LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THE DAYS are really fine and beautiful now and the nights sharp and clear.
VICE-PRESIDENT COLFAX says his happiest days were those spent in a printing office. If he wishes to renew his experience of the joys of the good old times we can give him a "case" at the News office.

UNADULTERED PERSECUTION.—A writer in the Nation, who has been at Salt Lake, and closely watched the drift of things there, declares it as his opinion that the government persecution of prominent Mormons is nothing but a pure and undiluted persecution. And we observe that a prominent Republican paper takes a similar view of the case. The writer in the Nation says that the persecution of the Mormons is a year or so ago to beat the Mormons at argument, but was beaten at his own game, and returned to Washington, and induced Grant to order the late Attorney General to begin suits against the Saints.—(Cleveland Plain Dealer, March 15.)

A MASONIC SOCIAL will be held at the New Masonic Hall to-morrow, Wednesday, evening, March 20. We acknowledge the receipt of complimentary.

His Chief Object.—The New York Herald's Washington correspondent says the chief object of Judge McKean's visit to Washington was to induce the Attorney-General, by direction of the President, to call for the resignation of District Attorney Bates.

Information wanted of Caleb Hatley (now about 32 years old), who emigrated from Shuford, near Barbary, England, and crossed the plains in 1834 or 1835, and whose mother (Mary Hatley) two brothers (Jonathan and Urban) and sister (Letitia) died on the plains, coming with him. Address, Daniel Gross, Salt Lake City.

POLICE COURT.—Three soldiers were before Justice Oulton this morning, charged with engaging in a fight last evening. Two were discharged and the third, the man who was struck with the head with a cane in a saloon, was fined $10.

Two citizens, W. Kirby and Thomas Campbell, who were engaged in the same fracas, and who gave bonds for their appearance, failed to come into court. Kirby was unable to appear on account of a severe injury in one of his knees, which he received in the fray.

MENTION RETURNS FROM THE COUNTY.

The following were received by Deseret Telegraph:

St. George, 18.—The election for this precinct has just closed. The whole number of votes polled was 415, believed to be unanimous for G. Q. Cannon, Thomas Fitch and Frank Fuller as Delegates to proceed with the name to Washington for President.

Paris, Utah, 18.—Paris polled 201 votes in favor of the constitution and the State ticket, several Gentiles voting the whole thing in common with the "Mormons." The other precincts are still in doubt.

Snow is only two feet deep now. They expect spring by July anyhow.

Fountain Green, 19.—The number of votes polled here yesterday was 185, all for the constitution and State ticket.

Nephi, 19.—

The returns of the election held yesterday in this county, received up to this hour, for the constitution and the State ticket of Deseret, are as follows: Nephi, 173 votes; Levan, 134 votes; Big Water, 100 votes; and all the other precincts voted for the constitution.

S. PITCHFORTH, County Clerk.

RETURNED MEMORANDUM.—Elder J. B. Noble called to-day. He got back from a mission to the east last Sunday. While absent he visited the States of Iowa, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York. He met with many relatives who were not seen for many years, who received him gladly. Brother Noble is a Christian.

Having first become identified with it in 1832.

HALLELUJAH.—Two young men, one named Irwin and the other Robinson, were this morning each fined $5 for engaging in a fight yesterday. It appears that the cause of the fight was an old grudge, and that challenge to fight had previously been issued between them. It happened that one or both managed to be absent at the time appointed from the place selected as the scene of the proposed combat. The two met yesterday on East Temple Street, however, and without much ceremony commenced paring operations on each other. Each man pleaded his own cause, but their eloquence fell unheeded on the ears of the doctor.

THERE is a message at the Deseret Telegraph office for D. S. Dana, attorney-at-law.

A STREET FIGHT.—There was a street fight on the east side of East Temple St. yesterday evening about five o'clock. Our reporter was attracted to the scene of conflict by seeing a crowd on the sidewalk in front of a saloon, and two soldiers standing in the water, one of whom was affectionately washing the blood from an angry wound in the other's head. Said to have been inflicted with a cane in the hands of some party. There seemed to be some thing going on inside the saloon, and the crowd pressed in at the door-way. In a few moments there was a cry of "Look out for six-shooters," and out of the crowd rushed a man in the crowd and a man in a high state of excitement rushed out of the saloon and knocked first one and then another of the two aforementioned soldiers down. This beautiful individual was seized by two men, one of whom was a soldier, and the other a man in a high state of excitement, and they rushed up the street in single file.

UPPER POLICE.—The opposition to the Mormon cause appears to be a composition of Radicalism, religious fanaticism, of the rampant Newman stamp, quarts speculators, who desire to gobble all the good mines held by the Mormons, (which will enable them to make big money by sales to Eastern capitalists,) and Gentiles acting in good faith. The Mormons outnumber the Gentiles about five or six to one, and, acting in solid phalanx.

are victorious at the polls. This is the result of the opposition against them. The Mormons hold a monopoly of all the good lands in the Territory, and, by virtue of the numerous property growing up to years of maturity, are likely to hold the political sway in the great-hopper secured Territory for a long time to come. The opposition are endeavoring to make Utah too hot for the Mormons by the promulgation and persecution of Judge McKean and the whole power of the Government. What the result will be remains to be seen.

The question of Mormon politics should be handled by statesmen, and not carried by fanatics of the Newman stamp. The latter can the case be bettered by the obtrusive interference of transient adventurers of desperate fortunes who have sought the Territory for purely selfish purposes.—Helena (Montana) Gazette.
