PIONEER DAY AT RICHMOND.

Grand Oration by President Joseph F. Smith on the Pioneers Of 1847.

CORNER STONE OF TABERNACLE

Laid by Apostle Marriner W. Merrill With Impressive Ceremonies—Building Will Cost $30,000.

Special Correspondence.

Richmond, Cache Co., July 25.—On Saturday, July 23, the people of Richmond celebrated Pioneer day in a way long to be remembered. The Hyde Park brass band furnished the music and the air was filled with its sweet strains during the day. The Richmond choir did the singing and never sang better, while the solos and quartets were soul inspiring. The marshal of the day was James I. Shepard.

Every exercise given at the meeting was rendered most beautifully, while the oration, which was delivered by President Joseph F. Smith was the grandest ever listened to by the people of this ward, and consisted largely of a historical sketch of the Pioneers.

One of the most interesting features of the day was the laying of the corner stone of the Richmond Tabernacle, a building which will cost about $30,000 and will be one of the finest in the Church. After a selection from the band and singing by the choir, in which the large concourse of people joined, President Jos. F. Smith offered prayer.

Apostle Marriner W. Merrill then laid the cornerstone and announced, "The cornerstone of the Richmond Tabernacle has now been successfully laid to the line, the plummet and the square."

Appropriate remarks were then made by President Wm. H. Lewis of the Benson stake, Architect Jos. Monson and Apostle M. W. Merrill. During the remarks of Elder Merrill he promised the people that if they would go to and erect that building within a reasonable time, God would bless them and that they should never lack homes for their families nor bread for them to eat.

Within the stone were placed a complete set of Church works, a copy of the daily Deseret News, and the Salt Lake Herald, a brief history of the building up to date, and photographs of President Joseph F. Smith and Apostle M. W. Merrill.

After the close of the ceremonies President Smith and son, Apostle Merrill, Congressman Howell, State Representative D. R. Roberts, President Lewis and President B. A. Hendricks, with many of the leading citizens of Richmond, visited the Utah Condensed Milk company's factory, which is doing much for this part of one of the best valleys on earth. The day closed with a grand ball.

PREPARED FOR DEATH.

Dickered With Undertaker About a Coffin and Then Shot Himself.

(Special to the "News.")

Butte, Mont., July 26.—Felix O'Neil, one of the best known pioneers and one of oldest characters in Butte, made arrangements with Undertaker Joseph Richards for his funeral tomorrow, and yesterday went to his ranch seven miles below this city where he blew his brains out with a 44 caliber Winchester rifle.

O'Neill had been suffering from cancer and to his friends declared that he proposed to cut this earthly career short, rather than endure a "living hell."

Undertaker Richards thought the man was jesting when he asked for the "lowest price he could bury a man for."

O'Neill fixed a muslin loop to the trigger and with his foot in the cord discharged the gun. O'Neill formerly was the sheriff of Silver Bow county.

UTAHNS IN IDAHO.

Chas. Crane Returns Home and Tells Of Salt Lakers Encountered.

Mr. Charles Crane, who is operating a rich argentiferous mine in Idaho, the Bulldog, has just returned to Salt Lake, to push to completion his new postoffice building corner on Second South and Eighth East, speaks in glowing terms of Idaho, in agricultural and mining possibilities.

Mr. Crane is part owner of the famous Bulldog mine in Custer county, the other interest being owned by Alex. Rogers of this city.

Mr. Crane today said to the "News": "The whole Salmon valley will soon be under fence, miles of which is being built every season. Utah is well represented in the valley. David Clark has a beautiful ranch, (Peirson), better known as Clark's Hot Springs. The water is highly impregnated with iron, and soda, boils out of the ground so hot, it will cook eggs, and so soft that a bath in it is absolutely delightful. Further down the valley, at the junction of the Salmon river and Valley creek, is Stanley postoffice. Here is the largest store in the county, owned by our well known townmen, Messrs. Benner and Mecham. Mr. Benner was once the superintendent of the Sacramento mine in Mercur, and Mr. Mecham, was quite an extensive operator in the camp also. These gentlemen own and operate the largest general merchandise store in Custer county, doing an immense business with all the mining camps in the vicinity. They also run a tri-weekly stage from Ketchum to Stanley postoffice, which is located in the store. Mrs. Benner and her daughter, Sadie, own and run the only hotel in the place. Mrs. Benner is also the mining recorder for this whole section.

"Messrs. Benner and Mecham are also large ranchers and have fenced in miles of splendid hay land, for hay and pasturage for their cattle; in fact, when asked the population of Stanley the reply invariably is Benner and Mecham.

"Further along the valley at Cape Horn Hot Springs is the hotel and general outfitting store of Wm. and Gus Rideout, late of Draper. These gentlemen are doing a good business, and are well pleased with the county.

"Fifteen miles from this place are groups of mines that for width, length of croppings and richness, have never been surpassed in any mining district in the state, many of which are owned by Utah men. One of the great mines is the Greyhound group, which is soon, we learn, to put up a mill. A sawmill is now on this property cutting lumber for that purpose, Gov. Wm. McConnell is the president of this company, from which much is expected. Chas. Heinhold, assayer for the Annie Laurie company, and Robert Conner, of Walker Bros.' bank, are the owners of several good claims in the district.

"Frank Bates, an old Salt Lake fireman, and Jerry Mahony, the expert telegrapher of the Short Line, have splendid property in the camp. John W. Crane and Peter Botker are now running a tunnel on the Bulldog. They also have good promising claims and last year they located a 12-foot good lode, carrying from $20 to $84 gold, 16 ounces silver, 21 per cent lead. They are keeping its locality secret until they can locate more ground.

"Wm. Bacon, well known in Utah and Nevada, and Mr. Lang, have within a few months located claims that carry over 100 ounces of silver and 60 per cent lead right on the banks of Rapid river. This ore carries good gold values, and will put them on easy street in the near future. Prospecters are going in and opening other properties. Supplies are very reasonable and the field promises much. Utah men are everywhere; all are doing well, but all are casting longing eyes towards Zion, the "Mecca of all their hopes."

Mr. Crane expects to return as soon as his health will permit.

PROF. WETZEL RETURNS.

Says National Educational Association Was Slighted at St. Louis.

Prof. William A. Wetzel, director of music in the public schools of tis city has returned home from attendance at the National Education association at St. Louis, and from Chicago where he was engaged in a course of instruction. The professor was chosen president of the music section of the association, and delivered one of the principal addresses of the convention. He regrets that the convention was held at St. Louis, as the world's fair attractions were so strong that the teachers found it hard to attend to business. Moreover, the citizens of St. Louis paid no attention to the association and its convention, so that the members were left to get about as best they could. This was in marked conrast with the welcome and warm reception accorded the Educational association when it held its convention at Boston. Prof. Wetzel will busy himself until school opens with preparation for the fall term work. Mrs. Wetzel is still visiting at her former home in Portland, Or.

Recuperative Effect.

Considered with reference to its recuperative effect, there is not so much good in the ordinary vacation as there is in a single bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. The latter costs $1; the former—well, that depends; how much did yours cost last year?

Hood's Sarsaparilla refreshes the tired blood, sharpens the dulled appetite, restores the lost courage.

RACE DONE?

Not a Bit of It.

A man who thought his race was run made a food find that brought him back to perfect health.

"One year ago I was unable to perform any labor in fact I was told by my physicians that they could do nothing further for me. I was fast sinking away, for an attack of grip had left my stomach so weak it could not digest any food sufficient to keep me alive.

"There I was just wasting away, growing thinner every day and weaker, really being snuffed out simply because I could not get any nourishment from food.

"Then my sister got after me to try Grape-Nuts food which had done much good for her and she finally persuaded me and although no other food had done me the least bit of good my stomach handled the Grape-Nuts from the first and this food supplied the nourishment I had needed. In three months I was so strong I moved from Albany to San Francisco and now on my three meals of Grape-Nuts and cream every day I am strong and vigorous and do fifteen hours work.

"I believe the sickest person in the world could do as I do, eat three meals of nothing but Grape-Nuts and cream and soon be on their feet again in the flush of best health like me.

"Not only am I in perfect physical health again but my brain is stronger and clearer than it ever was on the old diet. I hope you will write to the names I send you about Grape-Nuts for I want to see my friends well and strong.

"Just think that a year ago I was dying but today, although I am over 55 years of age most people take me to be less than 40, and I feel just as young as I look." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason.

Look for the little book, "The Road to Wellville" in each package.

AN ORIGINAL GOWN OF LINEN AND EMBROIDERY.

A note of elegance and originality is struck in the charming linen gown illustrated. The entire frock is prettily inserted with motifs of English embroidery applied in cart wheel designs.

There is a graceful swing to the gathered skirt, which is mounted with a deep flounce shirred and trimmed with the embroidery motifs.

The corsage bolero, which is drawn in at the waist with a ceinture of black liberty satin, is mounted upon a shirred empiecement forming the yoke and the upper part of the sleeves. The lower sleeve is applied with lace and gathers into a cuff of dentelle.

The large white straw hat is simply trimmed with a long white plume.

A ONE MINUTE HONEYMOON.

A girl wife, aged sixteen, living in a village near Aosta, Italy, is demanding a divorce by reason of her husband's desertion on the threshold of the church after the marriage ceremony.

Her husband then kissed her and said that he was called away on urgent business, but since that moment nothing has been seen or heard of him.

A divorce, however, is impossible in Italy under the circumstances of the case.

AN UNFORTUNATE POSTSCRIPT.

An amusing story is told of an old lady living in a country village who was very much lacking in education. When she wanted to write a letter the village schoolmistress was in request. One day when she had written a letter for the old lady she asked if she had anything more to say. The old lady hesitated for a few seconds and then replied: "No. Only put 'Please excuse bad writing and spelling.'"

PATENT MEDICINES.

A man that compounds or invents somethings that is just a little better than the next best thing, is certainly entitled to the best share of the profits to be derived from the sale of the article. So he patents or copyrights to protect his interests. Patented goods are good goods, poor goods are never patented. We have 30 years of trial behind us to give us the assurance that we have the best medicine compound for the cure of dyspepsia, sick-headaches, billousness, indigestion and all stomach disorders. We protect the public as well as ourselves by keeping the formula a secret, as long as we make it we know it is made right and it cures these diseases. Druggists tell us that it is the one medicine that the sale is ever on the increase. To get the best remedy for dyspepsia or indigestion ask the druggists for Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills, price 25c. per box, only one for a dose.

WHY HOT WEATHER MAKES WOMEN NERVOUS.

A Well Known Canadian Lady Sends Letter of Endorsement to Pe-ru-na.

Miss Mary Burns, 28 Spring Garden Road, Halifax, N. S., writes: "Having used Peruna for indigestion and stomach trouble and to build up a broken down system with the very best results, I am pleased to state my experience with this excellent medicine. I had been troubled with stomach trouble and poor digestion for some years, and although I tried many remedies and dieting, nothing seemed to restore my health until I used Peruna. In three months I had entirely recovered my health and strength."—Mary Burns.

Suggestions by Dr. Hartman.—How to Combat the Nervous Depression Incident to Warm Weather.

Nervousness is very common among women. This condition is due to anæmic nerve centers. The nerve centers are the reservoir for nerve vitality. These centers become bloodless for the want of proper nutrition.

This condition is especially noticeable during the warm season. Every summer an army of invalids are produced as a direct result of weak nervous systems.

This could easily be overcome by the use of Peruna. Peruna strikes at the root of the trouble by correcting the digestion. Perfect digestion furnishes increased nutrition for the nerve centers. Perfectly digested food gives these reservoirs of life a vitality which creates strong, steady nerves, and in this manner fortifies and nourishes life.

Miss Blanche Grey, a prominent young society woman of Memphis, Tenn., in a recent letter from 174 Alabama street, writes: "To a society woman whose nervous force is often taxed to the utmost from lack of rest and irregular meals, I know of nothing which is of so much benefit as Peruna. I took it a few months ago when I felt my strength giving way, and it soon made itself manifest in giving me new strength and health."—Miss Blanche Grey.

Pe-ru-na Contains no Narcotics.

One reason why Peruna has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind. Peruna is perfectly harmless. It can be used any length of time without acquiring a drug habit. Peruna does not produce temporary results. It is permanent in its effect.

It has no bad effect upon the system, and gradually eliminates catarrh by removing the cause of catarrh. There are a multitude of homes where Peruna has been used off and on for twenty years. Such a thing could not be possible if Peruna contained any drugs of a narcotic nature.
