TO HAVE MILL.

Silver Bow District in Nevada is Doing Well.

Fred Cook, of Tonopah, who with F. W. Day, of Carson City, and Arthur Davis, is interested in a lease of the McGonigle Silver Bow, has received word from the mill at Virginia City, that the trial shipment of ore from the lease, about 3,000 pounds, has been put through the plant and netted a bar of bullion worth approximately $200. The ore proved to be absolutely free milling.

In talking of the lease Mr. Cook said that it was the intention of himself and his partners to get a mill into the camp as soon as possible. There is no profit in shipping such ore as we have to the mills," he said. "The transportation costs are enough to eat up all the profit. We have a ledge out there that runs from 15 to 20 feet or over in width. From this we have taken a great pile of ore, and from the grab samples assayed this ore was the lowest we received while the values ranged from that to $60.

"In addition to this, there is a stringer of good width in the ledge, from which assays have been obtained showing values as high as $1.50. This high grade is being stripped as work goes on, but left in place. When a sufficient quantity is exposed to fill a car, we intend to break it and ship it. "What Silver Bow needs is a mill. I believe that the giant is coming now, although I have nothing definite that I wish to give out at present. Every condition of the mine is favorable for the erection of a plant. There is water aplenty at a distance of about a mile from the mine, and almost anywhere about a flow can be caught at a depth of 10 feet. The rock that we are taking out in the lease shaft is free milling. It yields its values readily to amalgamation and with a concentration process added practically all the gold and silver can be caught at a minimum expense.

"Silver Bow is a section that has been overlooked by capital in the past, but its day is coming and coming soon."

CLAIMS DAMAGES.

Bingham Con. Asked for $2.10 as Result of Smelter Smoke.

Suit was filed in the Third District court, Wednesday, by Dahl Brothers, a co-partnership, against the Bingham Consolidated Mining and Smelting company, to recover damages amounting to $2,100, alleged to have been sustained by lands, crops and cattle in Salt Lake county from the smoke issuing from the Bingham smelter during the past three years.

NEW COMPANY ORGANIZED.

Yellow Boy Gold Mines Co. Will Enter Bullfrog Field.

W. E. Turley, of Reno, who has made a reputation by getting next to good mining propositions in this state, has achieved another creditable performance in the organization of the Yellow Boy Gold Mines company, to which he, Dr. J. C. Hennessy, of Reno, and J. T. Duncan, of Rhyolite, Nevada, have transferred a group of five valuable mining claims on Bonanza Mountain, and close to the Montgomery Shoshone mine in the Bullfrog district, says the Reno Gazette.

This property is near some of the best mines in the district, and active development will be at once inaugurated.

The following persons will comprise the directorate: W. E. Turley, of Reno, president; J. T. Duncan, of Rhyolite, vice president; W. E. Leonard, of Reno, secretary; W. A. Massey and J. C. Hennessy, of Reno, directors. Was-hoe County bank is the treasurer and depository; W. R. Miller, of Rhyolite, consulting engineer, and the law firm of Cheney, Massey & Price, attorneys for the company.

WELL SATISFIED WITH NEW CAMP

C. D. Rooklidge Returns After a Visit to Rosebud, Nevada.

FIVE MILE AREA VERY RICH.

He and Associates Are Now Heavily Interested in What Promises to Become Prominent Mine Center.

C. D. Rooklidge returned Monday from Humboldt county, Nevada, more particularly the Rosebud district, the scene of the latest mining sensation in the way of a strike. Mr. Rooklidge says it is either a bluff or one of the richest and biggest discoveries of gold and silver ever made in Nevada, and he is inclined himself to believe the latter. At any rate he and his associates have closed a deal for the purchase of the Powhatan group of claims for $50,000. They have taken a bond on the Brown Palace group at $250,000 and have secured the handling of the townsite of Powhatan as well.

In discussing the district and its possibilities yesterday Mr. Rooklidge said that to $60.

"One of the ledges has been exposed closely for a distance of 500 feet and I feel perfectly safe in saying that we could begin blasting out ore and shipping it without an hour's preparation, and so certain do I feel of its value that I would be willing to wager that the rock would bring anywhere from $300 to $400 per ton. And there are several feet of that kind of rock. In silver and gold we can get assays turning up to almost any figure. I have never seen anything like it in Nevada and I am certain that the Goldfield and Tonopah men who are now investigating the camp will have similar stories to tell one of these days. We have not gone into this district in a haphazard way. For two months past, or since the first discovery was made, my brother and I, through George Wilson, superintendent of the Nevada Superior company's mines, eight miles this side of the district, have kept in constant touch with everything that was done. "When the strikes which amounted to something were made and before the richest discoveries were fully realized by the owners of the ground, Mr. Wilson and I were immediately sent up and used his judgment in making other locations. He knew his business and it did not take him any time to decide that the chance of his life and fortune was in this place. He was now in Tonopah and the probabilities are that whatever arrangements are made for the handling of the proposition will be concluded right there. It is said that the great dikes and ledges can be traced clear through the 29 miles that separate the Rosebud district from seven troughs to the southwest. The ledges seem to be mostly silver-gold and straight gold bearing.

Seven strikes have been made to date, within a radius of five miles in this new district. The new town comprises 15 or 20 tents and by Christmas it is expected there will be 1,000 people on the ground. The route into the district, now says via Mill City, T. Duncan of Rhyolite, Nevada, have transportation may be secured. Within a few days, however, it is expected that a daily stage will be running from Humboldt through the valley to several miles closer to the camp.

Scott Crismon, P. M. McGregor, W. J. Lawrence, Joseph Morris and R. E. Collier of Salt Lake are now in the district looking over the ground with a view to staking out a fortune.

HAS RECORD MONTH.

Columbus Consolidated Nets Largest Returns in Its History.

No less a sum than $85,000 was netted during the month of October by Columbus Consolidated upon its shipments. This is the banner month for the company to date. President Tony Jacobson says that the shipments up to this month have been well up to the average of the last 30 days, and he expects that November will equal if not surpass October in the production of pay ore.

An entirely new body of rich silver and lead ore has been under development for the past few days, on the 300 level, and work has gone far enough to leave little doubt as to its permanency. The body is about 300 feet from the main shaft and the breast of the drift is in fine ore.
