

SOCIAL CHAT

As the season advances social functions are becoming fewer, the local world of entertainers evidently being impressed to store up social energy for the more active fall season now so near at hand. Already people are beginning to gather home from the summer resorts, and the next two weeks will probably see an influx of the remaining pleasure seekers.

Miss Cassie Bird was hostess at a pleasant card party on Monday night, the entertainment being "Hearts," and the following guests enjoying the evening: Mesdames J. P. Pratt, C. D. Sabery; Misses Carol Evans, Dorothy Thompson, Edythe Hill, Clifton Cameron, Clifton Mayne, Daisy Ball, Juliet Crismon, Esther Wells of Kansas City; Evelyn Weidner, Belle Bowdler, Belle De Bois, Ethel Martin, Louise Wallace, Lomena Ritter, Blanche Kidder, Lena Bradus, Blanche Kidder, Lena Bradus, Marge Bird, Essie Hoyce, Messrs. Deighton, Young, Spencer Young, Vassel, Hall, Will Hall, Weidner, Ruen Simer, Manning, Alpha Manning, Stockman, Jones, Bowdler, Fruhling, McMaster, Bird, Bradus, Keyser.

Miss Anna Rogers was hostess at a delightful musical on Tuesday night, given in honor of Clyde Squire, who leaves shortly to resume his art studies in New York. The rooms were prettily decorated, and an enjoyable program was rendered by Miss Agnes Dahlquist, Miss Ruth Dahlquist, Miss Lillian Turner, Miss Alice Foster, Miss Leone Rogers, Miss Anna Rogers, Mrs. Cora Winkler, Kent Cobb, Leo Foster and Spencer Squires.

On Wednesday morning Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett entertained the Bridge Whist club at the country club, and afterward at luncheon at the same place, in honor of Mrs. G. F. Downey of Denver. The other guests were Mrs. Hubbard W. Reed, Mr. Robert Glenning, Mrs. L. L. Terry, Mrs. William A. Akers, Mrs. B. E. Miller, Mrs. Lila James-Read and Mrs. M. S. Woodward.

Among those who entertained at luncheon at the country club on Wednesday were Mrs. Lewis C. Robinson, Mrs. D. J. Sharp and Miss Katherine Geddes.

Mrs. J. C. Leary and Mrs. L. O. Rhodes chaperoned a party to the lake last night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kiser entertained at supper on Monday evening in honor of Miss Ethel Barrymore, following the performance of "Cousin Kate." The decorations were most effective, and the guests numbered several of the theatrical company.

Mrs. M. B. Rice and Mrs. J. S. Ferris entertained delightfully at a card party at the home of Mrs. Ferris. The rooms were prettily decorated and a large number were present to enjoy the evening.

Gov. and Mrs. Walla entertained informally at dinner on Monday night and afterward gave a box-party at the theater, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. Perry and Mr. and Mrs. Alma Katz of Boise.

Mrs. W. G. Lamb was hostess at a pleasant evening party on Monday, her guests being Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Rice, Dr. Rykert of Paris, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Evans, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, Mr. W. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. C. Travers.

At the Knutsford on Monday night Miss Charlotte Holmes entertained a number of friends at dinner and afterward at a box party at the theater, her guests being Mr. and Mrs. Solon Spiro, Mr. G. N. Lawrence and Mr. Cannon.

Lieut. Saunders gave a box-party at the theater on Monday night.

Mrs. William Keyser was one of the hostesses at the various theater parties given at the "Cousin Kate" performance on Monday.

Miss Nellie Gary entertained the members of the P. N. G. club on Wednesday.

Miss Stella Salisbury entertained informally at dinner on Thursday night, the occasion celebrating her birthday anniversary. The table was effectively decorated in white and yellow, sweet peas and ribbons being used. Covers were laid for 16.

On Monday Miss Pearl Van Cott entertained at an informal, but extremely pretty luncheon at the Alta club in honor of Miss Annette Ferguson, whose wedding took place this week.

On Monday night Miss Ferguson was guest of honor at a delightful dinner given by her mother, Mrs. Jeannette Ferguson at her home, the other guests being the members of the bridal party, Dr. W. A. Paden, Mr. Ralph A. McBroom, Miss Groo and Prof. Howell.

Mrs. L. L. Terry will entertain next week in honor of her guest Mrs. Akers of Montana.

Mrs. Edward McGurra entertained informally at dinner at the Commercial club on Monday in honor of Miss Georgia Vaden and Miss Gertrude Hansen.

Mrs. W. R. Wightman was hostess at a literary afternoon on Thursday, a most enjoyable paper being given by Mrs. John Cain, entitled "American Humors and Others." Refreshments were served and a delightful time spent. About 40 were present.

George Barratt entertained a few friends informally at his home on Wednesday night.

Miss Ella Hines gave a lake party on Tuesday night in honor of Miss Hazel Culmer of Washington who is spending the summer here.

Miss Kate Farrell was hostess at a theater party on Tuesday night in honor of Miss Vera Holden.

Mrs. J. E. Bamberger gave a party at Lagoon on Wednesday for Misses Elsa and Dorothy Bamberger, a large number of their little friends enjoying a delightful day.

Miss Lida Hauxhurst entertained informally yesterday in honor of Miss Alberta Brown.

Mr. E. B. Wickes entertained informally at dinner at the country club on Wednesday night in honor of Maj. and Mrs. G. F. Downey.

Mrs. F. B. Stephens was hostess at a delightful dinner yesterday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Clary.

The most enjoyable event of the season at Wasatch, was the ball given Monday evening by May Taylor and leave shortly for Baltimore, where Mr. Lewis will study medicine.

Prof. Byron Cummings and family and L. P. Judd and family are spending the summer in Cottonwood canyon, near the Twin Peaks.

Louis Farnsworth left Thursday for Stanford, where he will resume his studies at the opening of the school year.

Capt. Samuel Paul, Miss Paul and Miss Alice Paul have gone for a three weeks' trip to Portland, Seattle and Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Rogers and children are in Provo for a few weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Tripp of Yankton, S. D., are in the city and will occupy the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Tripp during their absence in Europe.

Misses Svelba Clayton, Theresa Taylor, Emily Whitte and Naomi Felt have returned from the Clayton ranch in East canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Milando Pratt are entertaining Miss Helen Haynes of San Francisco, who is on her way home.

THRICE CROWNED BEAUTY WHO IS TO COME TO OUR SHORES

New York is to have as a visitor next winter the celebrated Austro-Hungarian society beauty, Miss Ducl von Kuranda.

Miss von Kuranda is not yet eighteen years old, but thrice already she has been awarded the crown of beauty in contests of society women—twice in her own country and the third time in Austria, where she is regarded as one of the most attractive young women in the empire.

Rogers, Miss Rose Marie Young, Miss Viola Jensen, Miss Clara Hughes and Miss Mae Gray.

Little Almee Whitney was hostess at a pretty children's party on Thursday, the occasion being her fifth birthday. The decorations were all in Japanese and a Japanese souvenir was given each guest.

Mr. Owen Gray will entertain at dinner at the Commercial club tonight.

COMING AND GOING

Mr. Lee Young, Mr. Clifford Young and the Misses Young and Miss Rebecca Morris came down from Judge Young's camp on the Weber on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rookledge and family arrived home today from the Weber today where they have been for the past three weeks.

Attorney Frank B. Stephens and family are on the Weber where they will remain for the next few weeks.

Mrs. Hattie C. Pickett will leave for Logan this evening where she will visit with relatives and friends for the next month.

Miss Carrie Richards who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Spillsbury for the past week at Toquerville, has returned.

Mrs. M. S. Ellerbeck and daughters have returned from a month's outing at Brighton.

Miss Vera Holden of Los Angeles is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. W. Scott, at 835 East Second South street.

Miss Martha Walters has returned from an enjoyable trip to St. Louis.

Mrs. Rulon S. Wells has returned from Brighton, where she has been spending several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb left this week for a visit in California.

Miss Kate Farrell and Miss Margaret Ryan have returned from Park City.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Easton came down from Brighton this week, and on Thursday Mr. Easton left for the east to resume his engagement with the "Bonnie Brier Bush" company.

Mrs. William H. Dale leaves during next week to visit for a time in California.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Tripp and their daughter, Gwendolyn, will leave tomorrow for a trip abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Nelson left Tuesday evening for St. Louis, Chicago and other eastern points.

Miss Leah Alexander of Boise, Ida., is guest of Miss Katie Farrell and Miss Margaret Ryan.

Mrs. E. B. Bailey and Miss Bailey have returned from California, where they have spent the past six weeks, and are at home for the present at 67 West Seventh South street with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. Lewis have returned from Cedar City and will Yellowstone for the past two weeks, returned today.

Mrs. Lulu S. Mayne, Mrs. John Hooper and Miss Ruth P. Copp of this city are now in Switzerland. They will return to Salt Lake some time in October.

Mrs. J. S. Richards, wife of Dr. Richards, and Mrs. Beer, wife of Dr. Beer, and her children, are enjoying a ten days' outing at Brighton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hobbs of Los Angeles, Cal., spent the day with their cousin, Mrs. A. H. Mayne, on their way to the fair and other eastern points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. Schuler taken the Sherman home on east Second South street, and will shortly be at home to their friends there.

After a pleasant visit with friends in Ogden, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Whitney are again at home here.

Hon. Parley L. Williams, Miss Williams, Miss Eloise Sherman and Master Hugh Williams will return tomorrow evening from their tour of Yellowstone park.

Mrs. George F. Downey and sons have returned to Denver, after an enjoyable ten days' visit with Maj. and Mrs. George M. Downey of this city.

Mrs. Robert Foster is home from Yellowstone, where she has been enjoying a visit for several weeks.

Miss Garda Wedgewood is entertaining Miss Zula Houtz of Provo.

Miss George McKimmins is home from a ten days' outing in Yellowstone Park.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis have moved and are now at home at 79 P street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moore are home from their wedding trip and are with Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Pinkerton at 280 east Second South street.

Mrs. L. N. Joseph and daughter of Noblesville, Ind., are guests for a time of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Joseph at 80 H street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Smith of Los Angeles, who have been visiting Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. S. B. Neuman, for the past month, leave for their home

WIFE OF PROBABLE CANADIAN GOVERNOR GENERAL

Mrs. Grenfell, wife of William H. Grenfell, M. P., is one of the most popular members of the London smart set. Her popularity is attested by the fact that she is known to her intimates as Mrs. "Willie." Should she become mistress of Rideau Hall in Ottawa, Canadian society would have a leader who is a princess of hospitality and a stranger to social jealousies.

via Portland and Seattle the beginning of next week.

The Misses Nellie and Edith Herman have returned home after a month's visit to the fair.

Miss Emma Savage left today for a three weeks' visit to the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells Pratt of Kalamazoo, Mich., have arrived in this city and expect to spend the winter with their son, H. O. Pratt.

Mrs. Don R. Coray and son have returned from a ten days' visit in Portland.

Mrs. Anthony Godbe has been down from Brighton for a brief visit with her sister, Mrs. W. S. Ellerbeck.

Mrs. E. W. Bryant of Pekamah, Neb., is visiting Mrs. N. J. Sheckell of 663 east Sixth South street. Mrs. Bryant is a cousin of Mrs. Grover Cleveland, wife of ex-President Cleveland.

Mrs. S. C. Sherrill has gone to Nashville, Tenn., for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. C. A. Stockham.

Judge John A. Marshall is home from California, where he has been enjoying a delightful visit for several weeks past.

Mrs. W. A. Sherman and daughter, Miss Mary, are now visiting friends in Philadelphia. They will return to Salt Lake about the 15th of September.

Miss Edna Dwyer expects to leave next Thursday for a year's stay in New York.

Erle Daveler has returned to Berkeley, where he enters his sophomore year in the University of California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spencer and the other members of their party who have been visiting the white flowers. Her bridesmaid, Miss Groo, was gowned in a dainty costume of pale green and carried white roses. Mr. Benjamin Howell, was best man. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. McGroom left for an eastern trip, and will later return here to reside.

Another interesting wedding of the week was that of Miss Vida Richards, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Richards and Alexander Colbath, the ceremony being performed at 10 a. m. on Tuesday at the bride's home, only the members of the families being present. The rooms were prettily decorated, and Judge McCarthy officiated, the newly married couple leaving shortly after for a wedding trip, after which they will return to Park City to reside.

A wedding of interest to many in Salt Lake, Logan and Ogden was the marriage of Miss Gladys Spencer of Logan and Frank L. West of Ogden yesterday, the ceremony being performed in the Temple by President Joseph F. Smith. The bride is a daughter of Burke Spencer of this city, and granddaughter of the late George W. Thatcher of Logan, and the groom a son of Joseph A. West of Ogden. Mr. and Mrs. West will go to California, where the groom will attend the university for a year and later go to Harvard. They will receive the congratulations of their many friends.

The Bateman house at West Jordan was the scene of the brilliant wedding reception given on Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bateman in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Juliaetta, to Christen Jensen. The young couple were married in the Salt Lake Temple by President Joseph F. Smith Wednesday, and Thursday night over a hundred of their friends met at the bride's home to extend to them their best wishes. During the evening punch was served by Misses Edna and Edith Golf, Phil Margatta delighted the assembly by his latest quips. The bride and groom are both graduates of the University of Utah class of 1900, the bride being vice president of the same. They will receive the best wishes of their friends.

An interesting announcement of the week is that of the engagement of Mrs. D. C. McLaughlin of this city, and Dr. McNery, an eminent physician of London. It is probable the wedding will take place in the fall.

Mrs. George A. Lowe announces the $10,000 TO THE REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN FUND.

Mrs. Mark A. Hanna, the widow of the late Ohio senator, has given $5,000 to the Republican national committee and another $5,000 to the Ohio state committee. These are said to be the largest sums ever given by a woman to a campaign fund.

Ham Lewis, Jr., J. D. Dixon, T. N. Taylor, Jos. Strong, Oran Lewis, C. S. Jarvis, R. E. Allen, Joseph Cheever, J. E. Booth, W. S. Rawlings, E. A. Peay, Adams, Scott Stewart, J. Hamilton and Orson Ryan, Mesdames Mary C. Gibbs, Alice Theriot, Isabella Smith, Cornelia Clayton, Janet Harris, Elsie Strong, Sadie and Maud Graham, Jennie Knight, Sadie and Tillie Gray, Sarah Harris, Katie Burles, Nina and Virga Bean, Nora Young, Eva and Cora Ward, Vilate Elliott, Pearl Adams, Katherine Raide, Bernice Chipman, Emma Dixon and Irene Evans, Messrs. Leyland Graham, Milton Knudsen, Geo. C. Redden, J. A. Acord, W. J. Andell, J. J. Redden, Fred Lamb, George Zabriskie and Calvin Fletcher.

Mr. A. C. Busath of Salt Lake spent last Sunday with his family here. Mrs. Busath and children have been the guests for the past two weeks of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. H. Paxman, Mrs. Busath's parents. They will return to Salt Lake tomorrow afternoon.

Senator Reed Smoot was in Salt Lake Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Evans went over to American Fork Monday to attend the grand lawn social given by Mrs. Stephen Chipman.

Miss Lettie Strong has returned from visiting friends in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenkins and daughter Helen of Grand Junction, Colo., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Garham Wednesday.

Postmaster Simons of Payson was at the county seat Monday.

Rev. T. H. Scruggs was in Salt Lake Sunday.

Mayor Roylance returned Saturday evening from his trip east.

Mrs. J. J. Gill of Salt Lake is the guest of Mrs. Nell Harris.

One of the social events of the week was the surprise given Mr. H. S. Pyne at his beautiful home, 488 West First North, by the members of the Fourth ward choir, of which Mr. Pyne is leader. The lawn was beautifully festooned with flowers and made bright and cheerful by a score of more Chinese lanterns. The sweet music filled the air and merriment and fun prevailed. During the evening, Mr. J. C. Ferrin, leader of the choir, presented their beautiful fountain pen and autograph album, in which each member had written an appropriate verse, showing the high esteem in which they hold their leader. Dainty and delicious refreshments were served. The following guests were present: Messrs. and Mesdames H. S. Pyne, W. F. Wilson, Ernest Partridge, J. A. Oliver, Albert Miller, Albert Glazier, Geo. Ramsey, J. F. Ferrin, Mont Roberts, Mesdames Cornelia Clayton, Emma J. Bennett, Nellie Harris, Bernice Manwaring, Emma Ashworth, Mary Hayden, Sarah Evans, Maria Stark and Joseph Gill of Salt Lake; Mesdames Willmuth Sperry, Lizzie Boyden, Estella Nelson, Edna Pyne, Rachel Pyne, Mary Evans, Jennie Ferrin, Leona Erson, Zina Baker, Cornelia James, Kate and Mamie Erlander, Nellie and Fawn Buckley, Louis and Annie Edwards, Dora Vance, Maud Stark, Leah Pyne, Martha Perrin and Margaret Clayton; Messrs. Albert Rasmussen, Ray Clayton, Herbert Jyn, Jr., and Peter Clayton.

Miss Flora Berg was the charming hostess at a most delightful lawn party Tuesday evening at her home, 484 East Third South, in honor of her sister, Miss Edna, who left Wednesday for Rexburg, Ida., where she will be employed as a teacher. The lawn was brilliantly lighted and a canvas was stretched for dancing, cozy nooks were arranged where the dancers rested. Many excellent musical selections were rendered. Delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Phoebe Campbell and A. O. Smoot, Jr., were married Wednesday in the Salt Lake Temple. Both are highly esteemed and their many friends join in hearty congratulations and best wishes. An elaborate wedding supper awaited them on their return home Wednesday evening, to which only immediate relatives were present. Mr. and Mrs. Smoot will reside in Provo.

The Fourth ward choir gave a most pleasing social Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Buckley. Dancing was enjoyed on the well lighted and prettily decorated lawn. Dainty refreshments were served to about 70 guests.

Mrs. J. W. Farrer entertained the following ladies at Spring Dell Sunday: Mesdames C. F. Watkins, Nellie Barry and Upton Hoover, Miss Hattie Richmond, Tillie Gray and Blanch and Bertha Burt of Salt Lake.

A party of ladies and gentlemen enjoyed Saturday afternoon and evening at the Provo Lake resort. Bathing, boating, dancing and a delicious lunch was greatly enjoyed by all. The party consisted of the following persons: Messrs. and Mesdames M. L. Pratt, D. H. Thomas, W. M. Warner, O. C. Beebe, David Beebe, T. N. Taylor, A. G. Beebe, Horace Beebe, Mesdames Diana Smoot, Matilda Loveless and Clara Beebe; Misses Mina Houston and Olive Pratt; Messrs. Thornley Pratt and Calvin Beebe.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Noyes have returned from a trip through Yellowstone park, they report a most enjoyable trip.

Postmaster Ross of Lehi was a Provo visitor Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Andy Stewart of Amer-

Announcement

Salt Lake City, Aug. 13, 1904.

Kindly note that Mr. E. Mehesy, Jr., the Furrier, is this season in personal charge of his Fur Business, built up and established since 1889.

The old and reliable help in his workshops that has made so enviable an adjunct is still with him.

No expense will be spared to uphold the reputation that has made "MEHESY'S FURS" a synonym of excellence for 15 years.

Lowest prices consistent with artistic workmanship and quality of material, with positively no misrepresentation is GUARANTEED.

NOW is the time for remodeling your winter furs at summer rates. A small deposit will secure NEW ONES at out of season prices, with free storage till wanted. Model Parisian and Eastern styles now illustrated and displayed. Estimates cheerfully given.

Yours Respectfully,

E. MEHESY Jr.

Knutsford Hotel Bldg.

No Branch Store in Salt Lake this season.