Sergeant John Hempel Dislikes His Methods of Obtaining His Fees.

Sergeant Hempel of the police department has put a stop, and a sudden stop at that, to the methods said to have been employed by one Wooten, a lawyer who occasionally has a petty case in the police court, in getting a fee. Some time ago Hempol arrested a man named J. W. Ernest on the charge of forging the name of E. W. Weber to a check. The man was taken to the county jail and is now awaiting trial on the charge of forgery. The accused employed Wooten to defend him, but there was no fee forthcoming. The prisoner claimed to be a painter and Wooten induced two painters to make the rounds of saloons and other places presenting a petition in behalf of Ern-est. According to Sergt. Hempel they led people to believe that the petition was backed up by the painters' union, and money was asked for for the de-fense of the accused. at that, to the methods said to have

TO STOP FAST DRIVING.

Sheriff Emery Proposes to Prosecute Reckless Chauffeurs.

Many complaints have been made to Many complaints have been made to the sheriff's office of fast driving down in the southeastern part of the city, and names and numbers of autoists who have exceeded the speed limit have been handed in. Accidents have been numerous lately, owing to the absolute disregard of the safety of foot passen-gers by chauffeurs driving their ma-chines in the outskirts of the city and just outside the munisipal limits. Two complaints came in this morning from the vicinity of Twelfth South street that automobiles were driven at a dangerous automobiles were driven at a dangerous rate through the streets, and asking that some action be taken whereby this reckless and dangerous driving might that some action be taken whereby this reckless and dangerous driving might be stopped. Sheriff Emery said that he would im-mediately put a force of mounted offi-cers on duty, whose duty it shall be to ferret out chauffeurs and owners of machines who exceed the speed limit and drive with such brutal disregard of the safety of citizens. "Their instruc-tions will be to pull them in, regard-less of position, age, color, or previous condition of servitude. This fast driv-ing must be stopped." declared the sheriff, "and I am going to see that it is stopped." We intend to make some good stiff examples of the first ones we can catch, and if the practise does not stop, we will arrest every man ex-ceeding the limit, just as rupidly as they can be brought in. It is an out-rage that a man, woman or child can-not walk along the streets of this city without being in danger of being run down and probably seriously injured, and if this office can stop the practise of 'scorching.' It is certainly going to do it."
