

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS

HERE is a great deal of anticipation over the Gadski program at the theater Monday evening. The numbers will be made up entirely by Gadski herself, with the pianist, Frank LaForge, rendering two solos.

The full program is as follows:

Old songs—
"My Mother Bids Me Hide My Hair"	Haydn
"When the Roses Bloom"..... Belchardt
"Metam d'Exaudet," "Venez Agreste," "Printemps," XVIII Century
"Philly Has Such Charming Girls"..... Young
"The Gaze with the Delicate Air"..... Arne
Gadski
Piano solo, "Gavotte," with variations..... Rameau (1685)
Mr. Frank LaForge.

III.
"Love is Forever"..... Brahms
"The Mountain"..... Brahms
"With the Water Lily"..... Grieg
"Evening Stillness," "Erlkonig," etc."..... Frank LaForge
"Zwergnase"..... R. Strauss
Piano solo, "Nocturne in C Minor," Chopin

MADAM GADSKI,

The Great Operatic Soprano Who Comes to the Salt Lake Theater, Monday Evening, Under Fred Graham's Direction.

and the entire occasion was much enjoyed. The social committee had charge.

It is settled that the next strong Musical Festival will be given in the Salt Lake theater instead of the Tabernacle, with five performers, two of which are to be grand operas in concert form.

The L. D. S. U. orchestra of 35 pieces is building a good name for itself. Its first appearance last Thursday morning at chapel exercises made a good impression.

SHARPS and FLATS

Miss Marcella Sembrich on Saturday evening last celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of her operatic debut and at the same time said farewell to the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, the scene of so many of her triumphs.

The pupils of Hugh Dougall will give a song service in the Twelfth-Thirteenth ward meetinghouse, tomorrow evening, at 6:30 o'clock. The participants will be Misses Edna Evans, Maud Ritter, Ida Morris, Ivy Evans, Elma Young, Irene Kelly, Hazel Barnes, Margaret Summerhayes, Mrs. Louis Callister, and Misses Ben Hopkins, Spencer Corbett, Gen. W. K. Redington, J. W. Summerhayes, John Aird, Raymond Brown, Frank Platt.

Charles O. Blackader presented Miss Teni Rashad in a song recital last Wednesday evening, at his Templeton studio, when she was assisted by Miss Redington and William Holmes. Miss Rashad's program included Miss Lovell's cycle of songs, "From an Old Garden," Mascagni's "Ava Marin," "With Vindictive Glad," from Haydn, and other selections. Arias from the "Messiah," by Mr. Holmes, and a St. Saens number by Miss Redington. Miss Rashad sang with ease, and was especially good in her diction and intonation.

Members of the Symphony orchestra are disturbed over a rumor emanating from an irresponsible local yellow daily, that there would be no more recitals this season, because of the high priced orchestra. The musicians say the prices really charged were small, as compared with the regular programs, whereas in this case were not adhered to one dollar being for each rehearsal and $3 for the recital. The reduction was practically a gift on the part of the musicians to help along a praiseworthy cause. There is some talk of the directors of the orchestra taking official cognizance of the rumor, but whether they do or not, it may be that no certain that the musicians will feel any feelings of appreciation for the labor of the musicians, and that they fully realize the concessions the members have made.

At the First Congregational church tomorrow morning, the quartet will sing "Handel's 'Crossing the Brook,'" Prof. Smith will sing two solo, "Eternal Goodness," by Hawley, Organist Cannon is to play the "Last Chord," in A flat for the Offertory, and choral from "Judas Macabaeus" as the postlude.

The Salt Lake Choral society has changed the time of its weekly meetings from Monday to Tuesday nights, in Christensen's hall.

Miss Mae O'Neill will sing Garff's "Salutaris," at tomorrow's 11 a. m. service in the Catholic cathedral, as the offertory. In the Mass, E. J. Daugusse will sing the tenor part, and Prof. Stephens has acted as director.

THE MASTERS REPRESENTED.

Conductor Held has organized a vocal quartet in his band to carry the voice parts in selections calling for singing. It includes, Messrs. Kolson, Atkins, Stevens, and Midgley. Mr. Held has also organized "The Olympic Brass Quartet" for playing on the lake at Liberty park, away from the pavilion; the principal items—Messrs. Weston and Johnson, drums; Weston, Shull, and Odilia, trombones. A bass clarinet will be added to the band ensemble next season, Thomas Ni hols being the performer.

James Burke will sing a tenor solo, as the offertory in St. Mark's cathedral tomorrow morning.

Charles Kent and a number of his friends will give an evening service of songs tomorrow evening, at 6:30 in the Twentieth ward meetinghouse, assisted by the ward choir. The following will participate: Charles Kent, Misses Lillian Browning, Edna Morris, Pearl Redding, Mrs. H. Dot, M. McMillan, Mrs. Browne, Mrs. Bertha Thomas, and Mrs. Anna Givens, Thomas W. Watson, T. T. Burton, Jack Kent, Gilbert Savage, Paul Weing.

Thursday evening's meetings of the University club was attended by our members and their ladies. The opera "Porgy and Bess" on the Elektra was much enjoyed, only one or two not giving the names of the singers, and the names of the songs, the audience would have understood better. It would also have been a good thing if the click of billiard balls and loud conversation down stairs have been cut off for the time being. At the conclusion of the opera, there was dancing for over an hour to orchestral music. There were a number of beautiful costumes.

MADAME D. LILLIAN LEWIS AND DR. GILBERT BANCROFT.

Who Appear Under the Auspices of the U. of U. Lecture Course at Barratt Hall Next Thursday and Friday.

choruses, two solos, and march, about 30 numbers in all.

MOZART—Selections from Twelfth Mass, "Magic Flute," "Don Juan," choruses, two solos from this opera.

HAYDEN—"Creation," three choruses, and one solo, and a performance of "The Spring" from "Seasons," in the tabernacle by the Choral society.

BEETHOVEN—Choruses from "Mount of Olives" and "Ruins of Athene," choir and Choral society. Overtures and movements from symphonies, organ, Daynes, Radcliffe, McClellan, and orchestra, solo, both vocal and violin sonatas, piano.

SCHUBERT—Songs, chorus, duets, voices, unfinished symphony, overture, logue, etc., often.

SPOHR—Oratorio, "Last Judgment," parts only rendered in piano, violin solos (Weith and Y. Saito).

MENDELSSOHN—Eight selections from "Elijah," two choruses from "Hymn of Praise," one duet and one solo from "St. Paul." Forty-third Psalm, double choirs, instrumental in all and 18.

WEIER—Overtures in "Der Freischütz," "Oberon," Jubel overture, Euhyean organ and orchestra, vocal solo and duo from two operas.

DOYLE—Soprano, "Gavotte," with variations..... R. Strauss

Mr. Frank LaForge.

PIANIST—Two complete concerts of music from operas, "Prologues," etc., often.

LALLO—Spanish Troubadour.

BISHOP—Part songs.

FORD—Part songs.

BALFE—"Bohemian Girl" selections.

COSTA—"Naaman" chorus, quartette.

RANDEGGER—One chorus and one solo.

STULLIVAN—Complete "Golden Legend," and four songs.

GERMAN—Three dances, Welsh Rhapsodie, bands and orchestra.

RICHARDS—Two choruses and one solo.

PARRY—Five choruses. One duet and one song.

GAVENT—One part song.

JENKINS—One part song.

EVANS—One part song.

KIGGAR—One chorus. Two instrumental.

TAYLOR—Complete "Death of Minnehaha," Chicago Festival chorus, "Blossom's Wedding," Festal, Chicago Festival chorus.

PINSUCCI—one part song, three songs.

LOWELL, MASON—One anthem.

CHADWICK—Songs.

BUCK—"Light of Asia," complete work. Two sacred choruses. Six songs. About 20 numbers.

MCDOWELL—Indian Suite, orchestra.

TO THE WILD ROSE," organ.

NEVIN—Songs.

HERBERT—Cello solo, one vocal.

VON PHILITZ—One orchestra.

ROSENBERGER—One orchestra.

DAVIES—One quartet.

PROTHEROE—Two choruses and three songs.

LA FARGE—Two songs.

GRIED—Five instrumental, two songs.

SVENDSEN—Two orchestras and one song.

OLE BULL—Two songs. Two violin.

KJERULF—one song.

LIMZT—Two orchestra.

DYORAN—One orchestra. One vocal.

CHOPIN—Five piano. One organ.

HOME COMPOSERS.

Tollridge, Caprichos, Ballantyne, Beesley, Smythe, Thomas, Daynes, Schenck, McClellan, Shepherd, Parry, Rankin, Kitchell, Richards. Over one hundred selections not including hymns.

In addition to this list, there is a wilderness of lesser composers represented in the achievements of Professor Stephens' singers during the last twenty years. The list is too numerous to print, but it includes practically every composer of any prominence known to the public.

JOHN J. MCCLELLAN.

Organist of the Tabernacle. Director of S. L. Symphony Orchestra.

PIANO, ORGAN AND THEORY.

Both Phones, Office hours, 10-12 a. m. and 4 p. m. Studio 50-51 Templeton Building.

MATIE HALL.

Teacher of Piano.

At Gordon Academy.

CHARLES D. BUSH, Mgr., Phone 553-4.

Henry Bird, Vocal Instructor.

Hugh Lambourne, Harp, Guilliarde.

John W. Bush, Orchestra. We furnish music for all occasions. Vocal or instrumental.

JOHN J. MCCLELLAN.

Organist of the Tabernacle. Director of S. L. Symphony Orchestra.

PIANO, ORGAN AND THEORY.

Both Phones, Office hours, 10-12 a. m. and 4 p. m. Studio 50-51 Templeton Building.

MME. AMANDA SWENSON.

Teacher Vocal Music.

The Old Italian School.

THE BARBERSHOP METHOD.

Studio, 50-51 Templeton Building.

M. J. BRINES.

VOICE CULTURE.

And the Art of Singing.

60 Security & Trust Building. Bell Phone 438-54.

H. A. MONTGOMERY.

Teacher of Sibla Trombone, Cornet, Baritone and all Brand Instruments.

Studio 50-51 Templeton Building, 54 South Main street.

LUILLA FERRIN SHARP.

SOPRANO.

Pupil of Miss Katherine van Kiesen.

New York.

Teacher of GARCIA METHO.

Studio 50-51 South Street, St.

WETZEL'S VOCAL STUDIO.

Graduate Studio, Vocal Instructor.

Student Naver Scharwinski, Studio, 16 B Street, Phone Bell 194-4x.

ANDREW BOWMAN.

Baritone.

BEL CANTO—

Beautiful Singing.

Local vocal instruction at American Conservatory of Music, Chicago.

Songs in English, French and Italian.

Fresc voice test, Studio, 60-61 Templeton Building, Residence Bell phone 435-55.

EFFIE DEAN KNAPPEN.

Voice Building and Physical Development.

Studio, 25 Constitution Bidg.

GEO. CARELESS.

Professor of Music.

Lessons in Voice Training, Violin, Piano, Cabinet Organ, Harmony and Rhythm. Studio 50-51 Templeton Building, Phone Bell 239. Residence both phones 522.

TRACY Y. CANNON.

Pupil of Alex. Guimard, Paris,