

We learn this morning that a suit has been commenced by Engelbrecht & Co. against the gentlemen who were arrested a few days ago for the breaking up of the liquor establishment owned by that company.

WOMEN'S VIEWS.

"Mrs. Kate Hunnibee" of the Hearth and Home, as our readers will probably remember, was in Salt Lake City a short time since.

"The ingenuity, the industry, the economy, the enterprise and patience of this people are indeed remarkable. Every house has a garden attached to it, where vegetables and fruits, and flowers grow in abundance."

"Well," said Ann Betsy, "I'll let 'em alone. I don't b'lieve in persecutin' or legislatin' agin 'em. Soon's Brigham dies, they'll fall apart like a barrel with only one hoop to keep the staves together."

Paris does not believe in the complete defeat of McMahon. The opinion in London is that nothing can now prevent the siege of Paris. The French cause is desperate.

The associated press cable dispatch, dated London, 1st, says Paris is again accessible from this city by way of Brussels.

A cable special to the Tribune, dated London, 1st, says that the special correspondent writes from Paris on Wednesday, that provisions of all kinds are already reaching famine prices.

Preparations are being made on a vast scale for the wounded. Colleges, lyciums, schools and convents are converted into hospitals by order of the government.

A special correspondent, writes from Paris, Wednesday, that the distrust between the government and people still exists, but is much diminished.

The associated press dispatch, dated London 1st, says a special dispatch to the Standard, dated Thionville, Thursday morning, says the French have just been badly beaten on the Sedan road.

Clark King Jr., Assistant Cashier of the firm of Clark, Dodge & Co., bankers, was held to bail in one thousand dollars, to-day, to await his trial for the alleged swindling of a servant girl out of a hundred dollars of her savings.

The emigrants this year, to September 1st, number 163,507, being 23,404 less than for the corresponding months of last year.

The Boston Herald has a report that the French war steamer Latouche has been ordered to leave Newport by a U. S. brig; it was suspected that she was waiting the arrival of the Prussian bark August, bound for Fall river, loaded with scrap iron.

Mrs. Anne Granch and two children have been burned to death in a fire in a tenement house, in Williamsburg.

The robbery of the Methodist book concern safe was effected on Tuesday evening by burglars, who entered the building by means of false keys, and, after an unsuccessful attempt on the safe of the book concern, containing two hundred thousand dollars in notes, bonds and silver ware, they succeeded in opening the small safe, and finished their operations by spreading out and partaking of a sumptuous lunch, which they brought with them.

NEW ORLEANS.—J. W. Willis Menard, colored, who contested the seat of Bailey, from the second district, in Congress, was yesterday sent before the criminal court, charged with attempts to outrage a girl, living with his family. Menard's wife was accused as an accessory. He was held in $500 bail, to answer the charges.

WASHINGTON. Small-pox. The fleet surgeon of the European squadron, in a letter to the navy department, reports that the number of cases of small-pox, on the Franklin, was fifty, with five deaths. Her crew numbered five hundred and ninety-seven.

Judge Humphreys, to-day, over-ruled the motion to attach Secretary Cox and the Commissioner of the Land Office for contempt, in the McGarran case, but ordered that the injunction of the court, restraining the New India Company from receiving the patent, be respected, till the hearing of the case in a full court can be had.

CALIFORNIA. Suspended—Coinage—Burned. SAN FRANCISCO, 1.—The liquor house of J. Tunkenstein & Co., has suspended. The coinage at the branch mint in August was two millions, three hundred and seventy thousand.

other property, from the surrounding villages, likely to be occupied by the Prussians. In spite of the inconvenience and loss there is no complaining or grumbling but everybody submits readily to the return of pleasure and amusements.

The appearance of wagons and carts, conveying moveables, and the constant passage of heavy loads of hay and forage, of various kinds, look singular, otherwise there is nothing in the aspect of Paris that would impress a stranger as unusual or give any idea that a great calamity impended over the capital.

There is certainly nothing in the physiognomy of the lovely city that gives it a melancholy look. There is no great danger, and everything goes on as usual. The shops are all open and gaily decked, and the departure of thousands of strangers has given a severe check to trade, this is not apparent to the mere observer.

The Prussians, as they advance, require the people to give up arms, and to keep the doors of their houses unfastened, the windows uncurtained and the shutters open. The Germans speak well of the roads over which they march, for the perfect condition in which they find them.

The Minister of War yesterday in the Corps Legislatif, said he was sure the chamber would act rightly in leaving him freedom of action. What had been done in so short a time was an earnest of what would be done in the future.

La Liberte says the War Minister expresses every confidence in the working men; he knows their valor and does not hesitate to arm them for the defence of the capital. The inhabitants of several villages, who had been ordered into the city, have received counter orders. Lyons has been preparing for defence by order of the Minister of War, who supposes that the Prussians, knowing that Paris is now so strong, may attempt Lyons. Nothing will be left undone where the slightest danger is threatened, to make all secure.

PRUSSIA. Decorated. BERLIN, 1.—Louis of Hesse has received the order of the Iron Cross for his gallantry in the recent battle around Metz.

The North German Gazette professes to be assured, from the best sources, that English opinion is reconciled to the line of the Vosges, or even of the Moselle, as the future boundary between Germany and France, with a thousand million francs indemnity for the expenses of war, and says these we shall have, God willing.

REMOVED.—William H. Miles, Brush manufacturer, has removed from his old stand, near the Theatre, to more convenient premises on the opposite side of the street.
