The arrangements have now been completed so we will get the official fermit of the governor to tap the river rhout twelve r lies above here and run the water into reservoirs some six milos up the valley from town. This scheme has been a dearly cherished hope of every Diagite far some six years. It is anticipated that work will begin on the canal and reservoirs as foon as on the canal and reservoirs as soon as the harvest is over, this, when con-summated, will be a red letter day for this colony as we will then have water sufficient to irrigate thousands instead of hundreds of scress. Crops look fine, prospects for an early rainy season are very good. Miss Pearl Whiting has recently returned home after a solourn of two years at the B. Y. academy.
