

SALT LAKE AND SPOKANE TODAY.

Teams Will Clash in First Game Of Series of Six, if Weather Permits.

BALL TOSSERS HAVE RETURNED

Local Bunch Has Little to Say About Their Disastrous Trip to The North.

PACIFIC NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Boise	60	34	26	.567
Butte	58	32	26	.552
Salt Lake	56	32	24	.569

Will the above figures be changed during the week?

Somebody is about due for a drop. Father Gilman says so, and he is in a position to judge. He admits that the team under his wing got a pretty serious mauling during the trip up north, but he thinks the boys will have a little better luck at home, and that it will be able to hang it onto Spokane this week and get even with the Redskins.

The team drifted into town last evening after walloping the Ogden boys at Glenwood park. None of them had anything in particular to say. "We got it good and plenty," was about all.

The players went to their several places of abode immediately upon arriving here, and only one or two of them came down town. Gilman was around his usual haunts, and he looked cheerful enough. He believes that the team simply had a streak of bad luck that is now broken. The boys played pretty good ball, according to him, and he is confident that they will do better from now on.

The Redskins, under Standing Elk, arrived here last evening after a two-day journey. They were a dusty, tired looking lot as they dragged their frames up the Kenyon steps, and wearily deposited a lot of hot bags. Some of them looked as if they were about to fall asleep as they scratched their names on the register. Reilly had nothing to say, except that he was out for some grub, a little water and a barber. He got what he wanted, and the balance of the Indians followed his example and were soon "slicked up" and out on the streets.

The teams will meet at Walker's field this afternoon at 2:30. The weather is favorable, and play the first game of a series of six at home. While it is not known definitely, it is understood that the Indians will pitch for Spokane today, and Tozer will twirl for the home crowd.

Boise Took First Game.

Butte, Mont., July 6.—Starkella could not be found at critical times today by the visitors, and the opening game of the series with Boise was taken by the visitors. Scores: R. H. E.

SALT LAKE VS OGDEN.

Junction City Amateurs Managed to Make Four Runs.

At Glenwood park, Ogden, yesterday afternoon the Salt Lake N. P. ball team and favorable team of Ogden played a lively and interesting game. The Ogden ball tossers declared they would not let the Salt Lake team win, and they managed to keep the game close. The Salt Lake team, however, won the game by a score of six to four. The game was a close one, with a few errors thrown in, gave them four runs. Shortliff and Mortenson of Ogden could not mystify the local team, and 16 hits were made off their delivery. The hits, with eight errors, gave Salt Lake 12 runs. The detailed score follows:

WILL PLAY ANOTHER GAME.

Police and Firemen Will Meet Again—This Time for Charity.

Before long there will be another great ball game between Salt Lake's policemen and firemen. The latter, still smarting under the walloping the clubswingers gave them recently, are clamoring for more and the police say they shall have it.

But the next game will be played for charity. The proceeds will be given to the family of the late Jonathan Elley, who, with his young son, was drowned in Jordan river July 4. The game will be played before July 15.

BURNS HAS A FIGHT.

Defeated an "Unknown" at Kimberly, Wyo., in Three Rounds.

Unable to secure a match here, Tommy Burns, who came here with Otto Schott, left the city for the 3rd and went to Kimberly, Wyo., where a big fight, called the "unknown," was being challenged in the direction of Tommy. Burns has been working here for weeks and was in splendid condition for a contest. It is said the big fellow was also in fine shape. They met on the evening of the 5th. The fight lasted three rounds. In the third Burns left drive that terrible right and caught the would-be-champion full on the jaw. That was all.

FLYNN HAS MORE TROUBLE.

Pueblo Policeman Did Not Propose to Injure His Fists.

According to reports received in this city, Jimmy Flynn has had more trouble in Pueblo. It will be remembered that, shortly after his fight with Reilly here, he returned to Pueblo and got mixed up in a murder case, and narrowly escaped having his head filled with lead. By being a good sprinter he saved his life. But in the attempt of an officer to arrest him, in other words, he put up a fight. But the fight ended before the first round was over with. The policeman did not propose to injure his hands, so he used his club with telling effect on Jim's cranium.

BIG JEFF ON CRUTCHES.

He Was a Sad Looking Object When He Entered Los Angeles.

The Los Angeles Times says: Like a bruised and broken battle-ship, with one propeller gone from under her, Jim Jeffries drifted into town yesterday morning, and was met at the train by Tom McCarney in a hack. Slowly and painfully dragging his huge body across the depot floor on crutches, never suffering his left foot to touch the ground, the champion fully substantiated the reports as to the extent of his injury. It was, indeed, a pitiable spectacle to see so fine a man so utterly helpless.

Jeffries at once asked to be taken to his home, where the doctor has recommended that he lie in absolute quiet for a few days. Jeffries, who is now in the Arroyo Seco, the giant is a deeply disappointed man that his fight did not take place a week earlier. "I want to take a fall out of Munroe," he said, "I want to have anything against him, but I want to show my friends who is the best man. As for my knee, I'm not worrying about that. It feels all right to me now, but I guess I had better do what the doctor says this time. I'll take no further chances with it. I'll lay quiet for a while, then I'll go back to Harbin Springs to resume training for the fight. The lay off has cost me a lot of money."

"Aside from my knee, I'm all right—never felt better in my life. Up to the time I hurt it, I do not believe I was ever in such fine fettle. I can play as fit as I could be. I wish I could have fought Munroe then. So far as I am concerned, I'll be able to go on August 9. If the club gets the date, I'll be there. Jeff looks good enough aside from the injured knee. His color is ruddy and his face is the picture of health. Mrs. Jeffries, a quiet, soft-spoken little woman, accompanied the champion, and is delighted at the Jeffries' man-ner."

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters, to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c guaranteed. At Z. C. M. I. Drug Store.

OFFICERS' CLUB VS UNIVERSITY CLUB.

World's Most Spectacular Game of Baseball to be Played Saturday.

IT WILL BE AT FORT DOUGLAS.

Wireless Telegraph Says President Roosevelt Has Consented to Umpire This Most Celebrated Game.

Proclamation: To the Good People of Salt Lake City and Vicinity—Know Ye: That in this year of our Lord, 1904, on Saturday, the 9th day of the 7th moon at the hour of three in the afternoon, there hath been prepared for you the most spectacular, sensational, electrifying, hair-raising, magnificent exhibition of our great national game of baseball that hath ever been done.

For this occasion a national holiday hath been declared and the people are ordered and required to rest from their labors and take themselves to the scene of combat. The game will evidence the solution of the old puzzle, "What happens when an irresistible force meets an immovable body?" for it will transpire between the hitherto unvanquished, indomitable veterans of the Officers' club of Fort Douglas and the World Renowned Marvells of the University club, who have never known the blush of defeat. The spoils of battle will be a magnificent one thousand dollar ($1,000) heart stein, presented by that flower of chivalry, Mr. F. W. Francis, of Calaway-Hook & Francis. It is now on exhibition under the careful guard of trained detectives in the window of their store. In the evening it will do duty at the University clubhouse, in cheering and refreshing the weary skilful laborers and members of the club.

One of the pleasing novelties of the occasion will be that instead of a regular pitcher the members of the club will be permitted to perform an extra long look into the interior of the steel in the evening. The members of the Pacific National league teams are cordially invited to cancel their own games and attend this unprecedented entertainment in a body, and they are hereby tendered passes for that purpose. The public generally will be joyously welcomed should they wish to see the game, and will be at Fort Douglas, where the diamond has been sand papered for the occasion. There will be a half minute car service to accommodate the crowds.

Habes will be cared for by trained nurses and young ladies will receive special attention. Remember the time, 7:30-4:30 p. m.

By order of the committee on notoriety.
