

'BOOSTERS' PLAN BIG EXCURSION

Would Attend Davis County Fair Five Thousand Strong.

BOYS' BAND TO GO ALONG

The Fair Association Has Promised Free Feast of Fruits and Water-melons for Salt Lake Visitors.

The grand fall opening for the Salt Lake "boosters" will occur on Thursday, Oct. 5, and the first excursion will go north to help Davis county grow.

This is the present plan of the bunch of Salt Lake boosters who have adopted the policy of helping to make the city great by making all the country round about as great as its possibilities will permit, and the excursion to Davis county will fall in line with the series beginning last winter with the trip to Logan, and following through the spring with excursions to Neph, Sandy, and Mant.

HOME INDUSTRY.

The occasion is the Davis county fair. Appreciating the good effects of the booming of home industry the Davis county people were quick to extend a hearty invitation to the Manufacturers and Merchants' association to make a Salt Lake day at the fair, and bring the city up. A free feed of choice Davis county watermelons and grapes was offered as an inducement, served by the prettiest girls the county could muster for the tables.

COMMITTEE IN CHARGE.

The matter was referred to the booster committee, and an acceptance was promptly forwarded. The plan is to charter the 2 o'clock Lagoon train Thursday, and take along the Juvenile band, just to let the boys get in practice tuning up for home industry. At the fair there will be a horse racing program, and a number of other attractions, in addition to the biggest kind of an exhibit Davis county can possibly put out. The boosters have promised that 5,000 Salt Lake boosters will go along, and show Davis county the capital city wants to see it grow, and learn what it has to offer the market city on the south. It isn't a graft excursion for the M. and M. The association passed up all opportunities to receive percentages from concessions at the fair, and told the Davis county delegation that they wanted to make all the money there was in salt. Following the policy of the M. and M., excursionists there will be good pay in sight for all the hospitalities offered in the invaded district, except those which the community itself insists on offering, such as the fruit feast in this case.

CHEAP FINEST SECURED.

Manager Morris said today that he had secured a rate of 50 cents to Lagoon and return, including admission to the fair, and this sum would carry any booster through the trip. He further said that Davis county had evidence that this fall to put up a good fair, and every encouragement was due the promoters, and it had in mind only the bettering of conditions in the county. The fair runs from Oct. 5 to Oct. 6, and is as complete in its list of exhibits as an ordinary state fair. It will be held within the Lagoon grounds, under the auspices of the Davis County Fair association.

EX-HUSBAND'S ANTICS.

Make's Gun Call on Former Wife and Her Present Husband.

I. E. Rhodes was arrested yesterday for carrying a concealed weapon, and it is believed that had he been a little longer at liberty a more serious charge would have been filed against him. The man is a teamster and came to this city recently from Pueblo, Colo. His wife was divorced from him five months ago, and she has since married J. White, a Short Line car repairer, who resides at 37 South Sixth West. Rhodes has written many letters to his ex-wife, begging her to return to him. Yesterday he called at her home, stating that he wanted to see how she was being cared for by her new husband. He did not seem entirely satisfied with what he saw, after closely inspecting the house and its surroundings. He said he would see White, and left the premises.

Mrs. White became alarmed lest her ex-husband should harm her present husband, and she sent her little daughter to where he was working. Officer Sullivan was told of the circumstances, and soon afterwards Rhodes appeared upon the scene and was arrested. He said he only wanted to see his wife's husband and get acquainted with him.

KEARNS PLANS SENATE RETURN

Working All Sorts of Tricks to Succeed Senator Smoot Two Years Hence.

WANTS ABBOTT FOR CONGRESS

Is Also Trying to Induce John Howell, Democrat, to Run for Sheriff on American Ticket.

The center of political activity in Salt Lake shifted today from the private offices of party leaders to party headquarters. The Republicans opened theirs in the Atlas block with Secy. Horace H. Smith in charge, while County Chairman M. F. Cunningham took possession of the Democratic headquarters. Aided and abetted by Secy. Rollin W. Dole, it is possible that the state Democratic headquarters will not be down in the Atlas block with the county offices. Chairman Cunningham has at his disposal rooms 102, 103, 104 and 105, but still he doubted if there was room there for Martineau and his state committee.

Chairman Martineau is said to be figuring on headquarters in the Herod building, where his own office is located, and may locate there. The state Republican committee will probably go to the Atlas block along with the county headquarters. Who the executive and finance committee of the Republican party will be still undecided. Chairman Hammond had set this morning as the date for the assembling of his committee, and the naming of a secretary, but when asked at noon for the result of the meeting, he declared that there weren't any results, because he was still waiting to hear from some out of town members, and would not announce his committee till he was here. He would accept. His secretary, too, he had not yet decided upon, intending to submit the names of the candidates to the executive committee when it is chosen.

KEARNS WANTS TO GO BACK.

In the American party the center of activity is not at party headquarters this week, but at the East South Temple street mansion where Senator Kearns has been transformed into marble glory and scenic splendor for the comfort of the American party commander. Those Kearns takes himself seriously this year, and is into the campaign in a way that is a little unusual for the United States senator, which drew from out his reach two years ago, when Senator Sutherland captured the plum. Witness the American party list of candidates for the legislature. Those from Salt Lake, so far as announced, are men who would vote for Kearns with their eyes shut, and Kearns is seeing to it that such candidates are put in the field.

AMERICANISM IN OGDEN.

In Ogdén it is practically certain that Kearns is willing to organize the "Americanism" party, and to drop the "Ogdén" party, as one well informed man put it today. The Ogdén State-Journal, a Kearns newspaper, edited by C. M. Jackson, who went over to the "American" party after the Democrats were defeated in the last city election, is entrusted with the duty of organizing in Ogdén. An American party victory in Salt Lake county this November, means the nucleus of a vote for Kearns for the senate two years from now. If the nucleus is formed, an organization will be born in Weber county at the first chance, by the action of Kearns. It is to come into the legislature two years from now with enough votes to form a deadlock, and then possibly the hope is still ahead of buying his way over the difficulties.

ABBOTT FOR CONGRESS.

Therefore Kearns is at work. Darnier ran the city campaign without a barrel and single handed, and with almost a deadlock between him and Lipman. This time, however, Kearns is not a passive watcher. He is trying to get a pass to accept Ed. Abbott, ex-sheriff of Davis county, as candidate in the congressional race.

He knows, of course, that any congressional candidate on the ticket will be merely stood up to be knocked down, so he isn't particular, and if Abbott will take up the party will be strengthened by his presence. Kearns thinks, Abbott was a witness in the Smoot case in Washington.

AFTER JOHN HOWELLS.

There are also others Kearns has been at work with. Friends of John Howells, former sheriff of Salt Lake county, associate that Tom took John to lunch three times in the past two weeks, and held out to him the golden lure of nomination for sheriff on the American ticket, which he assured the prospective candidate would mean calling an election where Howells is reported to have turned down the proposition, cold, giving the answer that he thought all political questions could be fought out in the two parties principally concerned, and the Democrats as good as a chance to win in their "anti-machine fight" as the Americans. Mr. Howells is now a candidate for the nomination as sheriff on the Democratic ticket. What Mr. Kearns said at the end of the series of interviews is not on record.

A. F. Cunningham is being groomed for the Democratic nomination for sheriff of Salt Lake county. He made the running two years ago, in a Roosevelt year, and is anxious to try it again.

Friday night of this week the Republican primaries will be held. These are the first definite meetings of the campaign and will be followed by the Democratic convention Sept. 20, and the American party mass convention Sept. 21. The first county convention is the American which convenes Sept. 22.

The Woman's Democratic club has entered the fall election race, and will hold its first meeting Wednesday afternoon Sept. 12 at 2:30 o'clock in the Democratic headquarters. The women of the party will then plan the line of their activities preceding election day.

A meeting of the supporters of Parley P. Christensen for Congress was held Saturday afternoon in the law offices of Arthur Brown on Main street, and the rooms were well filled with his friends. Reports were made on conditions in outside counties, showing that the handsome candidate is popular in Bingham, Saratoga, and other southern counties. But little joy was brought in from Cache, which is the home county of Representative Howell, or Weber.

Alonso G. Barber, the Democratic senator from Cache county, is a candidate for renomination on the Democratic ticket. The announcement does not come from Barber, but it is a case like that of Judge Powers in Salt Lake. The party won't listen to the wailings of anybody else and has focused attention on Barber, who rose much in its esteem through his conduct of the anti-consolidation forces in the last legislature.

For the prospective vacancy in the Weber county senatorship, due to the expiration of Senator David McKay's term of office, there are a number of candidates in the field. For the Republican nomination L. W. Shurtliff has been mentioned, and it is on this account that Col. George M. Hanson, secretary to Senator Sutherland, has entered the political field. He expresses opposition to Mr. Shurtliff on the ground that it would be a bid to the American party to organize in Weber county, a thing it is supposed to be itching to do in the hope of returning Thomas Kearns to the United States senate two years from now.

Judge William H. King, Democratic representative from Utah at the welcome home to William Jennings Bryan, is back in Salt Lake. He made a general visit to the principal eastern cities on his return, stopping over last Thursday in Washington, and leaving Friday for Salt Lake. He was much rested by his trip, and says he enjoyed his visit in New York very much.

Thomas Alston today announced his candidacy for county recorder on the Democratic ticket.

FILIPINO BLOOD MONEY MAY CAUSE SCANDAL.

Governor General Ide of the Philippines has now on his hands the president and vice president of the Filipino republic and the insurrectionary generals, Montalan, Villafuerte, de Vega and Benito Natividad. These men, after having been hunted for years by the insular constabulary and the United States army without success, recently surrendered.

The government asserts that this surrender was made without any promise of immunity. But there is reason to doubt whether Dr. Dominador Gomez, head of the National party, who acted as the agent in the negotiations, confined himself to the authority granted him.

The belief among unofficial Americans in Manila is that in order to obtain the rewards offered by the government for these men, dead or alive, aggregating several thousand dollars, Gomez did exceed his authority. Governor General Ide will, in consequence, it is said, find himself a prominent figure in an embarrassing situation.

Mrs. Martha Rexie King will register pupils every day from 10 to 12 in her studio, 255 Commercial club building, beginning Monday, Sept. 10th. Voices tested free.

TOURIST CROWDS ARE COMING WEST

Railroads Obligated to Double the Cars in Order to Handle The Traffic.

GETTING READY FOR WINTER.

Tourist Cars Will Leave Daily for The Coast From Chicago and Other Points.

According to the San Francisco Chronicle all the railroads are making elaborate preparations to handle what passenger agents predict will be the greatest westbound tourist traffic the Pacific coast has ever known, this winter. The Southern Pacific company has made arrangements to double the number of tourist cars heretofore in use to accommodate the large crowds of tourists that are now taking advantage of the low rates.

Tourist cars will leave daily for California points from St. Paul, Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans for San Francisco via the El Paso and Ogden routes. Many of these cars will be in charge of personal conductors. The Union Pacific, in connection with the Chicago and Northwestern and Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, will largely increase its tourist car service from St. Paul and Chicago, connecting with the Southern Pacific at Ogden. The Rock Island road is planning daily cars from Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City, connecting with the Southern Pacific at El Paso. The Illinois Central will operate cars two or three times a week from Cincinnati and Chicago via New Orleans. Through cars, personally conducted, will leave Washington, D. C., three times weekly for San Francisco, coming through without change via Atlanta and New Orleans.

The Rock Island's famous Golden State Limited train will be resumed in November, and additional train service across the continent is being planned by all the railroads.

The Southern Pacific company is spending $75,000 on a new descriptive book dealing with the Pacific coast and California in particular. The purpose of the publication, which will be issued in the next Nov. 1, is to create new interest in this state among eastern people. The company is also going to issue a new edition of "A Thousand Wonders," which did so much good missionary work for business interests on the coast.

TWO DEFAULTING AGENTS.

Detective Jones Captures Two Men Formerly Employed by Short Line.

Detective Joseph Jones of the Oregon Short Line secret service has added another feather to his cap with the capture of V. L. Burns and L. B. Johnson, the former ticket clerk at Boise and the latter employed at Bailey, Ida. Both men are charged with being delinquent in their accounts. Burns was employed in the Boise ticket office from June 23 to July 15 when he resigned and left. It was found that there was a shortage of $2,500 in his cash account. Johnson left two weeks ago for the east on a stock train, giving the keys of the office to a saloon keeper. Prior to leaving he gave $300 to a woman with whom he had been living. This has been recovered but the $500 said to be still $150 additional yet unaccounted for.

After leaving Boise Burns worked three weeks for the Southern Pacific at Wells, Nev., as telegraph operator. Then he went to California. New Mexico, back to Nevada and was eventually arrested in San Francisco where Jones found him down and took him to Boise. He originally hailed from Brighton, Colo., where he has a family. Johnson was arrested in Chicago. Both are now in jail in Idaho.

By Order of Court He Must Accept Neilson as Surety.

Justice of the Peace Durand of Murray failed to appear in Judge Lewis' court on Saturday afternoon to show cause why a peremptory writ of mandamus should not be issued against him according to the prayer of the petition filed by Christian Nielsen. Nielsen is the attorney for the justice, and consequently Judge Lewis made the alternate writ of mandate peremptory and ordered the justice of the peace to accept C. M. Nielsen as surety on the appeal bond filed by Christian Nielsen. Judgment was rendered against Nielsen by Durand and the former took the necessary steps for an appeal to the district court. SMOOTH JIM THE PENMAN.

Check Lifter Gets Lot of Cash and Then Makes Escape.

After passing worthless checks to the amount of $400, George Clark suddenly disappeared and no trace of him can be found. The checks were all presented and cashed after banking hours on Saturday. The following firms were losers by the man's smooth game: J. P. Gardner, $50; J. H. R. Franklin's confectionery store, $10; McCoy's stables, $25; Walkover Shoe company, $15; J. G. McDonald Candy company, $40; Sternumtinal Electric company, $25 and several concerns for small amounts.

Clark posed as an inventor and electrical engineer, and has been in the city about two months. He worked for a time at the McDonald candy factory, but left that institution two weeks ago. On Saturday he opened a small account with the Utah National bank, and afterwards, it is said, raised the amount in his bank book to $500. Upon exhibiting his book, he had little difficulty in having his checks cashed. It is said that he deposited two typed writers, which he had rented, before leaving the city. A description of Clark has been telegraphed all over the country, and it is thought that he will soon be apprehended.

SUSPECT UNDER ARREST.

He Turned Out to be an Unsupervised Youth From the Country.

Following the attempted saloon robbery early this morning, Officer Gulbransen arrested one F. M. Pueblo as a suspect, but it is hardly likely that anything will come of the arrest, as the young man with a Colorado name is apparently a simple country boy, without any unsophisticated by nature. It will undoubtedly be shown that the youth has done nothing worse than get on a slight "tear" and was caught on the streets at an unseemly hour. Chief Sheets said today that he did not think the young man was a bad 'un, and did not believe that Pueblo had anything to do with the attempted hold up.

GERMAN WAR GAME CULMINATES IN A COLLISION

Berlin, Sept. 10.—The German war game culminated today in a collision between the cavalry and artillery divisions of the reds and blues and in which 10,000 lances and 200 quick-firing machine guns took part.

The lines engaged for five or six miles over a greatly rolling plain. Emperor William, accompanied by his American and Russian courtiers, and attended by a numerous staff, the whole forming a brilliant party of 100 horsemen, observed the action from elevated ground from which all the surrounding country could be swept with glasses.

Artillery engagements and detached charges by the cavalry resulted in the blues driving back the reds. Maj. Koerner, the German military attaché at Washington, was detailed by the emperor to attend Gen. Barry and other visiting American officers, explain to them fully the course of the maneuvers and to show them the working of the signal and observation balloons, the system of wireless telegraphy, etc.

The emperor talked with Gen. Barry for 10 minutes on military subjects. He was especially jolly and his remarks were instructive.
