EVENING NEWS.

Thursday . . July 20, 1882.

BY TELEGRAPH.

PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

FORTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 19.—The executive session terminated at 4.45, when the doors were opened.

Sewell presented a communication from Major-General McQuiside, transmitting a resolution adopted unanimously at a recent annual meeting of the Society of the Fifth Army Corps of Detroit, asking that justice be done General Fitz John Porter. Mr. Sewell gave notice that he would call up the bill for General Porter's relief the first Monday in December next.

Allison moved the present consideration of the House joint resolution continuing until July 31st the resolution of June 30th, providing temporarily for the expenditures of the government.

Upon suggestion of Garland, the joint resolution was referred to the committee on appropriations.

On motion of Sherman the land bill was taken up.

A motion to adjourn was defeated by a party vote, the republicans voting no.

The question was upon Beck's amendment reducing the tax on manufactured tobacco.

Ingalls said he would favor the reduction to 12 cents.

Beck modified his amendment accordingly.

A large number of letters and telegrams protesting against the reduction from manufacturers and dealers were read by various members.

Farley read telegrams from California dealers asking that the rebate clause in the House bill be retained.

Without action the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 19. — The House resumed consideration of the South Carolina contested election case of Smalls vs. Tillman.

Hoar pointed out the boundary lines of South Carolina under the present redistricting for congressional purposes. His was not jerrymandering it was villainy.

Atherton replied that it was just as fair as the jerrymandering in the fourteenth district of Ohio, which is to inflict on Congress another of the Horr family.

Horr replied that when Congress was inflicted with his brother he could take care of himself.

The Alabama case of Smith vs. Shelly was then taken up, yeas 145, nays 1, and Ramsey, of Massachusetts, having taken the floor, the House adjourned.

AMERICAN.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, 19.—The prospects for the internal revenue bill are poor. If many changes are made in the Senate, the House will probably let the bill fall for the session, and adjourn by the 1st of August.

Kelly is said to be very despondent over the fate of his bill and with the prospects regarding the tariff commission. He recognizes the fact that he missed the opportunity of his lifetime in neglecting to go to work on the tariff himself, as the head of the ways and means committee.

Reports from Keifer's district in Ohio show that the democrats are pouring in money to help defeat him. They don't want him in Congress.

Nominations: Wm. Hale, of Iowa, for governor of the Territory of Wyoming; J. Schuler Crosby, of New York, for governor of the Territory of Montana; Wilson W. Hoover, of California, for associate justice of the supreme court of the Territory of Arizona.

The committee on Pacific railroads has decided to postpone until December next the further consideration of the bill to aid in the improvement of the navigation of the Mississippi River.

The Navy Bill.

Senator Miller has introduced an amendment to the navy appropriation bill, which is approved by the committee on naval affairs, to take the place of the clauses in the House bill reducing the staff of the navy. The amendment provides for the appointment of a commission of three members and two Senators, the latter to be designated by the President of the Senate, the three Representatives to be designated by the Speaker. The Secretary of the Navy and the three officers of the navy, to be designated by the President, to consider all matters relating to the proper reduction of the official list of the navy and the adjustment of the several grades and corps thereof. Said commission to report to Congress at the next session. The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to detail an officer to act as secretary, to employ such clerks and stenographers as may be necessary, and the commission has power to send for persons and papers.

Agricultural Statistics.

Under a recent appropriation for the Agricultural Department a central office for the collection of European crop statistics will be established under the direction of the Commissioner of Agriculture, with headquarters in London, at the office of the U. S. Consul General, and Edward J. Moffat, of New York, has been appointed special statistical agent in charge of the work. Mr. Moffat has also been appointed by the Department of State Deputy Consul General at London.

Commissioner Loring has given instructions for the organization of a system of crop reporting in Europe, intended to give a true representation of the state of the growing crops and the results of the harvests.

Prize Fighters Professional Paradise.

NEW YORK, 19.—Tug Wilson, yesterday, was without a scratch or contusion, and spoke somewhat contemptiously of Sullivan's hard-hitting.

I think, he said, that I can knock him out in a square fight, with bare knuckles. I am anxious to meet him in the ring, and a match will be arranged at once, if possible. Return to England? No, sir, never. I am going to settle down here, and declare my intention of becoming a citizen at once. If I fought all my life in England, I would not be able to make as much money as I made last night.

This seems to be a paradise of professional pugilists. And it will be many a long day before they catch me on the other side of the Atlantic again; last night's experience settled it. I was treated magnificently; everything was square and above board.

Business.

Clearing house exchanges show the following gains and losses in business transactions this week over the corresponding week last year: Losses—New York, 4.2; Boston, 14.6; Philadelphia, 0.2; Baltimore, 4; Louisville, 15.8; Providence, 4.1; Hartford 10.6; Indianapolis, 1.6. Gains—Chicago, 6.7; Cincinnati, 11.1; St. Louis, 13.1; San Francisco, 14.1; Pittsburg, 7.5; New Orleans, 1.7; Milwaukee, 17.6; Kansas City, 60.3; Cleveland, 29.6; New Haven, 6.8; Columbus, 22.5; Worcester, 6.4; Peoria, 8.2, Springfield, 2.6; Lowell, 32.0; Syracuse, 45.0; Memphis, 13.4.

The Public says of these figures: The favorable indications which were observed in the exchanges last week appear still more clearly in the returns for the second week in July.

It is true that the daily average of transactions is not as large, outside of New York, as it was during the broken first week of the month, but this is natural, because of the large monthly, quarterly and half yearly payments. The exchanges of the second week more correctly represent the present volume of business irrespective of such settlements, and are so large that very favorable inferences are justified. It is really astonishing that the transactions continue so enormous. The great strikes have lasted for weeks or months; foreign commerce is materially depressed though large crops are believed to be in sight, the movement of new crops is hardly begun. We are in the intermediate period of commercial doldrums, so to speak. Last year's scanty supplies have been nearly exhausted, but the favoring breezes that new and ample crops would bring, have not quite reached us. In spite of all these things, the exchanges for the second week of July exceed $200,000,000. Outside of New York, we cannot reconcile these returns with any theory of stagnation of business. Speculation, it is true, has been unnaturally active, and this may account for the large exchanges at some chief cities. The transfer of business from other and older points explains the heavy transactions in a few cases, as at Kansas City. It would be more satisfactory if the dealings were larger at Boston and New York. The four Atlantic seaports necessarily suffer at present from lack of grain to move, and all business in New York has been much retarded by the strike of freight handlers; but the continuance of transactions on a scale so large, considering all causes of depression and temporary shrinkage that exists, strongly indicates that the general condition of business is surprisingly sound and satisfactory. If present hopes are realized in ample crops this fall, the principal danger will be that the country will go wild again with prosperity.

Collision of Steamers.

NEW YORK, 19.—The steamer Alhambra, from this port for Halifax, came in collision with the steamer Rhode Island, at 2 o'clock this morning. Both vessels were damaged but not seriously. They proceeded to New York for repairs.

Compromised.

An amicable arrangement being effected, Mrs. Laban Berger, sister of Cornelius J. Vanderbilt, withdrew her objections, and his will is to be admitted to probate.

Here Fast Trotters.

CHICAGO, 19. — The California stables are all in good order, but Hickox claims that St. Julien is out of condition and not working well. Horsemen say that Eva and Eureka, California three-year olds, will do fine work this season. Eva showed a 2.22½ gait for one quarter mile while practising this morning. Horsemen think Trinket likely to win the race on Friday.

Quarantine Regulations.

LITTLE ROCK, 19.—At a large meeting of the Little Rock Corn Exchange to-day, a resolution was adopted regretting the failure of Congress to make the necessary appropriation to defray the expenses of keeping up the quarantine on the Mississippi river against the spread of yellow fever and other diseases.

Illinois Central Committee.

CHICAGO, 19.—The Republican State Central committee, to-day, elected A. M. Jones, chairman, and Dan Shepherd, secretary. Personally these gentlemen are stalwarts and partisans to Senator Logan.

Flax and Hemp.

SARATOGA, 19.— The flax and hemp producers and spinners at a meeting to-day, favored the keeping of the tariff at the present rates on flax, jute, hemp and raw material, and adding to the rates on manufactured goods.

Storm.

BOSTON, 19.—There was a heavy thunder storm this afternoon. For half an hour the rain fell in torrents. The damage by water in the lower part of the city is very great. The sewers overflowed and the basements were filled.

At 187 West street, New York, is the Erie Ticket Office, presided over by Mr. C. V. V. Ward, who thus writes: "Some months ago I had rheumatism in my right arm, and was unable to raise it. I was advised by a friend to use St. Jacobs Oil. I did so, and on the second day I felt greatly relieved. I continued to use it, and before the second bottle had been exhausted my arm was perfectly well.
