DISCOVERED.—Dr. Price, has after a long series of experiments, discovered a new process of extracting the subtle flavor from every delicious fruit and aromatic. In his Flavoring Extracts the characteristic taste and freshness of the real fruit is preserved and by his process so highly concentrated that but a small quantity is required to impart their peculiar flavor to any article in which they may be used. Ladies that wish something superior in the way of flavoring extracts or baking powder should purchase Dr. Price's.

for we can assure them that they have no equals. Dr. Price's Powder is not sold in bulk, loose powder sold as his is a fraud upon the public.

MESSRS. DAY & CO. have the largest stock of Hardware in the city, and sell the cheapest. That is the place to purchase. Co-op. Orders received at the face value.

BETTER THAN GOING SOUTH.—"Go South! Go South!" is the parrot cry of the friends of the consumptive. It is well meant but silly. Few of those who are suffering from lung and throat complaints can go South, or would be benefited if they did go. HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND and TAR is worth more than millions of cubic feet of southern air as a remedy for every species of pulmonary complaint. It will cure any cough, any cold, and bronchial complaint, and effectually arrest the tendency to consumption.

PIKE'S TOOTH-ACHE DROPS.—Cure in one minute.

ACTUAL vs. SHORT WEIGHT.—Aside from the impure substances from which are made a majority of Baking Powders, a large proportion are short of the weight represented upon the package. We not only claim that DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER is free from any injurious substances, and that each package contains FULL WEIGHT, but that the quantity required to produce the desired result in the kitchen is from twenty-five to fifty percent less than those of ordinary manufacture. Manufactured by Dooley & Brother, 69, New Street, New York, and for sale at retail by all respectable Grocers.

A Wrong Custom Corrected.—It is quite generally the custom to take strong liver stimulants for the cure of liver complaint, and both the mineral and vegetable kingdoms have been diligently searched to procure the most drastic and poisonous purgatives. In order to produce a powerful effect upon the liver, and arouse the lagging and enfeebled organ. This system of treatment is on the same principle as that of giving a weak and debilitated man large portions of brandy to enable him to do a certain amount of work. When the stimulant is withheld, the organ, like the system, gradually slips into a more torpid or sluggish and weakened condition than before. What then is wanted? Medicines which, while they cause the bile to flow freely from the liver, as that organ is toned into action, will not overwork and thus debilitate it, but will, when their use is discontinued, leave the liver strengthened and healthy. Such remedies are found in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Purgative Pellets.

A CURE OF LIVER DISEASE. RUSK, Texas, May 10th, 1873. Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Dear Sir—My wife last year at this time was confined to her bed with Chronic Liver Disease. I had one of the best doctors to see her, and he gave her up to die, when I came upon some of your medicine. I bought one bottle and commenced giving it. She then weighed 82 pounds; now she weighs 140 pounds, and is robust and hearty. She has taken eight bottles in all, so you see I am an advocate for your Medicine.

WILLIAM MEAZEL, FROM THE NOTED SCOUT, "BUFFALO BILL."

HOLLAND HOUSE, Rockford, Ill., April 20, 1874.—Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Dear Sir—I have not taken four bottles of your Golden Medical Discovery in connection with your Pellets, and must say that nothing I have ever taken for my liver has done me as much good. I feel like a new man. Thanks to your wonderful medicine. W. F. CODY, ("Buffalo Bill.")

Meetings.—Religious services at the various ward meeting-houses to-morrow afternoon and evening. In the evening Elders of the Home Mission are expected to visit and preach in the following wards:—

First, Third, Fifth and Sixth. Seventh, Ninth, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth and Twentieth.

Adjourned.—The Third District Court has been adjourned till the first Monday in January.

Running.—Cars commenced running yesterday on the new extension of the street railroad, South Temple Street, eastward.

GUILTY.—In the case of J. J. Mahon, tried in the Third District Court on Thursday, for forgery, the jury brought in a verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment. The Court did not then pronounce sentence.

A Polite Sponger.—On Thursday a lady in the Seventeenth Ward wanted some brandy for the customary Christmas pudding sauce. She sent her little boy for it, but he reached home minus a large portion of the purchased quantity. The little fellow told how a very kind man had talked nice to him and coaxed him to give the bottle up, when the stranger helped himself and then returned the bottle with many thanks, telling the little chap he had done him a great deal of good, &c.

Will Preach.—Elder Orson Pratt is expected to preach at the Thirtieth Ward Assembly Rooms to-morrow afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock.

Run Over Him.—Yesterday Sergeant Clowes was riding around a trifle too fast and ran his horse over a boy, hurting him considerably, for which he was arrested.

Arrested.—The Ogden Junction of Dec. 23 says—

Mr. John Zeachert was arrested and taken to Salt Lake yesterday by deputy U. S. marshal Pratt. Mr. Zeachert was indicted by the grand jury for shooting and wounding Mr. Norris some time ago.

A Fracas.—Yesterday a deputy U. S. marshal had a few disagreeable words with a couple of sports, when one of the two knocked him down, and both set to work "kicking him for falling." This is bad work.

Southwards.—The extension of the Utah Southern railroad is ready for the cars as far as eight miles south of Provo, and with favorable weather it might be finished to Summit within about six weeks. The track is being laid at the rate of about half a mile a day in fair weather.

Coal For The Poor. To the Bishops of the several Wards in the City.

One ton of coal having been donated to the poor of each Ward in this City by a friend, I hereby give notice that I am prepared to fill orders for the same.

GEO. NEBEKER.

New Music.—From Church & Co., music publishers, Cincinnati, we have received the following new music: "Cacique Grand March," by Frank L. Bristow; "When Life's Billows," solo and quartet, words by W. G. Burnham, music by J. H. Tenney; and "Waiting and Watching for Me," duet and chorus, music by P. P. Bliss. Can be had at the store of Calder & Careless.

St. George.—We have seen a letter to Bishop Edward Hunter from Bro. Edward Brain, at work on the St. George Temple, written under date of Dec. 15, from which we extract the following—

"All of the companies of brethren have now arrived to help us out. The walls of the Temple are raised about two and a half feet each week. One hundred men are working on it, nearly one hundred in the stone quarry, besides others at the saw mills, etc. Nearly eighty tons of rock are built into the walls daily. In the course of about ten days from now we shall be up to the second floor, about thirty feet above the first floor."

From the Sandwich Islands.—We had a call this morning from Elder B. Morris Young, son of President B. Young, who returned yesterday morning from a mission to the Sandwich Islands. He left here for the Islands May 20th, 1873, and during his stay there enjoyed himself very much, travelling among the natives and preaching to them. The other Elders there are also doing well, and had surpassed their own expectations in acquiring the native language.

Elder Young had a fine passage from the Islands to San Francisco, nine days on the water. He comes home in fine health and spirits.

Spilling for a Fight.—Christopher Miller, a soldier, was on the rampage yesterday. He reamed about the Eleventh Ward, armed with a "billy" and a couple of huge knives, "seeking whom he might devour," and speaking great threatening words; luckily he did not find anybody sufficiently docile to allow him to employ his carving propensities upon. He made a lunge with one of his knives, however, at a man named Dangerfield, who succeeded in avoiding the blow. Miller was finally arrested by the police and turned over to the military, by whom he will be punished for his misdeeds.

A Bad Runaway.—About half-past seven last evening Messrs. John Reed, Edwin Dodson and Thomas King were riding in a buggy, on Second South Street, when the team got scared and ran eastward toward East Temple Street. The driver, Mr. Reed, held on to the lines tenaciously, but the situation was exceedingly perilous, as not only were the horses going at a most furious rate, but the double trees had become loosened. As the runaway swung around, turning the Elephant corner northward, Mr. King was thrown out upon the street, his face being considerably cut and bruised, besides other injuries by the fall. As the buggy struck the rails of the street railroad, a short distance south of White & McCormick's bank, it tipped over, throwing out the remaining two occupants and considerably smashing the vehicle.

Disgraceful.—A large number of boys from the age of thirteen and upwards could be seen on the street yesterday under the influence of liquor, and smoking tobacco, shouting and rolling around, and otherwise demeaning themselves. Numbers of men imbibed intoxicants till they bring themselves to a lower plane than the brute creation, and some youths think it manly to imitate such grovelling characteristics, thus assuming the role of apes. The well disposed youth, the genuinely manly youth, will always seek to emulate the virtues and eschew the depravities of his elders. If the youths are blameable for imitating the vices of some of their elders, what should be said of those of mature years who set the example for emulation in that direction? Their condition is most uninviting and unenviable.

"Clarke's New Method for the Piano."—From Messrs. Lee & Walker, music publishers, 922 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa., we have received a copy of the above magnificent work just published by them. Clarke's New Method for the Piano Forte is allowed by the most competent musicians in the country to be unsurpassed by any work published, and perhaps unsurpassable, as a method for studying and explaining the difficulties of the piano forte. Among the new features peculiar to this work are the fingering of scales in double thirds, the arpeggios in use in the Leipzig Conservatory, and the introduction of five finger exercises. The selections embrace a wide range and present an extensive variety, including some of the happiest morceaux of composers like Bertini, Cramer, Schumann, Heller, Mayer, Concone and Kullak. At the end of the book is a vocabulary in English, French, Italian and German, of the terms used in piano music, which will be very acceptable to junior students of this beautiful instrument. It is almost needless to add that no better preceptor could possibly be placed in the hands of any who desire to become familiar with the intricacies and beauties of piano forte playing. It is sold retail at three dollars and seventy-five cents per copy, and is for sale at the music store of Calder & Careless in this City, or may be obtained post free for that amount from the publishers.

Christmas in the Sixteenth Ward.—The entertainment given yesterday afternoon in the Sixteenth Ward School Rooms, for the benefit of the Ward Sunday School, was a financial success. The weather was every way favorable, and the house was filled to its utmost capacity, many being unable to obtain admission.

The performances commenced promptly at the hour set down in the programme, and continued without any abatement of the interest until dusk, lamps having to be lit in the execution of the closing beautiful anthem, "Sing and rejoice," by the choir, which was rendered in charming style.

Making no distinctive references to the young ladies and gentlemen to whom the respective parts were assigned, it is but fair to state that the characters were well sustained throughout. Indeed, some of them approached professional excellence. A marked improvement upon the Christmas exhibition of last year in the same Ward was observable.

A little less haste in the entries and exits by some of the young ladies would have been more pleasing.

Of the comicities, "Lord Dunderbary's Visit," a burlesque in character, caused continuous merriment; while the "Stupid Servant," an Ethiopian in search of a master, was a most side-splitting farce. The serio-comic piece of "Scandal" concluded the entertainment, and while it afforded everybody amusement, also exposed the follies of gossip and tattle in an impressive manner.

The social in the evening was a pleasant gathering of young people, who went on with the dance and let joy be unconfined to the midnight hour, when the happy party were dismissed with a benediction and went gallily tripping homeward, in infinitely better plight than if lagging wearily at daybreak, to the tune, "We Won't go Home till Morning."

We are informed that the afternoon and evening's recreation yielded a return of nearly a hundred dollars, which is to be appropriated to the fund of the Sunday School.

A free party is given to all the children of the ward this afternoon, under the auspices of the Sunday School, commencing at 2 o'clock.

The annual re-union of the Ward, we understand, will be given the coming week, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, 29th and 30th inst., by the Bishop and his counselors. All the poor and the widows of the ward are to have free invitations.

Theatre.—There was a large audience at the Theatre last evening and the performance of "No Thoroughfare" was excellent, as it was also on the previous evening." Mr. Florence's "Jules Obenreizer" was a masterly impersonation, and other characters were sustained by Miss Cummins and the company with ability and credit.

This evening will be presented the "Colleen Bawn," Mr. W. J. Florence as "Miles Na Coppaleen," Mr. Marden as "Hardress Cregan," Mr. Thorne as "Danny Mann," Mr. Margret as "Father Tom," Miss Graham as "Eily O'Connor," Miss Clawson as "Ann Chere," Miss Cummins as "Sheeha Mann," Mrs. Douglas as "Mrs. Cregan." To be followed by "A Kiss in the Dark," Mr. Florence as "Selim Pettibone."
