

TAFT'S VOICE IN BAD CONDITION

Will Necessitate Rearrangement
Of Itinerary and Cutting
Out of Day Speeches.

HE HITS STRAIGHT AT BRYAN

Real Issue of Campaign Is Whether Republican Party Is Worthy of Continued Confidence.

New York, Oct. 19.—That Judge Taft's voice is in such bad condition that he will have to cancel many of his dates for speaking was indicated by Chairman Hitchcock on his return today from a morning visit with Mr. Taft at Newark, N. J. This means a rearrangement of Mr. Taft's itinerary, but it will not affect his dates in New York. He will be in this city as arranged.

The rearrangement will cut out all of Mr. Taft's day speeches and one of his night speeches. The latter is the speech which had been planned for Chicago next Saturday night. It is also expected that most of Mr. Taft's dates in West Virginia will be canceled.

Mr. Hitchcock is at work now on the West Virginia situation so far as Mr. Taft is concerned. The dates for Mr. Taft's speeches in Connecticut also may be canceled.

Dr. Alexander, the throat specialist, who is traveling with Mr. Taft, is of the opinion that his voice has been affected chiefly by his outdoor speaking. By abandoning day speeches, which were to have been made out of doors, it is believed that Mr. Taft will be able to meet all of his night engagements, with the exception of that at Chicago.

Mr. Hitchcock said that he never saw the candidate looking better and that Mr. Taft is more hopeful of the result than he has been at any time since the campaign began. He will rest in Ohio Wednesday.

Chairman Hitchcock believes, from information that he has received, that there is a fighting chance in Missouri for the Republican national ticket. Mr. Hitchcock expects to go to Chicago within the next five days.

Gen. O. O. Howard of Vermont came to headquarters today to discuss the stump for Taft and Sherman. He was assigned to the campaign in Ohio, from Oct. 23 to Oct. 27, and in Indiana from Oct. 28 to Oct. 31.

HITS STRAIGHT AT BRYAN.
Baltimore, Oct. 19.—Hitting straight at his opponent, Mr. Bryan, with even more force than in the north, west or south, Judge Taft today carried his campaign to the very doors of New York City, and gave a clear indication of the character of the speeches he will make in the Empire state next week.

Mr. Taft spent three hours in Newark, an hour in Wilmington and the entire evening in Baltimore. He encountered tremendous crowds, and enthusiasm spontaneous and ample. His extended efforts of the day were at Newark, Elizabeth and Baltimore. At Newark, he gave attention to all the issues save labor. In his Elizabeth speech he dwelt solely on the labor question, and tonight he combined the Newark and Elizabeth speeches.

The zest with which Delaware received the candidate resulted in curtailing the Wilmington speech to a few lines.

"I can only say to you," he remarked, "that from what I have seen in New Jersey today, and what I have seen in Delaware today, and what I saw in the south and west the last three weeks, I am going to be elected, and it would give me the greatest pride if in that electoral vote I could have the three from Delaware."

THE REAL ISSUE.

"The real issue of the campaign is," said Mr. Taft tonight, "whether you think the Republican party, by what it has done in the last 12 years, is entitled to your confidence. Even if it has done something to displease you, is it not much to be preferred to the Democratic party under any circumstances, considering the history of that party and considering the peculiarities of the leadership of that party?"

The acts of the Republican party were then recounted. Establishing the gold standard, repealing the Wilson-Gorman tariff bill and enacting the Dingley tariff, fighting the Spanish war.

"We put the Cubans on their feet, as we supposed. They stayed there for three years; then they fell on their knees and we had again to go and help them to their feet."

"In Porto Rico we have made a million people rejoice every night and every day and thank God that they are under the prosperity that the Stars and Stripes have given."

"Then we took up the Philippines—the hardest problem that he had to solve as the result of the war. Today half a million Filipino school children are reading, writing and reciting in English; we have given them practical control over the central government and full control over the provincial and municipal governments."

"We took up the Panama canal, which for 400 years since the time of Charles the Fifth, had been the subject of discussion. Under the present administration there has been an organization of brains, machinery and hands in such a way that in the course of five or six years anyone who knows about the work can promise its completion so that our navy will sail from the Caribbean to the Pacific."

QUICKENING OF CONSCIENCE.

Mr. Taft next took what he termed the moral awakening, respecting the conduct of large business enterprises, resulting in a "quickenings of the American conscience."

"I don't think from the statements of Mr. Bryan," he added, "that no progress has been made, but the progress is truly remarkable. Through the passage of the rate bill the railroads themselves have abandoned re-

The following prescription for the cure of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles has no doubt been filled millions of times, viz: Mild Extra Dandelion Compound Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at little cost and are mixed by shaking well in a bottle.

The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime, drinking a full tumblerful of water after each dose. It is stated that this remedy is a positive remedy for kidney trouble and lame back, weak bladder and urinary difficulties, especially of the elderly people, and one of the best things to be used in rheumatic affections, relieving the aches and pains and reducing swellings.

A well-known authority states that this mixture acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidney, cleanses these sponge-like organs and gives them power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood which is the cause of rheumatism.

If your back or sides ache and you suspect kidney trouble it would be wise to try this for a few days.

bating, have abandoned unlawful discriminations and have taken away the chief instrumentality by which unprivileged trusts and monopolies have been maintained."

Judge Taft followed this with his endorsement of the combination for legalistic purposes. He said:

"The combination of capital is just as essential to our progress as the combination of the parts of a machine, and the fact that the capital is great and the number of plants needed are many is no reason for denouncing them as illegal unless they are used for an illegal purpose. The normal legal use of such combination is to reduce the cost of production by inducing economy in the management of the capital. It is only when undue means are taken to stifle competition that they cross the line of legality and that they ought to be restrained and punished. Therefore, the Republican administration have directed their attention to prosecuting the exact evil, which is the attempt to monopolize."

WHAT BRYAN PROPOSES.

"Mr. Bryan, on the other hand, proposes to take steps which shall destroy the entire business which we possess, that we shall abolish the tariff on what are called trust-made articles. If you are going to take off the tariff on trust-made articles you are going to destroy the trust right; there will be no difficulty about that, and you are going to throw out of employment the millions of men engaged as wage earners in those great businesses, and you also are going to destroy the independent competitors of the trusts, for they are just as dependent on the tariff, indeed, more so, than the trusts themselves."

TAFT'S TARIFF VIEWS.

Mr. Taft's expressions on the tariff were:

"The Republican party is in favor of, and is pledged to, a thorough and genuine revision of the tariff on a well-understood principle and that is that every industry, every product of the farm, the mine or the factory in this country shall be protected against foreign competition by a customs duty equal to the difference in the cost of production abroad. That includes three elements, and perhaps more, but three certainly—the cost of material, the cost of labor and the cost of the manufacturer's profit or the interest on capital. You take those three elements abroad and add them together and these three elements here and add them together and take the difference and that measures what the customs duty ought to be. The normal operation would be to reduce the tariff so that it shall continue to be the difference between the cost of production abroad and the cost of production here, but so that no legitimate industry in this country shall suffer, and where peculiar circumstances have prevented that reduction in the cost of production here, the tariff shall be revised and elevated, if need be, in order to make the same measure of protection. But as I say, the general result will probably be a revision downward."

"But, it is said, the protected interests own the party by contributions to the campaign fund, and therefore, that the Republican party does not give us an honest and thorough revision. Well, I am somewhat familiar with the total of the campaign fund, and I am able to advise everyone that there is not enough there to debauch either a part of the people or a very small body of persons, and that if anyone is aching to contribute to something that needs support he has the opportunity by sending it to the campaign fund."

The important result of the conference this morning between the candidate and National Chairman Hitchcock will be to eliminate Connecticut from the itinerary of the candidate and to curtail his New York itinerary so that he will have to make at most but two long speeches each day of the final days of the campaign, which he will spend in the Empire state.

The Indiana itinerary of the candidate, which will be in operation Thursday, was announced tonight. He will speak on Thursday, Friday and Saturday night. Tomorrow night, Mr. Taft will speak in Cumberland, Md., and through West Virginia on his way to Cincinnati, where he will arrive Wednesday morning for one day's rest.

WHY COLDS ARE DANGEROUS.

Because you have contracted ordinary colds and recovered from them without treatment of any kind, do not for a moment imagine that colds are not dangerous. Everyone knows that pneumonia and chronic catarrh have their origin in a common cold. Consumption is not caused by a cold but the cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs that would not otherwise have found lodgment. It is the same with all infectious disease. Diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles and whooping cough are much more likely to be contracted when the child has a cold. You will see from this that there is real danger lurks in a cold than in any other of the common ailments. The easiest and quickest way to cure a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The many remarkable cures effected by this preparation have made it a staple article of trade over a large part of the world. For sale by all druggists.

CLAUDIA HAINS GETS NO ALIMONY

Her Request That She be Given
The Custody of Her Children
Also Denied.

HER ALLEGED CONFESSION.

After Taking Drink of Whisky Signed
It at Her Husband's Order—Not Guilty of Any Impropriety.

New York, Oct. 19.—The application of Mrs. Claudia Hains for alimony and counsel fees to defend a suit for divorce brought by Capt. Peter C. Hains, Jr., awaiting trial for killing William E. Annis, as denied by Justice Carr in Brooklyn today.

Mr. Hains' request that she be granted the custody of her children also was denied. Annis was named as co-respondent in Capt. Hains' suit for divorce.

Mrs. Hains' affidavit in reply to her husband's divorce suit was made public today. In it she declared that when Capt. Hains returned from San Francisco to Fort Hancock on Sandy Hook on May 29 last, he accused her of infidelity with William E. Annis, basing his allegations on a letter which Capt. Hains said he had received from his brother, Thomas Jenkins Hains. Mrs. Hains denied the accusation, and at her suggestion Capt. Hains invited Annis to his home, after which all three went riding in Annis' automobile.

After they returned, Mrs. Hains avers, the captain and Annis sat up until 3:30 a. m. drinking and smoking and seemed very friendly. She declares Capt. Hains did not show his brother's letter to Annis, but the latter, to explain the charges. On the following day, Mrs. Hains said, her husband went to call on his father, Gen. P. C. Hains. He returned at 2 a. m. on June 1, and, pulling her out of bed, again accused her of having had relations with Annis and threatening to shoot her.

Gen. Hains called that day, Mrs. Hains asserted, and upon hearing the captain's accusations, said he would shoot Annis on sight. Later that day Capt. Hains' brother, T. Jenkins Hains, called with a lawyer and asked her a lot of questions while she was dazed. At the solicitation of Thomas Jenkins Hains, Mrs. Hains said she took a drink of whisky, and then, at her husband's order, signed a paper which was not read to her. This, she believes, was the confession which they said she made. The post surgeon and some friends came and treated her for a while over the rye which Mrs. Hains said she received from the captain. Early the following morning, Capt. Hains and his brother entered and with a pistol drove them out.

Continuing, Mrs. Hains denied that she had been guilty of any impropriety with Mr. Annis, and concluded:

"I believe that my husband's act and the charges which he has made against me have been prompted by his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, who threatened to injure me for refusing his advances. He endeavored several times while the husband was away to make advances, going so far as to enter my room. I repulsed him, and he declared that he would be revenged."

S.S.S. CURES SKIN DISEASES

When the blood is pure and healthy, the skin will be soft, smooth, and free from all blemishes and eruptions; but when some acid humor takes root in the circulation, its presence is quickly manifested by some form of skin disease. The skin receives its necessary nourishment and strength from the blood. When, however, this vital fluid becomes a humor-laden stream, it can no longer preserve the healthy, natural appearance of the skin, but by its acid, impure nature continually irritates and inflames the delicate tissues and fibres and keeps the cuticle in a diseased and disfigured condition. External applications cannot reach the blood, and therefore are beneficial only for their ability to reduce inflammation, and assist in keeping the parts clean. To cure any skin trouble the blood must be purified of the humors that are causing the trouble. S. S. S. drives out the humors from the blood so that the skin, instead of being irritated and diseased, is nourished by a healthy, cooling stream. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation and removes every particle of impure matter, all acids and humors, and restores the blood to its normal, pure condition, thereby curing every form of skin disease or affection. Book on skin diseases and any medical advice free to all who write.
