SUCCESSOR TO SENATOR KEARNS.

Expressions from the Four Men Who Are Prominently Mentioned for His Place.

CLASMANN IS A CANDIDATE.

Ex-Congressman Sutherland, Hon. W. S. McCorulck and Judge Bartch All Interviewed on Subject.

Just now there are four prominent cifizens of Utah mentioned as probable successors to Thomas Kearns in the upper branch of the national legislature: They are ex-Congressman Sulererland, Hon. W. S. McCornick, Judge George W. Bartch and Mayor William Glasmann. All were seen by representatives of the "News" today, and what they said follows herewith. Mr. Sutherland, replying to a query by a representative of this paper, said:

"Certainly I am a candidate. I have been a candidate for more than a year past, and have made my campaign before the people of the state with that object in view, and will go before the Legislature with the purpose of election.'

HON. W. S. MCCORNICK.

Hon, W. S. McCornick when interviewed, was loth to discuss the subject. However, he said that the honor was not such a one as to be lightly put aside. But like all other important gifts of similar character that come from the representatives of the people or from the people direct, it should be tendered and not avaracious. ly grasped for. As stated in the "News' a few days ago strong personal friends are urging him to become an active and avowed candidate. He may later act upon their advice. For the present he is simply playing a diplomatic game, or rather, he is wisely waiting to look the situation over in all of its details. In the meantime his supporters will en-deavor to convince him that he should not long delay a formal announce-ment of his candidacy.

JUDGE BARTCH'S STATEMENT.

Judge Bartch was asked if it was true that it wase his intention to make an effort to succeed to the position now occupied by Senator Kearns, from whose shoulders the mantle will fall on whose shoulders the mantle will fail on the fourth of March next. His answer was prompt and plain. Said he: "Tes, it is true. I shall endeavor to become one of the senators from Utah. I shall, however, enter into no scram-ble for the place. If I get it, I want it to come to me in a proper and dig-nified manner. To thus secure it. I shall do my best, and if elected I can only say that I will serve the people of Utah as faithfully as possible. To this end I will have the co-operation of many influential eastern friends, as well as strong friends at home. Both

Ringing Noises In the ears (how disagreeable they are!) become chronic and cause much uneasiness, and even temporary distraction.

They are signs of catarrh; other signs are droppings in the throat, nasal sounds of the voice, impaired taste, smell and hearing.

Catarrh is a constitutional disease, originating in impure blood, and requires a constitutional remedy.

"I suffered from astarrh in the head and loss of appetite and sleep. My blood was thin and I felt bad all over most of the time. I decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla and now have no symptoms of catarrh, have a good appetite, and sleep well. I heartily recommend Hood's Sarsaparlila to all my friends." R. Long, California Junetion, Iowa.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over twenty years and tried various remedies without finding a cure. Seeing statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilia I resolved to try it and four bottles entirely cured me. I have never been troublad with catarrh since, and, at the age of 74 years, am enloying excellent health." WILLIAM SHER-MAN, 1030 6th St., Milwaukee, Wis.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cures catarrh of the nose, throat, bowels, etc., removes all its effects, and builds up the whole system.

Meanwhile the "Americans" are doing business at the old stand.

ERICKSON STILL LEADS.

Looks Like Democratic Candidate for Judge Has Been Elected.

Returns from the Seventh judicial district still indicate that W. D. Livingston has been defeated for district judge, his opponent, Ferdinand Erick-son, thus far being 30 votes in the lead. Mr. Livingston made up some of his losses in Carbon county, where he was well supported, and it was hoped by his friends, that his gain in San Juan would be sufficient to offset the Demo-cratic candidate's small majority. Re-turns from Monticello, however, give Mr. Erickson three votes more than Mr. Erickson three votes more than Mr. Livingston, thus leaving him still behind. There are three more towns yet to hear from, but how they will go is just now uncertain. There are chances of a contest if Mr. Livingston is defeated by but a small majority.

REPUBLICAN HURRAH

Two of a Missourian and has to be shown, let him go to the Salt Lake Theater on Tuesday night next and he convinced; for he it known, local Republicans pro-pose to have the biggest time in their history on that orgasion. As stated in last night's "News," arrangements are being made for a grand hurrah or ratification, the same to consist of speeches by party orators, a choice program of music and a few other hings not set definitely arranged for. things hol yet dennicely arranged for. That it will be a big time, goes with-out saying, and that many will take advantage of the opportunity to jubi-late, is a matter also beyond question. The committee has been working with the railroads for a day or two and has succeeded in securing cheap rates, these on the San Pedro from the south being as follows: From Nehi, $2.50: Payson, $1.50: Spanish Fork, $1.40: Springville and Provo, $1.25; Pleasant Grove and American Fork, $1; Bingham Junction and Sandy, 50 cents; Murray, 25 cents. # LASSOED ONE ANIMAL EASILY.

But it Rag Away With Him and His Pony and He Thinks He Was Lucky to Escape Alive.

Gila City, Ariz., Saturday .-- A report from Topeka that an expedition may be organized to round up the wild camels of this region has roused much nterest here says a New York Herald pecial.

There are several droves of these camels in Arizona. They are frequenty seen on the borders of the great salt desert. If it had been possible to capture and domesticate the animals they would have been put to practical use by the people of this section before this. The men who have attempted to do what members of the Topeka expedition now purpose doing met with failure and none care to go through the experience again. "Them Estern fellers can round up all the camels they want to. I don't want no more of it in mins.' was the remark which "Clem" Miller made when told of the project. Miller has a ranch near the Moxico border between fills alw and Yuna "I wouldn't mind Gila city and Yuma, "I wouldn't mind being off at a safe distance when the round-up takes place, but excuse me from participatin' in it. It would be fun for the onlooker, but awful for the ther feller. Maybe they do use camels of the 'Sahary' descrt, but they must be a different breed from these 'Arizony' animals.

WANTED TO USE THEM IN FREIGHTING.

"When I started my ranch a few cars ago I thought it would be a good is to rope a few of these camels that yoam around here an' use em to bring my ranch supplies over from Yuma. I also had an idea that I could establish a regular line of these 'beasts of buiden, as my school book used to call them, and do a regular frieghting business with them between the towns f Arizony, 1 wasn't no tendercoot hen 1 struck this part of the country. I'd lived too long in West Texas and in the Apache region of New Mexico not to knew how to hold my own on the range or in the mountains. I'd never met a wild animal that could get the best of me in a square deal. But, to tell the truth, I had never con-sidered the camels as being wild animals. The only camels I ever seen until I came to Arizony was them that are carried around in circuses back

East. They were tame enough. Well, one morning, four years ago, never before witnessed. The camel didn't seem to be running, but I'll be blamed if it didn't carry my pony along at what seemed to me to be tha-speed of a locomotive. My pony sat speed of a locomotive. My pony sat down on his haunches, for a short distance, but the dragging effects were too disagreeable and he managed to get up, and the way that camel made him run was marvellous. The pony simply had to run or be dragged to death. The rope was looped around the pommel of my saddle and was drawn so tight that it was impossible for me to loosen it, I felt in my pockets for my knife to cut the rope, but it wasn't there. "There was only one thing for me to wasn't there. "There was only one thing for me to do, and that was to get off that cow pony and leave him to his fate. It seemed to me that he was being pulled along by that camel at the rate of a mile a minute when I dropped off into the sand. The fall shock me up consid-erable, but I was thankful I got out of it alice. I sat up and watched the camel and pony disappear in the far distance. I looked back and saw my three cowboys coming out toward me. None of the other camels was in sight. "One of the Texans told me he had roped a camel and was being carried

GLASMANN A CANDIDATE.

Mayor Glasmann of Ogden was in Salt Lake today on business. Inciden-tally he saw some of his political frieneds. In fact he saw quite a num-ber of them. To most of them he talk-ed on the senatorial situation. To the Descret News he spoke on the same subject, saying: "I am a candidate for the senate, and shall go into the con-test with the solid vote of Weber coun-ty behind me, as well as some others. I expect to win the high honor, and if I succeed it will be my aim to do credit to the state of Utah."

Texans and the other : Mexican whom I picked up in Senora. His name was Manuel. He was the only one of the party who objected to going. He hung back and repeated-ly told me that the camels were 'no bueno,' and I had to give him a good 'cussin' in my best Spaninsh before I could get him to hunch up to the game It was nigh on to noon when we first caught sight of a drove of camels. There were five of the animals feedin' on some desert plains near one of the big sand lunes about seventeen miles north of my ranch. They were probably a half a mile away from us when they first saw us. They rose their heads and seemed to sniff the air a few times and then leisurely disappeared behind the sand dunes. I divided my party into two parts. Manuel and I started around the sand dune one way and the two Texans went the other way. We were to slip up on the camels and rope as many as we could. This plan worked all right as far is it went.

"Manuel and I crept around the big pile of sand on our horses so carefully that we got within a few yards of three of the camels before we saw them or they saw us. They were standing in a nook of the sand dune.

"The surprise was mutual, but I recovered from the shock before the camels and let go my coll of rope with my old time speed and accuracy. The rope settled far down over the neck and chest of the animal before the rope became fully stretched. My, cow pony settled back on his haunches, but, to my surprise, the camel walked right off with him.

AT THE BATTLE OF YALU.

There was a fellow to the right of me somewhat up the stream, who was also pushing ahead. Suddenly he turn-ed a somersault in the stream; the stream brought him down rather close to where I was wading, and he gained his feet almost in front of me. He seemed to be dazed for a fraction of a second. He raised his hand to his forehead, from which blood was drip-ping. It was very evident that a spent bullet hit him upon the forhead and knocked him down into the water. He dug his figners into the bullet hole. The bullet did not strike him square against the forehead, it glanced around his head, idercing the skin only, and stopped just above the temple. He stuck his inger into the hole and took out the bullet. He looked at it curfous-ly for about a tenth of a second and put it into his pocket and rushed straight ahead .-- Japanese Officer, in slie's Magazine.
