EVENING NEWS.

Friday, November 18, 1877.

PRICE OF WOOD. Corrected daily by Deseret Standard. SALT LAKE CITY, November 18, 1877.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Thermometer at 9 o'clock P. in the shade at 1 p.m. today. Cloudy.

Twentieth and Twenty-First Wards.—The Elders, Priests, Teachers and Deacons of the above wards will meet in the Twentieth Ward Meeting House at 7 o'clock this evening for the purpose of being organized.

Railroad Rumor.—There is a report current that it is intended to build a narrow gauge line between Salt Lake and Ogden. This would make a narrow gauge connection between this city and the mines of Bingham and Little Cottonwood Canyons.

New Mining Company.—We understand that Mr. Trener W. Park and associates recently organized, in New York, a new mining company in connection with the celebrated "Emma" mine.

Storing Grain.—To-morrow, November 19th, at 2 p.m., at the Council House, the annual meeting of the several committees of ladies on storing grain will be held.

Shooting.—The Rifle Shooting Club of Denver, Col., have solicited a challenge from the Salt Lake Club, the shooting to be done by the respective teams at Denver and in this city; the results to be communicated each way by telegraph.

The Mound Builders.—Professor Barlow has sent us a letter from the librarian of the Davenport Academy of Sciences, in Iowa, in which there are facts relating to the mound builders of that region, which are of great interest to antiquarians.

Opened an Office.—Dr. Romania B. Pratt has opened her office in the 12th Ward, 2nd South Street, between 5th and 6th East Streets.

The Work in Scotland.—A letter from Elder David Milne, dated Oct. 27th, states that Elder A. F. Macdonald, President of the Scotch Conference, had apportioned the fields of labor of the several Elders now there as follows:

Not Consummated.—The arrangements for the coal trade of this city and the surrounding country to pass entirely into the hands of the Union Pacific Railroad company did not culminate yesterday as expected.

Killed by a Snowslide.—The following is a special to the News: ALTA, Nov. 16.

Accident.—This morning some workmen were engaged in enlarging an ice house at Lindsay's Gardens, when a tank caved, partially burying a young man named George Combe.

The Drama at Ogden.—Mr. John S. Lindsay will appear at the Ogden Theatre to-morrow evening, as Don Cesar de Bazan, with a full company.

DIED. At Hyrum City, Idaho, on the 16th of Nov., 1877, OTHHELIA, wife of A. B. Hanson, aged 34 years, 3 months and 10 days.

At Ogden, Utah, on the 16th of Nov., 1877, OTHHELIA, wife of A. B. Hanson, aged 34 years, 3 months and 10 days.

Woman's Medical School.—We understand that Dr. Ellen B. Ferguson of this city has concluded to deliver a course of lectures on medical diagnosis, to the ladies of the Medical Class, meeting in the Exposition office every alternate Saturday.

The first of the series was given on the 7th inst., the second lecture will be delivered to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. It is to be hoped that the members of the class will make a point of attending these valuable and instructive lectures.

The Concert.—There was another large audience at the Theatre last night, and another splendid performance. Every piece was encored. But it appeared to us that the object of the recall after each opera selection was to obtain a simple song from the performer.

Southward Bound.—A gentleman who recently arrived from Pangulch states that the road between that point and this city is fairly lined with the teams of people moving from this more northern region for the purpose of making new homes in Southern Utah, Arizona and New Mexico.

Birth Day Festivities.—Annually, on each anniversary of Mother L. B. Pratt, of Beaver, it is customary for her to receive a congratulatory visit from a large number of her personal friends, mostly aged persons.

Sudden Death.—Mr. Fred Salsbury, brother of Mr. Monroe Salsbury, of the stage coach firm of Gilmer and Salsbury, died suddenly last night, at the office of the firm named, over Wells Fargo & Co's premises.

Not Consummated.—The arrangements for the coal trade of this city and the surrounding country to pass entirely into the hands of the Union Pacific Railroad company did not culminate yesterday as expected.
