Old Men Demanding Arms that they may Show Young Ones How to Fight!

Main Points of the Franco-German Peace Treaty Agreed Upon!

General Sherman Makes a Speech!

The Germans will Mercilessly Resume the War if the Insurrection is not Stopped!

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Treaty signed.

WASHINGTON, 8.—The treaty was signed to-day by the high commission, at the Department of State. The gentlemen, after this was done, exchanged congratulations on the result of their labors, expressing the belief that they had done the most they possibly could for the peace and honor of the two countries. Although the commissioners have been cautious in talking to persons outside their own circles, the following points will be found of interest. First, there are to be two boards of arbitration, or commissions, to one of which will be referred the Alabama and other similar claims, which are recognized as national, and to be settled on the principles of responsibility for such depredations, when the Government has not exercised the utmost diligence and possible precaution to prevent privateers being fitted out in its ports to prey upon the commerce of a power with whom it was at peace. The other board is to take cognizance of miscellaneous claims, British and American, confined principally to the period from the commencement to the close of our late civil war.

Lord Tenterden, Lord Goderich, Professor Bernard, and others of the high commission, with Hon. James Brooks and wife, left in a special car at noon for New York. These gentlemen of the high commission go to Boston and Niagara before they return.

The Treasurer of the U. S. made a telegraphic transfer to-day of a quarter of a million in coin, from the sub Treasury in San Francisco, to the sub Treasury in New York.

NEW YORK.

General Sherman—Old men wanting to fight.

NEW YORK, 8.—A special Frankfort despatch says the third conference was attended by Favre, Douyer, Ducerot and Bismarck, and Baron Arnim Erlanger, the banker, was present part of the time. The conference lasted four hours. An arrangement was reached, as to the main points. A document embodying the results arrived at will be drawn up to-day, and, on Tuesday, will be sent to the French Assembly and the German Emperor for ratification. The Emperor telegraphed to Bismarck, yesterday saying: "While strictly adhering to preliminary stipulations, I am willing to afford all possible facilities for a complete understanding. I am willing to fully discuss means for the early suppression of anarchy and the establishment of a legal government in France." Bismarck returns to Berlin on Tuesday.

The Imperialists are said to be very active in the rural districts of France.

A special from Paris, says, on Saturday the Versaillists made a general reconnoissance, but were repulsed by the Communists, with great loss.

At a club held in the church of St. Nicholas, in Champs Elysees, last night, M. Pearin proposed that the Commune summon the Versaillists to liberate Blanque within twenty-four hours, on pain of putting the Archbishop of Paris to death, in case of refusal. The proposition was carried by acclamation.

A great meeting of men over fifty years old took place in the place Bastille; 4,000 were present and marched to the Louvre and demanded arms. They say they want to show young men how to fight. Arms were promised them. The prisoners taken are returned if they refuse to fight for the Commune, the insurgents being unable to feed useless mouths. The Federalists are exasperated over the reports that the Versaillists kill the wounded on the field of battle.

Thomas W. Conway, Secretary and Treasurer of the Union League Club of New Orleans, writes to the Tribune, on the 22d ult. that at the reception given to General Sherman the general made the following speech: "Mr. President I am not much of a speaker; my forte is action, not speech making. I do not wish my remarks this evening to be reported in the papers, for I see that what I said on the occasion of another reception extended to me since my arrival, have been entirely misrepresented, and I am credited with words I did not utter; therefore I hope there are no reporters here to serve the present interview as they served the other to which I have alluded. My duty as Commander of the army of the country keeps me employed on military matters and by that employment I may be enabled to assist the nation in civil and political interests, but I do not wish to be considered a politician. I strive as well as I can to do what my official duty compels and, in doing that, find myself employed. I do not seek any civil position whatever, and do not wish to be suspected of doing so; indeed I should positively decline any offer of a civil or political position. I mean to devote my whole time, in future, to the study of military art, not with a view of destroying, but as a means of promoting the good of all, even the lowest classes of our country."

A special dispatch from the city of Mexico, states that the Juarez party triumphed in the final vote on the Guerrero question, the vote being ninety four to ninety. It was a test question for the administration, and a ministerial crisis is not now imminent. The Eldorado campaign is as violent as ever, the revolutionary element being strong. Comparative peace reigns in the interior so far, though each political party is accused of bribery, dishonesty, and horrible outrages on the rights of the people.

PENNSYLVANIA.

A town swept by fire.

FEGUNDAS CITY, 8.—A fire broke out here last night, and in four hours the town was in ashes. The losses are not known, but there was little or no insurance on the property destroyed. About fifty buildings were burned. No lives were lost.

PITTSBURG, 8.—Fifty-four houses in Fugundas city, a new wooden town in the oil regions, were burned last night. The fire made a clean sweep of the entire town. The telegraph office was burned, so we can give no particulars.

ILLINOIS.

English noblemen traveling through the West.

CHICAGO, 8.—Lord De Laski, Lord Walsingham, Lord W. Campbell and Hons. Chaplin and Laird, all of whom are making the tour of the west, left here yesterday for San Francisco.

MISSOURI.

Contradicted, unusual.

ST. LOUIS, 8.—General McDonald, Supervisor of Internal Revenue, has just returned from a business trip to the southern portion of the State, and denies having called on the President for troops to suppress Ku Klux in the second district of Missouri as reported from Washington. The General states, however, that he did some time ago ask for authority and means to employ the necessary force to enable the collectors to collect revenues from illicit distillers in the south-eastern part of the State. Collector Murdock has several times been opposed by armed bands of these illicit distillers and their employes and friends, and once or twice has been fired upon, and McDonald has asked for an increased force of deputy collectors so as to cope with armed resistance to the enforcement of the law, but at no time has he called for troops either to suppress Ku Klux or collect revenues.

DELAWARE.

Big fire.

WILMINGTON, 8.—A disastrous conflagration occurred here to-day at noon. The fire caught in the kindling wood factory of Geo. W. Bush, from the engine furnace, and communicated to the oil house attached to the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad shops, and thence extended to the pattern shops and the round house. The round house contained some fifteen locomotives, which all took fire and some of them will be badly injured. Two locomotives outside, one of them just built, are supposed to have been destroyed. The loss to the railroad company is very heavy, including the oil house, pattern house and round house, which were destroyed.

CALIFORNIA.

Strawberries a drug — Wrecked — Old Fogies.

SAN FRANCISCO, 8.—Warm, dry weather prevails. Strawberries are a drug in the market. Six hundred chests arrived on one train on Saturday, and they are wholesaling at four to six cents a pound.

The bark Comet, from Honolulu, reports the ship Liebeg wrecked at Baker's Island. She had not gone to pieces and might be got off.

The California press is disposed to be somewhat severe upon the medical association, as a congregation of impracticable old fogies.

Travel on the Yosemite River never was so great as this season.

FOREIGN NEWS.

GREAT BRITAIN.

A panic among the Communists—Joint Commission Treaty—Napoleon said to have gone to France.

LONDON, 6, a.m.—The Times' Versailles special dispatch says the government forces are within three hundred yards of Porte Maillot.

Gen. Cluseret will shortly be brought to trial.

Other dispatches say that Rochfort announces that ammunition is running out.

The Daily News' special dispatch says Auber, the composer, is seriously ill, and also reports that orders had been issued for the arrest of Gambetta.

The Daily Telegraph has a special dispatch from Paris, dated Sunday: A sortie was made on Saturday, in the direction of Issy. The insurgents were repulsed with enormous loss, and fled to Paris. They fired on their friends who refused to open the gates in Vaugirard quarter.

There was a panic at Vanvres, where the nationals deserted their posts. Rossel has ordered the right sleeves of their uniform to be cut off as a punishment.

Bismarck declines to give up the forts but insists on the strict payment of the war indemnity. The main points of the peace have been agreed on between Bismarck and Favre.

LONDON, 8.—It is again rumored that Napoleon has gone to France, relying on military disaffection.

The Times of to-day expresses the hope that the Congress of the United States will be willing to accept and approve the work of the negotiators. The treaty, says the Times, is a provisional one, and must be ratified by both Houses of Parliament. Of this, however, the Times seems entirely confident.

PRUSSIA.

Bonapartists in America.

BERLIN, 8.—It is reported, on what is said to be official authority, that the Bonapartists are making enlistments in America.

FRANCE.

A proclamation by Thiers.

VERSAILLES, 8.—Several important new batteries at Montretoul, amounting to eighty-two guns, will open to-day.

Thiers, in a proclamation to the people of Paris, says the government will not bombard but assault the ramparts, and requests them to rally round the troops, promising amnesty and a continuance of the subsidy to the poor.

The proclamation says the Germans declare they will mercilessly resume the war unless the insurrection is suppressed, and closes thus: "Re-unite; open the gates to us; the carnage will then cease; tranquility and abundance will enter. We are marching to deliver you and will be among you in a few days. You can aid us."

It is conceded by manufacturers and threshers that the Improved Pitt's Threshing Machine has no rival as a successful and economical Thresher and Cleaner. That it is at least as good as any built, and far superior to the majority that are now being offered as the best in the world. It was awarded at the World's Fair, in France, a GOLD MEDAL OF HONOR. Also, at every exhibition, when brought in competition with other machines, its superiority has been universally acknowledged, and in nearly every instance the first premium has been awarded to it.
