A very touching and impressive scene took place at the church, which brought tears to the eyes of all present. About 50 of her little gir) associates in Sunday school and Primary, all dressed in white, passed by her casket, and each dropped a small bouquet of sweetscented flowers on the same.

The funeral services were presided over by Bishop John Watson. The ward choir furnished some sweet music, and Mrs. Bessle Dean Allison and Hagbert Anderson sang solos. The Sunday school children sang very sweetly, "Your sweet little rosebud has left you," and "O my Father." Consoling and appropriate addresses were made by Patriarch G. W. Larkin, Elders J. H. Switchman Thomas Belliston Succumbs

To Injuries and is Laid to Rest. Special Correspondence.

Nephi, Juab Co., June 8 .- The south-bound train of the San Pedro railway bound train of the san Petro railway this morning contained two ex-tra coaches for the accommodation of the many friends, railway employes, and Woodmen, who desired to attend the funeral of Thomas Belliston, the infortunate victim of last Friday's ac-the cars, while on duty switching, that he expired from his injuries on Sunday in the St. Mark's hospital. Over 90 per-406, Woodmen of the World, and S. L. L. No. 119, Switchman's union, of which the was a member, filled the coaches and come to Nephi, to pay their last re-spects, and attend the funeral of their beloved brother. The deceased was born in Nephi some

5 years ago, and desired to be buried here. Consequently arrangments were made through the kindness of the offi-cials of the San Fedro railroad.

The funeral services were held in the Tabernacle at Nephi, which was crowd-ed to the doors. The services comed to the doors. The services com-menced by the choir singing, "Though deep'ning triais throng your way."

Prayer was offiered by Elder Abraham Orme. The choir then sang, "Softly beams the sacred dawning." Appropriate remarks of sympathy and consola-tion were made by Elders Stoneman and Hugh Watson of Salt Lake, and Bishops Parks and Pettigrew of Nephl. At the close of the services the choir, under the leadership of Thos. W. Vick-en, sang "Thou dost not weep to weep alone." After the benediction the body was viewed, and finally was followed to the cemetery by a large cortege. The casket and stand were literally buried with bautiful flowers. The widow and relatives of deceased ish to most sincerely thank the offiials of the Oregon Short Line and San Pedro rallroads for their extreme kind-ness in furnishing the cars for the mourners and friends from Salt Lake City, and for the assistance of other friends in their hour of trial. JAMES T. OCKEY DEAD.
