The Semi-Weekly News.

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

Is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Unity club meeting, which was to have been held this evening, has been postponed for one week.

Local socialists will organize a club for the study of social science, and all citizens interested are invited to participate.

Solemn pontifical high mass was said yesterday morning by Bishop Scanlan at St. Mary's Cathedral for the late Rev. William Morrissey.

A collection is being taken up in the Presbyterian churches for the support of a missionary in the mountains of North Carolina, where gross ignorance largely prevails.

A principal at $100 per month, and a primary grade teacher at $80 per month, are wanted at the Castle Gate public school. Experience is a necessary qualification.

Nat M. Brigham is now the head of the literary bureau of the Santa Fe railroad passenger department, and is busy giving lectures illustrative of the scenic features of the route.

The women's auxiliary of the Latter Day Saints association will hold a social Wednesday evening next in the Dooly block. The association holds its annual meeting on the following Wednesday.

Rev. Charles Hargrove of Leeds, England, who has been stationed as a missionary in New Zealand, preached in the Unitarian church in this city yesterday morning.

At yesterday noon's special meeting of the East Side Baptist church, it was announced that Rev. R. F. Walker of Keokuk, Ia., had been called to the vacant pastorate. It is believed that he will accept the call and come west to a better climate than what obtains in the region about Keokuk.

Rev. McClain Davis of Santa Ana, Cal., has accepted his call to the pastorate of the Westminster Presbyterian church in this city, and will enter on his duties Dec. 11 next. Mr. Davis will remain six months anyhow, and if the climate agrees with him, he will remain in permanent charge.

The Salt Lake Horticultural society adopted Saturday afternoon, the report of A. W. Casey on securing for the city an experimental station, and Mr. Casey stated he had written 150 letters to the horticulturists of the world, and that he had secured the services of a man to accept the pictures of the country fruit exhibit made at the state fair.

At a meeting held Sunday in the office of Dr. William F. Beer, the alumni of George Washington university at Washington, D. C., formerly known as Columbian university, organized a local alumni club. Those present at the meeting were Charles L. Oliver, M. R. Broderick, A. V. Taylor, William F. Beer, Alvin Snow, I. E. Willey and M. M. Kaighn.

At a banquet at the All Hallows football team yesterday, Quarterback Owens was selected as captain of the team for next year. In a short speech of acceptance Owens promised to make the team improve as much next year as it did this. Owens was a star player on the team this year, and divided honors for hard work with Fullback Grady, the other candidate for the captaincy.

The prison Christian Endeavor society was given a treat yesterday morning, in the chapel, when Thomas Giles brought down a large Victor talking machine, with a number of unusual choice records, including the recording of the famous flute obligato, that Miss Gates and Mr. Fleischmann gave at the last symphony orchestra concert; also "The Palms" arranged for soprano and baritone. The speakers were M. E. Johnson of the First Methodist church and Mr. Evans of the First Baptist church.

TURKEYS FOR ALL.

A Pleasant Mellin's Food Custom.

Two pleasant events took place the day before Thanksgiving at the Offices of Mellin's Food Company, 291 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, and at The Mellin's Food Works, 37 to 47 Central Wharf, when the Directors, Heads of Departments and Employees met together according to their time honored custom, to exchange congratulations over the completion of another successful year of kindly fellow-feeling and harmonious working together. Mr. Thomas Doliber, President and Treasurer of the Company, read the Thanksgiving Proclamation of the President of the United States and that of the Governor of Massachusetts; then, in behalf of the Directors, he expressed his appreciation of the employees' work during the past 12 months. He said that the increase in the business had been large and even beyond the expectation of the most sanguine, that all records had been broken and that he was much gratified with the results attained. He thanked all for their hearty co-operation in producing these results.

At the close of the remarks, Mr. Doliber, beginning with the messenger boy who had most recently entered the employ of the company and then in order, ranged according to years of service, gave to each, with the best wishes of the company, a large, fat turkey. More than a half ton of turkeys was required. More than two-thirds of those who received turkeys have been with the Mellin's Food company at least 10 years, while with some, the years of service range as high as 19, 21, 26, 27 and 30 years.

BACK TO PHILIPPINES.

E. S. Ely Tells of Work of Y. M. C. A. in the Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ely of New York are at the Cullen en route to San Francisco, whence they will sail for Manila Dec. 1. Mr. Ely has been in charge of the Y. M. C. A. work among the sailors and marines in the Philippines. In an interview, Mr. Ely says:

"I have been three and a half years in the Philippines. I arrived there the day Aguinaldo was captured. The first year I was in the Y. M. C. A. army work, and traveled all over the northern part of the islands. That year we sent out from Manila 175 tons of reading matter. Now we have 150 traveling libraries, with fifty books in each, that are circulated among the soldiers, marines and sailors on board the United States war vessels.

"Miss Helen Gould gives to the army and navy Y. M. C. A. work $12,000 a year, most of which goes to the Philippines. The government aids us by putting up buildings and furnishing materials and hauling supplies without expense to us.

"We have at Cavite a gymnasium, a restaurant, a dormitory, two tennis courts and a pool table. There is no place for white men who go ashore at Cavite to sleep except in the Y. M. C. A. dormitory, in which we can comfortably accommodate fifty persons. At Olongapo we have a building 50x34 feet made of Oregon pine, with a roof of nipa grass, in which we have a library containing 600 volumes and a new piano, which was bought by the marines. They raised the price by subscriptions. Each of the five companies of marines stationed there has a baseball team.

"Our religious services both at Cavite and Olongapo are well attended, a good percentage of both sailors and marines taking an interest in the services. They learn very rapidly and their parents, instead of opposing the schools, are desirous of having their children attend them. The parents have concluded, evidently, that in a few years all the business of the islands will be transacted in English, and they want their children to equip themselves for the future.

"The military government has taken a back seat and the islands are now under civil rule. Conditions are improving all the time. It is true that they were very bad for years, but that was owing to the troubles the government inherited from the Spanish regime. Except the occasional outbreaks of scattered bands of lawless ones the islands are peaceful. In order to bring about this condition it was found necessary to expel many white men who had been discharged from the army, and who were really worse than the natives, having absorbed all their vices without any of their redeeming traits."

CROOKS BUSY IN SALT LAKE.

Two Daring Holdups on Saturday Night in Outlying Stores of The City.

MADE COUPLE OF CASH HAULS.

Roominghouse Burglaries Are of Almost Nightly Occurrence—Man With Bunch of Keys.

Daring holdups, robberies and petty thievery continue in Salt Lake, and although the police have succeeded in landing some of the crooks the boldest and more desperate are at this time still at large. Saturday night there were two more holdups, and roominghouse burglaries are of almost nightly occurrence. A smooth burglar who uses skeleton keys, has been stealing from roominghouses for the past week, and in spite of the fact that several persons have seen the fellow, the police have been unable to capture him.

For the second time within a month, holdups entered the Sherwood drug store of Fifth South and State street on Saturday night, and secured $20 from the cash till.

Robert Burton, the clerk, who has but recently recovered from an attack of typhoid fever, was in the store alone about 10 o'clock. He was at the rear of the store and heard a man enter. The stranger took a seat and when Burton asked him what he wanted, the visitor pulled a gun and pointing it at Burton ordered him to throw up his hands. The latter lost no time in complying with the command. The hold up then told Burton to face the door and keep still. This was also done, and the robber walked quietly behind the counter, opened the cash register and took the contents, amounting to $20. As the fellow left, he said to Burton:

"I am sorry kid but I need the money as I intend to leave town tomorrow." He then disappeared down the street, and that is the last seen of him. It is believed that he had a confederate outside. The man was dressed as being about five feet and eight inches in height, and wore a black soft hat and a light overcoat. He was smooth shaven and appeared to be not more than 25 years of age.

BULLET FOR J. F. KIRK.

About 9 o'clock, as J. F. Kirk was closing his grocery store, which is located at 302 south Fourth west street, a man knocked at the door, saying he wanted a sack of tobacco. As Kirk opened the door, he found himself gazing into the muzzle of an ugly looking revolver, and heard the command to throw up his hands. Kirk at once yelled for help, and the robber drew a shot at him. The bullet missed its mark and crashed into a showcase. This was enough for Kirk and he decided to be good. He next discovered that there were two robbers, the other being stationed outside to give the alarm in the event of assistance coming to Kirk. The robber with the gun, who was described as being about six feet in height, brown curly hair and smooth shaven, ordered Kirk to open the cash register. The till was locked, but the store keeper was compelled to unlock it. The money, $45, was in a top till and Kirk did not know where the other till was. When the robber saw no money in sight he called to his confederate and told him there was nothing there.

"There is money there," replied the man outside, "make him open the other till." This was done and the robber seized the money and started out. As the two men walked down the street, Kirk went to the back door and watched them. He did not get a good look at the man who kept watch outside, but the man with the gun could be easily identified.

The police were soon notified of the affair, and although they made a thorough search for the hold-ups, no trace of them could be found. The officers believe that the men are the same who operated in Ogden successfully last week.

Herb W. Edwards injured. Herb W. Edwards of Des Moines, Ia., got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days' time, to say nothing of the suffering." This liniment is for sale by all druggists.

A RARE CHRISTMAS BOOK.

The Deseret News Book Store is pleased to announce that it has secured a limited number of the work, "Pictures of an Inland Sea," written and illustrated by Alfred Lambourne, the well-known Utah artist, and that it will offer them to the holiday trade at 50 per cent less than last year's prices. Nothing more beautiful than this book, which is written in Mr. Lambourne's best style, and contains seven photographic plates from the author's original sketches, could be selected as a Christmas present to send away to friends interested in Utah. The price last year was $1.00. It is now offered at 50c to close out the edition. The book is printed on heavy deckle edge paper and bound in fine art buckram. A limited number of the book has also been bound in paper, with a design of Salt Lake in colors. This style sells at 25c. Special rates below these unusually cheap prices are offered agents and dealers. Anyone desiring a rare art work, at half price on a subject so interesting to all Utahns at home and abroad should call immediately and see Mr. Lambourne's work, before the limited supply is exhausted.
