THE ROBBERY.—To night "The Robbers of the West" will be repeated, to be followed by "The Mother and Child" and "The Robbery of the West."

EDITORIAL ITEMS.—The following was received by Deseret Telegraph line this morning:

PAID.—A. S. Gould, Notary Public, for the last of the month, met yesterday morning for adjournment, Hon. O. F. Strickland presiding. The court was held in the morning, and the jury was called. The names of the jury were called, and the trial was continued to the next day.

THE JURY.—The government has not yet paid the jury, and it has been the practice for the Territory to pay the jury until recently. The press of this country has made some wrong assertions in relation to the object of these courts, in that the courts have decided the cases, and the jury has only to find the facts.
