Home Missionary Meetings Yester.

DAY.—West Jordan Ward—E'der R. F
Neslen spoke on the proper training of the young and the emigration of the poor; R.

Miller, on obedience; Samuel Neslen, on the culture of youth and emigration; A.W.

Winberg bore testimony; R. Miller on the evils of novel reading, etc.; R. F. Neslen, on domestic felicity, and the evils of intemperance, and A. Gardener on the effects of home missionary labors among the Samus.

Neff's Schoolhouse—Elders W. A. Mc-Master and George W. Groo spoke on suitable subjects, imparting much good back and struck him on the side of the head with a heavy cane, partially stunning him and breaking the head off the cane by the force of the blow. Keithly also struck him several other blows, a heavy one being him, and another cutting his forehead. The two then grappled, Mr. Penrose going under. At this juncture Mr. J. D. Ross came up and found Keithly beating Mr. Penrose with his fists. Mr. Ross at once latter was agreeded and taken to the City Hall, and bound over, by Justice Felt to appear for trial at twelve o'clock to-day.

Editor Deseret News: Some person, unauthorized by me, either directly or indirectly, signed my name to the anti-State petition published by you some time ago. I am not a Mormon, and never was. I have lived in this vicinity nearly a year, have been kindly treated, have had no interest in the matter petitioned against, and wish it distinctly understood that the person was signed my name committed neither more nor less Truly Yours, than forgery. THOS. H. KINCAID.

NORTH OGDEN,-Mr. H. Holmes wrote from North Ogden, July 23-

"Our harvest is most excellent, better crops of grain have never been realized here, six reaping machines are buisy in the fields to-day, our granaries and barns will soon be overloaded with plenty of the rich products of the soil, and I trust the printers will not be forgotten. The health of the people is good."

THE SEVIER COUNTY .- We were pleased to meet Bishop A. K. Thurber, of Spanish Fork, this morning, who arrived in town on Saturday evening. From him we learn the following concerning the Sevier country: He had lately accompanied Brothers Joseph A. and Alpheus Young on an exploring expedition through the kanyons and over the mountains of that region. The object of the explorations was the discovery of resources for the developement and building up of that part of the Territory. The party were out four weeks, and the results of their efforts were highly encouraging. Timber in the kanyons at the head of Sevier and also on the hills on the lower Sevier is abundant and of fair quality. Grass is also pientiful on the upper Sevier, but not so much so in the valley, although in that vicinity there is excellent range on the hills.

During the four weeks that Brother Thurber was with the party they traveled $500 miles. Note was made of the locality of sand deposits suitable for building purposes, and everything else that would in any way tend to the development of the surrounding country. on an exploring expedition through the

The greatest want in that locality is a sufficient number of good, hard-working people, and it would, doubtless, prove the temporal salvation of many such to go there and establish homes and grow in prosperity with the future growth of the

The only damage to crops of any kind was at Pangwitch, where own and polatoes had been injured by frost; the other crops, however, were excellent.

Bishop Thurber states that the Sevier country is a splendid locality for raising garden produce of every kind. Vegetables seemed to be more abundant and of a better quality than in much older settlements, we wish success to the plans laid for the general advancement of that part of the Carritory.

PROVO MEETINGS.—Two days' meetings were held in Provo on Saturday and Sunday, the 27th and 28th inst., which were day, the 27th and 28th inst., which were attended by a large number of people, there being present a representation from all the settlements of the county. being present a representation from all the settlements of the county. The first day was occupied by the home missionaries, and, under the pleasant shade afforded by the bowery, which had been constructed by Bishop Smoot and the people of Provofor the occasion, the meetings were enjoyed exceedingly. News having been received of the nomination of Hon. George Q. Cannon by the Greeley-Brown convention, a ratification meeting was held in the evening, at which a number of apirited speeches were made by Hons. Geo. A. Smith, A. O. Smoot, Abram Hatch and Geo. Q Cannon, and Warren Dusenberry, Esq. The brass and martial bands played a number of very lively and patriotic alis, and songs were sung by Professors Daniels, Jones and assistants and Henry Maiben, Esq. A gentleman from American Fork also sang a comic song, which elicited considerable applause. The essembly dispersed at ten o'clock. The proceedings were impromptu, no programme being arranged beforehand; but the affair was a great success, being pronounced one of the linest occasions of the kind that had been enjoyed in Provo for a long time.

A yery large congregation met in the bowery on Bunday. The morning was occupied by addresses from Elders Cannon and Levi Hancock. The afternoon by Bishop A. O. Smoot, President George A. Smith and Elder Cannon, The congregation was a yery large one, the spacious bowery being filled to its utmost expedity, meetings were satisfactory and

A BRUTAL ATTACK. -About five o'clock on Saturday afternoon C. W. Penrose, Esq., editor of the Ogden Junction, was attacked and brutally beaten by W. R. Keithly, professing to be a lawyer, on East Temple Street. We understand the assault was made by Keithly in consequence of an article which appeared in the Junction, and which the latter considered reflected upon

It appears that about the time afore-men-It appears that about the time afore-mentioned Mr. Penrose was waking on East Temple Street with a bundle under one arm, when he was halled from behind and on tarning Keithly grasped him by the collar and demanded that Mr. Penrose should take back what had appeared in the Junction concerning him. Mr. P. told him to let go his hold, when Keithly stepped back and struck him on the side of the suitable subjects, imparting much good instruction to the Saints. Elders I. Groo and M. B. Shipp were unable to be present on accordingly, when Mr. Lober, for the defendant, moved for a dis-To Choir Conductors.—The following that the offense with which the delendant notice to conductors of choirs was handed was charged was punishable by Territorial statute, as well as by city ordinance, and there being no law providing that the defendant could not be again proceeded against for the same offense under a statute, after judgment had been rendered under an ordinance.

Brethren:—In accordance with the approval of President Young, I take this method of inviting you and your choir or the capable portion thereof, to join us in forming a grand chorus, at our approach-

Another motion was made to dismiss proceedings, by the defense, on the ground that the amdavit in which the charge was made did not specify the intent of the defendant to do bodily injury to the plaintiff, and that no warrant had been issued for the arrest of the defendant.

The prosecution held that the statement in the affidavit that the crime was contrary to the ordinance.

to the ordinance, was sufficiently definite. It was a principle of common law that an officer could arrest a party without a war-rant when he had sufficient cause to believe After a good deal of legal wrangling, in which the Hawley boy endeavored to join, the case was adjourned till two o'clock.

We hear of Keithly going to the office of a contemporary and breathing direful threatenings should anything be published about the affair that didn't suit him. We were informed to-day that a gentleman heard some conversation on Saturday which led him to suppose that Keithly meditated an attack on Mr. Penrose, and was induced to watch the movements of the first named. The gentleman alluded to was standing in front of the store of Taya cane in his hand, apparently in a state of nervous excitement. Mr. Penrose passed nervous excitement. Mr. Penrose passed out of the store and was closely followed by Keithly. The gentleman, suspecting mischief, followed, but Keithly walked very fast and must have passed Mr. Penrose, and the gentleman lost track of the latter in endeavoring to keep track of Keithly, and finally lost sight of both. The cane with which the blows on Mr Penrose were inflicted is of mountain mahogany, and was borrowed, for the occasion, it is presumed, from Judge Sol. McCurdy.
