One of the most elaborate home wer dings of the year was that of Miss Elizabeth L. Davis and Alfred Peters, which took place on Tuesday night at the home of the bride's mother. Mrs Elizabeth Davis. The house was beau tifully decorated with a profusion or roses, carnations, cosmos and chrysan themums, effectively used with palms and smilax, the parlors being in red with American beauties and smilas, and the dining room in pink and white with a centerpiece of chrysanthemums for the table, and sprays of pink roses and ferns strewn on the cloth, while streamers of white tulle extended from the chandellers to the four corners, these with the candelabra shaded in pink roaking an effective decoration. At 8 o'clock the bridal party entered the room, little Ruth Robinson and Leonard Davis, acting respectively as flower girl and ring bearer, coming first, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Beatrice Davis, "and the bridesmaids, Misses Damaris Beeman and Myra Sowles, Next came the bride walking alone, being met by the groom and his best man in the library where the ceremony was performed by Rev. C. E. Brown of the Congregational church. As the party entered the rooms Mrs. Martha King Royle sang the "Bridal Cherus" from Lohengrin, ac-companied by Prof. Peterson with the plano, and Messrs. Will Davis and Arthur Peterson with violins. During the ceremony the intermezzzo from "Cavelleria Rusticana" was played by the three last named, and the Mendel-scohn march at its close. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white creps de chine over taffeta with pearl and lace trimmings and carried a shower boquet of bride's roses. The maid of bonor was daintily gowned in pink and the bridesmalds in blue. Assisting the bridal party in receiving the guests were Mrs. Honold, Mrs. Crone. Mrs. Charles Peak, Miss Mamie Banker and Miss Eva Dix.
