abroad the tie is always a slender one. By bristles on your chin. LONG DROUTH BROKEN.

School Election—New School Buildings—Beautiful Summer Resort.

Special Correspondence.
Beaver, Beaver Co., July 14.—The election for school trustee held yesterday was an exciting party line, the Republicans being victorious by a majority of 64, electing Charles E. Murdock to succeed himself as a trustee.

The contracts are let for the new district school building, and it is expected that work will commence in a few days. Satisfactory progress is being made at this new school building, and progress points to the use of the lower story the coming school year.

The conference was held recently in the damaged East and Beaver West wards. Good reports were made by the state auditors.

The Telluride company is supplementing its power by the addition of another pipe line, to provide against a possible shortage of water.

The new road through Beaver canyon to Beaver Lake is nearing completion; this will afford access to one of the best, if not the best, summer resorts in the west. The scenery is beautiful.

LONG DROUTH BROKEN.

The long draught drouth is broken at last and copious rains have given the farmers bounteous promise of a successful harvest. Some hay will be slightly damaged but the prospect for grain crop will more than compensate for injury to the hay, much of which is safely harvested.

The one hundred and twenty-fifth quarterly conference will be held on the 18th and 19th inst. in visit from President Francis M. Lyman is anticipated.

EVANSTON, WYO.

Welcome Rain—Small Building Boom—Utah's Pioneer Day.

Special Correspondence.
Evanston, Wyo., July 15.—Friday of last week, a very refreshing rain shower visited Evanston. This was much needed as the country was suffering from the intense heat. It rained so hard that in the vicinity of Evanston the railroad was threatened with a washout.

Prest John M. Baxter and Counselors Archibald McInnon and Thomas T. Tingley, and High Councilor A. C. Call visited the Evanston ward Sunday, July 12, and imparted valuable instructions to the people.

Evanston is on the boom along the building line. Something like 15 new dwelling houses are in course of erection, and it is rumored that about that many more will be started before long. The Rocky Mountain Livery has just finished a new barn costing $7,000.

Business on the railroad is gradually picking up, most of the business coming from the west. The U. P. Railroad company is storing at this place 20,000 tons of coal.

Preparations for the celebration of Utah's Pioneer day are under way.

LADIES OPPOSE PRIZE FIGHT.

Daughters of Pioneers Withdraw from Pioneer Celebration and Protest.

Special Correspondence.
Logan, Cache Co., July 15.—The central committee of the Daughters of Pioneers held a meeting last evening and formulated the following notice of withdrawal from the celebration of Pioneer day, and protest.

The daughters and granddaughters of pioneers consented to unite with the committee which is arranging a celebration for the 24th of July, providing that no improper exhibition be permitted as a part of the day's entertainment, but as we have now learned from the columns of the Logan Journal that boxing contests (prize fights) are being planned, we will withdraw from and have nothing to do with the celebration, and we advise all citizens who regard the good name of our educational city, our temple city, and who desire the welfare of the youth of the community to remain away, and thus show their disapproval of, and disgust at, such illegal and improper exhibitions.

In but one state in the Union (Nevada) is being evaded in some states by giving the exhibition the name of boxing contests instead of prize fights.

We commend the Mutual Improvement associations in passing resolutions condemning them, and we protest against them as being a low and depraved form of amusement which should not be tolerated nor permitted in civilized communities.

SHOT AT HER FATHER.

Sarah Comiskey Opened Fire on Him Without Warning.

New York, July 15.—Eighteen-year-old Sarah Comiskey created a lot of excitement opposite police headquarters, New Rochelle, last night, by firing several shots at her father, Sarah Comiskey.

According to the police, the father left his family in New York some time ago and came to board at New Rochelle. He told his fellow boarders to warn him if his daughter ever called on him, as she would probably try to make trouble.

When the girl came out from New York last night Comiskey was warned. He went direct to the police station to ask for protection. As he left the station he met his daughter, who had followed him. She drew a revolver and opened fire. One of the shots wounded Comiskey slightly in the head. The girl was disarmed and locked up. She said she had emulated Sarah Kotten in shooting her father, since he had deserted her mother and herself. She is thought to be demented.
