

SENATOR BAILEY GOES ON WARPATH

Resents Article in New York Times and Comes to Blows With its Correspondent.

MIXUP WAS SOON STOPPED.

Senator Clapp Threw His Arms Around the Texan, Thereby Saving Young Man of Slender Build.

Washington, May 27.—Senator Bailey of Texas and W. S. Manning, representative of the New York Times, in the senate press gallery exchanged blows just as the senate adjourned, as a result of a conversation they had in reference to an article printed by the New York newspaper questioning the sincerity of the senator in his course on the income tax.

Neither was injured, as they were separated by Senator Clapp, Porto Rican Commissioner Larrinaga, a number of senate employees and several newspaper correspondents.

Mr. Bailey in the senate made a bitter attack on the author of an article in the New York Times charging that Senator Bailey had played into the hands of Senator Aldrich by his course in demanding an immediate vote on the income tax amendment and had thus caused a split of the forces supporting such an amendment.

Mr. Manning accused Mr. Bailey after adjournment to inform him that he was inaccurate in suggesting Republican senators as a possible source of inspiration for the article.

Mr. Bailey asked who wrote the article and at the same time declared it was a "liar." The senator's language was very emphatic and Mr. Manning responded that he "had not had the honor to write the story."

Mr. Bailey said that the word "liar" was emphasized in a manner intended to be offensive. The two men were directly in front of the door leading to the finance committee rooms and also in front of one of the private elevators. Several persons heard the word "liar" proclaimed in a loud voice and then saw Mr. Bailey and Mr. Manning clinch. The latter claims Mr. Bailey hit him first. In the mixup Mr. Manning struck the senator with his umbrella, knocking off his hat, and the senator grabbed Mr. Manning by the throat.

Just at that moment the elevator stopped at the senate floor, and Senator Clapp and Mr. Larrinaga stepped out. Without waiting to learn the cause of the disturbance, Mr. Clapp threw his arms around Senator Bailey, who at that time seemed to be in a position to do serious injury to the correspondent, a young man of very slight build.

The Texan struggled desperately to break from his restraint, but Senator Clapp tightened his hold, and newspaper correspondents pushed Mr. Manning away and insisted upon his leaving the corridor.

Mr. Bailey's speech in regard to the article was one of the most scathing arrangements of a newspaper correspondent that has ever taken place in the senate.

The senator not only asserted that the writer of the article was "an infamous liar," but that he was a "malevolent creature, unfit to associate with honest men."

MICHIGAN PROFESSOR'S TRIBUTE TO DR. ANGELL

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 28.—"The most inspiring thing given us to know is the strain of human wisdom purified by old age," said Prof. R. W. Wenzel, head of the department of philosophy in the University of Michigan, addressing his students yesterday on the subject of the impending retirement of the venerable president of the university, Dr. James B. Angell. "Dr. Angell graces the fast thinning ranks of the leaders who made the nineteenth century what it was," said Prof. Wenzel. "You will not meet real greatness often in your future careers. All the more necessary therefore to assure yourselves that it has moved familiarly among you and met you face to face unobtrusively during your student years. The resignation of President Angell constitutes an epoch in the history of the institution we love so well. "After all is said and done, human eminence roots in character. This world, drab enough otherwise is a proud place because now and then men of Dr. Angell's quality relieve its common clay and evidence the victory of the inner spirit over dull, leaden circumstances."

EXPORTS AND IMPORTS OF MANUFACTURERS

Washington, May 28.—Less than one-tenth of the manufacturers of the United States are exported while those imported equal in stated value about one-twentieth that of the home product, according to a comparison of the figures of production, exportation and importation of manufactures made by the bureau of statistics of the department of commerce and labor.

These statistics show that the gross value of the manufactures exported increased from $43,000,000 in 1900 to 6.6 per cent of the total manufactures, to $895,000,000 in 1905, which was 8.2 per cent of the total. In the same period the imports of manufactures into the country increased in value from $143,000,000 in 1900 to $575,000,000 in 1905, but decreased in percentage of the total net product of manufactures of from 21.8 per cent in 1900 to 5.3 per cent in 1905.

In 1900 the gross value of the manufactures of the United States was $1,019,000,000, while it had increased in 1905 to $1,697,000,000 and in the same period the net value had increased from $555,000,000 to $1,019,000,000.

NEGROES CONDEMN TAFT'S RETROGRESSION POLICY

Columbus, O., May 27.—The National Negro American league tonight adopted resolutions condemning what the negroes call the policy of retrogression advocated by President Taft. Appearances made by the president are criticized, especially of Democrats with alleged anti-bellum tendencies. The attitude of the president has had an effect prejudicial to the negro in industrial life, it is declared, inasmuch as membership in labor unions which they held for years now has been seriously objected to.

The "color line policy" of President Taft is denounced, and it is demanded that he square his policies with the Chicago platform so far as the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments are concerned.

In the public appeal which the league will address to the people of the United States, according to the view expressed by a majority of the delegates, a bolt from the Republican party will be advocated in the form of a plea to the negroes of the country to no longer

GERMANY INTERFERES IN CALIFORNIA ROMANCE

Los Angeles, May 28.—Germany has taken a hand in a pretty California romance, and now the chances are that a young clerk in one of the leading hotels in Los Angeles and a pretty San Francisco girl must wait possibly three years before they can be married.

Otto Schroeder and Miss Taggart of San Francisco, a relation of Thomas Taggart, the Indian politician, are the principals concerned.

Schroeder's father is a rich copper manufacturer at Placerville, California, and Schroeder is a rich copper manufacturer at Placerville, California, and Schroeder is a rich copper manufacturer at Placerville, California.

If Schroeder does not show, by June 19, good and sufficient reason why he should not serve under the German flag as a soldier, the government will cut him off from his share of his father's estate, which is large. He will leave Monday for San Francisco to call on the German consul, and undergo a physical examination. If he can convince the surgeon that he is not qualified to make a soldier, he will be given a certificate to that effect.

If he is found sound, he may have to choose between his share of his father's estate and the girl.

Justice Gerard of New York City has signed an interlocutory decree of divorce in favor of Mrs. Helen Margaret Kelly Gould against Frank J. Gould. The custody of the two children, Helen Margaret and Dorothy, is divided between the father and mother. Mrs. Gould is to have them from December to April, inclusive, each year; Mr. Gould is to have them from May to November, inclusive. The Justice devised an ingenious division of the custody of the children. He even divided the Christmas holidays. Next Christmas Mrs. Gould may have the children from 4 p. m. Christmas eve until noon Christmas day; Mr. Gould may have them from noon Christmas day until 10 o'clock the following morning. Christmas, 1910, the order is to be reversed, and so on. This picture of Mrs. Gould and the children was taken at the Lenox (Mass.) garden fete on the day the divorce was granted.
