CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 13.—The House joint resolution appropriating $20,000 for the Potter committee was read, together with the amendment of the Senate committee on appropriations, adding $20,000 for the expense of such investigations as may be ordered by the Senate of the Forty-Fifth Congress.

Windom suggested that the resolution lay over until to-morrow, as another amendment would be suggested by a Senator not now in chamber. So ordered.

Sargent was appointed a member of the conference committee on the army appropriation bill in place of Blaine, who is sick.

After the expiration of the morning hour, Voorhees moved to take up the bill to repeal the resumption act, which led to a discussion. The motion was agreed to—yeas 30, nays 28—and consideration of the bill proceeded.

Ferry, from the finance committee, took charge of the bill and reported it. He favored making United States notes receivable for duties on imports from October 1st, 1878, but he suggested to Voorhees, who had moved to amend to make that provision take immediate effect, that he modify his amendment, to provide that United States notes be receivable the same as coin in payment of four per cent. bonds and it was so modified.

Matthews said he would submit his substitute providing for a reissue of treasury notes, and that the amount should not exceed $35,000,000; also authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to maintain a reserve fund in coin of $100,000,000 to redeem legal tenders, and that the obligation of the Secretary of the Treasury to redeem legal tenders in coin, shall not begin till the reserve has accummulated to $100,000,000; also authorizing the Secretary to receive legal tenders in payment for bonds.

After discussion the substitute of Voorhees was rejected—yeas 29, nays 32.

The question then recurred on amended substitute of the committee on finance for the House bill, and it was agreed to—yeas 30, nays 29.

The bill having been considered in committee of the whole, was reported to the Senate and passed—yeas 45, nays 15.

The bill as passed is as follows:

Be it enacted, etc, that from and after the passage of this bill the United States notes shall be receivable the same as coin in payment of the 4 per cent. bonds, now authorized by law to be issued. On and after October 1st, 1878, said notes shall be receivable for duties on imports.

After the introduction of a few bills, which were placed on the calendar, the bill to create a sinking fund for the Kansas Pacific road was taken up.

Hoar submitted an amendment providing that the salary of the government directors of the Union Pacific Railway Company shall be fixed by the President of the United States and paid by the company, and no directors shall receive further compensation from the company.

Thurman said this bill did not relate to the Union Pacific, but he would not object to the amendment.

Pending discussion the Senate adjourned till to-morrow.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 13.—Eden moved to suspend the rules and put the sundry civil appropriation bill on its passage just as it came from the committee on appropriations.

Atkins—I am astonished that the gentleman is so anxious to pass the bill without understanding it.

Eden, excitedly—You might as well put it through under a suspension of the rules as put it through without discussion.

Cox (N. Y.)—If we pass the bill under a suspension of the rules we will suspend ourselves. (Laughter and uproar.) I move to adjourn, so as to give members time to come to their right senses. The motion was defeated, 14 yeas to 131 nays.

By this time nearly every member was on his feet, and Cox, (N. Y.) Hooker and Kenna were raising points of order, amid cries of "order" and "vote" from all parts of the hall. Finally the Speaker succeeded in obtaining order, and the vote being taken on Eden's motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill as originally reported, it was defeated, yeas 48, nays 193.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the sundry civil bill.

On motion of Sayler, the Hayden survey appropriation was increased to $7,500 and on motion of Eden that for the Powell survey to $50,000.

The amendment increasing the appropriation for the appraisers stores at San Francisco, from $35,000 to $102,000 was rejected—65 to 72.

After a noisy session, and without action, the committee rose.

Blount submitted a conference report on the postoffice appropriation bill. Agreed to. Recess.

EVENING SESSION.

An amendment, increasing the appropriation for the Rock Island arsenal to about $300,000, was agreed to—yeas 123, nays 84.

An amendment, striking out the paragraph refunding to Pennsylvania $39,000 for the expenses incurred in raising volunteers in the late insurrection, was defeated—yeas 97, nays 120, and the paragraph stands as originally reported.

At midnight the civil sundry appropriation bill was passed, and the House adjourned.

EASTERN.

The Potter Investigating Committee

WASHINGTON, 13.—The examination of Smith was continued. The witness detailed the interview between himself and Secretary Sherman regarding the furnishing of those letters to the committee. He said the Secretary read all the letters himself. Witness said he had appointed Anderson solely on the recommendation of Matthews transmitted in that letter which is lost from the files. The President refused to see Matthews' manifesting some disgust and aversion. Witness told the President that he had offered Anderson a minor office at Matthews' request, and that Anderson had refused a place of less than about $3,000, and had told witness that the President would say he must have a larger place. The President declined to see him. He said that he was not aware that any recognition of the kind of his services was required. He disavowed all knowledge of any such understanding. The President did not forbid appointing him to any minor place, but said there was no agreement. He showed his aversion to the man in the emphatic way he declined to see him. He never went to see Sherman regarding the matter, because Sherman always told him he could not be bothered with such appointments. Smith was closely questioned on this point, and said he went to the President regarding the matter, because Anderson requested him, and would have gone to Sherman if he had requested. After some further testimony on the same subject, the committee adjourned.

$35,000 Fire.

MINNEAPOLIS, 13.—The Lumley Block was burned, this morning, with several stores; loss $38,000; insurance $25,000.

TEXAS.

The Border Troubles.

GALVESTON, 13.—The News' San Antonio special says: Fifty Mexican troops, under Col. Vaeder, have arrived at Piedras Negras to reinforce that place. Gen. Narananjo joins Col. Hunslo at Lampas. Their combined forces will number about 300, besides a considerable force at Laredo. Escobedo's whereabouts is unknown.

It is generally conceded that the principle object of McKenzie's invasion of Mexico is to recover the American horses now in possession of Escobedo, with a secondary view of dispersing the revolutionary forces, and relieving Diaz' government from the impending and growing danger. McKenzie's forces are not over 5,000 cavalry, but he is well provided with artillery. Owing to the remoteness of the scene of operations from the telegraph, nothing is expected concerning his doings within the week.

WESTERN.

The Indian Difficulties.

SAN FRANCISCO, 13. — A Silver city, Idaho, dispatch, says: General Howard arrived this evening en route to Jordan Valley. A Bannock spy was captured to-day, and turned over to Howard. Thus far ten white have been killed by Indians, including Mr. Reynhart, late assessor of Beaver County, Oregon.

A Winnemucca dispatch says: Companies H and K, Fourth Artillery, Captain Egan commanding, arrived this afternoon and will go north on the stage road at once.

Citizens have held a meeting to organize a second volunteer company, Captain Egbert, United States army, having loaned the volunteers a case of United States arms without orders from the department. The meeting passed resolutions holding the citizens responsible for the arms and recommending Capt. Egbert's action to the favorable consideration of Gen. McDowell and the Secretary of War.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Lord Beaconsfield and the Congress.

LONDON, 13.—A correspondent of the Manchester Guardian says: Those persons who anticipate that Lord Beaconsfield is preparing a great surprise, will not be disappointed. The coup may bring him much popularity but it will burden the country with great responsibility.

The control of reforms in Asia Minor and the maintainence of the freedom of Constantinople will be undertaken by Great Britain, while European Turkey will be left to control the states whose special interests are there. To satisfy Austria and adjust the question of indemnity will be the chief difficulties of the congress. The other questions are already settled in principle.

Lord Beaconsfield's demands will involve even more than the foregoing outline, but they have already received the support of Germany and France, and, to some extent of Austria and Italy. Should Austria's special demands be satisfactorily met, Lord Beaconsfield will play a leading part in the dazzling peace. As, however, his diplomatic policy will be a clear departure from the doctrine of non-intervention, he will probably make that justification for a dissolution of Parliament.

WALLACHIA.

Protest against the Russian Advance.

BUCHAREST, 12.—In consequence of the vigorous protest of of Roumania against the Russian advance towards Pitesti, the Russian commander General Drenteim has ordered his troops to retire ten kilometers from the Roumanian lines. On the other hand the Russian outposts on the Pisesti and Filiperi lines have been ordered to advance southward as far as the Prahava river. General Drenteim, however, has given assurances that he will not cross that stream.

BRITISH AMERICA.

The Mob Riot.

QUEBEC, 13.—The strike had the appearance, to-day, of terminating quietly, on account of the presence of so large a force of military in the town. The Montreal troops, consisting of the Prince of Wales Rifles, Victoria and Fifth fusileers, arrived by special train about eight o'clock and at once proceeded to the citadel. Different regiments have been relieving each other ever since at the citadel and Parliament house. The mob met at Jacques Cartier hall about 8 a.m. and were addressed by one of their leaders, but refused to follow him in any numbers and most of them dispersed quietly. A small assembly of rioters marched as far as Esplanade this morning, but then dispersed and hid their flag. A considerable mob has congregated, however, all day, near Louis Gate, principally, no doubt, to watch the movement of troops. Two or three arrests have been made by detectives, of parties supposed to have been leading in the riots, who were conveyed to jail by the military. The inquest on Beaudoire, killed yesterday, commenced to-day and was adjourned till to-morrow.

GERMANY.

The Socialists—Treasonable Utterances.

BERLIN, 13.—The government, with a view to the repression of social democracy, intends to enforce a more rigid application of the passport regulations, and similarly strict enforcement of the law relative to the press, and public meetings will also be enjoined upon all authorities in the country.

A woman and two men were today sentenced to imprisonment for treasonable utterances against the Emperor—the woman to four years, one of the men to two years, and the other to 18 months.

The First Sitting of the Congress.

It is understood to-day's sitting of the congress was merely devoted to the formalities of electing a president and bureau. The presidency was conferred upon Prince Bismarck, at the suggestion of Count Andrassy, who advocated this selection, not simply on the ground of traditional custom, but for the eminent services which Bismarck, on all sides, was acknowledged to have rendered. Count Andrassy also expressed the fullest hopes for the recovery of the revered German Emperor.

The first real working sitting of the congress will be held next Monday. This long laterval appears to be due to a desire to facilitate the task of the congress by preliminary negotiations between the plenipotentiaries. One such conference, yesterday evening, between Counts Schouvaloff and Andrassy, lasted till late at night.

The Banquet.

There were 160 persons present, to-night, at the banquet in honor of the plenipotentiaries, including a large number of German Princes and Princesses, and all the members of the congress except Prince Gortschakoff. The Crown Prince thanked the powers for their marks of sympathy with the Emperor, drank the health of the various sovereigns, and expressed a sincere desire for the establishment of an understanding which would be a pledge of universal peace. The Turkish plenipotentiaries have arrived.
