

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

Mrs. George Holman was hostess on Thursday at an elaborate luncheon. The decorations were in Nile green, violet and pink, and were beautifully carried out. There was one large table and three small ones, and on the large one was a centerpiece consisting of a bouquet of violets encircled with green, tulle starred with pink carnations, and carrying out the color scheme were four candelabra shaded in green. After the luncheon the violets were presented to the guests as favors. Those present were Mrs. Ploutz, Mrs. G. B. Ploutz, Mrs. McMillan, Mrs. Robert Harkness, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Fischer, Mrs. Bourgeois, Mrs. Pardee, Mrs. R. G. Smith, Mrs. Flier, Mrs. LaMotte, Mrs. Barth, Mrs. Webber, Mrs. Powers, Mrs. E. S. Ferry, Mrs. Dooly, Mrs. McGeath, Mrs. McClure, Miss Lane, Miss Woodward, Miss Noble and Miss Harkness.

Mrs. W. G. Sharp and Miss Harkness were hostesses at a pretty luncheon on Wednesday at the Alta club, covers being laid for 30 guests. The table was laid in the gold room and the decorations, which were furnished by the Salt Lake Floral company were in red and green. Dainty boxes of bonbons were used for favors and the centerpiece was a large cluster of roses in the silver cup won by Miss Harkness in a golf contest. The guests were Mrs. Bird, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. G. K. Fischer, Mrs. Harry Gue, Mrs. Robert Harkness, Miss Sherman, Miss Wain, Miss Block, Miss Bourgeois, Miss Cornish, Miss McCormick, Miss Salisbury, Miss Woodward, Miss Sherman, Miss Laura Sherman, Miss Nason, Miss Adelaide Nason and Miss Anderson.

The following well known Salt Lakeers are among those who have taken flats in the Emery building on First and State streets: Ray Walker, Chas. Walker, Jay T. Harris, W. S. Walker, J. W. Langley, C. Ira Tuttle, W. B. Lantus, Dorsey Ash, C. L. Chesney, Job White, W. P. Cooper, Miss Tinsman, William Bartling, J. C. Hooper and George Rust.

Mrs. R. H. Channing entertained at a delightful luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. W. G. Sharp, covers being laid for eight guests. The table was prettily decorated in pink and green and the following were present: Mrs. Sharp, Mrs. Robert Harkness, Mrs. A. H. S. Bird, Mrs. George K. Fischer, Miss Salisbury, Miss Burke and Mrs. Sturgis.

Miss Emmeline Romney and Miss Minnie Folson entertained at cards on Thursday, about 25 guests enjoying the pleasant event. The rooms were prettily decorated with carnations, and refreshments were served after the contest. Prizes were won by Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Hiaman Folson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Conley and Miss Jennie Conley entertained delightfully at cards on Thursday.

The resident ladies of the Kenyon hotel have organized a card club, to meet every Wednesday. On Wednesday last they were most delightfully entertained by Mrs. J. J. Broughall in her rooms at the hotel. The refreshments were delicious and the party pronounced the most successful yet given.

A brilliant reception was given on Wednesday night at the home of Hon. Moses Thatcher by the members of the Woman's Democratic club, the officers of the organization being assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher, Judge and Mrs. King, Mrs. Joseph L. Rawins, Maj. Young and Miss Thatcher. The rooms were bright with flowers and palms and flags were draped over the stairway. A delightful musical program was furnished by the Lamourne-Mandolin orchestra, Miss Ruth Wilson, Mr. Phillips, Alvin Beasley and Little Minnie Phillips, and delicious refreshments were served. Miss Laura Angell in a nook under the stairs served punch throughout the evening. The affair was a most delightful one and the Woman's Democratic club is to be congratulated upon its success. The officers of the club are as follows: Mrs. H. J. Hayward, president; Mrs. George Ward, vice president; Mrs. J. Angell, recording secretary; Mrs. George Wood, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. J. D. Roundy, treasurer.

Miss Winnie Welby is the guest of Miss Sallie Leonard.

Dr. and Mrs. Brodiebeck will give a concert at their conservatory, 34 Richards street, on Monday night. A delightful program has been prepared, and the event promises to be a success.

One of the most elaborate events of the week was the card party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ritter.

best people, Mrs. Barth and Mrs. Pardee were hostesses and Capt. Barth and Lieut. Merrill managed the affair.

The banquet given by the seniors of the High school at the Commercial club last night was one of the delightful events of the week.

Mrs. F. A. Druch entertained the members of St. Mark's choir delightfully at her home on Thursday.

Miss Wishard and Miss Peterson entertained the college club on Thursday.

Mrs. Solomon Siegel gave a "pink domino party" at her home last night, the affair being a most enjoyable one. The rooms were decorated with American Beauty roses, and a musical program was a feature of the evening.

Miss Ethel Paul entertained informally on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Hayt of Park City.

Miss Hattie Jennings entertained at a pretty luncheon on Monday, covers being laid for 12.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Fish, Jr., were at home to their friends yesterday afternoon and evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Whitney, and will receive on each Friday hereafter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wood entertained delightfully at dinner on Thursday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wood, of Denver.

There will be a party tonight at Rowland hall.

Miss Grace Jacobs entertained this afternoon at a Kensington.

Mrs. J. D. Wood gave a pretty card party on Thursday for her daughter Cassie, a large number of her friends being present. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with games, and refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted by Mesdames Theodore

FAIR JAPANESE TO WELCOME CHINA.

Mme. Tokohira, wife of the Japanese minister at Washington, is the only oriental woman presiding over a legation at the capital. She entertains lavishly, and when the new Chinese minister brings his bride to Washington, Mme. Tokohira plans a brilliant reception to her sister oriental.

last night for Miss Elsie Ritter and Mr. Levi Ritter. The rooms were charmingly decorated in pink, white and green, the lights being shaded in green, and pink and white carnations being used. The scores were pen and ink sketches and the place cards were watercolor paintings. Covers were laid for 30.

Mrs. Andrews was hostess at a luncheon on Tuesday, the affair being one of the prettiest of the week. The table was decorated in pink and green, a wave of pink roses placed on a real lace spread forming the centerpiece, and pink roses were at each place. The candelabra were shaded in pond lily shades and the place cards were watercolor paintings. Covers were laid for 30.

The hop at the post last night was a delightful affair, and was enjoyed by a large number from the city besides the

NEW LOW CUT WAIST.

Waist of white peau de cygne, laid in deep plaits over shoulders, with round, low cut yoke of two bands piped with Scotch plaid silk, and joined by fastening in shades of silk. Waist band to match. Pinnings show also on each side on stitched tucks, the tie is of the plaid, the yoke and stock of soft white silk mull.

Druback, P. S. Keogh, Wall, and Miss Selma Wall.

Mrs. J. H. Richards gave a party on Wednesday in honor of the birthday of her son, J. H. Richards, Jr.

Miss Kimball gave a delightful tea at her home on Thursday.

Mrs. Andrews was hostess at a luncheon on Tuesday, the affair being one of the prettiest of the week. The table was decorated in pink and green, a wave of pink roses placed on a real lace spread forming the centerpiece, and pink roses were at each place. The candelabra were shaded in pond lily shades and the place cards were watercolor paintings. Covers were laid for 30.

Mr. D. McPherson Boyd entertained a party of 10 at dinner at the Tavern on Monday.

The recital given by Miss Josephine Morris at Barratt hall last night was a distinct success, and was enjoyed by a large number of the young lady's friends.

The ball given by the Misogynist club at Christensen's on Thursday night was a delightful affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hutzicker have moved into their new home on S. street.

The Elfric Social club gave a delightful dancing party at the Ladies Literary club last night, the pleasant affair being enjoyed by a large number.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sherman and family will be in their new home at 1007 First street next week.

Miss Veda Beebe entertained the Sewing club at her home this week.

Mrs. C. E. Coulter is at the Kenyon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Dinniny will occupy the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weir during their absence.

Misses Emma and Louise Maddison are at home to their friends at 70 west Fifth North street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kelly will be at home to their friends hereafter at 435 east First South street.

The McKean corps were entertained this week by Mrs. Featherstone and Mrs. Brown.

Miss Peterson and Miss Wishard entertained the college club on Thursday night.

The Opal club attended Christensen's Wednesday night affair.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Schieber will be at home to their friends at 344 south First West street after February 15.

Mr. Holden entertained at dinner at the Alta club on Monday, covers being laid for six.

Mrs. S. W. Hayt of Park City was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Dart during the week.

Mrs. M. Laine was hostess at a delightful Kensington on Monday afternoon, about 20 of her friends being present. There was a contest in which Mrs. Ganz won the prize. A most enjoyable time was spent.

Mr. Joe Held entertained the Misogynist club at his home on Monday night, and an enjoyable time was spent by all.

Monday was the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Reader and about 40 of their friends surprised them at their home where a delightful evening was spent.

Mrs. W. H. King was assisted in her "at home" on Tuesday by Mrs. Bartling and Mrs. Dale.

Miss Helen Hahn entertained the La Muchacha Sewing club this week.

Mrs. Hines is visiting Mrs. Williamson in Eureka.

CARDS AND KENSINGTONS

Mrs. George Y. Wallace and Mrs. Belden entertained delightfully at cards on Monday, about 50 guests being present. The rooms were beautifully decorated and the scores and talices were in the shape of Japanese fans. Mrs. Eddie and Miss Keogh were the prize winners and each guest was presented with a deck of Dell Telephone cards.

Mrs. O. J. Salisbury entertained the Sixty-three Card club at her home yesterday afternoon being delightfully spent.

Mrs. Wallace Castlemain entertained the members of her card club on Tuesday afternoon.

The Kensington Card club met at the home of Miss Bruffall this week.

The members of the Shillalah club were entertained at cards by Mrs. Kate Biddell Anderson on Wednesday night.

On Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Fabian entertained at a card party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Justus Jungk about 10 tables being played. The rooms were prettily decorated, pale green predominating, and the scores and talices were Dresden figures. The prizes in the contest were won by Mrs. Daggett, Mrs. Volmer, Mrs. Beattie, Mr. Reed, Judge Powers and Mr. Hanner.

Mrs. Fabian will entertain again at cards tonight.

CARES FOR ITALY'S NEW PRINCESS.

Vincenzina Stripp, the Italian peasant girl appointed to act as nurse to Italy's new baby princess, has just completed her duties at the royal palace, and is now preparing to return to her own rustic home and her husband and babe. The peasant woman carries a fortune with her, as the result of her services to royalty.

COMING AND GOING

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Jennings leave for California tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Crismon are residing in California.

Mrs. Frank Wilson is here from Boise and is the guest of Mrs. J. W. Farrell.

Mr. W. W. Bacon is in the city from Denver and his family will arrive shortly to make Salt Lake their home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Stack leave for California on Tuesday and after a short visit there will leave for New Mexico to make their home.

Miss Sallie Leonard will leave shortly for the John Hopkins hospital, where she will take a special course in nursing.

Mrs. S. V. Perrine of Blue Lake, Ida., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Spencer.

Mr. Louis S. Hills of the Deseret National bank, with Mrs. Hills, left this week for an extended western trip, which will possibly include the Sandwich Islands.

Mrs. J. F. Grant, who has been spending the past week in Ogden, has returned.

Mrs. E. A. Wedgewood has returned from Provo.

Mrs. Ethel McAllister Hicks is here from Boulder, Colo., visiting with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Blatz leave today for California.

Miss Myrtle Lyons has returned to Ogden.

Mrs. G. E. Crowe and Mrs. C. E. Mc-

Intyre of Winnipeg visited Mrs. L. S. Deans during the week, on their way to California.

A. Richter has gone to join Mrs. Richter in Los Angeles.

Miss Lillian Woodward, who has been spending the past month in Denver as the guest of Maj. and Mrs. Downey, has returned.

Mrs. D. C. McLaughlin has gone to Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richards are in California.

Mrs. C. A. Roddy and daughter Ethel left yesterday for Los Angeles.

Miss Effie Cardiner is in Los Angeles visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. T. F. Mulloy and Mrs. Geneva Kimball are in New York.

Mr. Ernest Nightingale left during the week for California.

Mrs. Henry C. Hoffman has gone to Butte to be absent about a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Porter have returned and will be at home to their friends at the Kenyon after Feb. 15.

Mrs. O. E. Carney and son have returned from Denver.

Mrs. W. G. Sharp and Miss Harkness left today for New York.

Miss Frances Green of Big Cottonwood was the guest of her aunt during the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wooley have gone to California.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Whitely left today for a trip through California.

Mrs. Leon McInnell has returned to her home in Ogden.

Mrs. Isadore Meyer and daughter Gertrude have returned from their eastern trip.

Miss Alice Owen, who has been visiting with Mrs. H. C. Brownlee for the past two months, has returned to her home in St. Louis.

Miss Vina Hales left this week for Mexico.

Col. Holmes leaves shortly to join Mrs. Holmes in California.

Mr. Will Ashby has returned from a two months' stay in Chicago.

Mrs. S. F. Hayes will spend the next two months as the guest of her sister in Rochester, New York.

Mrs. Willheart has visiting her Mrs. L. E. Jones of Cincinnati.

Miss Winnie Welby is here from Eureka and is the guest of Miss Sallie Leonard.

Mrs. B. F. Rash and Miss Edith Dramer leave shortly for California.

Miss Ethel McAllister of Pueblo, Col.,

RAUDUITZ STREET SUIT

Black basket weave tulle, trimmed with narrow bands of black satin and white silk passementerie cord and buttons. Skirt cut with panel front and four piece flare back. The blouse has box plait back and front with triple capes, having low round neck. Sleeves full at wrists, plaited into deep turn-back cuffs. Hat of chiffon and straw.

WEDDING BELLS

The wedding of Miss Hattie Jennings and Mr. Arthur Shepherd will take place early in March.

Miss Jennie Jack and Mr. T. L. Halliday will be married on Feb. 11.

Miss Edith Cutler and Mr. Charles O. Friel were married in the Temple on Wednesday, and on the evening following a large reception was held in their honor at the home of Hon. B. H. Roberts and Thaddeus W. Naylor, the young couple leaving immediately after for a trip to the coast, to be absent several weeks. Both will have the congratulations and good wishes of their many friends.

An interesting event of the week was the marriage of Miss Ada Roberts and Mr. Thaddeus W. Naylor which took place in the Temple on Wednesday, the young couple leaving afterward for a trip to the coast.

On Wednesday Miss Ada Roberts, daughter of Hon. B. H. Roberts and Thaddeus W. Naylor, were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed at noon in the temple by the bride's father, and the young couple leaving immediately after for a trip to the coast, to be absent several weeks. Both will have the congratulations and good wishes of their many friends.

Miss Josie Morris will give her eloquent recital tomorrow night at Barratt hall, and the affair promises to be a most successful one.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos B. Corey have wedding cards out announcing the marriage of their daughter, Amida Evelyn, to Mr. Claudius J. Roberts, the ceremony to be performed at the home of the bride's parents, 533 Twenty-sixth street, Feb. 18, at 5:30 p. m. The affair promises to be one of the leading social events of the season, as the contracting parties are among Ogden's most prominent and influential young people. The bride is one of our popular young lady schoolteachers. After a short wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will make their home at 577 Twenty-sixth street, where they will receive their friends after March 15.

Miss T. Freeman of Salt Lake spent the week in Ogden, visiting with friends.

Eliah Larkin, of St. Johns, Tooele county, and Joseph S. Larkin of Snowville, Boxelder county, returned home Thursday after visiting relatives in Ogden.

J. L. Mount returned Tuesday from a business and pleasure trip through Idaho.

Oscar Vogel of Salt Lake, after spending a few days in Ogden, returned home Thursday afternoon.

An old folks' party was given in the Fifth ward amusement hall Wednesday evening, Feb. 4, which was largely attended by those residing in the ward over 50 years of age. The affair was a grand success, the hours being passed quickly in singing, dancing and feasting.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Gordon, 530 Twenty-fourth street, Wednesday, Feb. 11, when an excellent program will be rendered.

Tuesday evening next the Fraternal order of Eagles will give their annual ball at Conley's dancing academy. The affair promises to surpass all former events. Besides dancing and music, dainty refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wellinger have returned home from an extended pleasure trip to California.

The Ogden Gymnastic club gave a ball Wednesday evening, which was largely attended and greatly enjoyed.

The Ogden Tabernacle choir is making extensive preparation for a grand benefit concert to be given in the Tabernacle in about two weeks, in honor of Miss Nannie Toot, who is studying music at the Royal Academy of Music, London. The program to be rendered will be one of the finest musical events ever presented to an Ogden audience. The choir is preparing some fine music, and some of the leading vocalists and piano artists in the state will take part in the evening's exercises. The concert is for a worthy cause and should receive the hearty support of the public in general. Miss Toot has often in the past when at home aided in our worthy causes, and the public should now gladly reciprocate.

A very enjoyable ball was given last evening in the Second ward amusement hall in honor of Ray Boye, who departs soon on a mission to Germany.

Mrs. C. A. Smurthwaite entertained the Child's Culture club yesterday afternoon. Some excellent papers touching on child culture were read by ladies present.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Woods of Spencer, Idaho, are visiting in Ogden with Mrs. Woods' parents, County Attorney Holmquist and wife.

The ladies of the Congregational church gave an enjoyable social last evening.

PROVO SOCIAL NEWS.

A very enjoyable surprise party was given, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Dunn on Monday evening, the affair being in honor of the twentieth anniversary of their wedding. About 30 guests were present and enjoyed the social cheer, amusing games and delicious supper.

The O. F. F. club gave their second party in the First ward assembly hall, and secured another elegant social success. The next ball will be given next Wednesday.

The wedding and reception of Mr. Charles W. Penrod and Miss Sarah E. Forsythe took place on Tuesday last at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Forsythe. The ceremony was performed by Elder George Paulsen and the event was a very charming one.

The banquet given by Senator and Mrs. Reed Street on Friday evening was the most brilliant social affair that

Sozodont
TOOTH POWDER
No Waste No Spilling No Acid No Grit
BIG BOX
Containing New Can with Patent Top
25c
HALL & RUCKEL, New York