SANDWICH ISLANDS JUBILEE.

A Grand Jubilee Festival has recently been held at Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, in honor of the landing of the first American Missionaries on those Islands in 1820. The entire native and foreign population of Honolulu and the adjacent districts, besides many from other islands, came to the celebration. A native by the name of Kuwae, and who is called by some the Daniel Webster of the Sandwich Islands, delivered the Jubilee sermon in native; and Mr. Damon, who passed through this city a few weeks ago, and who is the chaplain of the Seamen's Bethel in Honolulu, preached the Jubilee sermon to the whites. These were delivered on the Sunday previous to the day adopted as the celebration day.

The old stone church was selected as the place for the celebration of the anniversary, to which those who participated in the festival marched in procession. The Rev. Dr. Clark, Secretary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, had been sent out from Boston to represent that Society at the Jubilee. He, and a number of other prominent gentlemen, addressed the audience, among whom were the King and the ex-Queen Emma, the members of the Cabinet and the diplomatic representatives of America, England and France and the consular corps. But the persons who occupied the seats of honor on the occasion were two ladies—Mrs. Whitney and Mrs. Thurston—widows of two of the first missionaries, and the only ones living of the little band who went to those Islands in 1820. Our readers will be interested in knowing that Mrs. Whitney is a sister of Bro. Edward Partridge, deceased, the first Bishop of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, whose family dwell in our midst, and whose name is familiar to every member of the Church.

Of course upon such an occasion contrasts would be drawn between the past and the present. The condition of the people and country fifty years ago was compared with the present situation and surroundings, and the conclusion was arrived at by the speakers that there was no nation on the face of the earth which had ever made such progress in so short a time. As proof of this it was asserted that the Hawaiians were a law-abiding, Sabbath-keeping people, and education was so general that it was extremely rare that a man or woman could be found who did not know how to read and write, while even in the United States there were thousands who could not do either. In relation to the keeping of the Sabbath contrasts were drawn between the quiet and decorum which prevailed on the islands on that day, and the keeping open of shops for the sale of merchandise on the Sabbath in the city of London, and the casting of eight millions of ballots on that day recently in France.

It was very natural, under the circumstances which surrounded the speakers on that occasion, to indulge in considerable self-glorification; but of what use are all the benefits enumerated as having been brought to the Sandwich Islanders, in view of the terrible fact that they are dying out more rapidly than any nation in the world of which Christendom has any knowledge? Education, the observance of the Sabbath and a redemption from the evils of heathenism are all excellent; but there is room for question whether a little less education and a little more heathenism might not be better, if the nation could only be preserved from destruction thereby. The missionaries to that country have labored hard for long years to redeem the souls of the Islanders; but they have known very little about the proper manner of saving the bodies of their converts. Their whole system has been a kind of forcing process; they found a barbarous people entirely ignorant of what is called civilized life, and they laid themselves out to civilize them and bring them up to a certain standard in the shortest possible time. They have been partially successful; but their training has been unnatural. Their wards are rapidly perishing; and unless there be a radical change of policy the prospect is that before many years pass away the nation "which has made greater progress than any other on the face of the earth," will be extinct.

AN EXCITING RACE.

AN exciting steamboat race terminated on the fourth instant, between the steamboat Robert L. Lee, Capt. Cannon, and the steamboat Natchez, Capt. Leathers, the distance run being from New Orleans to St. Louis. Previous to the race the Natchez had made a very fine trip between the two points—making the fastest time that had ever been made. But the Robert L. Lee, in the race which was arranged between it and the Natchez, made the trip in three days, eighteen hours and fourteen minutes, beating the Natchez six hours thirty-seven minutes, and beating her former crack trip three hours and forty-four minutes, and the James M. White famous time over the same distance in 1844, (a run which had never been equaled until the Natchez made her great trip) four hours and fifty-five minutes. It is claimed that no event in the West or South ever attracted so large a share of popular attention, or aroused such a pitch of popular excitement as this race. It is said that one million dollars have been lost and won on it; it may be added that not less than one million persons, first and last, saw it. The start off at New Orleans on Thursday afternoon, June 30th, was witnessed by nearly half the population of the city, who knew the race was to come off, and had collected on the bank and about the shipping all the way from the centre of the city to Carrollton to see the boats off. All along the plantations on the coast, below Natchez, at the river towns, villages and cities in Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas, Tennessee, Kentucky, Illinois and Missouri, could be seen from the deck of the Lee gatherings of persons, which made the passage of the boat seem to be through two almost unbroken ranks of living beings, for the whole twelve hundred miles.

At St. Louis it seemed as if the whole population of the city had congregated in the vicinity of the river, and the excitement was most intense. All the amusements, excursions, etc., incident to the national holiday were entirely forgotten in the absorbing interest of the steamboat race. The Robert L. Lee was built at New Albany, Ind., in the year 1868. She was built under the immediate supervision of her Captain, John W. Cannon. New Albany, Ind., is three miles below Louisville, and Louisville claims it as her boat yard, and boasts that it turns out the fleetest and best steamboats in the world. The Natchez was built at Cincinnati, in 1869, and is the pride of the boat builders of that city. In one sense the contest was a trial of skill between the two Ohio river cities, in which each heavily backed its favorite. It is said that Louisville will indemnify the Lee for the expenses of the race, and that Cincinnati will do the same for the Natchez.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Credentials presented, etc.

The credentials of re-election of Anthony and Cragin were presented. Caspers presented a petition from the citizens of California for the interposition of Congress on behalf of American citizens imprisoned by the British government for political offences; referred to the foreign relations committee and ordered printed.

A resolution was passed donating ordnance for an equestrian statue to General Rawlins.

A bill was passed to confirm the title of purchasers of lands sold for taxes in the late insurrectionary States.

A bill to aid a railroad from Sioux City to Columbus, Dakota, was amended and passed.

The bill for a pension to Mrs. Lincoln was laid aside, 32 to 22, to take up the civil appropriation bill. Several amendments, adding thereto appropriations amounting to $587,000, including $300,000 for an addition to the War Department buildings, were adopted.

OHIO.

Revels lectures and holds a levee—Fatal stabbing.

CINCINNATI.—Senator Revels lectured here to-night to a good audience, in Pike's Music Hall; he held a levee afterwards at the house of Mr. Ball, at which many were present.

Valentine Ashborne stabbed, fatally, Elijah Powarth last Thursday, in a harvest field near New Vienna; the dispute was about a man hired by one from the other.

NEW YORK.

A narrow escape—The European crisis—A suicide's funeral.

Forty persons were precipitated into the water by the breaking of the bridge over the Morris canal this afternoon; all were saved.

A London special to the Herald says a crisis is imminent on the continent. Military preparations were going on all last night in Paris, and if the candidature of Prince Leopold is not withdrawn within the next twenty-four hours the French Ministers will be recalled from Berlin and Madrid, and war declared. The conduct of France in forcing the issue, and refusing to leave the question of the throne to the Spanish people is strongly condemned by all Europeans, and Prussia's calm and dignified position is approved.

Later—Paris. Negotiations between Paris and Berlin are reported to be satisfactory; Prussia declaring her innocence of intrigue, refuses to interfere with the candidature of Hohenzollern on the ground that she has neither the right, power nor inclination to dictate to Spain or to Prince Leopold. A large party in France favors a suspension of action till the meeting of the Spanish Cortes; but the general belief is that the Emperor is determined to fight, and will move instantly without giving Prussia time for preparation. It is said that Napoleon would prefer to meet the issue now rather than after Leopold is elected by the Spanish people, especially as he bases the claims of his own dynasty on the popular vote.

The obsequies of Jas. W. Lingard, the actor, who committed suicide on Wednesday, were solemnized at the Rev. Dr. Galland's church yesterday; over four thousand people were present, including Mrs. Lingard and the family, and a large number of professional friends of the deceased. The scene at the church was attended with considerable feeling. Mrs. Lingard rode in a carriage to the grave, protected by policemen.

ILLINOIS.

Leopold Accepts—Senator Horton in a hopeless condition—Fish won't resign till October—Desperately Attempts to Murder—Heavy Rain.

CHICAGO.—The Tribune special says that our government has received notice that Prince Leopold accepts the offer made by him, of the Spanish throne, and nothing remains to consummate the matter but the consent of the Cortes. The Times Washington special says that Senator Norton, of Minnesota, is lying very low at his residence; his physicians have little hope of his recovery.

Secretary Fish has consented to remain in the Cabinet until the first of October, but he contemplates taking two months' vacation after the adjournment of Congress.

This morning, John Dealen, a discharged employe of Morse, Reddin & Hamilton, Jewellers, in this city, entered the store and approached Morse, who was behind the counter and fired a revolver at his breast; the ball struck him over the heart, but the cartridge being defective, the ball did not even penetrate his clothing.

Heavy rains throughout Central and Southern Illinois, yesterday, greatly benefited the growing corn and pasture.

TENNESSEE.

The Law outraged.

NASHVILLE.—On Saturday, a party of Federal soldiers seized a lot of whiskey in Lincoln County, and took it to Tullahoma and shipped it on the Nashville and Chattanooga railroad, for Shelbyville; on Saturday night a squad of men went to Concord, on the Manchester and McMinnville railroad, took possession of the locomotive, and forced the engineer to run it to Wartrace, where the car containing the whiskey was overtaken and captured; they took it back to the neighborhood of Tullahoma, unloaded it in the woods and dismissed the engineer.

CALIFORNIA.

Japanese Princes in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO 11.—Four Japanese princes have arrived from New York; they will sail to Japan by the next steamer.

INDIANA.

Miscegenation declared lawful—Single circumstances.

EVANSVILLE, IND.—Justice Walker, to-day, decided that State law, prohibiting the intermarriage of negroes and whites contrary to the civil rights bill, and Peter Vanderweide, a Hollander, and a mulatto woman, who were mobbed on Saturday, were released from custody, and their marriage declared legal.

INDIANAPOLIS.—This morning Mr. Isaac Marchant, Jr., fired a shot gun at a dog chasing a flock of geese, along the bank of White River, when the body of his father rose from the water; the old gentleman, who had been suffering from a cancer in the throat, had committed suicide by drowning only a few hours previous.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Death of an eminent Theologian.

PITTSBURG.—Rev. Dr. James Keogh, an eminent Catholic theologian, formerly editor of the Catholic Standard, died to-day, aged thirty-six. He was educated in the propaganda at Rome, and while a youth attracted the attention of the entire Catholic world in his defence of the Church, in the presence of the Pope, against learned cardinals and theologians.

WYOMING.

Miners Afraid of Indians.

LARAMIE.—The Sentinel says: "We learn from Col. Doedney that the miners from Last Chance mines, are now on their way to Laramie City; they have deserted the mines on account of the late Indian depredations at North Park. They felt unwilling to risk their lives without some protection from troops. We learn from good authority that a party of from 12 to 15 Indians are lurking near Last Chance; it is expected that the miners will have to fight their way home, and that their property will be destroyed."

COLORADO.

Vigilantes at work.

DENVER, 11.—James O'Neill was hung last night, on Brown's Bridge, nine miles from Denver, by unknown parties. A placard was attached to his body, with the inscription, "Cattle thief" upon it.

The weather is cool and pleasant, with frequent showers.

FOREIGN NEWS.

GERMANY.

U. S. bonds declining.

FRANKFURT.—U. S. bonds have rapidly declined to 91.

FRANCE.

"Rentier" declining—The press exhorted to be silent—Napoleon and his son will take the field.

PARIS.—Rentier have fallen from 68 to 65. The members of the Cabinet are at St. Cloud in close consultation with the Emperor.

The Moniteur announces that it will no longer give publicity to the movement of troops, and exhorts other journals to adopt a similar course.

Up to a late hour last night Prussia's definite answer had not been received. The city is greatly excited. Rentier sixty-eight francs seventy-centimes.

The Constitutionnel says it is rumored that the King of Prussia has approved of the candidature of the Prince Hohenzollern. The Figaro pretends that the King is willing enough to aid the affairs of Spain, but less so regarding the guarantees requested of him. It is said that in case of war the Emperor will command in person, with the Prince Imperial attached to his staff.

PRUSSIA.

Parliament summoned to answer France.

BERLIN.—One of the semi-official journals, this morning, has an article, stating that France persists in the insult to Prussia, in holding her answerable in the Hohenzollern matter. It says the policy of Spain was adopted without any foreign promptings. The North German Parliament has been summoned to give France her answer.

SPAIN.

The answer of the Regency.

MADRID.—The Regency has returned its declaration that the choice of Hohenzollern was dictated by no hostility to France.

The Republican newspapers of Spain blame the government for its present course, and think the immediate proclamation of a republic the best reply to France. The Impartial insists that the French aim is to force Prince Alfonso upon the Spanish throne.

WEST INDIES.

Unnecessary alarm.

HAVANA.—On Friday and Saturday evenings the citizens living near the Captain General's palace were alarmed by loud explosions, and the wildest rumors prevailed; but finally it was discovered that the foul air in the sewers opposite the palace had ignited and exploded.

VISITORS.—Among the visitors from the East, in the city to-day, is Mr. A. B. Ivins, of Philadelphia, principal of a large public school in that city. Accompanied by a number of his pupils, he is now on a pleasure trip to San Francisco, which place they expect to reach on Thursday. Mr. Ivins expresses unbounded admiration at the beautiful appearance of Salt Lake City and the objects of interest it contains.

LEFT A KEY.—It seems some thief has been stealing a cloak and a sack of corn meal from the residence of James Steel, in the 9th Ward, and in his haste dropped a key. We received a note from Mr. Steel this morning, in which he says he still has a few sacks of flour left, which he might spare to that fellow, if he is really hard up. At any rate he would like him to come and get his key as he has no use for it.
