The tennis players of Salt Lake will gather tonight at the Commercial club to talk things over, and plan for a bigger tennis headquarters in Salt Lake. What is wanted is a headquarters sufficiently large to make this the actua as well as the formal headquarters for intermountain tennis. At the Miller courts there are now a pair of nets, but four more are wanted, at least, as well as a clubhouse, and a membership of 50 players, at least. Plans for making these improvements will be developed in all probability tonight.

Seattle, Sept. fl.—After a long consultation this afternoon between President Beri of the Coast league and President Agnew of the Seattle baseball team, regarding alleged grievances, Mr. Agnew gave out the following statement:

"President Bert has answered by documentary proof every question asked by Seattle. I am thoroughly satisfied.

"The finances are intact. The Seattle club will will leave for California Sunday night to play out the season."

Mr. Agnew said that the question of Seattle withdrawing from the league at the end of the season was discussed, with the result that Seattle will not withdraw. The chances are that the league will be extended to include four clubs in the south.

RACE IN OCTOBER

Elimination Contest to Determine Entries Was Started This Morning.

KELLER'S CAR FIRST AWAY.

There Was no Number 13 Because of The Superstition Attached to It .-Thousands Witnessed Start.

New York, Sept. 22.-The elimination race to determine who shall have the honor of meeting the foreign experts in the automobile contest for the Vanderbilt cup on Oct. 8, was started promptly at 6 o'clock. The day was clear and the course in fine shape, the showers of last night having served only to lap the dust to some extent Car No. 1, driven by Keeler, was the first away. Keeler and Lyttle, the latter in car No. 2, were slow in getting underway when they crossed the mark but Monglist in car No. 3, got a flying start The automobiles got away in the following order.

CARS AND DRIVERS.

Driver Time, Entrant.

1-Keeler 6:00 George M. Smith.

2-Lytle 6:01 C. A. Sinder.

3-Moningo 6:02 A. A. Pope.

Each driver sent his car away at its best possible speed and in a few seconds every car was lost to sight from the grandstand. Twelve cars started in the race cut of the 15 entries. There was no No. 13 drawn because of the superstition attached to that number.

The crowds along the course at the start were not as large as expected buthe early comers were there in goodly numbers, and as the day advanced their number was largely augmented.

The course is 28.71 miles and must be gone over 10 times.

THOUSANDS OF SPECTATORS.

THOUSANDS OF SPECTATORS.

Thousands of persons and hundreds of automobiles and other venicles gathered early today along the course which the preliminary automobile for the Vanderbilt cip was commenced today. The race, called the elimination trial was for care of American manufacture and was to determine which of the cars should have the right of competing for the oup over the same course, on Oct. 6.

The conditions for teday's race were: / Race American elimination trial. Place—Nassau county, Long Island. Start—From Westbury, at 6 a. m. length of Course—2.71 miles. Number of Starters—Twelve, to be sent away at minute intervals.

object.—To select five America's made cars to compete in the Vanderbilt cup race, to be run over the same course Oct.

Estimated time it will take-Five hours. Winner-Last year, Bert Dindley.

ASTIR EARLY. Spectators and contestants were astirearly, giving the stand old roads of Long Island an appearance of life they seldom assume. At Westbury, where the start was made, the grandstand was crowded to the limit of its capacity. Many persons prominent in sectety mingled in the throng and it was noticeable that many of the fair sex risked the danger of early mists and fogs to witness a race in a aport that has taken so great a hold of popular interest.

The course is said to be an exceedingly dengerous one and there were fears of accidents. There are nine sharp turns on the course, as follows: Jerico, East Norwich, Builshead, Old Westbury, at a point near Roselyn, Manhassett, Lakeville, Searington and Minneola. The turn at Old Westbury is the most dangerous, its shape is so much like a hairpin that it has been given the name of the "Hairpin Turn."

TURF PLUNGER'S WIFE DESTITUTE.

One of the most pathetic of life's tragedles in recoorded in the story of Mrs. Riley Grannan, wife of the famous and now broken turf plunger. Mrs. Grannan a few days ago applied for admission to a New York hospital where she is now registered as "sick and destitute."

Mrs. Grannan is 28 years old and was married to the race-track plunger about seven years ago. She was on the stage at the time and was known as Daisy Dixon. Her father, in Tennessee, is said to be quite wealthy. The couple lived together until about two years ago. Shince that time Mrs. Grannan has had her husband arrested on several occasions, charging non-support and abandonment.

Baseball Growing in Favor in England.

The past summer has witnessed a re-markable growth of baseball abroad. | Queen's Park clubs from Scotland. All these clubs are powerful factors in foot-Not only has England made giant strides toward popularizing the American national game, but the Scotch, Irish and the Australasian colonists are any sport but cricket during the sum-mer months, but once the fine points of baseball were recognized and prop-erly appreciated the rest was comparatively easy. The conservatism of the Englishman does not extend beyond Albion, and Australia and New Zea-land offered fruitful soil for the in-troduction of a sport that combines more elements of excitement and chance than the usually prosaic game

In England the game has been properly regulated by an organization that has put baseball on a sound footing, and a series of games for the championship was played last summer. Dur-ing the early season games of the British Baseball association the attendance numbered but a few hundred, but the closing matches drew several thousand

Six clubs constitued the league in and around London, Woolwich arsenal and Tottenham Hotspurs tied with eight games won and two lost. The former scored 198 runs, against 127, while Tottenham Hotsprs made 162, against 101. Leyton finished second with four games wen and five lost. Clapham, Orient, Fulham and Nondescripts completed the league and finished in the order named. The adoption of the game by the football clubs materially contributed to its success. The two leading clubs are among the most prominent in the Eng-lish football world. The Nondescripts were led by W. C. Kelly, formerly of New York, and, considering the fact that Mr. Kelly had only the raw material to develop, the result was very gratifying and the outlook for next leason is very promising. Aston Villa, New Castle United, Liverpool, Everton, Bury, Notts Forest, Stockton, Manchester City, Middleboro, Birminghes and Manchester United will form a North British association next season, and will have as members the Glasgow rangers, the Celtic and ball, and the decision to organize base-ball clubs will do much toward popularizing the game.

Next season there will be several leagues organized. In London alone five rapidly becoming enthusiasts. It was are already formed, or will be before next summer. They are the British a difficult task to undermine the al- Baseball league, the Southern league, most religious sporting traditions in the Junior league, the London league England, which refused to recognize and the Commercial league. These five associations will have a combined mem bership of fifty clubs, while the North British Baseball association will have several minor leagues affiliated with it. It is expected that Scotland and Ireland will eventually form separate leagues, and a series of international matches will be arranged similar to the
