

Mrs. R. H. Channing entertained informally at tea on Wednesday for her sister, Miss Burke, who leaves in a short time for an eastern trip.

Mrs. J. H. McMillan and Mrs. H. G. Williams gave a most enjoyable card party on Wednesday, the amusement being cards. The rooms were effectively decorated in spring flowers and the idea was carried out in the tailles, which were hand-painted marguerites. The prizes were won by Mr. Jack Keith and Mrs. Abner Luman, Invitations have been issued by Mrs Martha Royle-King and Miss Oliver for a recital at their new studio in the Commercial club building next Monday evening. This will be the first of a serecitals to be given by Mrs King and Miss Ollver. Miss Alice Fisher was hostess at a leap year party at her home on Friday night, dancing being the amusement. Miss Clara Bailey, whose marriage to Dr. Van Cott takes place next month, was guest of honor at a delightful informal affair on Thursday given by Mrs. J. H. Jones. The event was in the nature of a china shower, and Miss Balley received a number of dainty china piece from her friends. The rooms were bright with apple-blossoms and lilacs, and about 30 guests enjoyed the evening.

Miss Margaret Donnellan entertained at a pretty affair yesterday in honor of Miss Heter Lavelle of California.

Invitations have been issued by the Commercial club for a musicale to be given at the club Monday evening. Among those who will take part in the program are Mrs. Agnes Osborne, Miss Arathe Derkhert Mr. McGlen Mrs. Agatha Berkhoel, Mr. McClellan, Mr. Weihe and Walter Wallace, Next Tuesday afternoon Mrs. H. A. Whitney gives a Kensington at her home, 443 East South Temple street, for the members of St. Mark's guild.

Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Baldwin enter-tained at an informal dinner party on Monday in honor of Dr. Mayo of New York.

Mrs. O. J. Salisbury entertained at a CISCO. some time this summer. delightful tea this afternoon. The marriage of Miss Clara Bailey

Miss Eberhardt and Alex Eberhardt entertained at dinner on Tuesday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Price. The table way prettily decorated in white and red, and covers were laid for

The marriage of Miss Bertha Wertheimar, of Birmingham, Ala., and Leon Sweet, of this city, took place at the . . . Mrs. A. E. De Graff entertained the home of the bride on Wednesday, the couple leaving afterward for an eastern trip, after which they will return here to reside. members of the Plate club and their husbands at her home on Tuesday

DESERET EVENING NEWS: SATURDAY, APRIL 23, 1904.

THE MARRIAGE OF ALGERNON SARTORIS AND MLLE. NOUFFLARD.

The marriage of Captain Algernon Sartoris and Mile. Germaine Cecile Noufflard of Paris is a function in which almost every one in the United States is interested. The groom is a grandson of the late General Ulysses S. Grant and the son of Nellie Grant, who married Sartoris, an Englishman, while her father was the occupant of the White House. Mile. Noufflard is a niece of the famous artist Charles F. Halle and the granddaughter of Sir John Halle of England, whose estate adjoined that of Mrs. Sartoris. It was while she was a guest of her grandfather that the young French girl met her future husband.

pleasantly sp Mr. Ed Lz California, a somewhat im Mr. and M visiting for a	g part of the evening ent in social amusement. pose has returned from nd reports Mrs. Loose proved in health. rs. Gray of Colorado are few weeks in Provo. King. Mrs. Phil Speckart	a most pleasing manner, gave an in- teresting review of "Mettle of the Pas- ture," Miss Miles' talk on the life of James Howell, proved most instruc- tive. The Book club will meet Monday evening next with Mr. and Mrs. Rob Irvine. The ladies of the Sorosis club are	on Wednesday. The most intimate friends and family prepared for them a wedding supper Thursday evening. The young couple are well known ind highly respected, and have a wide cir- cle of friends who extend congratu- lations, and wish them peace, joy and happiness. The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hinckley was the scene of a delightful	give song plan ment Th the tries, ball, and spare make and Mrs. Cor tion committe City on Tuesd The Sorosis	fman attended a Federa- ee meeting in Salt Lake		children's party Wednesday evening, the event was in honor of the tenth anniversary of the birthday of their daughter Leanore. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion; the entertainment was music, games and	Per rang coun of th expe

a dainty luncheon. About 50 children a dainty function. About so children joined in the merriment and pleasure, and the evening was one long to be remembered by them.

remembered by them. Most perfectly arranged was the sraduating exercises given in the opera House Thursday evening. About is ambitious, energetic young boys and is ambitious, energetic young boys and is ambitious, energetic young boys and is received certificates of gradua-ing was the program wey creditably given: class chorus, "Moonlight on the pert, Supt, W. S. Rawlings, music, Imma Loose, prevident; address, Vivian Mr. Noyees; duct, Masters Ellos and Schools," Albert Hurding, music, Su-store, music, Viva Stores, Baba Jones; music, Viva Stores, Baba Jones; music, Viva Stores, Caba Mission, Miss Cor, history, Ray Henning, music, Richard Wilkins, reclation, chock Smoot; recitation, Estella Me-ports, Smoot; recitation, Estella Me-port, Sing Chark, awarding of di-tionary, and Mrs. Jathan J.

16 8 4 Mr. and Mrs. Julius Isay have gone Mr. deorge.

The ladies of the Proctor academy are serving luncheon today for the purpose of raising money for the La-

The children of the kindergarten pleasantly celebrated Freebel's birth-day in their beautiful new rooms, at the B. Y. university, Thursday morn-不主法

5 2 6

Mr. and Mrs. Rob Irvine gave a din-ner party Sunday evening. The table decorations were most beautiful. Cov. ers were laid for eight.

Miss Arvilla Clark has kindly con-sented to give a benefit concert for the kindergarten department of the B. Y. A & X the evening of May 2. It is already assured that the people of Provo will be de-lighted to hear, once more, one of Utah's most talented daughers of whom she is justly proud.

President G. H. Brimball and Prof. Keeler spent Thursday in Salt Lake

3.1.2

e student of the San Juan stake a social this evening. Music, s, games and refreshments are ned for the evening's entertain-

X + 4 s evening, in the gymnasium hall, is evening, in the symmasium has, new school of "arts and indus-"give a grand announcement. The decorations are both beautifut artistic. Prof. Eastmond has red neither time, effort, or money to the affair a grand succes. the affair a grand success.

7.16.14 rfect in every detail is the ar-rement of the art exhibit of the ity schools in the training building he B, Y. university: 2,000 people are sted here during the exhibition

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kelly announce the engagement of their daughter, Malsel, to Robert A. Canning of San Fran-

The McDonald home, which has been well known for its hospitality for the past 20 years, was the scene of a de-lightful affair on Tuesday, when Mrs. lightful affair on Tuesday, when Mrs. John McDonald, Sr., was hostess of an elaborate Kensington, 50 guests en-joying the afternoon. The rooms were beautifully decorated, white and green being used in the parlor with artistic effect, while in the library American beauty roses were used. In the sitting rooms, white, pink and green were the colors, the mantels being banked with plumosa and cut flowers, and in the hall paims and flowering plants being used. Delicious refreshments were served, and a delightful program was rendered by the following guests: Mrs. Kate R. the following guests: Mrs. Kate R. Stewart, Miss Owen, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. J. R. Winder, Mrs. Anna McDonald and Miss Eleanor Margetts. Mrs. McDon-ald was assisted in receiving by Mrs. G. B. Margetts and Mrs. Richard Cham-berlain. These present work Margetts Mrs. berlain. Those present were: Mes-dames Emma Woodruff, Margaret Romney, Amelia Folsom Young, Wm. Jennings, Riter, Vilate Romney, Ahsael Woodruff, Charles Stewart, F. E. Mar. getts, Jeane May, Romney, John Mc-Donald, Jr., Emmeline B.Wells, Fenton, J. G. McDonald, John R. Winder, William Foster, J. J. Daynes, John C. Sharp, McEwan, H. McEwan, R. B. Margetts, Hall, A. E. Hyde, Joseph Merten.

rill, W. B. Dougall, G. B. Margetts, Walter Beatic, R. T. Chamberlain, John Cartwright, W. C. McDonald, June Mc-Donald, Frank Hyde, R. Chamberlain, night. Lou Ensign, Sears, John W. Taylor, Charlle Solomon, Ellerbeck, Jensen, Roundy, Savage: Misses Lottle Owen, Laura Hunter, Lisle Daynes, Myrtle Cartwright, Eleanor Margetts. On Tuesday evening, Miss Laura Bird, whose marriage took place this week, was guest of honor at a dinner given by a number of her intimate girl friends, the affair taking place at the University club. The decorations were entirely in red, the table being strewn with red carnations, while broad ribbon in the same colors stretched to the four corners, where they were finished with large bows, Candelabra were used with red shades, and the place cards were decorated with red carnations, a photograph of the guest of honor being in the center. After dinner the party was joined by the men, and dancing was enjoyed. Mrs. Charles Billings was chaperone and the dinner guests were Miss Bird, Miss Fannie Bird, Miss May Billings, Misa Daisy Raybould, Miss Annie Adams, Miss Eva Thomas, Miss Ella Mantor, Miss Erma Young, Miss Leda Rawlins, Miss Marge Eller, beck and Miss Mamie Sharp. On Thursday Miss Blanche Burke and Miss Adelaide Nason were guests of honor at an afternoon tea given by Miss Salisbury, about 60 guests being present. Roses, carnations, vines and present. Roses, carnations, vines and palms were used effectively in the dec-orations, the diningroom being espec-ially pretty in white and yellow, with vases of white carnations and candel-abra shaded in yellow. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Sturgis, Mrs. Chan-ning Mrs. Bobert Hackneys, Mrs. Frahostess were Mrs. Sturgis, Mrs. Chan-ning, Mrs. Robert Harkness, Mrs. Ern-est Bamberger, Mrs. Russell G. Schul-der, Mrs. John E. Sherman, Miss Laura Sherman, Miss McGrath, Miss Leta Mc-Millan, Miss Miller, Miss Marge Miller, Miss Williams, Miss Zane, Miss Helen Bubb and Miss Emily Read. One of the most claborate events of guest for a short time of her mother, the week was the luncheon given on Thursday at the Alta club by Mrs. H. D. Niles. The table was laid in the Mrs. C. A. Eldredge. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rae, former-ly of Chicago, have decided to make their permanent home in Salt Lake. gold room, and was decorated in pink, the centerpiece being a vase of pink roses, while at each end were candela-bra shaded in pink and the place-cards They have taken the house at 1041 Brigwere done in hand-painted roses, Presham street. ent were Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes, Mrs. Benner X. Smith, Mrs. Perry S. Heath, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Bale and daughter of Weber City, Ia., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Rich-Mrs. Sam Park, Miss Park, Mrs. R. C. Mrs. Sam Park, Miss Park, Mrs. R. C. Woodruff, Miss Kimball, Mrs. O. W. Powers, Mrs. Robert Gould Smith, Mrs. McGillycuddy, Mrs. La Motte, Mrs. Ham, Mrs. Lewis Cecil Robinson, Mrs. T. G. Webber, Miss Webber, Miss Woodward, Miss Rookledge, Miss Han-auer, Miss Ida Hanauer, Mrs. Jay Tar-yin Harris, Mrs. Robert J. Glendinning, Mrs. A. E. De Graff left today for an extended castern visit. She will spend some time in Rockford, Ill., with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Early and will later so to her parents' home at Adrian, Mich.

The rooms were artistically decorated with a profusion of roses, carnations and smilax, with palms and ferns, and following the ceremony an elaborate wedding supper was served, about $0 of the intimate friends being present. Rev. P. A. Simpkin officlated, the service taking place at 5:30 During the evening Mrs. Kate Bride well Anderson sang, and a delightful time was spent preceding the departure of the bridal pair, who left on the evening train for New York, where they will make their home. . . .

was served here from a table placed be fore a bank of palms and ferns, and strewn with pink carnations, with can-delabra standing at each side of a large bow of pink ribbon. In the dining room, red was used, the centerpiece be-ing a tall vase of American Beauty roses encircled with Liberty roses, while round the outer edge was a border of red carnations. American Beauties were also on the mantel and sideboard.

The hall was in green, the stair being twined with smilax. The ceremony was performed at 7:30, by Father Kelly, and at the hour the Mendelssohn march was played, the groom with his best man. Lawrence Hammel, taking their places with the priest, and the brides-maid, Miss Fannie Bird, appearing next, followed by the bride on the arm of her father. The "Spring Song" was played during the service. The bride wore a gown of white chiffon over taffeta with bertha of real lace, and her costume was completed with a long veil of white tulle and shower boquet of bride's roses.

Her bridesmaid was gowned in a pale blue mull and carried red carnations. Assisting in serving were Mrs. William Gray of St. Anthony, Miss Sinclair, Miss Horlick, and Miss Odell. Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair will be at home after June

Another pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Helen Robb, of this city, and Mr. Frank B. Harris of Gou-verneur, New York, the event taking place at the home of the bride's aunt,

1 at 28 Fourth East street.

Mrs. Alden N. Payne.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Ruth M. Ogden, of San Francisco, and Mr. T. J. Worthington were married at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. M. A. Armstrong, Rev. D. M. Helmick of the lliff church performing the ceremony and the newly married couple leaving immediately for Arizona, where they will reside. . . .

. . .

. . . .

and Dr. Enoch Van Cott will take place

....

on Wednesday, May 11.

The wedding is to take place

Two interesting bridal events will take place next day in the weddings of Miss Lucile Jennings and Leroy Dinwoody, and Mrs. Louise Smid-ley Smith and William H. Curtin of St. Joe, Mo. The wedding of Miss Jennings and Mr. Dinwoody will take place in San Francisco at the home of the form. er's aunt, Mrs. Scott Crismon, and that of Mrs. Smedley and Mr. Curtin in Salt Lake.

4 1 1 Mrs. Albert Herz has returned from Chicago, where she has been visiting A pleasant affair of the week was the entertainment given by the ladies of St. Paul's Altar Guild on Thursday night, at the home of Mrs. J. T. Donnellan. for the last two months, Mrs. Hattie Morse-Hamberger of St. There was an enloyable program given by Miss Berkhoel, Mrs. C. G. Plummer, Mrs. C. E. Richards, Mrs. R. C. Wood-ruff and Kart Schied, and afterward a supper was served. About 100 were pres-Louis is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Shepard A. Benson, at her home on F street Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Price leave short-y for the City of Mexico, where they

Mrs. Warnock entertained the Third Street card club on Wednesday, the game being euchre. Prizes were won by Mrs. Hanchett and Mrs. Joe Richards.

Mrs. L. M. Rutt and Miss Linnie Rut entertained in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Nichols of Iowa on Tuesday eve-ning. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Milner, Radcliffe, Morris, Melvin, Beatty, Hemphill, Parker, F. J. Hill, J. C. Dick, Mrs. Lollin, Misses Luce, Goldthwaite, Allen, Evans, Rev. Elmer Goshen, Mr. V. Lollin and Mr. Graber. Graber. . . .

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Grant entertained at a delightfu dinner at the University club in honor of their guest, Miss Julia Wright of Og. den, covers being laid for eight. The ta-ble was prettily decorated, and present

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

An excellent musical program furnished the evening's entertainment. The guests were Misses Ada and Cora Dusenberry, Miss Hattle Pike, Miss Florence Jepperson, Miss Birdie Cluff, Miss Hazel Taylor, Mr. Clare Reid, Mr. Joseph McAllister and Mr. Willard An-

Mr. William Thurman left Thurs-day for Green river, where he will Miss Arvilla Clark and sister, Mrs.

Pearl Yates, returned from their southern concert tour, Wednesday evening, they met with most flattering success and report cordial receptions wherever they went.

Mrs. Kittie Huris was a Salt Lake City visitor on Monday.

Fortunate indeed were the citizens

delin and Mr. Acord.

spend the summer.

Mrs. Ferdinand Dickert and Miss Elsie Dickert left Wednesday for a six months' visit in the east. The Misses Lydia and Margaret Thurman informally entertained at the clegant home of their parents, Mr, and Mrs. S. R. Thurman, Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Alexander and the Misses Alexander will shortly be at home to their friends at 959 east Second South street.

Frank Manning of San Francisco. who has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Isaac Jennings, for some time, left this week for his home.

Mrs. George Rust and daughter left Tuesday for an extended visit in the east. . . .

The Misses Louise and Lily Richards are home from Paris, where they have spent the past 18 months studying art. Dr. Heber John Richards and family will return in June.

Mrs. Sol Siegel has returned, after a brief visit in San Francisco.

Dr. and Mrs. U. V. Withee are down from Ogden spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John W. Pike, parents of Mrs. Withee, Madame Rhcades, who has spent the past year with Mr. and Mrs. Ira O. Rhoades, left this week for her home in Omaha, Miss Blanche Burke leaves tomorrow morning for the east.

will make their home,

The largest bridal affair of the week celebrated the nuptials of Miss Laura Louise Bird and Frederick Sinclair, the event taking place on Wednesday night at the home of the bride's parents, Ma-jor and Mrs. Bird. The rooms were and pupils who were privileged to hear mr, Byron W. King give his lecture and recital Thursday and Friday evening in College hall at the B. Y. university. Mr. King has a most pleasing personality and had no trouble is holding his audience throughout the in holding his audience throughout the entire evening. Miss Sadie Gray delightfully enter-tained a number of her friends at a Mrs. Reed Smoot is in the city, the social party Wednesday evening. The home was beautifully decorated with spring blossoms. The evening was spent in playing games, music and dancing. Delicious refreshments were served to about 30 guests.

Mrs. Vilate Johnson of Mt. Pleasant is visiting her sister, Mrs. Eversoll.

Mr. Curry of Colorado is spending a few days attending to business interests in Provo. Mr. William J. Strong of Alpine is isiting his daughters, Mrs. Hyde and Mrs. Jensen.

.... Miss Lillis McBride has been in Salt Lake City visiting friends.

President Lund, Apostle Lyman and Apostle George A. Smith attended con-terence in Provo last Sunday,

The Woman's Republican club held their regular session Monday evening. Vice President Mary Vincent presiding. The Young Men's Republican club jeined the ladies, by invitation, later in the evening. The following entertain-ment proved both entertaining and in-structive: Song, "America," by the audience: solo Miss Eva Ward; pape", "Life of Miss. Cady Stanton," Miss Sadle Graham: recitation, Edward T. Jones: solo, Miss Florence Jepperson; lecture, "The Election of United States Senators," Judge J. E. Booth; solo, Miss Fearl Boren; recitation, Miss The Woman's Republican club held Miss Pearl Boren; recitation, Miss Maud Graham. After the program lainty refreshments were served, and

Mellin's Food and Milk is an ideal combination and will nourish and strengthen your

THE HAVE 5,000 pieces of Embroidery, Cambric, Nainsook and Swiss with flouncing and insertion to match. The lengths are from 21 to 5 yards. One lot will be sold at 23c; one at 33c, and another at 47c a yard. The embroideries are worth from $2 a yard. It is a magnificent line.

ENTIRE STOCK OF MISSES' AND LADIES' SUITS AT ONE-FOURTH OFF.

Etamine, Voile, Broadcloth, Cheviots and Serges. Domestic and Imported Fancy Mixtures.

Sizes: Misses, 12, 14, 16, 18. Ladies, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44.

Ladies' $12.50 Suits for									Ladies' $25.00 Suits for	8.75
Ladies' $15.00 Suits for									Ladies' $30.00 Suits for	2.50
Ladies' $17.50 Suits for .	•	•			•	•		$13.13	Ladies' $35.00 Suits for
Ladies' $20.00 Suits for .		•	•	•	•	٠	•	$15.00	Ladies' $40.00 Suits for	D.00
Ladies' $22.50 Suits for .	•							and the second second	Ladies' $50.00 Suits for	1.50
		,	Lac	lies	$	70	00	Suits for .	56.25

Our excellent Spring Stock is augmented by a new shipment. BOYS' NEW SUITS! For the week these Suits will be placed at Special Sale. $3.00 value for $1.95. $4.00 value, $2.95. $4.50 value, $3.50. $5 value, $3.95.

For ages from 7 to 14 years. The $1.95 Suits are not carried in sizes for smaller children. NEW ROMPERS- Mothers' will be delighted to know that a shipment of rompers, in dark blue, for Boys and Girls is just in. They are very popular.

	and LINOLEUMS. NDARD GOODS. 14.00 reduced from $19.00, Brussels Rugs, size 9x10 feet. $22.50 reduced from $27.50, all $29.00 reduced from $27.50, Royal 0.6. $29.00 reduced from $25.00, Royal $23.50 reduced from $27.50, Body $23.50 reduced from $27.50, Body Brussel Rugs, 8.3x10.6. 75c reduced from $1.00, Brussel Rugs fringed, size 22x27 inches. 60c reduced from $1.00, Brussel Rugs fringed, size 22x27 inches. 51.25 reduced from $1.75, Armins- ter Rugs, size 18x27 inches. $1.25 reduced from $1.75, Armins- ter Rugs, fringed, 27x42. $1.50 reduced from $2.60, Welton Velvet Rugs, fringed size 2x34. $2.50 reduced from $3.75, Wilton	Latest Novelties in Ladies' Neckweat Addies' Neckweat Addies Neckweat Addies Neckweat Addies Neckweat Addies Neckweat Addies Netweat Addies Netweat
Keith-O'Brien Company

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Palmer, who have been visiting in California for the past month, have returned to their home. Miss Stella McIntyre left this week for St. Louis to be maid of honor at the marriage of her cousin. Mrs. J. J. Daynes, Jr., left for Cali-fornia Thursday for a visit of several weeks. FDDING

