IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making Eastern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kanawha, Line and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets by the Old Pioneer Route—

The Chicago and North-Western. You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Mountain, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb., or to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago.

ALL kinds of fancy and mixed drinks at the Old City Liquor Store. Sangio does the mixing.

PRICE OF GOLD. Corrected daily by Deseret National Bank.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 22, 1875. Buying at 113 1/2; selling at 113 3/4.

Evening News. Tuesday, June 22, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

Thermometer 80 degrees F in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Cloudy, breezy.

Dusty.—Nice wind and dust storm this afternoon.

Turn Out.—A turn out is being laid on the street railroad near the 20th Ward Store, South Temple Street.

Street Music.—A one-legged itinerant musician is discoursing melodious sounds to the citizens, from a hand organ, which he moves around upon the streets by means of a small hand cart.

Discharged.—The examination of Hans N. Chilson, on the charge of embezzlement, was held yesterday afternoon, before Justice Pyper. The evidence being insufficient to warrant his being held, he was discharged.

Repairing the Fire Steamer.—The pumps of the Pioneer fire steamer being out of repair, were re-packed to-day by Mr. Higgs and his assistants, and on being tested at the tank adjacent to the Theatre, were found to operate as well as ever.

Meeting in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms.—To-morrow evening, commencing at half-past seven o'clock, there will be a meeting in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms, for the purpose of permanently organizing classes to study the Spanish language; all who are interested are respectfully invited to attend.

Bishop Hunter's Birthday.—To-day is the anniversary of the birthday of Bishop Edward Hunter, he being eighty-two years since he first saw the light in this sunbary sphere. In connection with the myriad of his warm friends who congratulate him upon his natal day, and wish him many happy returns of the same.

Smallpox at Ogden.—The following is from the Ogden Junction of June 21—

"In order to prevent, by any possibility, the spread of that loathsome disease, the smallpox, we announce that Mr. J. S. Clement, usually called Clem, a conductor on the C. & N.W. R., is down with the disease at his residence, at the corner of Wall and 2nd streets. A flag will immediately be put up at the place to inform others of the fact, and the City Council will, doubtless, at their meeting, to-day, take any steps that may be necessary to keep the city within its present limits. The people need not be alarmed, but should be careful not to expose themselves to the disease."

The Utah Governorship.—Judge G. W. Emery, of Tennessee, has been appointed Governor of Utah in place of Gov. Axtell, who will be made Governor of New Mexico. Governor Axtell was appointed last December, from California. Not much is known of him previous to his appointment beyond his single term in Congress, and since he has been Governor of Utah he has been on much too good terms with the Mormons to suit the Administration. Assistant Secretary Cowen, of the Interior Department, recently visited Utah to inquire into the situation, and on his return made recommendations in accordance with which this change has been made. In New Mexico, Mr. Axtell will succeed Gov. Giddings, recently deceased.—N. Y. World.

Bad Runaway.—Yesterday a team, belonging to Mr. Galbraith, of Kayville, attached to the running gear of a wagon, suddenly commenced kicking and plunging, finally starting on a runaway. Mr. Galbraith, the driver, slipped off and was unhurt, but the teamster, a young man named Schofield, and his seat, he fell to the ground, and the wheels passed over his head, cutting a large, ugly scalp wound along the side of his head. He was surgically attended by Dr. Bonedick, who sewed up the gash, and, there being no fracture of the skull, the young man was able to return to Kayville by train last evening.

The Circus.—The crowds that night after night have filled the well-appointed mammoth tent have testified to the public appreciation of the untiring efforts of Mr. Queen to provide an entertainment unequalled of its kind. The pre-eminent attraction of the monster circus has undoubtedly been the riding. It could not be otherwise, for no manager in the country has succeeded in mounting such masterly equestrians as Messrs. Robinson, Fish and Miss Mollie Brown and Romeo Sebastian. The corps of acrobats is full and first class and the flying men, Maceo and Ashton, with their madcap leaps and daring acts, are unrivaled. Not one of the great circus has been neglected and the reserve force of talent of every kind enables the management to give that extraordinary variety of entertainments which has charmed the public for the past three weeks. The menagerie and natural history department, with its collection of strange, beautiful and curious animals, is a feature that must be of itself a guarantee of success wherever the monster caravan moves.—E. F. Chronicle.

Sunday School Examination.—An annual examination was held at the 16th Ward School-house yesterday (Sunday) morning. A neat and appropriate address was delivered by Master Edwin S. Parry. The "Vision" of the Prophet Joseph and Sidney Rigdon was recited in a highly satisfactory manner by Miss Rachel Lewis. The "Word of Wisdom" was recited by Miss Foyah. The theological classes, composed of young ladies and gentlemen, were questioned on the "Vision" by Supt. Emery; the prompt answers showing a degree of proficiency therein attained only by attentive study. The New Testament classes were also catechised from a series of original questions, which were also answered with great promptitude by that department of the school. The Ten Commandments, the Lord's Prayer and some other choice selections from the Scriptures were repeated respectively by two or three of the younger children. Among the exercises were interspersed several appropriate songs.

A choice and valuable lot of presents were then distributed. Special prizes, consisting of a fine stereoscope and two dozen select views, were awarded to those most perfect in all the lessons given the theological classes. Handsome prizes were also given to all who committed the entire "Vision" to memory, a task which was accomplished, as we understand, by every member of those classes. First and second prizes, consisting of neatly framed photographs, were distributed according to merit among the New Testament classes. The occasion was one of interest and undoubtedly of profit to all both participants and visitors. If any one of the scholars went home without a gift of some kind, it was through oversight or neglect; it being the purpose to cheer the heart of every one of them with something as a memento of the occasion.

Conference in London.—As reported in the Millennial Star, a conference was held in the Horns' Assembly Rooms, Kennington Park Road, London, on Sunday, May 16. Meetings were held morning, afternoon, and evening.

Elders from Utah present: Jos. F. Smith, President of the European Mission; R. T. Burton, Pres. of London Conference; R. V. Morris, Pres. of Birmingham; E. J. Taylor, Pres. of Nottingham; B. H. Wats, Pres. of Bristol; E. N. Freeman, Pres. of Sheffield; M. Barclay, Pres. of Norwich; and W. B. Barton, Pres. of Liverpool; M. H. Hardy, H. C. Fowler, and W. L. Binder, of London; John H. Smith, of Birmingham; and L. Holbrook, of Manchester conferences.

The clerk read the financial and statistical reports for the year ending April 30, 1875—

Mr. Queen's Circus and Menagerie.—Yesterday Mr. Montgomery Queen's Circus and Menagerie, after parading the city in style, gave an afternoon and an evening entertainment on Washington Square.

These who were there speak in high terms of the performance, particularly the daring baraback riding and acrobaticism of Messrs. Fish and Robinson, and Little Mollie Brown, also the clever equestrianism of Mr. Sebastian.

The wonders of the Menagerie as well as of the menagerie afforded a large amount of attraction, which would be much more numerous manifested if money were more plentiful than it is.

There are afternoon and evening performances to-day and to-morrow, and on Thursday at Ogden.

Sericulture.—Last evening there was a meeting at the City Hall, of the Deseret Silk Association, at which considerable information was elicited by and from those present on the important subject of silk culture.

Alvin Pross, of Oak City, Millard county, who happened to be in town, attended the meeting. He stated that he had no less than 25,000 young mulberry trees, which he had raised from seed. He was greatly interested in the subject of silk culture, and had many drawbacks when he first started, but was now meeting with gratifying success.

Some skeins of very excellent reeled silk, raised at Farmington, were presented.

Brother Smith, of Bountiful, who was present, stated that Mother Sessions, of that settlement, had spun some very beautiful silk from perforated cocoons raised there.

Brother Smith himself is a practical silk weaver, capable of handling the material in almost any form.

It was indicated at this meeting that whenever sericulture was in condition to warrant it, necessary machinery for the advanced manipulation and manufacture of silk would be forthcoming.

Particular Marriage.—A couple were united in matrimony by Justice Pyper this morning. The bridegroom was Henry Miller, and the bride Mary Ann Clegg, relict of William Clegg deceased, a blind man who will be remembered by numbers of citizens. Both parties have been frequently alluded to in connection with police proceedings. Quite a number of spectators were present in the Court room. Miller appeared considerably brushed up for the occasion, and Mary Ann was trimly attired in a clean linen dress. Both hail from the "Green Isle," having a strong touch of the brogue in their vernacular. Miller looked around for a place to put his hat, and was about to drop it on the floor, when he was told he might place it on an adjacent desk, and Mary Ann was in the same predicament about her parasol.

Miller was in a hurry and responded, "Yes, zur," three times, instead of once, to the usual ceremonial interrogatories of the Judge. After the two were pronounced husband and wife, the Judge said to Miller, "Kiss your wife," which he attempted to do, but was resisted so powerfully by the bride that he had to content himself with a conjugal smack on the tip of her right ear, which was as near as he could get to the place where that part of the proceeding is ordinarily imprudently.

On leaving the Hall the couple were unanimously congratulated, when the bride emphatically said, "It will be all right as long as he don't get drunk, but if he does I'll have him put in there," pointing to their old quarters in the jail.

Governor of Utah.—It seems to be a particularly hard thing to be a satisfactory Governor of Utah. The incumbent of that office has very close steering between Scylla and Charybdis. If he fails to make himself utterly hateful to the Mormons he is sure to become a moral monster in the eyes of the Gentiles, and a traitor in the eyes of the latter.

Utah has had a longer string of Governors than all the other existing Territories of the United States together. They come and go in swift and picturesque succession. As we know of the ambitious Axtell and great Emory as the coming man, we are already begin to revolve the problem—who next?—E. F. Chronicle.

DIED.

In the First Ward, Salt Lake City, June 21st, ELIZABETH HUNT, wife of John J. Thayne, born at Newport, Massachusetts, England, August 18th, 1820.

The deceased was afflicted with an abscess for several years, which terminated in dropsy. She embraced the gospel at Bristol, England, while young, and gathered to these valleys in 1841. She lived and died a true and faithful member of the Church, and was much respected by all who knew her. She has left a faithful and devoted husband and a numerous circle of friends.—Com. Millennial Star, please copy.

At Calverton Parish, Nottinghamshire, of smallpox, HARRIET, daughter of John and Harriet Standford, was born at Calverton, March 1st, 1854, and baptized when eight years of age. She lived and died a true and faithful member of the Church.—Com. Millennial Star, please copy.

A short time since, J. W. WARD, now 34 years of age, became a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints about thirty-three years ago, and has been valiant and true in his faith in traveling and preaching the Gospel in the open air, and in testimony for his faith in traveling and preaching the Gospel in the open air, and in testimony for his faith in traveling and preaching the Gospel in the open air.

At Tottinham, Norfolk, April 29th, of consumption, MARY ANN COUCH, widow of John, aged 21 years.

At Camberley, Surrey, of dropsy, MARGARET, widow of William, aged 60 years.

At West Mill, Shropshire, of congestion of the lungs, MARGARET, widow of Daniel, aged 19 years and 2 months.
