The Scofield lodge No. 32, L O. O. F., will hold memorial services over their deceased neighbors who lost their lives in the mine explosion, and they have re-quested the Salt Lake Odd Fellows to and some flowers down for the occasion. A committee therefore has been appointed by the local lodge to receive flowers at I. O. O. F. temple, Market street, on Friday afternoon next, be tween the hours of 2 and 4.

There was a large mass meeting at Murray last evening to consider the matter of electing a county superin-tendent of schools, and to decide whether or not the matter should be non-partisan. The majority of those present were Democrats, and they favored the maintaining of the old system. This maintaining of the old system. This means that the election of school super-intendent will be conducted on parti-san lines. The meeting resulted in the passing of a resolution to appoint a committee, consisting of a representative from each school district, to present the promutition of superto present the proposition of amending the constitution, to the next Democratic county convention.

the Latter-day Saints' College assembly rooms. It was well attended and every one present enjoyed it very much. He talked systematically and to the point, laying particular stress upon of procedure in conducting method classes. By way of illustrating his advice he took up somewhat the first two lessons of the Manual of next year, and presented them to those present. Much importance was laid upon character study and attention was called to the character of Lyman Wight, Joseph Smith and Heber C. Kimball, "Persecution up to a certain point," said he, "beyond all question of a doubt, strengthens faith, but there is a point at which it crushes the spirit and
