FLOATING FRAGMENTS

A Norristown man, the father of a large family, calls his flour barrel "Grand S." It goes so fast.—Ex.

The 11th Ward officiated in the administration of the sacrament, at the Assembly Hall, yesterday afternoon.

A large force of men will be put in the grade of the Denver, Utah and Pacific in South Boulder Canyon in a few days; also a large force in the company's tunnels at the head of South Boulder Canyon.—Ex.

The Academy of Music says:—"The last season of a singing school is over, and the last week in which the school is in session is the first of the year."—Ex.

The Home Dramatic Club have lately acquired a number of new members, and the production of a play is being made in a short time. The club is now in the midst of rehearsal for the production of a play.

When he returned to his seat in the theatre and said he had just stepped out to see some one, she immediately remarked, "It must have been the first one," and when the young man asked if she saw the other one, she turned up her pretty face and said, "No, but I smell the other one's breath."

At Leadville, on the 18th, a couple of men, armed with revolvers, detached a train and swept down a heavy grade at the rate of a mile a minute. A brakeman on top of one of the engines escaped with his skin, and the train was stopped by a cut-off wire. Had the brakeman remained he would have been resolved into mere meat.

Nothing contributes so much to the peace of society as polite and social intercourse in conversation. Conversation is an art that should be cultivated like education. Ideas and information are practically worthless without the capacity to communicate them to others. Those who talk should understand the subject they are talking about, and learn to convey their thoughts to their hearers in good language, properly and distinctly pronounced. The voice in conversation can be as much improved as it can be in song.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Departed.—By letter from F. Spencer we learn that Father Allen Wilkinson, an old member of the Church, was buried at Richfield, Sevier county, on the 14th inst.

Lecture.—To-morrow night, at 7 o'clock, the 15th Ward Meeting House, Elder Rotheringham will deliver his popular lecture, on his subject, "The Mutual Improvement Association of the Ward."

Still Improving.—Brother Heber J. Grant is far recovered from his late illness as to be able to be out occasionally, he expects to leave for southern Utah on Thursday next, in the hope that his health will be improved by the trip. We hope his anticipations will be fully realized.

Fitness of Things.—The Ed. says that he provides for five com- panions to manipulate the ballot boxes, and for other similar purposes in Utah. Senator Vest characterized this provision as a "Star Chamber proceeding." A star is usually placed with five points, and the "fitness of things" is exemplified in the election of that number of commissioners by giving us one for each point of the star.

Complimentary Benefit.—On Friday night a complimentary benefit will be tendered to Mr. G. C. Soley, when the "Society of New York" will be presented. The Sixth Infantry Orchestra Band will be present and perform a number of favorite selections. In the cast are Miss Nellie Colebrook, Miss A. Par-sons, and Messrs. J. S. Lindsey, A. Cummings, H. M. Wells and H. Taylor.

Home Missionaries.—The Home missionaries of this State are requested to meet in the Council House, on Wednesday evening, the 22nd inst. at 7 o'clock.

Where it is impossible for the brethren to be present in person, it is expected that they will report as to whether they have filled their appointments.

William W. Taylor, Clerk of State.

Quarantine.—Before the Legisla- ture adjourns it is earnestly to be wished that a measure providing for adequate quarantine in this city will be passed. It is an absolute need now, and the necessity will constantly increase as Salt Lake grows in population and importance. The safety of the citizens demands that when there is any person, transient or otherwise, afflicted with an infectious or contagious disease who cannot command the means to have himself properly cared for, some competent person should be authorized by law to take charge of him. There should also be a suitable building to which such persons could be taken and looked after until they recover. Such a measure need not necessarily involve a great deal of expense.

Southern Missionary Experience.—On Saturday afternoon we received a call from Elder Walter Scott, of Provo, who returned from a mission to the Southern States. He left home in June, 1880, and labored the whole period of his absence in Georgia, having acted in the capacity of President of the Georgia Conference. While he was in that field he and the brethren operating with him baptized 114 persons.

As our readers have been informed at various times through the News, the feeling throughout that State toward the Elders has been of a most intensely bitter description. Elder Scott states that a great many traps were laid, threats made and mobs organized, but the brethren escaped without being injured. A circumstance occurred in Pope County that had somewhat serious aspect. Late one night, a house in which Elders Scott, J. Houston and J. W. Bean were sleeping was fired into by a mob, the bullets passing into the interior of the building.

The young Elders who have labored in conjunction with Elder Scott have been very zealous, departing themselves with many courage in the midst of difficulty, and have exercised great faith in the Lord, who has comforted them by warning them of danger by dreams and the promptings of the good Spirit. There are four Elders in that portion of the vineyard now, and Elder Houston has succeeded Elder Scott in the presidency of the Conference. Elders J. Packer, of Brigham City, and Joseph B. Keeler, of Provo, were released to return home at the same time as Elder Scott.

About sixty persons are ready to emigrate, and will leave Georgia for the gathering place on the 22d of March.

Washington's Birthday.—Will the anniversary of the birthday of the great Washington be observed as a holiday in this city, is a question in which a large number are interested. To our view a memory such as his cannot be too highly revered, and a friend at our elbow truthfully suggests that the country could stand another such a man, to work in the interest of religious freedom and political liberty at the present time. Citizens of every shade of opinion can join in doing honor to the name of Washington, so let us have a holiday. If the merchants and business men generally purpose arriving at an understanding in the matter, it cannot be done too soon, as the anniversary will be here the day after to-morrow. If it is to be observed at all, the manner of it should neither be half way nor half hearted.

Our Legislature has already passed upon the matter, having passed a bill to make the occasion a legal holiday, and we presume the Governor will have no objection to signing it.

The Proposed New Charter.—The meeting of the City Council on Saturday evening was devoted to the consideration of the proposed new charter. The document was passed upon with the exception of a small portion, which will be taken up to-night, to which time the Council adjourned for that purpose. After the process through which it is now being put, the proposed new charter for Salt Lake City will be ready for introduction into the Legislature, to be submitted to the severe scrutiny of our Territorial Fathers. It is to be hoped they will manifest as much mercy as possible and enable the city paternal guardians to recognize their own property when subsequently permitted to view it.

Morgan Stake Conference.—At the Morgan Stake Conference, the time was occupied on Saturday by hearing the usual reports and remarks from Counselor Samuel Francis. On Sunday morning a titling report was read showing a considerable increase of income. The remainder of the time was occupied with a discourse from Elder C. W. Penrose. In the afternoon Elders John Seaman and C. W. Penrose were the speakers. In the evening a priesthood meeting was held, which was addressed, on suitable subjects, by President Willard J. Smith and Elder C. W. Penrose. The meetings were all crowded and an excellent spirit was manifested by the people.

Burglary.—Some time between Saturday night and Sunday night the tailor shop of Mr. J. Therning, 111 Commercial Street, was broken into and a quantity of goods carried off. In the hope that the publication of a description of the stolen goods may aid in their restoration to the owner, we here give a list of them furnished by Mr. Therning to the police: 1 gray striped sack coat; 1 fine diagonal cloth coat, double breasted; 1 gray summer sack coat, gray lining; 1 coat and pair of pants, mixed black and gray; 2 pair of diagonal cloth pants; 1 black coat with silk velvet collar; 1 double breasted vest; 1 pair of mixed gray pants.

Notice.—Jas. McCullough, of Hartsboro, Tennessee, would like to learn the whereabouts of his nephew, James D. McCullough, formerly of Tennessee.

Mr. McCullough for a number of years, lived in Washington, Utah. When last heard from he was in Panama, Lincoln County, Nevada. If he or any of his friends would send his address to B. J. Roberts, Duck River, Hickman County, Tennessee, he would hear of something to his advantage.

Nevada papers please copy.

Burglary at Richfield.—The following News special was received this afternoon:

Richfield, U. T., Feb. 20, 1882.

Last night, some time after midnight, a burglar broke into a back window, and purloined $60 worth of merchandise and $4 in cash. No clue to the perpetrator has been discovered.

They cure all diseases of the Stomach, Bowels, Blood, Liver, Nerves, Kidneys and Urinary Organs. $500 will be paid for case they will not cure or help, or for anything impure or injurious found in them.—Hopewell's "Test It, See 'Tis True' or 'Prove It' in another column.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the proper remedy to take in the spring of the year to purify the blood, invigorate the system, excite the liver to action, and restore the healthy tone and vigor of the whole physical mechanism, which often becomes impaired during the winter, by lack of open air exercise, and the want of sufficient care in the matter of diet.

"MY POLICY."

Having long been a resident of this city, it has been my aim to ascertain the wants of its people, and then study to satisfy them. In purchasing that popular article known as "HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR," for Coughs, Colds, Influenza and all affections of the throat and lungs leading to Consumption, "My Policy" has certainly been appreciated as can be seen by its largely increasing sale, by what the people say of it, our best physicians prescribing it, all the druggists recommending it, the testimonials received almost daily, proclaiming its wonderful cures, etc., etc. Ask your druggist for "HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR," and take no other. Price 50 cents and $1.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25, 1881.

Mrs. CRUTCHER.

Please send immediately three dozen HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR.

MEDALS AND TESTIMONIALS.

IT IS A MATTER OF GENERAL KNOWLEDGE that many houses have relied for their reputation, in their several lines of business, upon the obtaining and advertising of medals, diplomas and testimonials; and that the obtaining of the same has become an affair of management, intrigue and often of downright bribery, rather than a question of intrinsic merit; is well understood by those who have had even the smallest amount of personal experience in competitive contests; and the fact that the awards obtained are made the subject of the Grossest Misrepresentation can but be apparent to the general public, the thinking portion of whom understand and appreciate these matters at their true value. The many direct and indirect charges of fraud, favoritism and collusion in reference to the awards at our late

CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION, and the very general method pursued by the majority of exhibitors, successful and unsuccessful alike, in regard to the value of awards distributed, afford only further corroboration of the views long held by many of our most advanced thinkers, that the whole system of competitive awards is radically wrong, and that instead of its being a fair test of the merits or qualities of the articles in competition, it is but a source of

JEALOUSY, CORRUPTION AND FALSEHOOD.

This principle now so generally understood has been recognized and acted upon by GEORGE WOODS & COMPANY from the beginning of their business career; and they have NEVER EXHIBITED THEIR INSTRUMENTS TO COMPLETE FOR PREMIUMS, and for similar reasons have never solicited or published a testimonial from professional musicians. That they have acquired such an enviable reputation without the aid of such efforts as many of their competitors have found necessary to adopt, can but be considered as the only indication of the superiority of these instruments, but of the
