CITY TICKET.

For Justice of the Peace-Dana T mith (R.).

For Constable—Thomas Fowler (D.).
The American party campaign came but from cover today and started down the home stretch for election day carrying a ticket assorted from all classes. There was a great difference between the state convention and the county convention in one respect at least. The rank and file of the party grew ranker the nearer positions of salary and pos-sible election were reached. Mont Ferry, who had galiantly stood up as ex-hibit A-a good citizen, was absent in the second convention, and it wound up its work, leaving Mr. Ferry the distinction of being the only American party man to date who has made a speech without serving fricaseed Mormon on toast.

AFTER SPOUTER DAUGHERTY.

The hands of the law were not far from the convention. While it was in progress Deputy Sheriff Irvine arrived to seek out Vice Chairman Mat. Daugherty, despiser and accuser of President Roosevelt, with a summons urging him to show cause why he should not pay certain bills and costs. The noislest iaspeech came from J. T. Lavery, out ball from the district court and awaiting trial for embezzlement of funds. It was he who had been selected to pull the labor vote into line, and with whom the deal had been made to give them representation on the legis-

LIPPMAN BUSY AGAIN.

Another feature of the convention was the activity of Joseph Lippman, formerly manager of the Thomas Kearns machine. He sees in the present strength of the party an item T. K. cannot afford to overlook, and he is working with all his might and main to regain this old time leadership and re-establish the Kearns machine in the party's name. It is only fair to the party, owever, to say that Lippman will not win without a fight, and that there is a large conservative membership, composed of its most respectable men who are already showing signs of bucking the Kearns program. The Darmer and the Mont Ferry attitude is far from that of Lippman, who is a cunning sall-or on the political sea, much as is Jo-seph Cohen and others who love all men, and vote for those it pays them Joseph was very much absent when Darmer set to work without a barrel in the last campaign, but the noise of T. K.'s jingle in the barrel this year quickly brought him into the harness.

FIGHT FOR SHERIFF.

The scrap of the convention was for the position of sheriff, and as was a foregone conclusion Tom Pitt won out with a fair majority. He is a man with a standing such as Sheets, Ra-leigh, Cohen and that brand of patriots have hardly aspired to. Pitt won out on the second ballot after which he was named by acclamation. H. V. Meloy was third in the race for the clerk-ship, Frank R. Christensen pulling out in the lead on the third ballot.

A MIXED CONVENTION.

The personal character of the candidates named is like the personnel of the convention, very much mixed. Donaldson, the town's most notorious gambler, was on the stage and up and down the aisles of the theater, while J. P. Cahoon, who owns a saloon in Murray and another in Garfield, was named for the state senate, along with Allan T. Sanford, a recent convert to the practise of Mormon eating on every and all occasions. As a lawyer he handies the Kearns party legal business.
Of the representatives to the lower house, Douglas Rodeback is a one-time Mormon boy, who has gone into service with the Gentile Misinformation bureau which sends out any old statement regardless of its truth. Other ex-member of the Church were up for pie, and they combine to make a consid-erable faction of the extra Kearns wing of the party. Joseph Cohen is just a politician, not an amateur but a professional as the game is where his job is. He was formerly the salaried Democratic state secretary, and went over to become the American party assistant secretary. Dana T. Smith now holds the position for which he was nominated. Harry A. Mercer, nominee for auditor, is chief clerk in the treasurer's office. There will be no conventions this week. Next Monday the Democrats and Republicans hold their primaries, and the Democratic convention follows on Thursday, Oct. 4.

Friends may view the remains at the late residence, 154 Jeremy street, from 12 to 1:30 on day of funeral.

DEATH OF R. W. PITTMAN.

Former Salt Laker Dies Suddenly in Seattle.

The many friends of Russell W. Pittman, former manager of the Western Newspaper Union, were indescribably shocked Saturday night to receive word that he had died suddenly in Seattle, Wash. It is only a few weeks since the Deseret News printed a notice that Mr. Pittman had resigned his position here to accept a responsible place in the Evereit Pulp & Paper Mills at Everett, Wash. His associates met him at a farewell banquet at the Commercial club, and he left Salt Lake full of enthusiasm over his prospects in his new field. Advices state that he was siezed only a few days ago with an internal trouble which proved fatal.

Mr. Pittman was only 35 years of sge, and he leaves a wife and four children.

Mrs. Pittman and children are now visiting at Mt. Pleasant, Ia. Mr. Pittman was a member of the Commercial club while in Sait Lake, and had a wide circle of acquaintances, by all of whom he was held in the highest esteem. The condolences of all will be extended to his sortawing widow and family.

AN IMPORTANT RULING.

In Favor of Defendant Case of Selling Liquor to Indians.

In the United States district court, Judge John A. Marshall today sustained the demorrer of defendant in the case of the United States versus George Boss. Boss was indicted by the grand jury for selling liquor to Indians on the Ulntah reservation, the action being brought under the act of Jan. 30, 1897. The complaint was demurred to on the ground that on Sept. 20, 1905, lands were allotted to the In-dians of that vicinity in severalty; that the land became part of the public do-main, and that the law under which the indictment was brought was no longer applicable. The demurrer further set up that the Indians thereafter became subject to the state laws, civil and criminal, and that they became citizens of the United States. It was contended by defendant Boss that prosecution on the part of the United States was unwarranted in the premises.

The ruling of Judge Marshall takes such cases from the supervision of the general government and places them under local jurisdiction. How success-ful the state will be in handling the rut the state will be in handling the vexed question remains to be seen. A federal law recently established makes Indians wards of the government for a considrable period after reservations have been thrown open, but the law was enacted after the opening of the United Reservations and the control of the control of the second of the control of the co Uintah reservation, and is therefore not applicable there.

TOMORROW'S ORGAN RECITAL.

At THREE o'clock tomorrow (Tuesday) will occur the regular free organ recital at the tabernacle. The change in time of recital is made necessary by Organist McClellan's having to leave on an early evening train with the Salt Lake Opera company which appears in Prevo that evening.

The following program will be played by Mr. McClellan:

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater-The far famed comedian. Willie Collier, in Augustus Thomas' comedy, "On the Quiet," opens what will be a brilliant engagement at the theater tonight. The usual matines will be given Wednesday.

The Stewart Opera company will be the conference attraction at the theater. It will open Monday next, Oct. 1, and run till Saturday, the 6th, presenting an attractive repertoire, consisting of "The Two Roses," "Dorothy," and "Babette."

Orpheum—This week's bill at the Orpheum has for its headliner what is asserted to be the best condensed musical comedy in vaudeville today. This will be in the hands of Miss May Boley and a company of 10, and includes some singing, good dancing and the latest

Grand—"A Royal Slave," a play written by the author of "The Hely City," will run up till Wednesday with the usual midwesk matinee.

Lyric—The offering of the Lyric Stock company this week is up to the usual high standard, and the presentation of "A Millianaire's Wife" took well with the large audience which greeted the first performance. Miss Pitt has plenty of opportunities to display her fine talents and she makes the most of them. Mr. Prazier's work is decidedly good, and Mr. Baifour's pertrayal of the young millionaire was an excellent piece of acting. The comedy work of J. F. case where the Rocky Mountain Fuel & mine at Alma under similar conditions, company was formed and controlled by the Huntington interests. The Almy field at one time was a great producer, he said, but now was practically abandoned, although there was plenty of coal to be mined. He cited a case of a small mine named the Lezart, and situated within 14 miles of Evanston, which opened up for business. The Union Pacific, he said, promptly raised the rate. When the mine closed down the Union Pacific promptly dropped the rate back again.

Mr. Spence stated that he had an in-terest in mine No. 9 at Almy. He had made no application to ship any coal because he had no idea he compete with the Union Pacific railroad or coal companies. Judging from developments on the Rocky Mountain Fuel & Iron company, whose prop-erty adjioned his, he thought it would be useless and a waste of money. His neighbors had been enjoined and he did not propose to run any chances.

He said that he could get his mine into working order so that he could ship several carloads of coal a day for

DIVIDE "COAL EMPIRE."

Commissioner Prouty at this juncture intimated that counsel was taking up too much time on minor details. Counsel Thomas stated that it was important, as there seemed to be an understanding between the three coal com-panies that they should divide the "coal empire" of Wyoming between them, to the exclusion of competitors He asserted that it seemed to be a significant fact that each company had taken up apparently an equal acreage. Coming down to the legality of the filing on the coal lands, Judge Lacey objected vehemently and often to queswhich had a tendency to show that the lands owned and operated by the companies had sen secured by fraud.

PROUTY JUMPS IN.

Commissioner Prouty finally took a hand in the examination and elicited the testimony that the coal lands had been taken up by scrip which covered only agricultural lands. Supt. Sneddon of the Diamondville mine had person-ally taken up 22 entries under his own

INTO OIL QUESTION.

J. C. Marchand then took the witness and stared in upon the oil lands phase of the investigation.

Witnes stated that 1,500 gallons of oil had been extracted from the vicinity of Evanston and shipped east to the refinery, but the development of the oil fields was abandoned owing to there being no rate forthcoming from the Union Pacific, either to Florence or San Francisco. The Consolidated company, said witness, was prepared to spend $1,000,000 in developing the Wyoming oil fields, but was compelled to abandon its wells. At this point a recess was taken un-

AFTERNOON SESSION.

This afternoon's session opened promptly on time, when Parley L. Wil-liams undertook to cross-examine Atty. A. S. Spence in regard to some of the statements made this morning. Witness admitted that some of his asser-tions were made on hearsay evidence. The conversation referred to partic-ularly was one which he had with members of the syndicate while in New York.

ABBOTT ON THE STAND.

Themas M. Abbott of Farmington, Utah, an old gentleman, was then called. He testified that two years ago he took up some coal lands in Wyoming through an agent, his son. The land was a quarter section and be simply took it up because his son aked him. He declined to say how much money he received for it.

His wife also took up a quarter sec-tion. He said he never saw the land, neither did he know whether it was coal bearing land. He said his son was now right-of-way agent for the Oregon Short Line. At the time the iand was taken up Mr. Abbott said nothing about what the land was wanted for—he simply gave him the right to use his name.

Counsel then asked witness regard-

Harking back to the original proposition, counsel eventually drew from witness that his son told him that the land taken up was a coal claim. RESOLUTION OF AUTHORITY. The investigation is being held under a joint resolution by Congress instructing the interstate commerce commission to make examinations into the subject of railroad discriminations and monoposame. The resolution is as follows:

Resolved by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That from time to time as investigation pro-First-Whether any common carriers by railroad, subject to the interstate commerce act, or either of them, own or have any interest in, by means of stock ownership in other corporations or otherwise, any of the coal or oil which they, or either of them, directly or through other companies which they control or in which they have an interest, carry over their or any of their lines as common carriers, or in any manner own, control, or have any interest in coal lands or properties or of lands or properties.

Second-Whether the officers of any of the carrier companies aforesaid, or any of them, or any person or persons charged with the duty of distributing ears or furnishing facilities to shippers are interested, either directly or indirectly, by means of stock ownership or otherwise in corporations or companies owning, operating, leasing, or other-wise interested in any coal mines, coal properties, or coal traffic, oil, oil properties, or oil traffic over the railroads with which they or any of them are them are employed.

Third-Whether there is any contract combination in the form of trust, or otherwise, or conspiracy in restraint of trade or commece among the several states, in which any common carrier engaged in the transportation of coal or oil is interested, or to which it is a party; and whether any such common carrier monopolizes or attempts to monopolize, or combines or conspires with any other carrier, company or companies, person or persons to mono-polize any part of the trade or commerce in coal or oil, or traffic therein among the several states or with foreign nations, and whether or not, and if so, to what extent, such carriers, or any of them, limit or control directly or indirectly, the output of coal mines or the price of coal and oil fields or the Fourth-If the interstate commerce commission shall find that the facts or any of them set forth in the three paragraphs above do exist, then that it be further required to report as to the effect of such relationship, conership, or interest in coal or coal properties and coal traffic, or oil, oil properties, or oil traffic aforesaid, or such con-tracts or combinations in form of trust or otherwise, or conspirary or such monopoly or attempt to monopilze or combine or conspire as aforesaid, upon such person or persons as may be en-gaged independently of any other persons in mining coal or producing oil and shipping the same, or other products, who may desire to so engage, or upon the general public as consumers f such oil or coal. Fifth-That said commission be also equired to investigate and report the system of car supply and distribution in effect upon the several railway lines engaged in the transportation of coal or oil as aforesaid, and whether said systems are fair and equitable, and whether the same are carried out fair ly and properly; and whether said car-riers, or any of them, discriminate against shippers or parties wishing to become shippers over their several lines, either in the matter of distribution of cars or in furnishing facilities or instrumentalities, connected with reelving, forwarding or carrying coal or

Sixth-That said commission be also required to report as to what remedies it can suggest to cure the evils above set forth, if they exist. Seventh—That said commission be also required to report any facts or con-clusions which it may think pertinent to the general inquiry above set forth. Eighth—That said commission be re-quired to make this investigation at its earliest possible convenience and to furnish the information above required from time to time and as soon as it can be done consistent with the per-formance of its public duty. # STEAMBOATS ON MISSOURI RIVER HEWLETT

After a Lapse of More Than a Decade Traffic on Great Waterway Resumed.

STEAMER LORA STARTS ANEW.

Her Arrival at Kansas City From St. Louis Greeted With Great Demonstrations of Joy.

Kansas City, Sept. 24.-With the blowing of whistles, the clanging of bells and the glad acclaim of thousands of persons who had gathered at the river shore, the renewal of steamboat traffic on the Missouri river after a lapse of more than a decade, was celebrated today, when the steamer Lora, laden with freight from St. Louis, docked at the wharf in this city. Every local craft of any pretension went several miles down the river to act as an escort for the Lora, and the appearance of the fleet with the freighter in the lead, was the signal for one of the most genuine outbursts of enthusiasm ever occasioned by any event in the commercial life of this The successful trip of the Lora, under the most unfavorable circum-stances, the river being exceedingly low and its channel unexplored several years, proved conclusively that the Missouri is a navigable stream.

The movement to inaugurate a boat line on the Missouri river originated in this city four months ago and grew out of the freight of Kansas City merchants for reduced freight rates. All of the commercial and civic bodies of this city have aided in the develop-ment of the plan and the towns be-tween here and St. Louis have given their hearty co-operation. Many of these towns have no railroad facilities and the new boat line will afford them their only means of transportation. Regular traffic will be instituted on the river between here and St. Louis just as soon as suitable boats can be ob-
