Chowping.-We were told to-uny that the and, city prison keeper, Mr. Jonathan Needham, would take it as quite a favor if members of the legal fraternity in search of a case would not crowd la to see prisoners all at one time. When a robbery or such crime occurs, it keeps Jonathan trotting to let the lawyers into the offered by certain parties, for the apprehen sil to sas the culprits. BURGLARY. - About two o'clock this morning the billiard hall of Mr. Charles Trowbridge, on [East Temple Street, was burgiariously entered by two men, named C. H. Marion and Henry Horton, and robbed of thirty billiard coes, a silver waiter, or tray, over a dozen boxes of cigars, and about $60 in gold coin.

It appears that Henry Heath, who is employed by the business men of the block where the Billiard Hall is situated, heard about the above mentioned time, a 'noise inside the hall, and felt convinced that it had been entered by burglars. He immediately communicated the intelligence to officers C. Ringwood and A. Smith, and then ran down the lane to the back of the premises and endeavored to get in at a back door, of which he keeps a key, but found that the burglars had fastened it on the inside. He then ran to another entrance, and in the meantime those inside had taken the alarm, got outside and ran towards the residence of Mr. Henry Horne, in the Fourteenth Ward, betly pursued by Mr. Heath and the two officers before named, the former taking the lead. As Mr. Heath approached the house he heard the sound of splashing, from the direction of the well, and saw one of the men running in front of the house, to whom he presented a pishad been entered by burglars. He immeof the house, to whom he presented a pistol, stopping him; this was Horton. The other man, Marion, was also arrested immediately afterwards, and both were taken to the City Hall. The case was set for examples that a Harrocco. this atter ave been renting the house of Mr. Horne, Marion, it seems, is an old hand at such business. It will be remembered that a few months since he was charged, in connection with a man named Lewis and another person, with picking a gentleman's pocket at Richards' skating rink, and was held to answer, we think, in $3,000 bonds. It may be well to state, in connection with this, that his principal bondsman on that occasion was Nad Boyle, the man who. occasion was Ned Doyle, the man who, a short time since, was killed in the Revere House Saloon by Beegan. It may therefore be considered that his bonds are, to say the least, exceedingly doubtfut and shaky. The billiard cues were afterwards found to the wall which accounted for the main the sale wall which accounted for the sales to the sales that the sale wall which accounted for the sales to the sales to the sales the sales to the sa in the well, which accounted for the splash ing noise heard by Mr. Heath. The silver tray was also recovered, but we understan the cigars have not yet been found.

We understand that Horton and Marion

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

Cleanse the Vittaled Blood whenever you Cleanse the Vittated Blood whenever find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples.
