One of Best Known Capitalists of New York and is a Very Rich Man.

HEINZE IS DOWN AND OUT.

Clearing House Committee Will See Bank Meets Any Crisis Arising from United Copper Collapse.

New York, Oct. 20.—At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Merrill Lynch National bank this afternoon Seth M. Milliken was elected president of the bank to succeed F. Augustus Heinze, resigned. At the same time William Skinner and Gerish H. Milliken were elected additional vice-presidents.
Gerish H. Milliken being added to the board of directors.

The clearing house committee met with the directors of the bank and the two boards were in session for about four hours. Later William H. Sherer, manager of the Clearing House association on behalf of the association, gave out the following statement:

SHERER'S STATEMENT.
"A committee of the clearing house has examined the several banks of the association that have been under criticism and find them solvent. The clearing house committee has decided to renew their assistance to meet the deposits of the committee may this morning."

Neither the members of the board of the Merrill Lynch National nor the clearing house committee would add to these statements. The statement of Mr.
Sherer is, however, taken to mean that the clearing house committee is perfectly satisfied with the organization of the Merrill Lynch National bank and will see that the bank is enabled to meet any crisis that the widely published speculation of its condition, following the collapse of the Heinze corner in United Copper, may force it to face.

After the meeting of the Merrill National bank directors E. R. Thomas, one of the directors, announced that he had disposed of all his holdings in the Hamilton bank in a syndicate composed of men interested in the bank.
This action had been expected.

WHO MILLIKEN IS.
Mr. Milliken, who heads the new list of officers of the Merrill Lynch National bank, is one of the best known New York capitalists. He has been for some time a member of the board of directors of the bank. He is a partner in the Merrill Lynch National bank, and is also an officer or director of a score of other northern wool companies and southern cotton companies. He is said to be the choice of the clearing house committee to the position to which he was elected today.

William Skinner, who was elected vice-president of the bank, is president of the William Skinner Manufacturing company and is a director in a large number of railroad companies, including the New York, New Haven & Hartford.

Gerish H. Milliken is a son of Seth
M. Milliken.
While some of those connected with the Merrill Lynch National bank, the clearing house committee, it is known that it is the belief of the clearing house committee that the best interests of the depositors and the bank will be served by the action which was taken today that it might have a quieting effect on the market on the opening of the stock exchange tomorrow.

MORSE'S RESIGNATIONS.
Charles W. Morse announced today his resignation from the directorate of every local bank with which he was connected. He gave out the following formal statement:

"Owing to my connection with the affairs of the Merrill Lynch National bank and the seemingly disturbed condition of the public mind, I have determined, without the slightest suggestion or solicitation on the part of any one, that my resignation from the various banks of directors of the other banks with which I am associated might be the best interests of the depositors and the banks. Accordingly I have this day tendered my resignation in all the banks in which I have been serving as director."

Mr. Morse was connected with the following institutions: National Bank of North America, New Amsterdam National bank and Central National bank, in all of which he has been president as well as director. Merrill Lynch National bank, Garfield & Co. National bank, New York Trust & Savings company, New York Produce Exchange bank, Title Insurance company of New York, Van Schaick & Co. National bank and Van Stryden Trust company. All of which he was a director. In addition to these financial institutions, Mr.
Morse has been heavily interested in the American Ice company, the American Ice security company and the Consolidated Steamship companies, which later company controls the most important coastwise steamship lines, and the other companies operating between the United States and Cuba and the West Indies. Mr. Morse also controls the Following a conference of the directors of the institution tonight, it was formally announced that William O.

Allison would succeed Orlando P.
Thomas as president of the Consolidated National bank. Mr. Thomas had sold his holdings in the bank to Mr. Allison and Thomas J. Lewis, who already were large stockholders and active in the management of the house.

After the meeting a representative of the bank made a statement in which he said that Mr. Thomas had sold his holdings and retired from the presidency on his own initiative. Mr. Thomas, it was stated, had never been a borrower of the bank to any extent, and did not now owe the bank a dollar.
Every loan made to customers of the bank during the presidency of Mr.
Thomas had been approved by the full board of directors after investigation.
It was added.

The conference at which Mr. Havemeyer was chosen to the presidency of the National Bank of North America was attended by Albert H. Curtis, John F. Morgan, J. O'Brien, William F. Havenmeyer and Charles T.
Barney.

Mr. Havenmeyer is a director in several banks and a son of the North America's first president.

There were several conferences during the day and this evening of men prominent in bank circles in which the local situation was discussed. In most instances what transpired at the informal gatherings was not made public.

statement prepared today Atwell admits that his shortage to the government is $5,750. Postal Inspector Rich-larger figure.

CROWN PRINCE'S VISIT TO KOREA REACHES CLIMAX.

Seoul, Oct. 20.—The climax of the festivities in this city in honor of the visit of the Japanese crown prince was reached last night in a lantern procession in which 10,000 persons took part.
It was witnessed by the crown prince of Japan and the crown prince of Korea and their respective suites from a hill near the residence. For several hours the city of Seoul, which is composed of one-story houses, appeared to be intersected by waving streams of colored fire. The procession was divided into sections corresponding to the various divisions of the city. Each section was accompanied by a band of music. The national air of Japan was rendered more frequently than any other piece.

The crown prince of Japan bade farewell to the emperor and the former emperor of Korea yesterday evening.
He thanked them warmly for the hospitality extended to him in Seoul. The young crown prince of Korea has formed a great friendship for the crown prince of Japan. He accompanied him everywhere during the last few days and this afternoon went down to Chemulpo with the Japanese visitors and bade him farewell on board the Japanese warship in the harbor.
The crown prince of Korea is said to be of the Korean in the matter of this visit to Seoul of the young man who ultimately is destined to become emperor of Japan. Unbiased observers of long residence in Seoul are of the opinion that it has produced an excellent impression. The tact and gentleness of the Japanese crown prince has completely won over the emperor of Korea and his ministers, and the people are gratified at the respect shown Korean royalty.

WOMEN SUFFER

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong?
The cause may be easily traced to some feminine derangement which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, dragging sensations, flatulency, nervousness, and sleeplessness.

These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless remedied, a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result. The best remedy for all these symptoms is

PRESIDENT'S HUNT IS OVER

Kill Was 3 Bears, 1 Deer, 1 Turkey, 12 Squirrels, 1 Duck, 1 Possum, 1 Wildcat.

WAS PERFECTLY DELIGHTED.

When He Shot His Bear Was So Happy That He Embraced Each Of His Companions.

Stamford, La., Oct. 20.—"We got three bears, six deer, one wild turkey, 12 squirrels, one duck, one possum and one wildcat. We ate them all except the wildcat, and there were times when we almost felt as if he could eat it."

This was President Roosevelt's summing up of the result of his hunt on Bayou Teche and Bear lake. He arrived at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of Les Shields, where he will be a guest until he makes his departure for Vicksburg tomorrow. He came in on full gallop and accompanied as he was by about a dozen of his hunting companions, all mounted and arrived in hunting gear, the cavalcade presented a ludicrous as picturesque as it was animated. The president is slightly more bronzed than when he entered the wilderness from this point in days ago, but notwithstanding this fact and the additional circumstances that his clothes bear evidence of contact with the cane and other brush, he was never in better spirits in his life.

"Yes, we got three bears," he added, "all that we saw, and I think that a pretty good record. I am perfectly satisfied."

"You might add," interjected one of the Metcalf brothers, who has been the president's principal guide throughout the hunt, "that we hunted a country of vast extent, in which there were but five bears all told, and that of those as you see, we got three."

Assenting to this amplification of his statement, the president entered upon an enthusiastic account of his hunt, of his life in camp and the meals with which he had been supplied while there.

"Was the possum good?" he was asked.

"Absolutely the best dish we had, except the bears' liver," he responded with relish.

The president, when he said this, stood on the lean-to in front of Mr.
Shields' home. Around him were gathered Mr. Shields and a number of guests whom he had invited to dine with the president.

In the distance were gathered the negro hunters, Holt Collier, Alex. Reynolds, Brutus Jackson, and numerous cooks, teamsters and messengers. While the horses stood in the yard and the dogs lay around licking their lacerated bodies, many of the animals being in bad condition on account of the long chase, and others as a result of contact with wild dogs, wildcats and other wild things. The president was the central figure of the group, and he was in a happier frame of mind than on this occasion. He declared that his health had been perfect, his appetite equally good, and with the exception of a day or two lost on account of rain, he had been in the saddle every day from daylight to dark. He ended by declaring that he had never in his life had finer sport.

The arrival of the president upon the fact that a third bear had been killed on Friday, a 2-year-old, which was slain by one of the Osborn brothers, when it was in a fierce fight with the dog. The one bear that was obtained by the president was killed on Thursday, and the killing was witnessed by one of the McKensies and Alex. Reynolds. They agree in saying that the president's bearing was extremely sportsmanlike.

The animal had been chased by the dogs for three hours, the president following all the time. When at last they came within hearing distance the president dismounted from his horse, dashed off his coat and tore into the name-brake, coming to within 20 yards of the beast. The dogs were coming up rapidly, with the president's favorite, Rowdy.
In the lead, and the brute had stamped to bid defiance to the man who the president sent a bullet from his 45-70 rifle after it. The shot went through the animal's lights and would have been fatal but for the little life left in it. The bear turned upon the dogs. The president concluded to end it all, and lodged a second bullet between the shoulders, which broke the creature's neck. Other members of the party were not long in coming up, and the president was so rejoiced over his good fortune that he embraced each of his companions. They were equally happy, and a the exuberance of the moment Reynolds went to the extent of telling the president that he (the president) was "no tenderfoot." The president responded by presenting him with a $20 note.

Yesterday there was comparatively little hunting because of the condition of the dogs, some of which encountered a drove of wild hogs, which are more ferocious than bears. One of the best dogs of the Osborn pack was killed outright by a big bear.

They were very swiftness in the lake by several members of the party and by the president himself, after his examples of last Monday.

"The water was fine," he said, "and I did not have to fear alligators."

The president will leave here tomorrow at 10 o'clock, and will spend four hours in the afternoon at Vicksburg.
He will arrive at Delta, directly across the river from Vicksburg, at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

ATTEMPTED WIFE MURDER.

E. E. Stacy Tried to Kill Her With a Dynamite Bomb.

Great Bend, Kansas, Oct. 20.—E. E.
Stacy, soon after his arrival here from Denver today, made an attempt to kill his wife with a dynamite bomb. Stacy's mother-in-law saw her daughter peril and showed her out of danger before the bomb exploded. Stacy followed the women and struck both of them with his fists after he was arrested. No one was injured by the explosion of the bomb, but the latter House in which the bomb was thrown, suffered some damage.

A few weeks ago Mrs. Stacy left her husband in Denver and came to live with her parents here. Her refusal to return to Denver with her husband caused the trouble today. Stacy first tried to put the bomb in the bosom of his wife's dress, but his mother-in-law knocked it from his hand and pushed her daughter from the room before it exploded.

KANSAS CITY THEATERS WIDE OPEN SUNDAY.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 20.—All the theaters of this city were open today, in violation of the Sunday closing order of Judge Wallace, of the criminal court, and all the actors and actresses who participated in the various performances will be indicted by the grand jury next Tuesday. Scores of city detectives and deputy marshals were busy today securing evidence against the violators of the Sunday closing order, which will be presented Tuesday to the same grand jury that has already indicted all the theatrical managers here for keeping their playhouses open on Sunday. The persons indicted will be released on bond and Judge Wallace believes that this method of proceeding, if adopted every Sunday, will prove so inconvenient to traveling actors that the theaters will be compelled to close.

WHERE IS HARRY NONNAST?

San Francisco, Oct. 20.—A close search is being made here for Harry W. Nonnast, formerly of Chicago, who was last heard from in San Francisco two years ago, when he was about to enter a hospital. An uncle of Nonnast has since died, leaving a large estate.
The will provides that Nonnast must either be found or proved dead before the state can be distributed. Hence the anxiety to find him, and trace of him has been found in any of the public records.

TRY THIS FOR SALLOW COMPLEXION.

The following prescription is one constantly prescribed by the most up-to-date physicians and is known as the Peppier formula: "Two ounces Essence of Peppier; three ounces Syrup of Ginger; one ounce Castor Oil; Compound; mix well and use in doses of from one to two teaspoons after each meal; also at bed time for the first four or five days." Sallow complexion, bad breath and nervousness are caused by imperfect digestion which allows poisonous acids to be absorbed into the blood instead of being expelled through the bowels. This extremely distressing condition is said to be most effectively removed by the use of the above prescription. A well known Jesuit druggist states that he has advised many of his patients that this formula has exceptional curative powers and that it makes a pleasant remedy to take. The ingredients can be gotten from any well stocked pharmacy and easily mixed at home.
