

ROOSEVELT IN THE LONE STAR STATE

School Children of Denison Present
Him With a Magnificent Floral Emblem.

SAYS HE'S TYPICAL PRESIDENT

Is Half Southerner, Half Northerner,
Was Born in the East but Has Lived Much in the West.

Dallas, Tex., April 5.—President Roosevelt is tonight the guest of the Lone Star state. The special train bearing the president and party arrived in Dallas over the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad promptly at 6:25 o'clock tonight. Reception committees were in evidence when the train rolled into the station, and the chief executive was driven through the streets to a public stand near the Oriental hotel, where he delivered an address. The streets were densely packed with citizens and visitors, and the reception accorded the president was nothing short of a continuous ovation. After delivering his speech the president and party attended a dinner at the Oriental hotel, tendered by the citizens of Dallas. His train will leave for Waco, Austin and San Antonio at 5:49 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Denison was reached at 3:45 o'clock. Preparatory to the arrival of the train the yards had been cleared of all cars and all work was suspended. An immense crowd had gathered to greet the president, who was standing on the rear platform smiling and bowing his acknowledgments of the cheers which greeted him as soon as the train stopped. A party of school children advanced to the platform and presented to the president a magnificent floral offering in the shape of a Texas flag. A card attached read: "Presented by the children of the public schools as a welcome of the president. The state of Texas and the city of Denison." In presenting the floral offering Miss Pauline Everett, as spokeswoman, said:

MISS EVERETT'S ADDRESS.
"In former times the children strewed flowers in the pathway of Washington and Lafayette; today the school children of the first free public school building ever erected in Dallas give you this floral emblem signifying honor and integrity."

The president replied briefly. When the train pulled out for Sherman the president, standing on the platform, waved his hand and smiled in response to the repeated cheers.

AT SHERMAN.
At Sherman one of the largest crowds of the day greeted the president. He was escorted to a stand, where he spoke for 15 minutes. Cannon boomed and the city was in gala attire in honor of the visitors. From Sherman the train maintained its schedule to Dallas. The president was in splendid spirits, after the long day's ride, and shortly before reaching Dallas said that he never felt better in his life.

When Mayor Bryant T. Barry of Dallas finished his address of welcome and introduction President Roosevelt addressed the gathering. He said in part:

ADDRESS AT DALLAS.
"I can, in a sense, claim to be, by blood at least, a typical president, for I am half southerner, half northern."

TEA
Do you think the only differences in tea are a few cents a pound?

St. Louis, Mo., April 6.—Miss Gladys Bryant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Smith, has been designated by Mayor Wells as sponsor at the christening of the United States cruiser St. Louis, which will be launched in Philadelphia May 6.

Many Officers to Retire.

San Francisco, April 6.—Gen. Frederick Funston has arrived here to relieve Gen. Moore, in command of the department of California, who retires from the army at noon today.

Immediately following the retirement of Gen. Moore will come the retirement of the following officers, all with the title of brigadier general:

Col. A. C. G. R. Sanborn, medical department; Lieut. Col. W. H. Beck, Third cavalry; Lieut. Col. Frank M. Robinson, Thirtieth cavalry; Lieut. Col. Frank Taylor, Nineteenth infantry; Lieut. Col. Samuel W. Fountain, Fourth cavalry; Lieut. Col. Edward Davis, artillery corps; Lieut. Col. Charles W. Hobbs, artillery corps.

The retirement of the above officers causes the promotion of Col. James A. Buchanan, Twenty-fourth infantry, who takes the permanent vacancy.

A Grim Tragedy.

is daily enacted, in thousands of homes, as death claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and Colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley, of Oakland, Ind., writes:

"My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1.00 by Z. C. M. I. Drug department.

Nervousness and Nerve.

The nervous man is, the less nerve he has. That sounds paradoxical—but it isn't; for nerve is stamina. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives nerve. It tones the whole system, perfects digestion and assimilation, and is therefore the best medicine a nervous person can take.

BABY ONE SOLID SORE

Could Not Shut Eyes to Sleep Forty Boils on Head Spent $100 on Doctors Baby Grew Worse.

CURED BY CUTICURA FOR $5

"A scab formed on my baby's face, spreading until it completely covered her from head to foot, followed by boils, having forty on her head at one time, and more on her body. Then her skin started to dry up and it became so bad she could not shut her eyes to sleep. One month's treatment with Cuticura Soap and Ointment made a complete cure. Doctors and medicines had cost over $100, with baby growing worse. Then we spent less than $5 for Cuticura and cured her. (signed) Mrs. G. H. Tucker, Jr., 335 Greenfield Ave., Milwaukee, Wis."

er. I was born in the east and I have a great deal of the west in my spirit. "I want you men of Texas, you men of my age, to see today that exactly as you lift your heads here by virtue of what your fathers have done, so your children have the right to hold their heads high because of the way in which you have handled yourselves. A glorious memory is the best of all things for a nation if it spurs the nation on to try to rise level with that memory."

"It is a poor thing for a nation if it uses the memory of the past to excuse it for inaction or failure in the present. Keep before yourselves ever that the very fact that you are proud of those who have gone before makes it incumbent upon you to leave a heritage of honor to those who are to come after you, and to train up those who are to come after you so that they can do their work in the world."

After urging the people to bring up children with the idea that they must bear hardship, he said:

"What would you all have been fit for, you men who fought in the Civil war, if you had been trained up to believe that you met a difficulty the proper thing was to lay down or run away; and you don't like, do you, for an occasional foolish father—and I am sorry to say an occasional foolish mother—to bring up the boy or the girl on the theory that all that is necessary is to have an easy time and to dodge difficulties?"

"I cannot sufficiently thank you for the way you have greeted me today. I am more touched by it than I can express, and I come to the soil of this state, hallowed by the great deeds of great men. I come knowing your people already, and believing in them. I shall go away with this feeling. A couple of years ago I went from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The fundamental fact and a mighty pleasant fact is that wherever you find the average American the average American is a pretty good man. It is our unity, not the divergence, that is the great fundamental fact of our national life. I shall go away a stronger and a better American for having been in this state of strong and good Americans, this mighty commonwealth of Texas. I thank you."

The president was the guest of honor tonight at a banquet at which covers were laid for 300. The president made a characteristic speech, in which he gave a definition of what he meant by the expression, "a square deal for all." His definition was received with great applause, the demonstration lasting for several minutes.

Later he was presented with a loving cup by the citizens of Dallas. Just before the banquet was over former Gov. Hogg, in response to calls, got up and made a speech in which he warmly commended the president for his policy in the Panama canal matter and the Northern Securities case.

At the conclusion of Gov. Hogg's speech, President Roosevelt left his chair and, walking over to Gov. Hogg, shook hands with him and warmly commended him. Gov. Hogg had said in his speech that he wanted the president to understand that the people of Texas had not snubbed him for his action in the Panama canal matter, notwithstanding the policy of certain southern senators.

GERMANY FOR OPEN DOOR IN MOROCCO

Her Policy in This Matter is Clearly Defined in a Memorandum

PRESENTED TO STATE DEPT.

She Stands for It No Less Firmly in North Africa Than in the Far East.

Washington, April 5.—Germany has outlined to the United States in clear and emphatic terms the position claimed by the Berlin government in Morocco. Upon the receipt of instructions this morning from Berlin, the German ambassador called at the war department upon Secy. Taft, whom the president, before leaving, designated as the cabinet officer with whom the ambassadors could confer, and in the name of the German emperor left with the secretary a brief memorandum setting forth the Moroccan policy which Germany has all along pursued and from which she does not purpose to be averted. In substance the memorandum, which is couched in the most explicit language, announces that Germany stands for the "open door" in Morocco no less firmly than in the far east, for the preservation of the Moroccan status quo and for the safeguarding and protection of the commercial and trade interests in Morocco not only of Germany, but of all the trading nations of the world.

After presenting the memorandum, the secretary and the ambassador had a brief conversation on the subject of Morocco, Baron Sternberg calling attention to the commercial importance of that country to the trading nations and emphasizing the international importance in Germany's opinion of the preservation of the "open door." The secretary thanked the ambassador for his explicit statement of the German policy and promptly forwarded the memorandum to President Roosevelt. In conferring with Secy. Taft the German ambassador was acting upon a suggestion made to him when he called at the White House last week to say good-bye to the president. The president then took occasion to say to the German envoy as he had said to the other ambassadors that they were to communicate with him through Secy. Taft upon matters warranting his consideration.

Secy. Taft, while expressing interest in the emperor's views, refrained from committing this government on the subject, nor did the ambassador in any way endeavor to sound him as to the president's attitude. There is no request in the German memorandum for a statement of the Washington government's position and one reason for its presentation today was the circulation in Europe of sensational reports about the German emperor's visit to Tangier and the German attitude toward Morocco.

Although France is not mentioned in the memorandum, it can be stated that Germany regrets that she was officially advised of the new position in Morocco contemplated by Great Britain and France, which was later disclosed in the treaty signed last spring, in which the London government referred to the superior interest of France in Morocco. Germany holds that her interests in Morocco are in every respect equal to those of Great Britain and the establishment by any power of a special sphere of influence would be deplored in Berlin.

Regarding the emperor's visit to Tangier, although it was in the line of his cruise in the Mediterranean, the object of his address was, it can be stated on high authority, to impress the Moroccan with the seriousness of Germany's desire that the status quo should be maintained and that the principle of the "open door" laid down by Secy. Hay with reference to China should be strictly adhered to in Morocco.

In diplomatic circles the significance of Germany's frank avowal at Washington of her views about Morocco is not underestimated, and the incident has attracted all the more attention because of its occurrence on the day on which the Washington government officially disclosed the initial role played by Emperor William in the exchanges of the powers last year regarding Chinese neutrality in the far eastern war. Some diplomats believe the object of the German representations at this time is to evoke from Washington a similar avowal of adherence to the "open door" policy in Morocco.

Although Secy. Taft was not so informed, nor does his memorandum indicate it, it is believed here that a similar statement of Germany's views may have been addressed also to St. Petersburg and Madrid.

No official statement of the German position is obtainable at the German embassy here, in view of the fact that President Roosevelt has scarcely had time to consider the memorandum.
