

people are trying to forget them." It was several minutes after this statement before the efforts of Speaker ed unanimous consent that debate for one and a half hours be allowed on Cannon availed against the shouts, laughter and applause. the rule. This was agreed to and Mr. Dalzell explained first the terms of aughter and applause. "The gentleman from Minnesota," warned the speaker, "does know, or ne ought to know, that his remark is against the rules of the house and against all parliamentary usage." "I only intended my references in the the statehood bill and then stated that if the rules should be adopted a vote on the bill would be had tomorrow.

Mr. Williams stated that the rule in question denied to the house the right to vote on the question of admitting either of the four territories separate-ly. It was holding a whip over the house, compelling it to agree to admit Arizona and New Mexico as one state, which was undesirable, in order to ad-mit Oklahoma and the Indian Terri-tory, to which no one had objection. Indian Terri-Mr. Williams yielded 10 minutes to Mr. Mondell (Wyo.), one of the Repub-lican "insurgents," who expressed the hope that the demand for the previous question would be voted down. Mr. Mondell denied that the bill was a Re-publican party measure; every man, woman and child in New Mexico was opposed to being joined to Arizona. There was a large number in the house who, if their hands were not tied, would vote against joining these two terri-tories. He characterized the proposed rule as a violation of party pledges. A reply to Mr. Mondell was made by Mr. Grosvenor (O.), who maintained that the joint statehood bill was a Re-

Ears Looked as if They Would Drop Off-Body Entirely Covered-Face Mass of Sores - Three Doctors Could Not Cure-Child Grew Worse - Face and Body Now Clear

CURED BY CUTICURA IN TWO WEEKS FOR 75c.

Mrs. George J. Steese, of 701 Coburn St., Akron, Ohio, tells in the following letter of another of those remarkable cures of torturing, my little daughter. She broke out all over her body with a humor, and we used everything recommended, but without results. I called in three doctors, they all elaimed they could help her, but she continued to grow worse. Her body was a mass of sores, and her little face was being eaten away; her ears looked as if they would drop off. Neighbors advised me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and before I had used half of the cake of Soap and box of Ointment the sores had all healed, and my little one's face and body were as clear as a new-born babe's. I would not be without it again if it cost five dollars, instead of seventy-five cents, which is all it cost us to cure our baby, after spending many dollars on doctors and medicines without any benefit whatever."

Definit Wildever. Complete External and Internal Treatment for every funner, from Pragles to Scrofnik. from Infancy to Aps, ensetting of Outlenra Soap, Me., Ointmart, Me., Resur-nt, Joe. (In form of Choronite Costed Pills, ille, par visi of Gil, may be had of all dengrists. A single set often cures the most discussing cases, when all other remedies, and even hab best physicians fail. Potter Drug & Chom. Corp., Discussion Cost. Props., Boston, Mass. "Majied Free, " All About the Skin, Scalp, and Hair."

I only intended my references in the kindliest spirit." remarked Mr. Hede to proceeded. He was tired, he said who proceeded. He was tired, he said, of the treatment accorded the west renerally designated the "wild an woolly west." It reminded him of th daughter of an old Kentucky colonel who said she was 27 years old before she know that "Damn Yankee" was not one word. "It was usual," he said, "when they went to whip us into line to use the name of 'the great president,' but when the president is opposing something the east wants, he is 'the broncho statesman.

"Why," continued Mr. Bede, "you say they have not got enough 'folks.' Never heard of a senator representing 'folks.' (Laughter.)

(Laughter.) Reverting to the early days in New England, Mr. Bede convulsed the house again by declaring that the Pilgrim fathers would not have landed there ad they not been seasick. Mr. Tawney took the floor and briefly explained that in bowing to the leaders of the house in supporting the rule he did so against his own judgment.

Mr. Jones (Wash.) professed more ove for Speaker Cannon than any man fore for Speaker Cannon data any man in the country, and also regard for the president, but he absolutely refused to go against his conscience and follow them in this matter. He had supported the present opposition two years ago, but since then he had visited Arizona, and after scoring the supendid civilizaand after seeing the splendid civiliza-tion there he should not vote now to destruy It.

Mr. Smith, delegate from Arizona, who spoke for three minutes, seemed aomewhat depressed. The action of Mr. Tawney in taking the floor against him he said, the most "unkindest" cut DeArmond (Mo.) and Mr. Kahn Mr Mr. DeArmond (Mo.) and Mr. Kann (Cal.) spoke against the rule, when four and a half minutes was yielded to Mr. Eabcock (Wis.), leader of the insur-gents. He had, he said, always been gents. He had, he said, always been opposed to joint statehood. He consid-ered joining Arizona and New Mexico as a cripre. He said the argument against single statehood was, "We shall have four Democratic senators." In this connection he referred to the rassage of the Dingley tariff bill, which he said could not have passed but for the vote of Senator Jones of Nevada, whose avery amendment was adopted.

whose every amendment was adopted. He secuted the idea that those states

He scouled the idea that those states would be Democratic. Debate was closed by Mr. Dalzell, in favor of the rule. Mr. Dalzell based his argument in opposition to single state-hood that it was unjust to eastern sec-tions to have senators who represented nothing but "rocks and sand" repre-senting arge eastern states. He assert-ed that it was a partisan measure. He ed that it was a partisan measure. He asserte rave the Republican vote in the last Congress on the proposition, when the rule was supported almost unanimously by Republicans.

am admiring the ingenuity of the an admiring the light "respond-ed Mr. Dalzell, "In yielding his time, not to Democrats, whom he is going to vote solidiy against the rule, but to Re-publicans, whom he hopes to have fol-

Mr. Dalzell demanded a roll call on ardering the previous question on the adoption of the rule. The roll call be-gan at 11:45 o'clock.

During the discussion of the rule Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Alice Roosevelt oc-cupied sents in the executive gallery.

Speaker Cannon requested the call of his own name, and voted for the rule. The rule was adopted, the vote being 192 ayes, 165 navs. The following Republicans voted with

The following Republicans voted with the Democrats on the test vote order-ing the previous question on the rule: Adams (Wis.), Babcock, Bede, Beidler, Bonynge, Brooks (Colo.), Brown, Cald-erhead, Cushman, Darrah, Davidson, erhead, Cushman, Darrah, Davidson, Esch, French, Fulkerson, Gillett (Cal.), Goebel, Gronna, Hayes, Hermann, Howell (Utah), Humphrey (Wash.), Jones (Wash.),, Kahn, Kennedy (Ohio), Knowland, Loud, McCarry (Pa.), Mc-Kinley (Cal.), McLachlan, McMorran, Marshall, Miner, Mondell, Mudd, Mur-phy Needham, Otjen, Reeder, Shemp, Smith (Cal.), Steenerson, Thomas (O.), Wachter. Wachte Mr, Crumpacker took the chair and washington, Jan. 32.—The house com-mittee on ways and means today decid-ed to make a favorable report on a bill by Representative Payne, chair-man of the committee, providing for the reclassification of many American products for admission to the Philippines in such a manner that the United States will enjoy more favorable tariff rates. The most important changes in classi-fication relate to cotton fabrics. Under the present tariff laws British cotton goods enjoy more favorable tariff rates in the Philippines on some varieties or cotton textiles than American mills,

INTERNAL REVENUES INCREASE.

Washington, Jan. 24 .- The monthly statement of the collection of internal evenue shows that for December, 1965, the total collections amounted to $22,-429,221, which is an increase as pared with December, 1904, of $1.684,408. For the six months of the present fis-cal year the receipts exceeded those corresponding period in 1904 by $6,463,669.

ANTWERP TO BE FORTIFIED.

Erussels, Jan. 24.-The chamber of representatives today passed in its en-tirety the government measure for the fortification of Antwerp by a vote of 42 to 11

THE DIAMOND CURE

The latest news from Paris is, that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consump-tion or pneumonia, it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGee, or Vanleer, Tenn. "I had a cough, for fourieen years. Nothing helped me, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consump-tion, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant reller, and offseted a permanent cure." Unequalled quick cure, for Throat and Lung Troubles, At Z. C. M. I. drug store, 112-114 South Main Sa.; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed, Triai

EXPERT SEWING MACHINE RE-PAIRS.

Also sewing-machine oil of absolute purity, and the best needles and parts for all machines at Singer stores. Look for the red S. 43 South Main St., Salt Lake City, Utah.

BERNARD MACFADDEN'S LATEST BOOKS.

The Best Books on Health and Sex Ever Written,

paid 1.00 Diseases of Men, postpaid 1.00 Health, Beauty, Sexuality, postpaid 1.00 How Success is Won, postpaid .... 1.00 Physical Culture for Baby, post-Science of Muscular Development, postpaid 1.00 How to Box, paper 25 We are the State Agents for Physical Culture Publishing Co

Culture Publishing Co. DESERET NEWS BOOK STORE

Transport company and and show a state of the section of the advertisement. The witness iden-tified it in an issue of Town Topics of Jan.

Did those articles referring to you and your family cease after the inser-tion of the advertisement?" asked Mr. Shepard.

'I think so," said Mr. Baker, The witness said the advertisement ontinued to be published in Town Topics for about a year.

Topics for about a year. Three years later, in 1891, an item concerning his family appeared again in Town Topics, said Mr. Baker, and he consulted counsel about stopping them. After that, witness said, Moses E. Wooster, the agent visited him and them. After that, witness said, Moses E. Wooster, the agent, visited him and asked him to subscribe to Fads and Fancies.

"I was surprised that Town Topies should ask me to subscribe," said Mr. Baker. "He told me the subscription price was $1.500. Afterward he called again, showed me copies of Town Top-fes and told me the paper was saying pleasant things, and that if I would consult Col. Ma'un I could find out what I wanted." Mr. Baker said that on the second visit Mr. Wooster showed him clippings from Town Topics and again urged him to subscribe to Fads and Fancies, but he did not do so. After that the witness said, more items about "I was surprised that Town Topics that the witness said, more items about Mr. Baker and his family appeared in Town Topics and Mr. Baker went again to see Col. Mann. "He informed me that there had been a definite change in the running of Town Topics, and that it was to be run n a higher plane, because he was as-oclated with better people," said Mr. Baker. "I told him I wanled to be let Baker. alone and he promised that I would not be troubled again. He again asked me to subscribe for Fads and Fancies, and said that he was going to send a solicitor to see me. Irving afterward alled on me with a letter from Col. Mann.

Irving told him in substance, the witness said, "that Col. Mann would be 'extremely sore,' and that the 'riendship of Town Topics was worth aving.

having." Mr. Baker refused again to subscribe to Fads and Fancies. In May, 1902, Mr. Baker said, he had a third interview with Col. Mann. "He wanted to bor-row money," said the witness. "He wanted me to take five shares of Town Topics stock for $5,000. I said that I was not interested in Towns Towies or vas not interested in Town Topics or

Mr. Baker refused to take the stock. Col. Mann, he said, promised to take the stock. Col. Mann, he said, promised to see him again, and, although the witness told him it was no use, Col. Mann went to see Mr. Baker in Baltimore, said he was sorry, and that the friendship of Town Topics was worth having and urged him to reconsider, Mr. Baker did not subscribe to Fads and Fancies, Mr. Baker was excused and Edwin M. Post, a stockbroker, was called. Mr. Post preferred charges of blackmail against Charles Ahle, an agent for the publication called "America's Smart Set." Mr. Post testified that Ahle came to his office with a letter from Mr. Wayne of Town Topics on June 20,

"He said," continued Mr. Post, "that stories had been printed of my connec-tion with the races. I told him I was sorry and that I hoped that it would not occur again. "'We have an article in Town Topics about you,' he said, 'and the boys want to put it in.' At this I became suspiclous and asked him how much the book cost." "He said $500. I said it was a pretty good price and asked him how much the hook really cost. He realled $50, I