PRICE OF GOLD.

Corrected daily by Deseret National Bank.

SALT LAKE CITY, January 16, 1879.

Buying at $1.00½. Selling at $1.00¾.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Call For It.—The person who lost a horse blanket can get it on application at this office.

"Sunday Magazine."—We have received the February number of the "Sunday Magazine," one of Frank Leslie's best publications. It is a large periodical, each number having 128 pages, and is beautifully and profusely illustrated. For sale at Dwyer's.

"Statistical Almanac."—Before us is the Tribune (New York) Almanac and Political Register for 1878, edited by Mr. Edward McPherson. This little work is of great value, containing as it does, a most extensive fund of information—political, statistical and otherwise. For sale at Dwyer's, price 25 cents.

Priests'.—The regular monthly meeting of the Priests residing in Salt Lake City, will be held at the Council House, on Saturday, the 12th inst., at half past six p. m.

A punctual attendance is requested.

ANDREW BURT,
President.

Handsome.—Mayor Little recently made a handsome presentation to the Bishopric and members of the 21st Ward, in the shape of an elegant silver plated sacramental service, for use at the sacrament meetings. The gift is greatly appreciated by the recipients.

"Taken".—The members of the Fire Department, in full costume, with all the apparatus "were taken," by Messrs Fox & Symons, to-day. We don't mean that they were taken possession of, but that the photographers named took a likeness of them.

Hosiery.—Mr. C. R. Savage has commenced this early to prepare for St. Valentine's Day. He has imported a large quantity of fancy materials from England and the Eastern States, and is having them made up, by home art and ingenuity into elegant and beautiful valentines.

Fined.—Last evening Charles Hill, a turbulent fellow, was fined $15 for being intoxicated and assaulting a couple of police officers. He tauntingly invited the officers to drink with him and then bound them with foul language when they refused.

Tannery.—The castings for the tanneries ordered from the east, are beginning to arrive, the machinery is being fitted up by Mr. W. J. Silver, and probably in two or three weeks Gilder will be in the vats and the establishment in active operation.

Taking Water.—This morning Justice Pyper was engaged in trying a man for taking water. It is much too frequent for that functionary to sit in judgment upon persons for taking too much whiskey. In this instance, however, it was water. He took it from the ditch, for the purpose of making ice, when he had no right to.

Tabernacle Choir.—We are requested by Brother George Careless, to state that the proposed meeting of the members of the Tabernacle Choir is postponed until Friday evening, Jan. 17th, at seven o'clock at the Council House.

Brother Careless extends a cordial invitation to persons possessed of good voices, not now connected with the choir, to attend the meeting and become members.

Token of Respect.—Last evening Phoenix Company No. 1, of the Salt Lake Fire Department, presented to the Chief Engineer Geo. M. Ottinger, a handsome silver badge in the form of a shield surmounted by an eagle. Near the centre of the shield is the figure of a fire engine, in raised gold. On the badge is an appropriate inscription.

Presentation.—By courtesy of Bishop Alexander McRae, we have been permitted to peruse a letter from his son Joseph, with the company of colonists settled on the San Pedro river, Arizona. It states that the company had, by hauling logs, timber etc., made about $1,800 and had been blessed and prospered on every hand. They purchased supplies, seed grain, provisions, etc., as were comparatively comfortable. The part of the country where the settlers are located is good both for farming and stock-raising. The brethren have taken up a good deal of land, on which there are a number of springs and they have located a ditch for the purpose of taking water out from the river. There is plenty of room there for 20 people more, with all the land they need. He speaks delightfully with the country and its prospects, and says, "A man who can make half a living in Utah can make a whole one here."

Municipal.—That portion of Ogden City known as Mound Fort and Lynne districts has been organized, by ordinance of the city council, a municipal ward, and will be represented in the corporation by an alderman.

Mining Suit.—The Old Telegraph mining suit still monopolizes the time and attention of the District Court. Yesterday was exclusively occupied in hearing the testimony of the defendant, L. E. Holden. His evidence was very elaborate and detailed.

Beauteous Nature.—A gentleman who takes special pleasure in contemplating nature in its loveliness, hands us the following:

"Despite the fog and gloominess of the past few days, the beauty and grandeur of the towering mountains surrounding us have not been hidden. Occasionally, and especially at early morning, when the clouds have lifted or broken for a few moments, fleeting glimpses have been caught of snow-covered mountains, rising into space, crowned with the golden haze of sunshine, and giving back the rays like the glitter of diamonds. At other times, to those who have gazed from elevated positions, the greater part of the valley has been revealed in soft, shadowless clearness; while the high peaks of the grand old mountains, which alone pierced through the coverlet of clouds into the brilliant light beyond, seemed crowned with a glory not of earth."

Temperance Society.—We are requested to publish the following:—

The first regular meeting of the Salt Lake City "Temple of Honor" was held in Cisler's Hall last evening, which was furnished with all the necessary furniture of the order. It is just five weeks ago since the organization was formed. And the charter members have had many difficulties to contend with, both financially and otherwise. At last the "slough of despond" has been passed and a regular "Temple" formed, with a very promising future before it.

A great many suppose that this order and the Good Templars are one and the same. In this they are mistaken, for they are as distinct as Odd Fellows and Masons.

Six degrees are taken in the Temple of Honor. The first of course is temperance.

The following officers were installed;

James Gordon, W C T; Henry F. Williams, W V T; Louis S. Kelsey, W R; John Thomas Buckle, D W R; J. Buckle, W T; W. B. Woods, W F R; Alfred Shines, W U; Samuel L. Carlisle, D W U; W. S. Martin, W I G; James Morgan, W O G.

LOUIS S. KELSEY, W R.

"Habeas Corpus."—Last night, in answer to a writ of habeas corpus, issued from the District Court, Sheriff Alvin Crockett, of Cache County, came down from Logan, having in his custody Alexander Beanshaw. The latter had been committed to jail, by the Justice of Smithfield Precinct, in default of finding bonds of $3,000, to await the action of the grand jury. The charge against Beanshaw was rape upon his wife's niece, a little girl eleven years old.

In accordance with the aforesaid writ of habeas corpus, the prisoner was taken before Judge Schaeffer, this morning, and, on motion of his attorney, Mr. Ed. McKean, son of Mr. J. B. McKean, was discharged within the short space of about five minutes.

The order of release states that the proceedings in the trial before the Justice were irregular, that the evidence was insufficient, and that the Justice had no right to hold the accused "in $3,000 or any sum whatever." There was no trial, but merely a preliminary examination. Wherein the irregularity existed does not appear, the evidence was deemed very strong, and was not weakened by the accused being the reputed perpetrator of a previous similarly atrocious act to that for which he was committed. Let us hope that most people view the matter differently from his honor, who surely should consider well before turning loose upon the public a person liable to destroy the virtue of the innocent.

SHORT AND SHARP.

A man fooled into buying a pinchbeck watch called it Faith, because it was without works, and therefore dead.

Those young ladies at fairs who sell five-cent pin-cushions for three dollars ought to be arrested for robbing the males.

Doctor.—"You eat well?" Patient.—"Yes." "And sleep well?" "Yes." "And drink well!" "Yes." Doctor, writing out a prescription, "Well, we'll soon stop that. Have this made up and take it three times a day."

Some things can be overdone. It is well enough for a circus company to send its gilded wagons through the town to excite in the minds of the people a desire to see the great show, but for an undertaker to walk his black span with a new hearse and waving plumes through the village in the hope of getting customers is carrying competitions of trade too far.

A border at one of our hotels, after vainly endeavoring to masticate a piece of fowl the other day, laid down his knife and fork, saying: "All the trainings, traditions and teachings of my youth, my sense of propriety, and the commands of holy writ, compel me to respect old age; but I'll be blowed if I can bring myself to stomach it when roasted or broiled."

The Roman Catholic prelates in England exhibit in their addresses and sermons great apprehension of infidelity and indifference. In his last pastoral letter the Bishop of Birmingham says: "The old Catholic traditions remaining in the country are fast dying out, and what is the result? Free thinking, disbelief in Christianity, and open infidelity. . . The most depraved systems of Atheism invented by the most corrupt imaginations of Germany and France have found their sponsors in England."

If we do remonetize the silver dollar, let it be dated 1804. The coins of that year are worth $500 to $1,000 each, according to the distinctness of the date mark. And let the date mark be made especially distinct.—Hartford Courant.

A man named Bennett, who lives on West Hill, says his great grandfather fought with Washington. We have carefully examined "Irving's Life," and other authorities, but we can find no mention of a record of Washington having had a fight with a man named Bennett, so we think our West Hill friend must be mistaken.—Hamilton.
