SABATH MEETINGS.—In the morning Elder Joseph Fawcett, of St. George, just returned from a mission to Europe, spoke his feelings and faith, and touched upon his labors while he was absent.

Elder Joseph Bull followed, treating upon his mission while in the east, the condition of the work in St. Louis and New York, and the feelings that are manifested concerning our people and our doctrines.

Elder Joseph St. Eldredge said he had come on a mission some thirty years ago, and felt he still continued in it. He had been on the terms of the railroad as far as forwarding the immigration and other matters, and in going there, as at many other times and in many other places, he found that the work of God required more than preaching.

Elder C. P. Liston, of Santa Clara, just returned from Europe, spoke of his mission in England, and of his pioneer labors in this Territory, and of his work upon his late mission. He had helped to plant the country south of this city, and had been twelve years in a London mission; but he felt timid when called to go out to the world and preach; yet the Lord had been with him and he had been able to dogood while he was there.

Elder John Halsall, one of the first members of the church in Europe, who has lately arrived from England, bore his testimony to the truth, and expressed his desires to live among the people of God.

Afternoon.

Elder Orson Pratt preached on the necessity of immediate revelation and the servants of God being in communication with Heaven. He gave many revelations in the Book of Doctrine and Covenants, and reasoned at some length on the subject, showing that every important event which the prophets have declared should take place in the latter days, in the building up of the Kingdom of God—the gathering together of the Saints, the restoration of Israel and the bringing forth of the lost tribes—requires that those who are engaged in bringing them about should be continually led by direct revelation from Heaven.

Elder George A. Smith welcomed the lately arrived immigrants, and exhorted them to faithfulness, assuring them that while they possessed the Spirit of God they would be contented and happy, but if they gave way to temptations they would become dissatisfied.

THEATRICAL.—On Saturday night "Jeanie Davis" was repeated, and was witnessed by a large audience. Miss Ince made a powerful Jeanie, Miss Adams a touching Effie, Mr. McKenzie a good Dumbdick, and Mr. Hardie a capital David Deans; but the characters are not so well elaborated in this dramatization as in others we have seen of the same piece. The Court scene is very full in detail, and the sensational attack and arrest of the Tolworth, or prison in which Effie is confined, admits of a good and effective tableau at the close. Miss Ince was loudly called for, and bowed her adieux to the audience. Mr. Margetts was "immaculate" to employ a hyperbolic phrase often used by members of the profession, a Mr. Peter, while Mrs. Clawson in make up and acting, was his fair compeer as Mrs. Peter, in the face, "Mr. and Mrs. Peter White." Mr. Margetts' playing was scarcely excelled by his bereaved "patient" in the "Lost Child." Miss Alexander, Mrs. Bowring, Mr. McKenzie, and Mr. Graham played most spiritedly.

Tomorrow night Mr. Margetts appears in two fine characters, on the occasion of his Benedit; as Rover in that most mirth-provoking old Comedy, "Wild Oats"; and as Cornelius Fogarty in the excellent farce, "A Race for a Widow."

DISTRICT COURT.—The case of Olive S. Gardner, Wells, Fargo & Co., was concluded on Saturday. His Honor charged the jury, who retired to their rooms, and after some deliberation returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, with $12,000 damages for the injuries she had received. Motion was made by counsel for defendants for a new trial.

PRESIDENT YOUNG'S MOVEMENTS.—By Deseret Telegraph we learn that President Young and party arrived at Nephi on Saturday afternoon. The meeting yesterday morning was addressed by President Wells, Elder W. Woodruff and President Young. In the afternoon Elder George Q. Cannon, Wilford Woodruff, and Jos. W. Young spoke. The company left this morning for Fountain Green at 9 o'clock and arrived at 11:30, and meeting was held. The President went to Moroni to stay to night.

POLICE.—Mike Anderson was arrested on Sunday night for drunkenness and disturbing the peace, and was fined this morning in $10.

DEED.—Yesterday, Sep. 20th, at Provo, John Henry, son of John Henry and Sarah Farr Smith, aged 6 months and 20 days.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—There was an examination of the 20th Ward Sunday school to-day, when recitations were given and the scholars were examined in the Bible, Book of Mormon, Doctrine and Covenants, and on principles and doctrine. Prizes were given to the successful pupils, of the works in which they were examined, with other prizes indicating the proficiency of those who received them. To obtain these a considerable amount of means was liberally donated in the ward, Bishop Sharp giving $30 for the purpose. Refreshments were served for the juveniles, who met in a party at 2 o'clock; and this evening the teachers and friends of the pupils will enjoy themselves in the ward school house. The proficiency of the pupils and the result of the examination must be very gratifying to the energetic Superintendent, Elder Wm. Paul, and to the school teachers.

GONE NORTH.—H. Rogers, Esq., representative of Griswold & Co., of Chicago, left by stage to-day for the north, in tending to further the interests of the firm in Montana. He is a gentleman who will make a favorable impression. We wish him success.

CHANGE OF NAME.—The name of South Weber Post Office, Davis County, in this Territory, has been changed to Riverdale. We learn by the Chicago Postal Record, a copy of which, for the month of September, we are indebted to A. W. Street, Esq., P.M.

FUNERAL.—Martha A., daughter of Bishop Wm. C. A. Smoot, now on a mission, and of Martha Ann, his wife, aged fourteen months, was buried this morning at 10 o'clock, from the residence of Bishop A. C. Smoot, in this city.

CINDERELLA.—Has been produced in Helena by Madame Scheller, and the Montana press is enthusiastic in its encomiums on the gorgeous beauty of the spectacle. J. G. Endo M. Scheller was adorned it with his scenic efforts in a manner to draw forth the warmest eulogiums.

IS IT SMOKE.—The heavy foggy-like haze which clouded the heavens yesterday, and on Saturday afternoon was thought by some people to be smoke from those Oregonian fires which cover an extent of over two hundred square miles. It was not like the usual haze of an Indian summer, and could scarcely be called an ordinary fog.

CHARTER OAK

COOKING

Are a Home Institution!

Made for and specially adapted to the wants of Western people.

They combine great weight, distributed to the best advantage, with beauty of design and perfection of manufacture.

Charter Oak Cooking Stoves were first introduced to the public in the year 1832, and at once took the lead, and have ever since grown in favor, until there are now a GREATER NUMBER SOLD DAILY than any Stove in the market. Over ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND are in daily use, and we offer every stove as reference, wherever it may be found. When our new patterns were made, all recent improvements were united, and we confidently offer the
