Mrs. Julia P. M. Farnsworth Also Speaks at Length on Same Subject At Relief Society Conference.

The afternoon and closing session of the Relief society conference convened in the Assembly hall, commencing at 2 p. m. yesterday. It was the first time that the organization has been in session two successive days, and each meeting was more largely attended than its predecessor. Only a few empty seats were seen during the afternoon of Friday. A number of spirited addresses were A number of spirited addresses were delivered, and the musical exercises again were very interesting. By special request, Mrs. Lizzie Thomas Edward ang "Daughters of Zion Rejoice Evermore." Robert H. Siddoway rendered the solo. "No Cross, No Crown," Miss Clairabel Gardiner sang "Face to Face," and the hymns, "Oh ye mountains high" and "The time is far spent," were rendered by the congregation. Mrs. Priscilla P. Jennings offered the invocation and Mrs. Ruth May Fox propounced the benediction.

Mrs. Emily S Richards said the intention of the Prophet Joseph Smith in organizing the Relief society was not only for the benefit of women, but welfare of the entire human for the welfare of the entire human family.

One great phase of women's work in Utah and her sister states of Idaho, Wyoming and Colorado, said Mrs.Richards, is the exercise of the franchise. A few women are alive to a sense of the responsibility of enfranchisement, but the majority are not. All should be active along these lines. The movements by women in public affairs have for the most part been in the interest of humane subjects, the care of children and kindness to animals. The enly trouble is that the sex has not asked or demanded more rights in the matter of public affairs.

In conclusion Mrs. Richards read an excerpt from a letter written by Rev. Anna Shaw, president of the National Woman's suffrage association, calling upon the women of states where female suffrage is enjoyed, to sound aspirants for national convention as to their attitude towards woman's suffrage for the entire nation.

the entire nation.

MRS. JULIA FARNSWORTH.

Mrs. Julia P. M. Farnsworth spoke Mrs. Julia P. M. Farnsworth spoke at length on the subject of temper-ance. A sketch was given of the life and labors of Misa Frances Wil-lard, the noted worker in the W. C.

The speaker strongly admonished women to become active in politics to the extent of seeing that only temperate men are elected to public of-fice, and that legislators shall be chosen who will see to it that laws are passed regulating the liquor traffic, even to the extent of prohibition. Strong drink is fast becoming a menace to the nation, and Utah is by no means free from its contaminating influences. Such a condition should not be permitted to remain, for this state should not be only the one whit behind should not be one whit behind the foremost of her sisters in the Union.

MRS. NANCY PUGMIRE.

Prest, Nancy Pugmire reported the Ecar Lake stake Relief society, which is composed of 29 ward organizations. The lady has a splendid voice for public speaking and at once won the recognition of her listeners.

MRS. CARRIE THOMAS.

MRS. MARTHA TINGEY.

Mrs. Martha H. Tingey, general superintendent of the Y. L. M. I. A., asked if every woman present was really converted to the two great prin-dples of woman's suffrage and temperance. No one can properly teach a principle, she said, who is not thoroughly imbued with the principle. MRS. EMMELINE B. WELLS.

The women who have lived and la-ored in the Relief society are as great and as deserving of honor as were the women of the Bible, with the sligle exception of the mother of the Son of God," declared Mrs. Emmeline

Speaking of the spread of Relief soclety work, Mrs. Wells stated that 26

FARMERS ARE HARVESTING.

Prest, Andrew Kimball of St. Joseph Stake Talks of Arizona.

President Andrew Kimball of the St. Joseph stake, Arizona, is one of the carly conference visitors in the city, comine directly from his home in Thatcher. While the weather here is almost an ideal spring to Utah people, the cold nights and mornings and not any too warm hours of sunshine are in striking contrast to the almost mid-simmer climate conditions of the territory to the south. In Graham county the first crop of hay is almost ready for the inower, other crops are well advanced, and it will be harvest time there nearly as early as Utah farmers shall have completed planting. "Never were conditions more favorable for bounteous harvests and prosperity in general among our people in mouthern central Arizona," says Mr. Kimball, "Copper mining is gradually increasing arcund us, thus adding to loarkets for our products, and in all the people are blessed materially as well as spiritually," carly conference visitors in the city,

AWARDS CONTRACT

Pat Moran Will Pave First South With Two Grades of Asphalt.

KENNEDY MAY SUE CITY.

His Claim for Extra Compensation May Get "American" Administration Into a Legal Controversy.

The board of public works, at its meeting last evening, carried out the instructions of the city council and awarded the contract for the paving of First South street from Second to Thirteenth East. The intersections will be paved with California asphalt, while Utah asphalt will be used for the balance of the work. P. J. Moran got the contract, and he is to complete the job in 440 days, at the figures submitted in his bid, at the rate of $225,000 for Utah asphalt, and $181,000 for the California article.

Bids for sewer extensions were opened for extension 198 (Dunbar avenue): sidewalk extension 130 (Pierpont street), and for cross walks. The lowest bidders upon the various jobs, to whom the contracts were awarded, were as follows:

Sewer extension 198—J. D. Hanley, $1.66 a linear foot.

Sidewalk extension 127—S. Birch & Sons' Construction awarded.

haul of one mile or less, 50 cents a square yard; hauling over one mile, 10 cents per square yard.

The board made a request on the city council to refund to Davis & Heuser the sum of $100, the amount of the certified check forfeited by the firm when they declined to sign up on a contract awarded them on sewer extension 170. The refund is recommended for the reason that the work had not been properly advertised and the contract could not have been let in any event. The board rejected the bill of James Kennedy for $10,000 for extra work in pumping water from the intercepting sewer during its construction on account of the city not furnishing any outlet. Mr. Kennedy will in all likelihood institute suit to recover.

The request of B. W. Raybould that something be done for the people of the southwestern portion of the city in the matter of sewerage, and that at once, was acceded to and the board decided to go over the ground today for the purpose of ascertaining the best plan to follow in the disposition of the sewage.
