AMERICAN.

Dishonest Bankers.

WASHINGTON, 4.—C. W. Moulton, of Cincinnati, to-day, filed before Commissioner Raum a brief, holding of private banks are not subject to taxation on called bonds. Raum has informally so decided, but the Treasury learns that investigation into the liabilities of private banks into the matter of taxation is still proceeding in all the large cities, and the discovery is continually being made in which the increase in the amounts of taxes due the Government, although they get the benefit of every doubt. The aggregate amount due the Government from them is over $2,000,000.

Investigating Guiteau.

The Grand Jury has been in session two hours, chiefly on Guiteau's case, hearing Surgeon General Barnes, Dr. Lamb, Mrs. Whitworth, Agent Peck, of the depot office, policeman Jarby, Detective McElfish and E. A. Bailey; the last two on Guiteau's confession. An indictment is expected this afternoon.

Balling the Stars.

Owing to the rumor that counsel for defendants in the Star route cases, would this morning make a motion to quash information filed against Ben Brady and others, there was a large number of lawyers and others present in the Criminal Court room. The Court having been called to order, Brady, French, Turner and Brown entered, accompanied by their counsel, Robert G. Ingersoll, Jeremiah Wilson and Enoch Totten The Government was represented by Corkhill and Wm. A. Cook, special assistant.

The proceedings were opened by Totten, who said he had found a paper regarding information that had recently been filed against Brady and others, and wished a motion to quash that paper. He asked leave to file that motion, and desired a day be allowed for argument.

Cook objected to the motion at present, for when the information had been filed, it had been accompanied with an order of the court for the appearance of the parties. Until they did appear and give security to answer, they had no legal standing.

Totten replied the parties were all present in court and ready that the case should proceed.

Judge Cox inquired whether counsel had any suggestions to offer as to bail.

Cook said according to information, the amount of which the Government was defrauded was $35,000. According to Act of Congress, bail in cases of conspiracy to defraud the Government was fixed at $10,000. He would suggest, however, that in order to cover possible costs, bail should not be less than $15,000.

Wilson suggested in fixing the amount of bail the court ought to examine the pretended information in order to fix the amount of bail.

The Lay's Delay.

NEW YORK, 4.—The Times prints an interview with Col. Bliss regarding the prosecution of the Star route cases. "The work," he said, "is being pushed steadily along. It is an enormous and apparently an endless job. The general public has no conception of the amount of labor that has to be performed. The Guiteau case and one or two others will prevent the trial of Brady before November. Brady's counsel will probably delay his case until the meeting of Congress in December. Their reason for wanting to delay until that time is because they believe that they have friends in Congress who will aid them."

The President.

President Arthur and Senator Jones, of Nevada, left this morning for Washington by the limited express. Jones was with Arthur yesterday.

Wicked Perversion.

The Times says: A careful research into the records of the Senate show that it has always been the custom of that body when a presiding officer has been removed by death, or by reason of the expiration of his term since last session, to choose a president pro tem., and before the newly elected senators are sworn in. This may now seem a wicked perversion of right and justice and there are parties who think the republicans should make a fight for the organization of the Senate, but the records are clear and indisputable, and they should settle the case. Debate over the matter will not alter the facts of history.

Not a Delegate.

At the republican primaries to night, to choose delegates to the Republican State Convention, the so-called Conklingites carried all the assembled districts, except the ninth. The rumor that Gen. Grant will be a delegate from the 20th district proved to be untrue. There was a struggle in the 15th district, but the Conkling ticket was declared elected. People identified with the administration of Garfield as against Conkling claim to have carried Brooklyn.

The Embryotic Assassin.

The writer of the letter said to contain threats of assassination against Conkling, has been discovered and interviewed. He is Henry J. Rowley, of the Second Ward, Utica, who has been a republican speaker, and one who offered a strong Garfield sympathy resolution at the late ward caucus, which received two votes only; a more moderate resolution offered by a stalwart being adopted instead. Rowley has no particular occupation, but says he formerly kept hotel at Conestoga, where he employed D. W. Johnson, not Jackson, now of No. 14 South Street, New York, to whom the letter contained an expression of hope that somebody would put a bullet through Conkling if he attempted to enter the Republican State Convention. A dispatch has been sent to Police Commissioner Mason, on behalf of Rowley, authorizing him to make the letter public.

The British Flag at Yorktown.

Thurlow Weed, in this morning's Post suggests as a token of national friendly feeling toward Queen Victoria and acknowledgment of sympathy shown by England toward the late President, that the British flag be saluted with extraordinary honors at Yorktown; that it be saluted by all the assembled artillery of that field. Let the Queen be honored likewise, and in the same royal manner as if she were present in person; let the bands unite in "God Save Victoria," and let the whole army rejoice in her name.

Ex-President Hayes.

Ex-President Hayes arrived today.

Talmage's Modesty—Something he Dare Not Say.

A large part of Talmage's sermon on Sunday was upon Mormonism. He said: It needed a father and a husband like Garfield to understand the value of a Christian home and to annihilate the abomination of Mormonism. Perhaps the time has not yet come, perhaps it was necessary that a nation's indignation should be aroused to a greater pitch of anger against Mormonism before the extirpation should be attempted. I will not say that Guiteau was a Mormon, nor would I dare to say that he was not; but Guiteau says he shot Garfield in the name of the Lord: If he was not a Mormon, he was one of the Oneida community, whose chief doctrine was, right to a profusion of wives. He had the spirit of Mormon licentiousness, of Mormon cruelty and Mormon murder. I should not wonder if in the great day when all such things are revealed, it shall be found that he was the paid agent of that old hag who sits making mouths at high heaven; between the Rocky Mountains and Sierra Nevada.

Wandering.

DENVER, 4.—Russell and Meacham, members of the Indian Commission, arrived yesterday. They report that after the White River Utes were paid their money at Uintah agency, they returned to the old reservation. They were recently joined by some Uncompahgres, who were en route to Uintah and fighting. A portion of both branches of the tribe are now wandering over their old reservation. It is understood as soon as the Uncompahgres all arrive at Uintah and are paid, the commissioners will report their work finished to the Interior Department, in order that a proclamation be issued declaring the old reservation open for settlement. An employe of the commission reports the Indians splendidly armed, well supplied with ammunition, and spoiling for a fight.

Suspension.

CHICAGO, 4.—There was almost a panic on 'Change to-day when it was noticed that John B. Lyon, who was reported to be short about 8,000,000 bushels of corn, had suspended. Lyon has for years been a noted speculator in this market, and sometimes almost the exclusive shipper. He was said to have been called on for $1,000,000 margin last night after business hours, and to have failed to respond.

Roving Reds.

WILCOX, Arizona, 4.—A roadmaster just in reports seeing Indians moving towards Doogan Mountains, and about four miles behind are the troops pursuing, supposed to be Carroll's and Bernard's command. Carroll has sent word back that the trail leads to Cachize's stronghold. Sub-Agent Hoag reports 74 Chickauas are on the war path, making about 150 hostiles out.

Fatal Ambition.

GUNNISON 4.—On the evening of September 30th, at Crested Butte, James A. Lewis, known as Arizona Bill, an old Government scout, was killed by Marshal Hayes. Lewis being intoxicated, boasted that he could run the town, and it is said attempted to draw a revolver, when Hayes fired five shots, three passing through the body, the fourth lodging in the groin, and the fifth shot probably fatally wounded John Lutz, a bystander.

Gambling Debts.

CINCINNATI, 4.—The Cincinnati speculators in wheat at Chicago, who have lost so heavily, are supposed to number five; of these, two will meet their obligations in full and the others only in part, and will be seriously embarrassed. Some $400,000, it is said, have already been paid over, and more will yet be paid. These losers do not include all those who recently made such large gains at Chicago.

Divided.

ALBANY, 4.—The Evening Journal has a dispatch from Tioga County, saying the delegation to the Republican State Convention was divided, two stalwarts, ex-Senator Platt and Judge Clark, and two-thirds Administration republicans.

Blaine.

AUGUSTA, Me., 4.—Blaine left this morning for Washington.

Missing Funds.

LAWRENCE, Mass., 4.—It is reported there is a large shortage in the funds of the Pawtucket Navigation Company, of which B. F. Butler and E. M. Boynton are chief controllers.

Gen. Burnside's Successor.

PROVIDENCE, 4.—Nelson W. Aldrich, elected United States senator, to succeed Burnside, will be formally elected to-morrow.

Shot.

DENVER, 4.—In a fracas at Roger's Bend last night two negroes were shot.

FOREIGN.

Land Bill.

LONDON, 4. The Pall Mall Gazette, this evening, sketches a draft of the land bill for England, which has been finally considered by a special commission of farmers. The alliance bill aims at the establishing of a complete security for the capital of farmers and immunity from eviction, the rights of the tenant to sell his improvements in open market, with the provision that landlords must accept as tenant for seven years, and at the same rent as the outgoing tenant, of the person who purchases, and creation of a land court in every district for the settlement of questions concerning rent and all disputes.

The Pall Mall Gazette thinks the bill suggestive, and says: If the draft is supported by a majority of the farmers throughout the country, and is vigorously used as a means of agitating for reform, the day when Parliament must vote urgency for the English land bill is not very far distant.

Silk.

The Chamber of Commerce of Yokohama, telegraphs that the silk business of Japan is suspended, owing to new and oppressive conditions of sale imposed by the Japanese Guild, which foreign buyers resist.

Spiritual.

An unsuccessful attempt was made in the southern districts of London on Sunday, to imitate the American crusade against liquor selling by prayer meetings held opposite the public houses.

Ambassador.

Sir Edward Thornton, the newly appointed British Ambassador to Russia, started for St. Petersburg last evening, by way of Paris.

Incendiary Petroleum.

MOSCOW, 3.—The cable will have already informed you of the fire which broke out at Moscow on the 24th inst. Flames were seen issuing from the house inhabited by Hartmann and Sophia Perowsky at the time of the explosion on the Moscow & Kawroke Railroad. A carpenter in the neighborhood succeeded in capturing a man whom he saw running away from the building. The hands and clothes of the latter were smeared all over with petroleum, which had been poured over the walls of the house. There can be no doubt the fire was the work of the captured incendiary. In an examination he refused to say anything and was handed over to authorities.

Imperial Conference.

ST. PETERSBURG, 4.—The meeting of the Czar with the Empero of Austria, is expected to take place at Warsaw, next week. Gen. Ignatieff, Russian Minister of foreign affairs, will probably accompany the Czar.

It is said the Shah of Persia will arrive in April next to greet the Czar personally. It is not settled whether he will visit other courts.

Troops, Quittah, Chojak.

CALCUTTA, 4.—A special meeting of the Indian Council, has decided to withdraw the British troops from Chaman and Chojak outposts and reduce Quittah garrison to its original strength, plus one European regiment. This action is regarded as showing confidence of the government in regard to the effect of the recent battle in pacifying Afghanistan. Pischin will be retained for present.

Prorogued.

COPENHAGEN, 4.—The Rigstad reassembled to-day and was immediately prorogued to December 29.
