EXTRA SESSION.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 12.—Mr. Kellogg offered a resolution calling on the Secretary of State for all the papers on file in his department in relation to the seizing of Vicenso Ribello, an Italian, in New Orleans, in June, 1881, by one Jas. Mooney, also the papers relating to the subsequent extradition of Ribello.

Edmunds asked that the resolution lie over one day under the rule. It should, he thought, be addressed to the President, as it might include in its provision some diplomatic papers between the two governments.

The resolution was laid over.

Edmunds called up his resolution continuing for the present session the standing committees.

AMERICAN.

Later from Ohio.

COLUMBUS, 12.—The smoke has cleared, and the chairman of the republican State central committee claims Foster's election by 15,000, and the chairman of the democratic State central committee concedes. The republicans claim that they have the control of the House without the aid of Hamilton County, and they hope to have control of the Senate. Republican representatives are elected in the following democratic counties: Clermont, Henry, Vintor and Wayne; also in the following counties, which were considered doubtful: Delaware, Erie, Hardy, Knox, Madison, Muskingum, Portage, Ross, Scioto, and one in Stark, Summit and Vanwert. One member from Stark is in doubt. Anderson, rep., for the Senate is elected in the Butler Warren district by 100 to 150 majority. It is believed by the republicans that the Senate is republican.

The chairman of the democratic committee says the legislature is in doubt, and that the result in Hamilton County must decide it. He claims a gain of one representative in the republican county of Jefferson, and admits the loss of one in the democratic county of Henry.

A feature of the election is the democratic gains in the republican counties, and vice versa. This is attributed to the fact that several republican counties, church and temperance were very strong. The republicans scratched Foster on account of the failure of the legislature, last winter, to give additional liquor legislation. The legislature attempted to give this legislation, but could not agree on account of the variety of plans offered. Foster's gain in the democratic counties offsetting the loss in the republican counties, is attributed to Bookwalter's brief connection with the democratic party.

Five hundred and ninety-four wards and precincts show a net democratic gain of 301, which indicates Foster's plurality at about 15,000. The cities show republican gains, and the counties democratic gains. The temperance vote will reach about 15,000 in the State. The republicans have undoubtedly elected a majority of both branches of the legislature, unless Hamilton County should send a democratic delegation. Very meagre returns have been received from Cincinnati, but the indications are favorable for the republicans. Cleveland shows a republican majority of 4,400.

London, 12.—The democrats elect all the county officers except clerk.

Later from Iowa.

DES MOINES, 12.—In Cass County the elections were run pretty close. The tickets were badly scratched in the city and it is impossible to give figures to night on account of late returns, but enough is known to assure the election of H. W. Rothest, Representative to the State Senate, John N. Irwin, Representative to the House, and the election of nearly the entire republican county ticket.

Lee county usually gives 300 to 500 democratic majority.

A Des Moines dispatch says: Sherman has 50,000 majority. A republican is elected in Webster County, for the first time in twelve years. A republican Senator is elected in Dubuque and a Senator and Representative is secured to the republicans in Lee County. The entire republican ticket is elected in Peck County and the republican majority in the legislature will be ninety.

Additional returns give partial reports from 30 counties. It is estimated the republican State majority over democrats is 55,000, and over democrats and greenbackers, both, 32,000. It is estimated that the republican majority in the legislature is 79. The democrats do not concede all these figures, but do not discount them radically. The severe storm, which prevailed all over Iowa yesterday afternoon and last night, so disarranged the telegraphic service that the election news is the most meagre returned in Iowa at any election for 10 years.

Business.

NEW YORK, 12.—The exchanges for the first week of October are the largest ever recorded, in spite of the fact that stock speculations contributed to the aggregate very much less than on previous occasions. Every town in the country shows an increase over the corresponding week last year. The following table shows the percentage of increase in detail.

New York, 77.2; Boston, 49.4; Chicago, 115.5; Philadelphia, 41.3; St. Louis, 54.8; Cincinnati, 16.9; Baltimore, 28.7; San Francisco, 8.3; Milwaukee, 33.2; New Orleans, 31.4; Louisville, 31.8; Pittsburg, 40.9; Providence, 67.7; Kansas City, 87.1; Indianapolis, 25.16; Cleveland, 21.8; New Haven, 20.5; Memphis, 11.6; Worcester, 11,7; Lowell, 47.7; Syracuse, 22.

Referring to these wonderful figures, the Public says: Seventy years ago the value of all the property in this country was less than the recorded payments made in the single week ending October 8th, of the few cities here named. The enormous transactions at some of these cities naturally suggests the idea that a large part of the payments arise from speculation. The settlement of monthly contracts at the chief centres of speculation evidently counts for much, but the legitimate quarterly or half-yearly payment of interest, dividends, rentals and the like undoubtedly swell the amount still more, and the volume of legitimate trade is indubitably very large, as the wholesale merchants of this and other cities are well aware. Moreover, some idea of the magnitude of the speculative operations can be formed from the recorded sales, only $3,000 would more than cover the nominal value of all the grain sold in this city last week, contracts included. About $45,000,000 would cover the nominal value of all the cash and all the option sales of cotton, and $10,000,000 more would cover the sales of petroleum and provisions, and yet a great part of these transactions involved no payment of money except in the deposit of margins. It is evident that the flood of speculation has risen dangerously high, but it is also evident that the volume of legitimate trade is much larger than ever before.

New York Convention.

Brooks, in his address, deplored the death of President Garfield by the hand of the assassin, and referred feelingly to the death of the President. He spoke in advocacy of honest elections, honest officials, honest money, free ships and a tariff for revenue, affording a liberal support to the government and ample protection to every great interest. He denounced great corporations and monopolists.

The following ticket was nominated: For Secretary of State, Wm. Purcell; for Comptroller, Geo. H. Lapham; for Attorney-General, Roswell A. Parmentor; for Treasurer, Robert A. Maxwell; for State Engineer, Thomas Everstead; for Judge of the Court of Appeals, ex-Attorney-General Schoonmaker.

After the usual vote of thanks the convention adjourned sine die.

Stocks.

Money closed 4 @ 5; Governments steady; stocks closed firm; Quicksilver 12½; Pacific, 48; Mariposa offered at 4; Wells, Fargo, 130; New York Central, 136½; Erie, 43¾; Panama, 255; Union Pacific, 117¾; Bonds' 116; Central Pacific, 92½; Bonds, 44, Sutro, 1¾; Silver Nugget, 06; Miner-Creek, 14.

Davis.

The Times and Tribune favor the suggestion to elect Davis president of the Senate. The Tribune says: If it is true, as Judge Davis will not deny, that the present situation places the peace of the country in peril by inviting any reckless and desperate man to change the administration through the use of a pistol, it is the duty of the Senate to undo that state of things.

Iroquois vs. Foxhall.

The Herald says: If Keene and Lorillard imagine that the American people will ever be satisfied until Iroquois and Foxhall meet on the American track, they are the most badly mistaken couple on this terrestial ball. Keene was asked yesterday if he would run Foxhall again this season in England. He replied: I have not yet made up my mind. In the coming Cambridgeshire, which is only about half the distance of the Czarowitch, his weight is 112 pounds, but as he incurred a penalty by his victory to-day of 14 pounds, rising the imports, he will have to carry 128 pounds. I am at present dubious as to the advisibility of starting him. No three-year-old has ever won the Cambridgeshire with anything approaching the weight Foxhall has to carry.

Keene was asked if he would be afraid to pit Foxhall against Iroquois.

Not I, I should not be afraid as to the result if they met equal weight over any distance.

$15,000,000.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Western Union Telegraph Company to-day, the following directors were elected for the ensuing year: Morvin Green, Thomas L. Evartt, Edwin D. Morgan, John VanHorne, Augustus Schell, Harrison Durkee, Jay Gould, Russell Sage, Alonzo B. Cornell, Sidney Dillon, Edward S. Sanford, James H. Banker, Moses Taylor, Robert Lenox Kennedy, Hugh J. Jewitt, J. Pierrepont Morgan, Fred K. L. Ames, Edwin D. Worcester and Wm. D. Bishop. These were all re-elected. The new members elected are C. H. Huntington, Geo. B. Roberts, Salmon P. Simmons, Samuel Sloan, Erastus Wiman, Amassa Stone, George J. Gould, Chancey M. Depew, and James W. Glendenny. Over sixty millions of stock was voted.

The following officers of the company were re elected by the board of directors: President, Morvin Green; Vice Presidents, Eckert, VanHorne, Schell and Durkee.

The annual report for the year ending June 30th last, shows the receipts $11,060,806. After providing for dividends, etc., the surplus was $127,258.

President Green closes the report as follows: The gross earnings of the company for the ensuing year cannot be less that $15,000,000. The earnings are now and have been for the past quarter just closed, at a rate considerably above the figures named.

James Will Remain.

WASHINGTON, 12.

In consequence of an earnest appeal, Postmaster General James is to remain in the Cabinet until after the Star route trials.

It is not improbable that Windom may hold on until December; also that when James goes, Arthur can succeed Windom by a New Yorker. Unless James goes now, the President will feel obliged to choose Windom's successor outside of New York.

Only Ten Committees.

The democratic caucus authorized Garland to amend Edmunds' resolution, so as to create a list of not more than ten committees, or such as may be made necessary by Presidential communications for this session only, and thus save the expense and public business not to suffer.

Davis.

Bayard says: That if the republicans nominate Davis for President, he will move to elect him, and this put him under as much obligation to the democrats for his position as the republicans. Davis has informed the Senator in a friendly conversation, most positively that he would not consent to the use of his name, and that he will vote against any proposition to change the presiding officer. It is more than probable no effort will be made this session to displace Bayard. The republican Senators are desirous of an early adjournment and will not be likely to consume time in fighting over the presiding officer unless they have a show of electing a republican. Neither party has positively decided anything about the election of secretary or regular committees. The indications are that only such action necessary will be created, though the republicans will all support Edmunds' resolution, and should Davis vote for it, will be adopted.

Bayard.

The talk in the republican caucus and by republican senators outside the caucus is not generally favorable to the proposition to elect Davis, of Illinois, president of the Senate and thus displace Bayard. The republicans appreciate the fact that they would be compelled to elect Davis without any pledge as to how he would vote on party questions. He would as likely vote with the democrats as with the republicans on such questions. A republican senator said this morning that he preferred Bayard to Davis, because he knew just what to expect from Bayard; that if President Arthur should die, Bayard would naturally employ all the powers of his office while acting President to elect a democratic President of the United States, and through it would rule the republican party.

Gorham.

Among those who are said to be stoutly opposed to Gorham are Hawley, Hill, of Colorado, and Miller, of California. The latter two favor M. D. Boruck, of California, who having been endorsed by the Republican State Executive Committee, is now in Washington. If it be true, as reported, that Hawley will never consent to vote for Gorham, the republicans will at least decide to postpone the subject until the December session.

Butler.

Gen. Butler telegraphs from Boston that imperative legal engagements preclude positively his defending Guiteau, but that he always felt grieved to be obliged to refuse his services to any man whose life is at stake.

Vacancies.

Should Edmund's resolution be adopted, Bayard will have a chance to fill the vacancies in the committees of the last session occasioned by the death of Burnside and the resignations of Conkling and Platt. Several important committees would thus be made democratic. Burnside was chairman and Conkling member of foreign relations; Platt, finance, Burnside, military, Conkling, judiciary, Platt, postoffice, Burnside, education, Conkling, engrossing bills. Bayard might assign new senators only to the three inferior committees.

Robbery.

SAN FRANCISCO, 12.—Rosenfield, a commercial traveler of this city, who was a passenger on the freight train, placed his sample trunk in a box car. The trunk contained $6,000 worth of jewelry. Reaching Centralia, it was missed, and going back over the road, he found it lying upon the track rifled of $2,000 worth of its contents.

Out of the Depths.

The British bark Avona, from Auckland, arrived this evening, having on board five of the crew of the British bark Arcadia, wrecked June 5th, on Ducies Island. The crew reached Pitcairns Island, from whence they were taken by the Avona. She also brings the captain, officers and crew of the British ship Montargis, from Hull to Wilmington, Cal. Coal on the Montargis took fire October 2nd. The Avona sighted her, and after lying by her two days, took all hands off, otherwise the result would have been disastrous, as the Montargis had only one small boat available.

FOREIGN.

No Credit, But Some $250,000 Cash.

LONDON, 12.—The Times, in an editorial says: We may honestly and cheerfully congratulate America upon another solid triumph worthy those by which the present racing season has been marked, but these triumphs are not purely American, as Iroquois and Foxhall are of pure English and Irish descent. Until one of our great races is won by a horse of American blood and breeding, trained and ridden by an American, Englishmen will not feel bound to give credit to America.

One Man's Winnings.

It was rather astonishing to notice the marvellous respect that was shown for the American animals. The Newmarket people pinned their faith unreservedly on Mistake. Mr. Walton said he had altogether won £10,000 by Foxhall's success.

More Burning.

TUNIS, 12.—Two more railway stations have been burned. The letters of independent correspondents confirm the statement that what has really delayed the advance on Kairwan is the fact of an arrangement by which Ali Bey's troops were to protect the railway and preserve order in the north, while the French chastized the rebels in the southern part.

Gambetta.

PARIS, 12.—Gambetta returned to this city and went at once to his country seat. Special dispatches report the belief he visited Bismarck while in Germany.

Sunk at Sea.

LISBON, 12.—The British steamer Corsica, from London to Bombay, foundered off Cape Roca. Part of the crew were drowned.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

Arrived at New York yesterday $60,000 in gold.

The wires were down east of Laramie last night.

The President sent among the nominations to the Senate, Henry Cox, of California, to be pension agent at San Francisco.

John Robertson, defaulting treasurer of the Chicago, Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railroad, has been arrested in Liverpool.

The Senate is anxious to adjourn by Saturday, but the President wants them to stay until he returns from Yorktown, so as to confirm his cabinet nominations.

The city election to day, in Newark, N. J., resulted in giving the republicans control of all departments. Henry Long was elected mayor by 134 majority over Fiedler, elected two years ago by 3,471 majority.

UTAH FRUITS.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE AT THE STATE FAIR.

The following is alike complimentary to the Utah fruit growers and Land Commissioner Burnham:

L. Burnham, Esq., Land Commissioner, U. P. R. R.:

Dear Sir—The undersigned were invited as a committee to examine the fine fruits from the orchards along your roads, which are exhibited in your rich western display at the State Fair. We have taken great pleasure in doing so, which we believe the thousands who visited the fair likewise enjoyed. It seems as if there is a specialty in each exhibit shown by those who contributed the fruit, and we cannot fail mentioning some of them.

John Jacobs, nurseryman at Logan, sends a fine and well-named collection of winter apples, and ten varieties of plums on the stem, the new plum Gen. Hand being most prominent.

A large glass bowl of Porter apples was very attractive, flanked by winter apples and plums from Joseph Perry, of Logan.

The finest apples were the early Pennocks, from W. H. Hess, Franklin, Idaho, who also sent an excellent assortment of apples and pears.

Goodwin Brothers, Logan, excelled with the largest Orleans gage, fine Bellflowers, Greenings, etc.

G. J. Wright, of Ogden, sends fine pears and plums, and four varities of mammoth potatoes. The latter attracted universal attention.

Mr. Faulkner, of Brigham, Utah, showed the largest pears of the new variety, Endale St. Germain.

Geo. Gidney, of the same place, furnishes ten varieties of luscious peaches, in fact the only show of this fruit at the fair, together with large Bartlett pears, sweetwater grapes, very fine Rhode Island greenings, and excellent samples of dried fruit.

H. Archibald, of Logan, besides apples of the best, sends a branch of plums, (Coe's golden drop) twelve inches long which has forty large specimens, a large glass bowl of 20 ounce apples made his collection one of the best.

Hugh Adams, of the same place, besides his apples had a large bowl of richly colored pears, Flemish beauty, of great size and richness. Such are seldom seen.

The grapes sent by George Larkins, of Ogden, were among the finest fruits shown. The great bunches of Muscatel, Sweetwater, Mexican and others were tempting, equal in size and of finer quality than California. His large seedling pear, new variety of crabs and several varieties of tomatoes all show his great success as a horticulturist.

President Watrous, of the Colorado Agricultural Society, Fort Collins, sends some varieties of crabs, equal to any grown in the States, and some Ki—— blackberries, of which he has grown several hundred quarts, and a thousand quarts of strawberries the present season.

All the foregoing proves that fruit can be grown under the shadows of the Rocky Mountains and in sight of eternal snow.

In conversation with a gentleman from the mining regions, he said: "You people of Nebraska are behind in not planting small fruits. This country is filling up with those who will have fruit at any cost if it can be had and you are the nearest fruit growing country, only 36 hours from a good market and the Julesburg branch will shorten that time. The call is for more fruit. Let Iowa and Nebraska plant more great apple orchards." We must compliment you on the interest taken in showing the products of the far western states and territories. The fruits and grain have attracted the attention of every eastern grower and the millers were especially interested in the Utah wheat and its advantages for grinding with ours, which they saw would make flour that could not be excelled. The sample of wheat sent by Henricksen & Ricks of Logan, Utah, was the finest ever shown here, while from the same place that of Mr. Barker, and two varieties from Mr. Rowland were not far behind. Bishop Layton, of Kaysville, Utah, on the sandridge south of Ogden, as Mr. Allen informs us, has raised 20,000 bushels of this rich golden grain this year without irrigation.

JOHN F. KINNEY.

Hon. J. F. Kinney, who was one of the committee on western fruits, was especially pleased with that from Utah, where he was chief justice from 1854 to 1862, when that great region was a wilderness of sage brush, now rich in agriculture. He sends greeting to Capt. Hooper, Messers. Jennings, Wells, Taylor, Bishop Sharp and the other pioneers who aided in turning a desert into a garden—Omaha Herald, Oct. 5.
