

BOY CAN'T KEEP FROM STEALING

Sneaked Woman's Pocket-Book While He Was on Trial Before.

NEGRO YOUTHS RELEASED.

Confessed to Crime They Knew Nothing About—Valentin Pettit Is the Lad Wanted.

In the arrest yesterday of Carl Scott and John Russell, two colored boys, on the charge of breaking into five places on West First South, a mistake was made. When arrested and charged with the offense, the boys were badly scared and made a "confession" which they later repudiated.

Officer C. A. Carlson obtained a clue this morning, which led to the arrest of the guilty person, a 13-year-old boy named Valentin Pettit, who has been residing in 427 east Sixth South street. The youngster's guilt was established by tracing a $2 bill stolen from Wm. Woods' market. After his arrest young Pettit made a complete confession and said that he could not help stealing.

STOLE IN COURT-ROOM.

"It's born in me to steal," said the boy, "and I can't help it." Young Pettit has only been out of the state industrial school about three months. He was committed to that institution for petty larceny and while his case was being heard in the juvenile court, he stole a pocket book from a woman who was present during the proceedings. After serving some time in the Ogden school, he was paroled and since that time has had a home with a Mrs. Mills, 427 east Sixth South street.

It is claimed by Mrs. Mills, according to Officer Carlson, that the mother of the boy tried to drown him when he was a mere babe. Where the mother is at the present time is not known. As young Pettit was only paroled from the industrial school, he will be returned to that institution at once. The other boys have been discharged.

TWO POLICE COURT CASES.

Hyrum Smith and George Gordon Charged With Grand Larceny.

Judge Diehl had only two state cases before him in the criminal division of the City court this morning. One was that of Hyrum Smith who is accused of grand larceny. The allegation is that he purloined a horse, buggy and harness from Fred Johnson, a resident of Ogden, on Oct. 15, attempted to steal a watch from James E. Williamson, a commercial street saloon keeper. The latter caught Gordon and took him to police headquarters. In default of $500 bail Gordon is in the county jail.

RECOVERED SUIT CASE.

Last night Officers Taylor and Seager arrested a young man named George Moore on the charge of stealing a suit case from Mrs. Christensen, 842 east Fourth South street on the evening of Oct. 26. The police are now looking for Fred Miller, a resident of Ogden. It is alleged that the young man followed Mrs. Christensen to the depot and there stole a suit case containing a quantity of dry goods and other articles. The property was recovered, but until last night the police could not locate Moore or Miller.

EXTENSIONS WILL CONTINUE.

Restriction of Construction Does Not Affect Street Railway.

The restriction of construction operations on the Union Pacific does not affect operations of the Utah Light & Railway company.

The management stated this morning that the reconstruction of the system would go right on. The new work to be undertaken is the rebuilding of the State's prison line, south of Seventh South street, and rebuilding of the Wandermere line. This last will be quite a task owing to the necessity of enclosing the canal in a cement vault, so that a belt of track can be built over it. The Waterloo and Third avenue improvements are all done, and prove very acceptable to the public.

FEDERATION IN SESSION.

State Women's Clubs Open Annual Meeting in Ogden This Morning.

(Special to the News.)

Ogden, Oct. 26.—The first session of the annual convention of the Utah Federation of Women's clubs convened here this morning, with a very large attendance. Presidents and delegates were present from 25 clubs, representing nearly all parts of the state. At

At 9 o'clock the assembly sang "America," and Rev. Noble Elderkin offered prayer.

Mrs. Antoinette H. Kinney, president of the Federation, presided, and made a lengthy address on the condition of the clubs and the work being accomplished.

Mrs. Kate Hillard of Ogden made a speech of welcome, and a response was made by Mrs. W. M. Perry of Park City, president of the oldest club in the state.

Mrs. J. C. Rayle of Salt Lake, vice president of the general federation, extended the congratulations of federation officials. The presentation of the program was made by Mrs. LeRoy Bailey. Reports of various officers followed, which showed the club to be in a very flourishing condition and doing excellent work, especially along educational lines. Two new clubs were added to the federation today, namely, the Ladies' Literary of Ogden, and the Bay View of Salt Lake.

Mrs. Kinney's address was quite lengthy and contained many excellent points. She recommended that four free scholarships be awarded each year by the federation, two to the U. of U. and two to the Agricultural college, and it was proposed to make the scheme permanent. She heartily was in favor of manual training and domestic science being included in each curriculum. Mrs. Kinney said that the clubs had aided much in the securing of higher wages for school teachers and that the members should work with legislatures for the establishment of a pension fund for teachers. The federation had during the year 23 circulating libraries, and the books were constantly in demand. A suggestion was made by the speaker that employment agencies in the state made subjects of a rigid investigation, and that the state should maintain at least three such establishments. Through the efforts of women's clubs, blacksmithing and carpentry had been inaugurated at Camp Crockett farm.

The federation was urged by Mrs. Kinney to petition the legislature to establish a forestry commission for the state, and to destroy trees in Salt Lake was an outrage.

The feature of this afternoon's session will be a lecture on archeological researches in Utah by Don Maguire.

WAS INTERESTED HERE.

Late Charles H. Deere Held Considerable Real Estate in Salt Lake.

The death of Charles H. Deere at Chicago yesterday, as told in last night's dispatches, is of special interest in this city, as he held considerable real estate here valued at $15,000 and $15,000. He was also president of the Wagner Brewing company in which he was a large owner, and recently disposed of a block of Market street property at a large figure. As president of the extensive plow works at Moline, Ill., he did a large business with the implement companies in this city, notably the Consolidated Plow & Mower company. Mr. Deere owned valuable properties on the west side, near the railroads, which promise to advance rapidly in value.

SMOKE CAUSES SCARE.

Fire Department Calls Upon Saloon—Sort of Surprise Party.

An attack of the combination bar at 42 east Second South street this noon started a fire in a furnace in the rear of the place and in opening the door let a lot of smoke from the smoldering paper, escape. When the men went to the front door of the establishment a few minutes later he found the entire fire department—engines, hook-and-ladder and all—getting ready for business. Upon entering the saloon man learned someone had seen the smoke and turned in an alarm. The crowd which gathered tried to figure out before the fire department of the joke was—the fire department of the saloon.

ASKS REINSTATEMENT.

Manager Long of the Western Union Telegraph company received a letter this morning from a former operator who participated in the strike, and who is now in another state, asking for reinstatement. In the letter the applicant said: "Well, the battle is over, and we are losers, and all the company has to do is to bury the dead and succor the wounded." As the man is a reliable operator, Manager Long has queried the Denver office asking leave to reinstate. The Salt Lake office has now 21 men at the keys, and there are no longer any messages received subject to delay.

FIGHT OVER FOOD CAUSE OF MURDER

Tsukuda Shot Shin at Garfield After Trivial Dispute.

JAPANESE TELL OF TRAITS.

When in Heated Arguments They Use Their Shoes or Slippers as Weapons.

Thirty dollars' worth of provisions started the trouble at Garfield on the Fourth of July last, which ended in the murder of T. Shin by Juma Tsukuda, who is now on trial for his life before a jury of 12 men in the criminal court of the Third district, Judge G. G. Armstrong presiding.

Sakutaro, a Japanese witness for the people, related the story in his testimony given this morning. A work gang of 40 Japanese were laboring for the Oregon Short Line railway in its north yard in this city. This gang bought a large amount of provisions to be used in their eating. The gang divided into two gangs of 20, one of these gangs dividing later into parties of eight and 12. Eight of this last gang went to Garfield to work at the construction there. They sent by express the provisions remaining, paying $15 for the expressage. The remaining eight men, among whom was Tsukuda's victim, Shin, went to work on the Western Pacific line west of the city and not far from Garfield. The gang of 12 sold their provisions for $30.

On the day of the murder, Shin and some of the other members of the Western Pacific gang went to the Spencer house at Garfield, where the shooting took place. It was demanded of the provisions or the proceeds of their sale. In the adjustment of this difficulty a quarrel arose in which several blows were struck. Shin taking part and striking his countryman. This was before supper. The quarrel was continued after supper and in its course Shin was shot by Tsukuda.

USED THEIR SHOES.

Sakutaro's recital revealed a characteristic trait among the orientals when in a fight. They remove a slipper from one of their feet, usually the right, and use it as a weapon. The testimony shows that many of the Japanese in the room when the fight occurred, were using their slippers in this manner. The telling of this phase of their fight caused a smile to spread over the faces of the court, the jury and the counsel for the people and the defense. In spite of the fact that the matter before them is to say whether or not Tsukuda must yield his life for having taken that of a brother.

THEY WERE DRUNK.

Takuo Kamimura, another Japanese, was called to the witness chair after Sakutaro was excused. He told of their fight and admitted the use of a wound inflicted in his scalp by Shin with a slipper held in his hand. He told of the fight, adding few details which are now declared that all were more or less affected by the liquor which had flowed without limit during the evening's celebration.

L. H. Wheeler, superintendent at the Ogden Consolidated concentrator, was called yesterday afternoon. He testified to having found Tsukuda in a spring house some distance from the scene of the murder. He according to his testimony, declared that he saw no signs of injuries. He investigated them, however, and found no sign of wounds or bruises of any sort. Tsukuda, he said, was in a dazed condition when found. He found him over the officers, and retained the pistol with which the shooting was done until the preliminary hearing was held at Garfield.

HUSBAND DISLIKED TOIL.

John M. Hendry's pet aversion is for work and his most pronounced aversion is for manual labor. According to a complaint filed against him by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Hendry, in the Third district court, in which she is seeking divorce, alimony, and the return of her property, she said that in the household goods now in use in their home. She complains of him that for the last 18 months he has neglected and neglected her, and that for the last year he has spent most of his time and money to the end that he may be completely saturated with intoxicants.

TRIAL NOT NEAR END.

One of the counsel in the case of the Progress company against Salt Lake City, the big water suit which has engaged Judge Morse in the district court for several weeks, has said that the taking of testimony in the case will probably consume as much as five weeks more. To follow this will be long arguments on both sides, so that the suit may not be submitted for adjudication for at least six weeks.

CHARGE OF EMBEZZLEMENT.

George Makres is in the county jail charged with embezzling $69. Makres is a Greek and has been employed at Brigham for some time. The complaint against him was received in the justice court there and he was arrested by Patrolman Beckstead as he stepped from the Brigham train at the Rio Grande depot last night.

WANTS PROBATION OFFICER.

Justice Williams of Brigham was in the city yesterday for a conference with Judge Owens of the juvenile court on the matter of appointing probation officers for the city. He stated that there is every need of an officer to look after juvenile delinquents. The matter will be taken up with the commission at its next session.

SUIT ON MINING PROPERTY.

Elizabeth Du Vander and others have filed suit against P. W. Menden and others, asking the court to grant them in plaintiff's demand Mine No. 1 on Cottonwood district.

SEEKING BIG DAMAGES.

Passenger Claims Negligence on the Part of San Pedro Asks Judgment.

Asking $15,200 damages from the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake railroad, J. F. Holsen, begins suit in the Third district court today charging the company with negligence and default by reason of which he was cut, bruised, sprained, lacerated, wounded, badly sick and disordered and suffered and still continues to suffer great pain therefrom.

Holsen alleges that he was a passenger on one of the company's trains and that when it reached a point about a mile west of Caliente the company, by its agents, ran the train into an insecure state and that the car in which he was riding rolled down an

MAN AND WIFE ON TRIAL.

Richard Maxfield and wife of Pueblo, Colo., are having a hearing this afternoon in Justice of the Peace Dana T. Smith's court on the charge of disposing of mortgaged property. It is alleged that the Maxfields mortgaged their household goods for $15 and then sold the goods. They claim to have several weeks ago and Maxfield secured employment. For some time the officers were unable to locate him.

MUST SUPPORT WIVES.

Husbands Liable for Their Maintenance in State Mental Hospital.

Atty. Gen. Breiden gave the following opinion today, relative to husbands supporting wives in the insane asylum, in reply to a communication from H. P. Houtz, district attorney at Provo:

"Referring to your favor of recent date relating to the obligation of a husband to maintain his wife and pay for her keeping while she was confined in the state mental hospital, and I think more especially with reference to the fact that the subject in this case, I am inclined to the opinion that there is a common law liability, and that the husband is liable for necessities furnished to the wife, although she is separated from him even without fault on his part, and confined in the state mental hospital, and I think more especially with reference to the fact that the wife was committed to the said hospital upon application of her husband, I direct your attention to the following authorities which bear upon and announce this doctrine, to-wit: Civ. vol. 21, page 1,232, note 14; Wray vs. Cox, 24 Ala. 357; St. Vincent vs. St. Vincent, 100 Mo. 205, 100 Mo. 477; 61 Fed. 277."

Food Poisons.

90 Per Cent of All Diseases the Result of Undigested Putrefying Foods.

Men of affairs, women of society and children, with active brains are too often sedentary in their habits, giving little time to exercise. To this evil is added that of high and irregular living and as a result, the stomach cannot stand the strain and the system is weakened and overtaxed stomach does not properly do the work of digestion, food taken in ferments and the poison results, the whole system is weakened, the body loses in weight and becomes a prey for the attack of whatever disease it may encounter.

Did it ever occur to you how busy that little organ of yours is? It only holds three pounds of food, but in one year you force it to do 1,400 pounds of material, and it must prepare it for assimilation, and it must do it without a moment's rest when overworked. We crowd it with steaks and poultry, irritate its juices with spices and acids, and expect the stomach to do the work. It can't do it. All over the inner layer of the stomach are glands which secrete pepsin, necessary to digestion. The action of food into the stomach is the signal for these glands to do their work. The more the food, and the more indigestible, the greater the demand upon them and upon the muscles of the wall adjoining the stomach.

Think of the tons of high-seasoned game, sweetmeats and appetizers consumed here this little four-ounce mill, and then wonder, if you will, why you are heavy or nervous or constipated. Don't blame your stomach or curse your fate that you should be born so unfortunate. Blame yourself and stop the remedy.

First get a small package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, taking one after each meal and at bed time. They are not a medicine, but a digestive. Your stomach is weak, out and needs help, not medicine. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do the work that the stomach fails to do. There's enough power in one grain of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to digest 1,000 meals of ordinary food, so you needn't fear that anything you eat will remain in your stomach undigested.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will root the poison because they remove the cause—bad fermentation. They are nature's own cure for dyspepsia. The host of trouble dyspepsia is father of cannot be numbered, for a healthy stomach is the source of all health. Seize your opportunity before worse conditions confront you. ## CHAIRMEN REST AFTER STRUGGLE

Today a Quiet One at Political Headquarters Following Decisive Work of Yesterday.

HOW IS SENTIMENT FORMING?

Both Chairmen Snow and Chairman Devine Claim First Honors in Race for Anti-American Vote.

Today is an off day in uptown politics. Centering all interest in registration day party chairmen from every headquarters concentrated their efforts in the showing of yesterday. Today they are resting after the battle. Large holds in the various barrels tell what the "business men" for their carriages, and the recruiting of more funds for election day will now be begun.

The end of the political "messengers" are to the ground this morning more closely than they ever have before in this campaign. It is conceded by the wise men in the political game that yesterday the election was won or lost, unless some sudden new factor, such as a scandal of the proportions of the Sheets case in another public office, happens to upset opinion as it is settling after yesterday.

For that reason opinion as it floats from the districts is eagerly awaited at headquarters. Chairman Aubrey Snow spent this morning receiving reports at Democratic headquarters. He held in a particularly happy frame of mind over them, and did not have to be urged to make a statement about the cause for his joy.

NEW VOTERS.

"We hauled 4,000 people to the polls," he declared. "The registration was a marvellous big one, and the Democratic organization has never been in such good shape before. And about this large increase in the registration, it is wonderful the way Salt Lake is growing that all, and you can take it from me that this vote is not by any means an 'American' party one. The 'American' party sophistries about hierarchies and all that have failed to convince against the silent arguments of the sheets case, the Raleigh, and the looking of public funds through the city treasury until the town is almost bankrupt. There is much dissatisfaction in the 'American' party, and it is finding open expression in suits of the attempt of the leaders to keep up a cheerful countenance."

REPUBLICAN VIEW.

Chairman James Devine at Republican headquarters was found this morning taking things as quietly as if running a campaign were the same of a business man's practice. He met and about party chiefs with whom he talked the situation over at length, and from his expression he is far from feeling that there is any question about who will receive the anti-American party vote. He declared that the people were coming under the Republican banner in increasing numbers every day, and that he expects a heavy vote on election day when the Republican organization again gets in its work to get the people to the polls that have already been gotten out to register.

ON RELIGIOUS LINES.

At "American" headquarters there is no more definite basis for figuring than a religious canvass, showing who are Mormons and who are non-Mormons. They count on getting the line of cleavage thoroughly established before election, and have built an air castle on this as a basis. Every new voter being claimed by them on the general grounds that he will be susceptible to their tales of "fired hierarchies" which are being sent out in mailed doggers, and through the party organs. The dissatisfaction over increasing taxes, and their effect in increasing rents is what seems to be a most potent factor in dampening "American" enthusiasm.

WARD ENTERTAINMENTS

Thirty-first Ward—An entertainment will be given in the Thirty-first ward meetinghouse on the evening of Friday, Nov. 1, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to the purchase of chairs for the growing needs of the Sunday school. An interesting program has been arranged to conclude with a series of tableaux. The persons named to take part are: W. B. Derry, J. Ed Ashton, L. C. Duncan, W. P. Pratt, Ivy Evans, Don Carlos Wood, B. M. Anderson, the Misses Poulton, Willis, Cotter and Seabright, Ernest E. Kimball, Oscar A. Kirkham, Mrs. Edward A. Evans, Elsie, Pike, Winnie Hill, Mabel and Pearl Gibson.

BIG OPPORTUNITY FOR CAN FACTORY

Utah Packing Plants Have Difficulty in Securing Tinware For Products.

Wanted—A tin can factory for Utah. The cans are needed for use in putting up Utah's bumper crop of peas, tomatoes and fruit.

This is what trade a canning factory which will make cans, may depend upon. All of the orders from 27 factories now existing in the state and a number more that are in a formative period. For 1907 the season's run is about finished. The factories canned more products by 50 per cent than they did last season.

Through the run they were greatly handicapped on account of the remoteness of a factory to make tin cans for the trade. The M. & M. association has been collecting data on the opportunity here for a tin can plant for a long time. Secy. Haddock gave it out today that 20,000 tin cans had been used in Utah industries this season, and that 15,262,088 of these are represented by canned goods now on the market, or ready for market this winter, while the remaining cans were consumed in breakages.

Besides using this number of cans, the factories employed 1,325 people and paid out in wages $150,235. In 1906 there were 22 factories and they put up 552,587 cases of fruit and vegetables, each case containing 24 cans.

That a can factory here would also trade from other western markets, centers is suggested by the following letter from J. E. Dir of Spokane, which has been received at the Chamber of Commerce:

Spokane, Washington, October 28, 1907.—Chamber of Commerce, Salt Lake City, Utah. Gentlemen—If it is not asking too much would you kindly advise there is a can company in Salt Lake's practice. He met and about party chiefs with whom he talked the situation over at length, and from his expression he is far from feeling that there is any question about who will receive the anti-American party vote. He declared that the people were coming under the Republican banner in increasing numbers every day, and that he expects a heavy vote on election day when the Republican organization again gets in its work to get the people to the polls that have already been gotten out to register.

P. S.—Also please advise me if there is a soap factory in Utah.
