

WHEELMEN HOLD ANOTHER MEETING

Membership of Association Increased to Nearly Five Hundred.

BYCLISTS ARE DETERMINED

To Have Cycle Strips on Each Side of the Street—New Ordinance Will Be Presented to Council.

Another interesting meeting of the Wheelmen Protective Association was held last evening in Judge Timmon's court room, at least fifty ardent supporters of the organization being present. The membership now approaches the 500 mark, 294 applications came in last evening and the association bids fair to over reach the present mark by a good many. It is said that every member is a voter and they expect to wield a mighty influence in coming political controversies.

The feature of last evening's meeting was the forming of an ordinance for the purpose of securing the right of way for the cyclist. They desire paths to be constructed on each side of the street, each to be five feet wide, and to be made of cinders or gravel. The plan is to move the dirt further out into the street and build the tracks between the sidewalk and the trees. It is provided that hitching posts and carriage blocks shall be moved also. All vehicles except bicycles are prohibited from the path, and it is expected that the street superintendent will keep them in proper shape all the year round. Eight miles an hour is the limit placed upon the cyclist and violators of that clause will cost the violator from $5 to $25. Special officers are to be appointed by Chief Hilton, their compensation to be the thanks and good will of the wheelmen.

There was a lengthy debate among the members. Some were for the ordinance, some against. The former contended the ordinance would be a nuisance to get on the books, the cyclists will have to keep oil in their lamps and ring their bells. The latter contended the ordinance would be a nuisance to get on the books, the cyclists will have to keep oil in their lamps and ring their bells. The latter contended the ordinance would be a nuisance to get on the books, the cyclists will have to keep oil in their lamps and ring their bells.

Local Racers Secure Passes for the Salt Palace Track.

Now that the Salt Palace bicycle track is in fair condition, the local riders who expect to compete in races this summer will begin training this week. A number of them have applied for training privileges and announced their intention to begin work today and tomorrow. The management of the track is daily receiving letters from wheelmen asking about the season's outlook, and it is expected that a large number of riders will be here soon.

DID BROTHERS ELOPE?

California Papers Credit Him With Stealing an Oakland Belle.

A story has filtered over from the mighty city of the Golden Gate that George Borchers, the phenomenal Oregon twirler, has eloped with the daughter of the moon from Oakland in true cavalier style, and that he bore on the pommel of his saddle Grace Miller, the lovely daughter of a well-to-do Oakland burglar. His little romance seems to have demoralized the baseball pitcher's business arrangements and he is stated to have failed to put in an appearance in the box at a game for which he was billed to pitch last Wednesday.

When interviewed at Ogden last night Borchers was wrathful. He denied the elopement story as the latest fraud of double-dyed calumny, and President Shively of the Ogden's backed up his story. If Borchers brought a lady with him from California he has been foxxy enough not to take her to Ogden. He already has a letter half in Portland, but the couple have been living apart for some time.

We Don't Know.

You do. Possibly it was in your own family, or perhaps it was an uncle or aunt. If there is even a small history of consumption, there is also a large history of weak lungs.

This doesn't mean you must have the disease. It simply means that you must pay a little more attention than usual to an acute cough or cold, to any tight feeling in the chest, or to hoarseness or weakness of the voice.

We Do Know

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It's the best remedy in the world for asthma, bronchitis, whooping-cough, consumption, and hard colds and coughs.

"I cannot write a strong enough testimonial for Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have used it a great many years for coughs and colds and all kinds of lung troubles, and I cannot speak too highly of it. Everybody who has used it seems to be greatly pleased with it, too."—W. W. MORGAN, Kansas City, Mo., April 14, 1899.

Three sizes:
25c., 50c., $1.00.
All druggists.

To keep on hand you will like the $1.00 size best, and you will need this amount to cure a chronic or very severe case. The 50c. size is just about right for bronchitis, hoarseness, la grippe, croup, etc. The 25c. size is convenient when traveling, and is enough to break up a fresh cold.

SHAMROCK IS ALL RIGHT.

Challenger Is Not Yet in Perfect Racing Trim.

London, May 7.—The yachting correspondent of the Times, who witnessed the racing yesterday, says:

"The result proves that, with the wind on her beam or anywhere before it Shamrock II is superior to the former challenger, but so far as has yet been shown, the latter is quite the equal of the new challenger when before the wind."

"The fact that the challenger is not yet in perfect racing trim must be taken into consideration, but she has yet to prove herself faster than her predecessor down the wind."

An effort was being made this afternoon to have the Salt Lakes and Railways meet Thursday afternoon and play the game which was postponed on Saturday. If Manager Clippinger of the Railways is willing, the game will be played, and be counted in the schedule.

There has been a good deal of talk during the last few days about the releases which were going to take place with the Salt Lakers, but so far the team is just the same. The boys naturally feel a little discouraged over the lack of support accorded them by the local fans, and they certainly have just cause for complaint. It was not fair to expect the team to jump out from the beginning and annihilate everything they ran up against. There are certain ones here who take a special delight in roasting the boys for every little mistake made, but can never find a word of praise for their good work. The players have not had a chance to even "learn" each other yet, but with a few more practice games they are sure to improve. What they want and need is a little support and encouragement. The end of the season's a long way off yet.

Pape & Lutz, the contractors, with a force of carpenters are hard at work on the baseball grounds. The grand stand is expected to be completed by tonight and Mr. Pape says if the lumber is delivered as fast as he can use it, the grounds will be enclosed in a week's time. The new grand stand is just northeast of the old one, and the latter will be used as bleacher. The two stands are connected in a V, the back-stop occupies the intersecting point, back of which will be reserved seats. Altogether the stand will seat 700 people comfortably, and on a pinch 800 can be crowded in. The position of the diamond will be nearly on the line with the present one. The fence will enclose a block of ground 200 feet square, and will vary in height from fourteen feet at the highest point to ten feet at the lowest. The grand stand and fence will require over 50,000 feet of lumber. The improvements will be of a substantial nature, and when the clearing of the ground is completed the association will have a splendid ground for all kinds of outdoor sport.—Park Record.

President Would be Glad to Receive Him as a Distinguished Foreigner.

New York, May 7.—The denial in positive terms in official circles that the President stated in any body claiming to represent Oom Paul Kruger that he would not receive him at the White House was made in a way, says a special to the Tribune from Washington, which seems to indicate that the President has been communicated with on this subject since he left Washington and desired it to become known that he is being misrepresented in this matter. In point of fact, various persons authorized to speak for the President declare that on more than one occasion when the subject has been referred to in his presence, the President has said that he would be glad to receive Mr. Kruger on the same terms and with the same hospitality as he receives other distinguished foreigners. This could be done without complicating the government in any way. It is pointed out that when the Boer envoys were in Washington a year ago they were treated with marked courtesy and consideration by the President and every member of his cabinet with whom they came in contact. It is further pointed out that if ex-President Kruger comes here he will appear in a strictly private capacity, not being invited even with the official character with which the Boer envoys were clothed and that therefore the President would have no possible reason for refusing to meet him.

LAURA MORGAN MYSTERY.

Solved by Finding Her Body on a Sand Bar in Balouse River.

Colfax, Wash., May 6.—The Laura Morgan mystery is solved by finding the body on a sand bar in the Palouse river, four miles west of Colfax, this afternoon. A searching party started out this morning in boats, wagons and on foot to make a thorough and systematic search of the river. Mrs. Morgan, mother of the dead girl, drove down the river in a hack.

Mr. Stoneberger, father of Mrs. Morgan, discovered the body. It was lying on the bank, fully dressed. Mrs. Morgan was nearly crazed when the body was found. She was on the opposite bank of the river, and it required the efforts of a number of persons to restrain her from plunging into the river to reach the body of her daughter.

Laura Morgan disappeared March 12. She had been suspended from school for one day for a slight infraction of the rules, and left school the next morning under her arm. The next morning her cap was found on a bridge a mile from town, and her books on the bank of the river near the bridge. A search of the river failed to find the body, but but few believed she had committed suicide.

A search was made as far south as Los Angeles and east to Texas, as it was thought she had dressed in boy's clothing and run away, as she had threatened to do. After waiting for the water to subside the search was renewed today.

SNOWSLIDE AT SMITH'S CAMP.

It Buried Seven Men, Killing Five of Them.

Seattle, Wash., May 6.—Particulars of the snowslide reported to have occurred at Sunrise City, Alaska, about March 20th, were received in this city today. The slide did not occur at Sunrise, but at Smith's camp, on Lyax creek, twenty-two miles above Sunrise.

DEAD.

Lee S. Graham, San Jose, Cal.

Fred Shackelford, Rhode Island.

Dick Lane, Fresno, Cal.

Henry Willoughby.

Hogan, known as "Old Man Hogan," San Francisco.

There were at the camp in all seven men, two besides the five who were killed. The entire seven were buried under the mass, but Frank Fleehardy, a strong young man, was not buried as deeply as the rest, and by dint of six hours' hard work succeeded in getting out of the slide. As soon as he reached the surface with others he began digging for his comrades.

The first man reached was Gilbert Devore. Beyond a number of severe cuts and bruises on the face, that he was seriously frostbitten, the latter was all right. There seems to be no doubt of his recovery, although the writer states that the man was under the snow for sixteen hours. They were all dead when the rescuing party reached their bodies.

CHINESE IN CALIFORNIA.

Total Number Estimated at Thirty-five Thousand.

San Francisco, Cal., May 7.—Ho Yaw, Chinese consul general at this port, replying to inquiries by H. H. North, United States commissioner of emigration, estimates that there must be 35,000 Chinese in California, in San Francisco, 15,000; employed in laundry business in California, 6,000; in San Francisco, 1,000.

DROWNED IN SNAKE RIVER.

Boise, Ida., May 6.—Word has been received here of the drowning of Harry Harris Sunday in the Snake river at Riverside. He and another man were fishing for salmon with a net. He attempted to draw the net in, but his foot became entangled in the rope and he was dragged overboard, causing the boat to capsize. The other man was rescued.

Harris' body has not been recovered. The drowned man lived at Aradisa, Ore., and leaves a wife and family.

A POINT IN PENSION LAW.

A Woman Who, When Insane, Murdered Her Husband, Seeks Pension.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 7.—An interesting point has been raised here under the pension laws.

Lizzie Halliday, an inmate of the Matteawan state hospital for the criminal insane, is an applicant for a pension. Her husband was a soldier and was murdered by her at her home near Warwick, Orange county, New York, more than three years ago. He had been missing for several days when it was discovered that she had killed him and had hidden his body under a pig pen. She was taken to the asylum at Matteawan a ravine mad and now claims the pension of a soldier's widow, notwithstanding the fact that she became a widow by murdering her husband. Col. W. L. Delacy, a local pension attorney, says the law of June 27, 1890, she is entitled to her pension, as it excludes only the widows of those who commit suicide.

"Common Sense"

Is the motto of the modern woman.

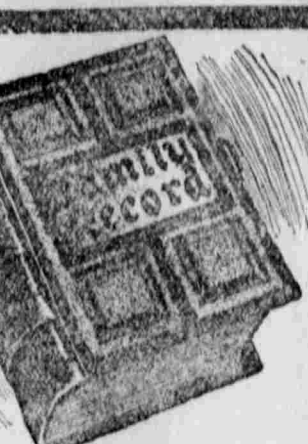

The thick soled shoe and the rainy day skirt are witnesses to the wise application of the motto in matters of dress.

But there is no common sense in neglecting womanly diseases or in experimenting with other medicines when it is a matter of common knowledge that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It cures all irregularities, dries up the habit, drives out the inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

It is not common sense to seek medical advice of those who are not physicians, when Dr. Pierce, not only a doctor, but a specialist in the treatment and cure of diseases of women, offers a consultation by letter free. Write to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"I had failing of internal organs and had to go to bed every month; had irregular monthly periods which would sometimes last ten or twelve days," writes Mrs. L. Holmes, of Cool Spring Street, Uniontown, Penna. "Had also indigestion so bad that I could not eat anything hardy. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cured me. I took three boxes of the 'Violette Prescription' and one of the 'Golden Medical Discovery'."

For 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only you can get free a paper covered copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. The book contains 1000 pages. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
