Anarchy in Mississippi.

WASHINGTON, 8.—The following dispatch was received at the Executive Mansion last night from Governor Ames of Mississippi:

"JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 7.

"To his Excellency U. S. Grant, President, Washington—

"Sir—Domestic violence in its most aggravated form exists in certain parts of this State. On the evening of the first instant unauthorized and illegal armed bodies overthrew the civil authorities of Yazoo County, and took forcible possession of said county, from which the sheriff, the peace officer of the county, was compelled to flee for safety, and is still a refugee. The sheriff of this (Hinds) County reports that since the 4th inst. he has been unable, after every effort, to maintain the peace and protect the rights of the citizens. He reports various murders by unauthorized armed bodies, who are scouring the county. Warren Co., also, he reports, as being in a state of terrorism from a demonstration of still other unauthorized bodies, and a feeling of insecurity prevails in other counties of the State. After a careful examination of all reports I find myself compelled to appeal to the General Government for means of giving that protection to which every American citizen is entitled. I do not now make a formal application under the provisions of the Constitution of the U. S., but telegraph you to know if you can and will regard the proclamation issued by you in December last, or the application of the legislature of this State, as still in force. The necessity of immediate action cannot be overstated. If your proclamation of December last is not in force, I will at once make a formal application in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of the U. S.

(Signed) "ADELBERT AMES."

The following reply has been sent to Governor Ames—

"Execution Mansion,
"Washington, Sept. 8.

"Governor Adelbert Ames, Jackson, Mississippi:

"The President submitted your dispatch of yesterday, asking if the proclamation of December last is still in force, to the Attorney-General, who decided that it is not in force. I notify you of his decision by direction of the President.

(Signed) "LEVI P. LUCKEY,
"Secretary."

Governor Ames Wants Help.

Governor Ames [illegible] application for such aid from the federal government as may be necessary to restore peace to the State and to protect its citizens.

A Terrible Explosion.

NEWARK, N. J., 8.—An explosion took place in the celluloid factory, in the central portion of the city, this afternoon; about thirty men were in the building at the time, some of whom escaped uninjured. Three were taken out by the firemen, one dead and the others not expected to recover. It is supposed that twelve or more remain in the building without any hope of rescue. The building was destroyed by the shock, and flames burst out in every direction. A number of buildings, including several factories and two livery stables, were burned. The fire is not yet under control. The business houses on Market Street, including some of the finest in the city, are threatened. The entire fire department and police are at work.

Later.—The fire was under control at 8 o'clock. The buildings on Market Street were saved by great exertions of the firemen and police force. No more dead bodies have been discovered, though it is supposed that several are beneath the ruins, as some of the employees are unaccounted for. Twelve persons were severely injured. Total loss $175,000.

Dishonoring the Cloth.

WATERVILLE, 8.—The Rev. W. W. Randall, known as a revival preacher, has been arrested on suspicion of having altered and passed one dollar National Bank notes changed to fives.

Reform Convention.

MILWAUKEE, 8.—The Democratic Reform State Convention met at the Opera House in this city, at noon, to-day. Hon. D. W. Maxion was chosen temporary chairman.

Convention.

ERIE, Pa., 8.—The convention met at noon, and was called to order by Jno. Miller, chairman of the State Central Committee. Jas. Ellis, of Schuylkill Co., and Jno. D. Stiles, of Lehigh, were nominated for temporary chairman; Ellis was chosen.

Bank Robbed.

LOUISVILLE, 8.—A special to the Evening Ledger, from Greenville, Ky., reports that the bank of T. B. Hancock & Co. was robbed of $27,000 two nights since; the combination lock of the safe was opened, but was not injured in any way; $5,000 in U. S. bonds, $7,000 in currency, and $15,000 in gold were taken.

A Grand Parade.

CINCINNATI, 8.—The grand parade, to-day, in honor of the opening of the Sixth Annual Industrial Exposition, was a great success in every particular. The day opened auspiciously, and the whole city presented a gala appearance, all the buildings along the principal streets being decorated with evergreens and flags, and various devices and legends.

Organization Completed.

RALEIGH, N. C., 8.—The constitutional convention completed its organization; all the officers elected were democrats.

Organized.

MILWAUKEE, 8.—The democratic convention, this p. m., effected a permanent organization with ex-Governor Dewey as president.

Amendments Carried.

TRENTON, N. J., 8.—The constitutional amendments have been carried in this state by a majority of about twenty thousand.

Ticket Nominated.

SARATOGA, 8.—The following ticket was nominated by the convention—For Secretary of State, Fred. W. Seward; Comptroller, General F. E. Spinner; Treasurer, General E. A. Merritt; Attorney General, Geo. L. Banford; State Engineer, O. H. H. Cornell; Canal Commissioner, W. E. Findlay; State Prison Inspector, Rev. Benoni T. Ives. Adjourned sine die.

WESTERN.

California University Matters—That Indian Scare Collapsing.

SAN FRANCISCO, 8.—The regents of the State University have elected D. O. Mills treasurer, vice Ralston. The finance committee of the board reported that the University will lose nothing by the failure of the Bank of California, being protected by the late treasurer's bond for one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Dispatches from the seat of the Indian outbreak in Nevada indicate that the trouble was probably exaggerated, though troops are being forwarded.

Will Open.

It is now stated that the Bank of California will open at the same time as the Bank of Nevada, about the 15th inst.; the stock boards will also open at the same time.

CANADA.

Killed by Hydrate of Chloral.

TORONTO, 8.—Edward Oliphant the eldest son of Doctor Oliphant, of this city, died last night, from an overdose of hydrate of chloral.

To be Arrested.

MONTREAL, 8.—Information has been received to the effect that the directors of the Jacques Cartier Bank are to be arrested to-morrow, in connection with the issuing of the alleged false statement to its stockholders.

Mr. Doutre, counsel for the Institute Canadienne, in the Guibord affair, will enter an action against the Nouveau Monde newspaper, for libel, the charge to be founded on remarks made by that paper on the conduct of Doutre in relation to Guibord's funeral.

The Guibord Affair.

The force guarding Guibord's remains at the Protestant cemetery will be doubled to-night. The report that General O'Grady Haly, administrator of the government, will take the burial in hand under the protection of the Ontario militia, is generally discredited, and Mr. Doutre says that he will pursue his original intentions. Last night the Prince of Wales' regiment turned out two hundred and fifty strong, and were served with clothing and arms. Col. Bond addressed them, and said that if called out he knew that he could depend upon every man, Protestant and Catholic. The Victoria rifles were drilled on the Champ de Mars last evening. Guards are placed at the armories, owing to the prevalence of rumors that the rioters have designs on the guns.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Had a Good Effect—Courteously Received.

LONDON, 8.—The Times, in its financial article, says that the report of the restoration of perfect order in Bosnia and the submission of the insurgents in the adjacent districts, has had a favorable effect on British funds.

A special to the Times says that Colonel Duncan reports that the King of Burmah received him courteously.

ITALY.

McCloskey With the Pope.

ROME, 8.—His Holiness received Cardinal McCloskey this evening. The Rector of the American College and the Cardinal's secretary accompanied him. Two cardinals and several prelates greeted him at the hall of the throne. He was immediately ushered into the Pope's private apartment, where his holiness rose and embraced him. They remained together alone for half an hour. On leaving the Vatican the Cardinal was again complimented by the prelates. The date fixed for the holding of the consistory is the 24th inst. instead of the 9th. During the interview the Pope asked Cardinal McCloskey many questions about the church in America. The Cardinal subsequently visited Monsignor Antonelli.

SPAIN.

Military Matters.

MADRID, 8.—General Quesada has established his headquarters at Lafala, and reports to the government, from that place, that the Carlist General Dorregary is marching towards Tolosa, with his forces reduced to a mere handful.

General Jovellar returned to this city yesterday; it is expected that he will shortly resume the portfolio as minister of war.

It is believed that Catalonia will be entirely pacified by the end of the present month.

The immediate reduction of the town of Estella, in Navarre, which has long been a stronghold of the Carlists, has been determined on by the government.
