Arriving Delegations.

Arrying Delegations. Denver, July 6.-At the vice presi-dential headquarters of Charles A. Towne of New York today favorable re-ports were being received, it was claim-ed, from many arriving delegations. The Missourians brought the cheering information that a straw vote had been taken on the train en route here, show-ing the entire delegation for Towne, ex-cept two who favored John Mitchell, the labor leader. The Oklahoma delegation, while taking no formal action, had been canvassed and found to stand for Towne. Several southern delegations had also excrement of their preference for Towne, including Alabams and Missission. The Towne managers claimed that if

If mar-ried in any but the Angelican church a registrar must be present to sign the registrar field and Prince de Sagan are extremely reticent regarding their plans. Their friends, however, say that the wedding will be very simple and a registry office one.

TO CONSIDER CONTEST. Denver, July 6 .- The national commit Derver, July 6.—The national commit-tee met at 10 o'clock today for the pur-pose of considering evidence in the various contests for seats on the tem-porary rollcall. It had already been ar-ranged that each contest should be re-ferred to a sub-committee. A resolution was adopted requiring each sub-com-mitte to report not later than 5 o'clock this afternoon.

FEW ACCIDENTS.

Eugene Knowles Loses Part of Hand Through Fire Cracker.

Few accidents marred the pleasure of the Fourth in Salt Lake. Probably there was as much pyrotechnic display ed in the withdrawal of Jacob Sleeper, the American charge d'affaires, from the Venezuelan capital, is more com-plete than was at first generally be-lieved. The full text of diplomatic notes which passed between Mr. Sleep-er and Dr. Jose De Jesus Faul, the Venezuelan minister of foreign affairs, subsequent to the withdrawal of Mr. Sleeper, indicates that not only are the friendly relations interrupted, but completely severed. as ever before, but more care seems to have been exercised by old and young. At the time the "News" went to press Saturday only two slight acci-dents had been reported. Subsequent-ly three others more or less serious occurred, the gravest of which was the loss by Eugene Knowles of part of his hand The Knowles boy, who lives at 246

DELIGHTED WITH SALT LAKE.

L. G. Willis, treasurer and executive head of the Robinson-Miller Implement company of Minneapolis, Minn., together with Mrs. Willis, is registered at the Kenyon. Mr. Willis is now taking the first vacation from business in 22 years, and is covering the west gen-erally in his trip. This is his first visit to Salt Lake, and he says he is delighted with the town. "Your streets are broad and seem to breathe wel-come to the stranger." said Mr, Willis this morning. "We went over to Salt-air yesterday and enjoyed the outing very much. The system of handling crowds at this resort beats anything I have ever seen. We have large sum-mer resorts near Minneapolis, but they cannot handle the number of people anything like they are handled at Salt-air." Mr. Wills and wife attended the big tabernacie yesterday, and both ex-pressed themselves as beingfi highly impressed with the service and the big organ. They are on their way easi now, and after stopping at Colorado Springs will continue on back to Minneapolis. 22 years, and is covering the west gen-

STERILIZER FOR HOSPITAL.

At the L. D. S. hospital work was begun today on the construction of a $2,000 sterilizer for the disinfecting of mattresses, pillows, and bedding. Hereofore carbolic acid has been used, but with not the best results. Now, every piece of bedding, after being used by any inmate of the hospital, will be put into this large sterilizer and subjected to a pressure of between 30 and 50 pounds of steam in a temperature of 300 degrees. the association officers are now work ing out plans for a big warehouse and market at Chicago, which will be established in time to take care of next sea son's clip.

A meeting of the executive committee of the National association will be held in Cheyenne, Wyo., on July 23, at which the special committee sent to Chicago 10 days ago to investigate the woo storage plan, will report. The committee found the Chicago people very enthusiastic over the proposition of establishing in that city a great wool market, and promised every assistance posket, and promised every assistance pos-sible. The bankers will advance 75 per cent of the value of the wool and at very low rates of interest, and for as long periods as the growers desire. The railroads will grant mill-in-transit rates, and the terminal lines will as-sist. The Chicago chamber of com-merce has interested itself and guaran-tees the growers a market for all wool shipped to that city and at top prices. The same organization will interest it-self in locating manufacturing plants in self in locating manufacturing plants in self in locating manufacturing plants in the Windy city. The plan as outlined is for the grow-ers to sign a contract to store their wool in Chicago or forfelt a certain sum for failure to do so, and it is believed in this manner not less that fifty or seventy-five million pounds of wool can be secured for Chicago storage, and with this amount of wool together there will be no doubt of establishing a market. Buyers, both middlemen and manufacturers, will come to Chica-go for their wool, instead of sending special representatives out into the range country at locavy expense fo range country at heavy expense to make purchases. The saving of this expense will benefit the growers, who just now are at the mercy of the mid dlemen. The executive committee of the Na-tional association will hold an ad-journed meeting in Salt Lake City in August, which will be attended by ex-ecutive officers of all state, county and district associations of woolgrowers throughout the country, and by leading sheepmen from all sections. In all probability the storage movement on a large scale will be launched at this Salt Lake meeting when a company will be formed to build warehouses in Chica-go. Agents will be sent into every state and istricty to solicit cilps for storage, and if the woolgrowers stand together the movement will surely succeed. The executive committee of the Na

From His Horse at Pocatello.

(Special to the "News.")

(Special to the "Naws.") Pocatello, Ida., July 3.-Charles Munn, a cowboy, a resident of this city, tost his life in the Fourth of July cele-bration here last Saturday by being thrown off a horse while passing by the Carnegie Ibrary. The doceased was buried this atternoon. He leaves a wife but no family. Fred Wiedeman, the shoe merchant, was run over Saturday while attempt-ing to stop a runeway ice wagon and team belonging to Smith Bros. His left leg was badly crushed and will yet have to be amputated, though this point is not definitely decided upon.

Chicago, July 6.-The Tribune today says: Neventy-two dead and 2.736 injured are the second day totals of the accidents attending the celebration of the Fourth of July in the United States. This breaks all records for deaths this year re-ported up to 3 octock this morning is is more than at the same time last year. In 1905 10 were dead at the same hour. The number of infuries, however, is only two-thirds of the sverage for the last five years. This is regarded as an indication that the move for a same Fourth is having its effect. This year's fire losses is $544,435, which is about the average of the last 10 years. RECEIVES JACOB RIIS
