

tee on military affairs, and ordered to be printed.

A BILL

Granting a right of way on the Fort Douglas military reservation, in the Territory of Utah.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Salt Lake City Railroad Company, a corporation duly organized and now existing under the laws of the Territory of Utah, and now operating its electric lines upon the streets of Salt Lake City, its successors and assigns, be, and are hereby, granted a right of way, not to exceed in width fifty feet, on the Fort Douglas military reservation, for a street railway, beginning at a point, to be approved by the secretary of war, on the southwest line of said reservation, opposite Mount Olivet Cemetery, and running thence northeasterly over route to be approved by said secretary to a point near the present military headquarters; and said company, its successors and assigns, shall have the right to build upon said right of way as hereinbefore set forth a single or double track, and upon the same to run and operate street cars; provided, that the location and width of said right of way shall be subject to the approval of the secretary of war and that the privileges hereby granted shall be subject to revocation or such changes as may be required by him, and that said changes shall be made at the expense of said railroad company; also that no stables shall be erected on the reservation and that no part of this land or right of way shall be used for storage of cars.

Read twice, referred to the committee on judiciary, and ordered to be printed.

A BILL

To provide for the creation of a fourth judicial district in the Territory of Utah.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the governor and legislative assembly of the Territory of Utah be, and they are hereby, authorized to establish a fourth judicial district in said Territory, and to readjust the districts in said Territory in such manner as to best promote the convenient administration of justice therein.

Sec. 2. That as soon as may be after the execution of the power conferred by section one of this act, the supreme court of said Territory shall assign one judge to each of said districts, and shall have power from time to time to change such assignment and to provide for occasions of disability or absence in such cases according to the practice now authorized by law.

Read twice, referred to the committee on public buildings and grounds, and ordered to be printed.

A BILL

To provide for the construction of a public building at Salt Lake City, Utah.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the secretary of the treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to acquire, by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, a site and cause to be erected thereon a suitable building, including fireproof vaults, heating and ventilating apparatus, elevators, and approaches, for the use and accommodation of the United States for capitol, court house, postoffice, and other government offices, in the city of Salt Lake and Territory of Utah, the cost of said site and building, including said vaults, heating and ventilating apparatus, elevators, and approaches, complete, not to exceed the sum of five hundred thousand dollars.

Proposals for the sale of land suitable for said site shall be invited by public advertisement in one or more of the newspapers of said city of largest circulation for at least twenty days prior to the date specified in said advertisement for the opening of said proposals.

Proposals made in response to said advertisement shall be addressed and mailed to the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall then cause the said proposed sites, and such others as he may think proper to designate, to be examined in person by an agent of the Treasury Department, who shall make written report to said Secretary of the results of said examination and of his recommendation thereon, and the reasons therefor, which shall be accompanied by the original proposals and all maps, plats and statements which shall have come into his possession relating to the said proposed sites.

If, upon consideration of said report and accompanying papers, the secretary of the treasury shall deem further investigation necessary, he may appoint a commission of not more than three persons, one of whom shall be an officer of the treasury department, which commission shall also examine the said proposed sites, and such others as the secretary of the treasury may designate, and grant such hearings in relation thereto as they shall deem necessary; and said commission shall, within thirty days after such examination, make to the secretary of the treasury written report of their conclusion in the premises, accompanied by all statements, maps, plats or documents taken by or submitted to them, in like manner as hereinbefore provided in regard to the proceedings of said agent of the treasury department; and the secretary of the treasury shall thereupon finally determine the location of the building to be erected.

The compensation of said commissioners shall be fixed by the secretary of the treasury, but the same shall not exceed six dollars per day and actual traveling expenses; provided, however, that the member of said commission appointed by the treasury department shall be paid only his actual traveling expenses.

So much of the appropriation herein made as may be necessary to defray the expense of advertising for proposals, actual traveling expenses of said agent, and the compensation and actual traveling expenses of said commissioners, and other expenses incident to the selection of the site, and for necessary survey thereof, shall be immediately available.

So much of said appropriation as may be necessary for the preparation of sketch plats, drawings, specifications and detailed estimates for the building by the supervising architect of the treasury department shall be available immediately upon the approval by the secretary of the treasury of such site.

No money appropriated by this act shall be available except as hereinbefore provided, until a valid title to the site for said building shall be vested in the United States.

After the said site shall have been paid for and the sketch plans and detailed estimates for the building shall have been prepared by the supervising architect, and approved by the secretary of the treasury, the secretary of the interior and the postmaster general, the balance of said appropriation shall be available for the erection and completion of the building, including fireproof vaults, heating and ventilating apparatus, elevators, and approaches.

The building shall be unexposed to danger from fire by an open space of at least forty feet on each side, including streets and alleys.

Read twice, referred to the committee on public buildings and grounds, and ordered to be printed.

A BILL

To provide for the purchase of a site and the erection of a public building thereon at Ogden, in the Territory of Utah.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the secretary of the treasury be, and he is hereby authorized and directed to acquire, by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, a site, and cause to be erected thereon a suitable building, including fireproof vaults, heating and ventilating apparatus, elevators, and approaches, for the use and accommodation of the United States courts, postoffice, and other government offices in the city of Ogden and Territory of Utah, the cost of said site and building, including said vaults, heating and ventilating apparatus, elevators, and approaches, complete, not to exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Proposals for the sale of land suitable for said site shall be invited by public advertisement in one or more of the newspapers of said city of largest circulation for at least twenty days prior to the date specified in said advertisement for the opening of said proposals.

Proposals made in response to said advertisement shall be addressed and mailed to the secretary of the treasury, who shall then cause the said proposed sites, and such others as he may think proper to designate, to be examined in person by an agent of the treasury department, who shall make written report to said secretary of the results of said examination and of his recommendation thereon and the reasons therefor, which shall be accompanied by the original proposals and all maps, plats, and statements which shall have come into his possession relating to the said proposed sites.

If, upon consideration of said report and accompanying papers, the secretary of treasury shall deem further investigation necessary, he may appoint a commission of not more than three persons, one of whom shall be an officer of the treasury department, which commission shall also examine the said proposed sites and such others