

also instantly killed. The Indians retreated.

A special dispatch from Seward, Neb., to the Herald, this morning, says that Nathan Clough, aged 49, brother of the proprietor of the Blue Valley House, was found murdered in bed this morning; his head was crushed in with three heavy blows from an axe, and a deep gash was cut in the left cheek.

ST. LOUIS, 2.—Chas. D. Affleck, cashier of the Bremen Savings Bank, who disappeared on Saturday last, was found in the river at the foot of Brooklyn St., this p.m.; a large rock was found buttoned inside his coat, and there is now no doubt that he committed suicide.

INDIANAPOLIS, 2.—The republicans carried the city election today, by a large majority, electing eleven out of thirteen councilmen. After the closing of the polls a serious fight was commenced near the Sixth ward voting place, which was continued northward on Illinois Street, to the vicinity of the Grand and Bates hotel, when it assumed the character of a riot, lasting for twenty or thirty minutes, resulting in the killing of one and probably the fatally injuring of two colored men. There are at present eight wounded persons at the Surgical Institute, and several others, blacks and whites, are known to have been taken to their homes more or less hurt.

SAN FRANCISCO, 2.—In reference to the erroneous statements heretofore published concerning the gold and silver production of the Comstock lode, in many of which the bullion product of the entire State of Nevada has been credited to the Comstock, the Bulletin publishes, editorially, a carefully collected estimate, which shows that the total bullion product of the Comstock, from its discovery to the beginning of the present year, in round numbers, is two hundred millions, of which eighty millions is gold.

A dispatch from Victoria says that the question of taking steps to prevent further Chinese immigration will come up in the House on Wednesday; the subject is exciting great interest. The meeting held last night was largely attended, and strong anti-Coolie sentiments were expressed, and a petition was adopted asking the legislature to impose a capitation tax of thirty dollars on each Chinaman going to the Cassair mines.

FOREIGN.

HAVANA, via Key West, 1.—Intelligence from Sagua le Grande states that on the morning of the 25th, a train from Los Cruces was attacked by 200 insurgents at Cifuentes station. Ten soldiers and one officer, who were on board, made a heroic defence, but were compelled to succumb. The engineer, conductor, and many of the passengers were wounded. The insurgents burned the cars. This occurrence took place between two stations strongly garrisoned and but a short distance from each other, but no help was sent. The insurgents have burned the Guadalupe estate, and negroes and mulattoes have plundered the San Jorge estate, within two miles of the village of Sagua le Grande. In the jurisdiction of Colon the insurgents have lately burned the estates of Buena Ventura, Santa Susana, San Juan Regleta and San Francisco.

LONDON, 2.—A Berlin dispatch reports that the King of Bavaria has given permission for the erection of a colossal statue of Bismarck, in Kissingen, to mark the spot where Kullman attempted to assassinate him.

At a meeting of the Oxford Boat Club captains, yesterday, the invitation of the Yale University boatmen was respectfully declined.

This morning papers publish the following—"The King of Dahomey's reported invitation to Commodore Kenett to come to Abomey and receive the payment of the fine imposed upon him for maltreating a British subject, in powder and bullets, appears to have been accepted, and orders have been given for assembling the fleet at Whydah, to take active proceedings if the amount of the fine be not forthcoming; an opportunity, however, will be given the king to change his present attitude, and hostilities will be postponed until June, or later."

The British Government have informed the American legation that it will release Winslow tomorrow, Wednesday, and that two other prisoners, Gray of New York, and Brent of Louisville, whose extradition is also claimed, will be released when their terms have expired; although this notification has been given, the Government has not formally replied to America's argument, owing to the absence of Lord Derby, caused by the recent death of his mother. In addition to the arguments already made public touching the interpretation of the act of 1870, America has adduced, as a precedent, a case occurring in 1871, wherein Chief Justice Cockburn ordered a surrender to France, under similar circumstances, upon a mere opinion of the French Consul that the prisoner would only be tried for the offence for which he was extradited, the Chief Justice remarking, obiter, that even without the Consul's assurance he should have decided against the prisoner.

LONDON, 2.—The grand jury of the central criminal court have returned a true bill against the mutineers of the Lennie; the trial is set down for to-morrow, and is expected to last three or four days.

Three thousand iron workers of Sheffield, who were on strike, have resumed work at reduced wages.

In the House of Commons, tonight, Disraeli, in a vehement speech denounced as calumnious the statement by Lowe, at a liberal meeting in Retford, that the Queen had asked two previous premiers to introduce a bill changing the royal titles, but that both had refused. He denied the truth of the statement as far as it concerned himself and the late Earl of Derby, and cited a letter from Gladstone denying that the Queen ever made such a proposal. In conclusion Disraeli made a statement on behalf of the Queen that Lowe's assertion was utterly unfounded.

Caution with Firearms—Concert.

WELLSVILLE, CACHE CO.,
April 30th, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

Father Timothy Parkinson, who was accidentally shot in the hand on Friday, the 28th, is doing as well as can be expected, taking his advanced age into consideration. It is high time that we were learning to be a little more cautious in the handling and stowing of firearms. The avoidance of an accident like the above would be good pay for a lifetime of caution; and it is hard to think that another might become the victim of our reprehensible carelessness.

Last evening, Saturday, the 29th, our choir gave a concert for the benefit of the Sunday school. There was a good house. I am not posted as to the finances, but musically and artistically it was a success. The entertainment concluded with the ever fresh and dashing little comedy of "The Young Widow," or "A Lesson to Lovers," by a quartette of the Dramatic Association, who added lavishly to the fun of the evening.

Once more we tread on terra firma. Things are beginning to assume a more verdant hue. We like to have the "beautiful" with us, but this year we bade it au revoir as we would our mother-in-law after a too protracted stay, i. e., with a sigh of relief. Respectfully,
W. K. R.

The proposition to commemorate the Centennial by the pardon of all prisoners strikes the Boston Post as good as far as it goes, but it thinks that "while we are about it we might as well level the penal institutions to the ground, make a bonfire of the statute books, behind the lawyers, and hang the judges to the lamp-posts."

At Glendale, April 13, 1876, of lung disease, after an illness of several months, ROBERT BOYD STEWART.

Deceased was born in the State of Indiana, August 1st, 1817; embraced the gospel while the church was in Illinois; was a member of the "Mormon" battalion, and was extensively known in Utah, Oregon and California. Brother Stewart was a man of sterling integrity, always battling for the right and on the side of the oppressed, faithful in the defense of the truth, kind to the poor, a kind husband and father, respected by those best known to him for his faithful course and upright conduct. He died in hope of a resurrection with the just.—[Com.]
