

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

The week has been a busy one, the largest event being the reception and banquet given in honor of Commander Tanner. Many card parties, luncheons and other functions have enlivened the week and a number of interesting affairs are promised for next.

One of the prettiest events was the dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ritter on Monday in honor of Mrs. Ernest Eldredge, the table being beautifully decorated with lilacs, white almonds and ferns, with Nile green shades for candles, and covers being laid for the following guests: Mrs. Eldredge, Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar Van Cott, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Caine, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Crismon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jennings, Mrs. Charlotte Newman, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Duncan.

Mrs. Isadora Mayer and Mrs. Charles Cain Crismon will entertain at cards next Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Charles Seebree, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Olive Gayler, and Mrs. Lynn Kemper of Omaha, who is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Buckingham.

Purple and white were the colors used at the reception given by Mrs. E. F. Root on Wednesday. Lilacs being used with palms in artistic profusion and an orchestra rendering delightful music during the afternoon. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Dickson of Colorado, Mrs. Donahue and Mrs. Mayo, and a large number of guests called during the hours.

Miss Fannie Bird was guest of honor at a delightful bridge party on Wednesday given by Miss Addie Hampton.

Mrs. J. M. Bismarck gave a pretty luncheon on Wednesday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Adelbert Roundy who is here visiting from Australia. The table was effectively decorated in pinks and lilacs and the other guests were, Mrs. H. B. Clawson, Jr., Mrs. J. W. Gardiner, Mrs. Nellie Little, Mrs. Scott Crismon, Mrs. John V. Rich, Mrs. Charles Caine, Mrs. W. H. Clark, Mrs. B. F. Spencer, Mrs. James Pitt, Mrs. Will Horne, Mrs. Edward Decker, Mrs. Robert Dye, Mrs. F. W. Little, Miss Lou Naylor, Mrs. Elizabeth Crismon and Mrs. Frank Armstrong.

Mrs. Schuyler Snyder entertained at an informal luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. H. G. Williams who leaves this week for Los Angeles. The table was prettily decorated, and covers were laid for six.

Mrs. Oscar L. Cox was hostess at a pleasant affair on Tuesday given in honor of Miss Mary Talbot and Miss Finlay of Portland, Ore., a feature of the affair being a collar contest in which the prize went to Miss Judith Evans. The room was decorated with spring blossoms and tea was served. The other guests were Miss Evans, Miss Agatha Berkhoel, Miss Mildred Thibault, Mrs. William A. Wetzel, Mrs. A. J. Gorham, Mrs. William Cleveland, Mrs. W. H. Bramel, Mrs. H. S. Stowe, Mrs. J. Holbrook, Mrs. Clinton B. Leigh and Mrs. William Druell.

Among the charming "lilac" affairs of the week was the luncheon given on Wednesday by Mrs. A. H. Ensign, the table being exceptionally pretty and about 15 guests enjoying the event.

Mrs. George Steiner entertained her card club at luncheon on Tuesday, a bridge game following in which Mrs. H. H. Lawson was prize winner.

Mrs. H. S. Horton entertained at an informal affair on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. E. O. Jones of Murray who leaves this week for Europe.

On Monday night Mrs. L. Seton Lindsay entertained at a delightful party in honor of a number of her young friends, previous to leaving for England.

Miss Croft entertained informally at cards on Monday night.

Among those who gave box parties at the Theater this week were Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kiser and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Schuller.

A pleasant affair of the week was the surprise party given for Miss Emma Hamlin, who leaves shortly for a long mission to Hawaii. The young ladies of the missionary class of 1906 each presented her with some very beautiful gifts.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Rooklidge entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Cary, the rooms being bright with flowers and about 25 guests being present.

Mrs. O. W. Powers will entertain next Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Leslie Savage.

This afternoon, Miss Pearl Van Cott gives a box party at the Theater in honor of Mrs. Savage.

The hop at the Post last night was attended by a number of people from the city.

Mrs. E. T. Harvey entertained her card club on Wednesday, the rooms being adorned with a profusion of fruit blossoms, and a number of outside guests enjoying the event.

This afternoon Mrs. W. W. Anness entertains in honor of Miss Mary Talbot.

The guests of the Mantion enjoyed a pleasant dancing party last night at the Mantion.

Mrs. C. C. Slade entertained the members of her card club on Thursday the prizes in the contest being won by Mrs. E. L. Sheets, Mrs. D. C. Jackling and Mrs. J. J. Daly.

Mrs. J. E. Caine entertained informally on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Ernest Eldredge, who is visiting her.

Mrs. C. H. Post was hostess at an informal affair on Wednesday, given in honor of Mrs. E. O. Cary.

About 30 guests enjoyed the bridge party given by Mrs. W. C. Jennings on Thursday, the prizes going to Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. Niles and Mrs. C. E. Richards.

Mrs. T. B. Shannan gave an informal luncheon on Thursday in honor of Mrs. William Heywood of Butte.

The Alumni association of the High school gives its annual reception and dance at the Armory building on June 9, and the affair promises to be a successful one in all details.

Mrs. Everett Buckingham and Miss Dunster entertained delightfully at bridge yesterday in honor of Mrs. Lynn Kemper of Omaha, the rooms being prettily decorated in spring flowers, and about 30 guests being present.

On Thursday night Mrs. E. T. Harvey entertained the members of the Lantern club and a few others at a card party, euchre being the amusement. The rooms were bright with apple blossoms, and the tables and scores were also done in pink and white. Mrs. Schultz and Miss Edna Schultz assisted the hostess, and the outside guests present were Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bransford, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Gardiner, and Mr. Holmes of Topeka, Kas.

Miss Mamie Sappington entertained at a delightful card party yesterday in honor of Miss Helen Bamberger, the rooms being prettily decorated, and a number of the mutual friends enjoying the affair.

Next Tuesday night the wedding of Miss Mary H. Talbot and Luther Foulke Steele will take place, the ceremony to be performed at the home of the bride's mother, and a reception to follow.

Mrs. Sophia Sharp announces the engagement of her daughter Mary, to Mr. George Taylor Badger, the wedding to take place in June.

Mrs. A. H. Black of Pocatello announces the engagement of her daughter ter, Clara Thurston Porter, to Wesley J. Wilson, treasurer of the Orpheum here. The wedding is to take place the latter part of June.

Mr. and Mrs. Max A. Jaensch announce the engagement of their daughter Nan to N. W. Clayton, Jr., the wedding to take place in the near future.

Mrs. Phoebe Ball announces the engagement of her daughter, Amy, to Edward H. Davis. The marriage will take place on the evening of May 24 at the home of the bride's mother on South State street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob A. Kahn are home from their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Varian have moved and are now at home at 545 South Main street.

Mrs. E. L. Sheets, formerly of San Francisco, is with her mother, Mrs. Shoberg, at 167 C street.

Mrs. C. A. Walker will leave today for her country home to spend the better part of the summer.

Fred A. Hale is in Monterey visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benton Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Wallace are expected to arrive in Salt Lake some time next week from Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Phillips have moved to 236 east Fourth south street, where they will be at home to their friends.

Mrs. Henry W. Lawrence and Mrs. O. F. Miles are back from Denver.

Mrs. W. G. Holbrook will leave today for New York to be absent a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Sereno B. Tuttle and

Adams, will be here shortly to spend some time with Mrs. Isabel Pitt. Mrs. Pitt is now visiting Mrs. E. A. Walker at her country home.

James Jennings has returned from Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob A. Kahn are home from their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Varian have moved and are now at home at 545 South Main street.

Mrs. E. L. Sheets, formerly of San Francisco, is with her mother, Mrs. Shoberg, at 167 C street.

Mrs. C. A. Walker will leave today for her country home to spend the better part of the summer.

Fred A. Hale is in Monterey visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benton Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Wallace are expected to arrive in Salt Lake some time next week from Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Phillips have moved to 236 east Fourth south street, where they will be at home to their friends.

Mrs. Henry W. Lawrence and Mrs. O. F. Miles are back from Denver.

Mrs. W. G. Holbrook will leave today for New York to be absent a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Sereno B. Tuttle and cards the guests were ushered into the dining room, where a sumptuous dinner was served. The dining room was prettily decorated in apple blossoms, cut flowers and ferns. The table cards were of lilac decorations.

The H. and E. club made a tallyho party Wednesday evening to Brigham City, where they attended a reception and dance, returning home early in the morning.

The Child Culture club was entertained Tuesday by Mrs. Walter J. Lindsay at her home on Madison avenue. Some very interesting topics were discussed by those present, and an enjoyable hour was spent. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. T. Payne is visiting with relatives in Idaho.

Willis Beardsley returned home this week from the Philippine islands, where he was in the postal department.

An enjoyable social was given this week by the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church at the cozy home of Mrs. McCaneat on Twenty-second street.

Miss Edith White returned this week from a year's visit in California with her brother.

The Elks had a jolly time at their club rooms Tuesday evening in honor of Judge Miller of Texas, who was their guest. A mock trial, music and feasting was the order of the evening.

James G. Belnap and Miss Chloa M. Beus, two popular and highly esteemed young people of Hooper, Weber county, were married this week.

The Knights of Columbus held their state convention here Tuesday, and besides transacting their business they had a good social time, enjoying a fine drive up Ogden canyon, and a dinner at the Hermitage.

Madam Anna Lankow, a prominent lady music teacher of New York, has written a letter of Mrs. Joseph Strong, praising highly the attainments of Miss Irene Strong of Ogden, who is studying music with her.

W. H. Annes, W. H. Howe, E. R. Spencer and wife of Des Moines, Ia., were Ogden visitors this week.

Mrs. Thos. Fitzgerald and Miss Kate Hassett have returned to their home at Lewiston, Ida., after a visit in Ogden, the guests of Mayor Conroy and wife.

John A. Stimpson and wife had as their guests this week Mrs. W. H. Stimpson and daughter Hazel of Salt Lake City.

Miss Martha Warner, who has been making Ogden her home for more than a year past, left Tuesday for Portland, Ore., with Mrs. Jennette Eccles, where they will make their home for a few years.

Miss Martha Michaels of Salt Lake City visited with friends in Ogden this week.

Mrs. Hulda Linsig, who for the past six months, has been visiting in Ogden with her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Larkin, left for her home in Pennsylvania Tuesday.

George H. Mattison, returned this week from Denver.

The Lucky Thirteen club was delightfully entertained this week by Mrs. George Reynolds.

Ex-Mayor C. M. Brough spent several days in Ogden this week shaking hands with old friends.

PROVO.

The Nineteenth Century club met Friday evening with Mrs. Sam Schwab and enjoyed an interesting paper by Mrs. E. A. Thornhill on "John Ruskin." An excellent impromptu musical program was rendered and delicious refreshments were served. The members of the Sorosis and other friends were the guests of the club.

The Sorosis held a most enjoyable social session Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Samuel A. King, and in her honor. Mrs. King was one of the charter members of the club, and is about to remove to Salt Lake to reside. The guests were the present and former members of the club. A delightful program of song, reading, etc., was given, and dainty refreshments served.

The Priscilla club met with Miss May

SUGGESTIONS IN HOME SEWING.

Many are the dainty lingerie waists being made by clever fingers during Lenten days. The above model, and that by the clever Agnes, is fashioned of white handkerchief linen (the French use hardly anything else for these waists), and has a yoke made of clustered tucks through which narrow panels of embroidery reach from collar to waistline. The Vatican-shaped sleeve has many fluted frills on its elbow cuffs, and is striped with cross-running strips of the same hand embroidery as is evident on the bodice.

Thurman Wednesday evening in a "shirt waist" session. In addition to the needle work the program included matters of social interest and the discussion of delicious refreshments.

The Sixth Ward M. I. A. Sewing club met Thursday evening with Mrs. Addie Stewart and held its usual interesting and profitable session. Refreshments were served.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Twelves presented a most beautiful and brilliant appearance Wednesday evening when they entertained in honor of their son and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. C. Murray Twelves, who were married April 2 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Schwelch of Richmond, Mo. Numerous Chinese lanterns lighted the lawn and porch, where couches and rockers were placed. The parlor was fragrant with the sweet perfume of roses and white lilac. The dining room was a scene of art and beauty, with its white and pink decorations. From the chandelier reaching to the four corners of the table, were streamers of dainty pink crepe paper, a number of candlesticks with pink and white shades cast a delicate light over all. A magnificent centerpiece was formed from carnations. The bride was attired in an elaborate gown of messaline satin, the groom in the usual suit of black. The guests were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Twelves. Miss Fawn Twelves was ably assisted in the serving of the dainty lunch by Misses Hazel Taylor, Birdie Cluff, Lena Bachman and Mrs. Leon Bachman. During the day 100 guests were entertained. In the afternoon from 4 to 7 the relatives were entertained, and the friends in the evening. Hearty congratulations were extended to the happy couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sparks left Tuesday for the reservation, where they will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Woodhouse and Miss Hattie Pike and Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood of California, all left here Saturday for St. George, where they will visit with Dr. and Mrs. Walter Pike.

Mrs. Walter Startup entertained a number of her friends at her home Friday afternoon. About 30 lady friends enjoyed a social afternoon. An elaborate dinner was served.

Mrs. Nellie Tenney of San Francisco, Cal., is visiting in Provo with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Allen.

Mrs. Kitty Hines and Miss Alta Newcomb left the fore part of the week for the reservation.

The Woman's Republican club held a reception in their club rooms Monday evening. A short literary and musical program was enjoyed after which a dainty lap lunch was served.

Mrs. William Strong is visiting relatives and friends in Heber this week.

Mr. T. Albert Thurman was the recipient of a pleasant surprise party given in his honor Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Thurman. About 40 guests, all attired in old-time costume, enjoyed the evening's pleasures. Light regiments were served.

Miss May Billings has returned from a pleasant visit with friends in Heber.

Postmaster Cleave spent a couple of days in Salt Lake City this week.

Hon. O. F. Whitney visited relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Theriot spent Saturday with friends in Salt Lake.

Friday evening, in the Fifth ward meetinghouse, the stake and ward officers of the M. I. A. gave a reception in honor of Miss Alice L. Reynolds, president of the Y. L. M. I. A., who leaves for Europe early in June. An exceptionally interesting program of short addresses, music, song and games was enjoyed. A delicious luncheon was served.

Misses Zora and Ethel Smith gave a bundle shower at their home Thursday evening in honor of Miss Alta Erickson, whose wedding with Mr. E. B. Walker will be solemnized on the 16th. The evening passed with music, song and games, and the partaking of den visiting her aunt, Mrs. M. B. Whitney.

WOOLTEX MODEL IN NAVY BLUE.

Smart little wooltex gown of dark blue made with the severely plain skirt, faced with a four-inch width of blue velvet and accompanied by a new plated hip-length coat belted in at the waist with a band of dark blue Hercules braid. Collar and cuffs are of raspberry tinted velvet, banded with a silk braid and gilt galloon. The coat opens over a bodice of pongee silk, made with an embroidered silk flounced crown and bound edges. The trim is of dead white chip and the trimming a band of raspberry velvet edged with gilt braid, has raspberry colored plumes held with a gold buckle placed at one side.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ingebreten are spending a week in Vernal.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Lynn are here from California and are with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Hill on Fourth East street.

Mrs. George Walker will leave the latter part of the month for Milwaukee, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Carl Fritz, for two months.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Chambers of Evanston, Wyo., were the guests of Mrs. Emma Cafferty of New York, who is visiting a few weeks in the city.

Mrs. Wishard, accompanied by her daughter, left this week for Los Angeles, where they will visit for several weeks.

Mrs. Agnes Ireland and Mrs. Harry Goodwin have returned from Modena, where they have spent the past 10 days.

Lieut. and Mrs. Royden E. Beebe have gone to Fort Clark, where they will spend the next three months.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Payne of Ogden will be the guests of Attorney-General and Mrs. M. A. Breeden for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. George Q. Coray are now at home at 234 south Tenth East street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Arthur Thatchner have taken a house for the summer and will shortly be at home at 37 east North Temple street.

Mrs. Sarah Mochrytal and daughter, Mrs. E. R. Parsons, have returned after a two months' visit in New York and other eastern cities.

Mrs. S. W. Morrison and son Warner have returned from Wisconsin.

Mrs. J. D. Christy, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Edwin Nibley, on Fifth East street, left yesterday for her home in St. Louis.

Miss Allie Miller is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Walker at their country home.

Mrs. Annie Adams, mother of Maud little sons will leave this week for California.

Mrs. H. G. Williams left this week for Los Angeles, where she will visit with her sister, Mrs. W. C. Campbell, for a month, and will then visit with friends in Ocean park.

Mrs. Louis C. Kelsey has gone to Los Angeles, where she will visit with friends for several weeks.

Mrs. Mary E. Terhune has returned from Long Beach, Cal.

H. E. Booth has returned from Long Beach, Cal., with his family, who have been in southern California since the early winter.

Miss Leta McMillan is home after several weeks spent on the coast and in Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hinman will have as their guest for a few weeks Mrs. Emma Cafferty of New York, who is on her way home from a winter spent on the coast.

Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Beattie leave this week for the east, to be gone several weeks.

Mrs. Ernest Eldredge of Portland is the guest of Mrs. Joseph E. Caine.

Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Wright will leave on the 26th of this month for an extended eastern trip to include Boston and several of the large eastern cities.

Mr. E. A. Noek is here from Denver for a short stay.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

The brilliant social event of the week was the card party given Tuesday afternoon at the Virginia hotel by Mrs. Hugh Rowe and Mrs. A. G. Horn, which was attended by 50 guests. Euchre was played, and the prizes were awarded to Miss Edith Turner, Mrs. Broughton and Miss Eddy. The parlors were profusely decorated with lilacs. After

Correct Clothes for Men

Something Cool For Summer!

THESE Two - Piece Suits of ours are just the thing for summerwear, we're always plowing new ground—never following the old furrows that will soon result in a rut. Plenty of indulgence is allowable in these very handsome suits. Plain and figured greys predominate with blue serges and flannels make a very handsome line to select from. One of these with a nobby straw hat, and a negligee shirt makes a man feel as though life was worth living, even in the hot season. We also have a beautiful line of plain and fancy vests that are top notchers.

Poulton, Mad- sen, Owen & Co.

Alfred Benjamin & Co. MAKERS NEW YORK

111-113 Main St. - "Where the Clothes Fit."

Many drinks are stimulating. Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate is invigorating. A stimulant braces you up for a short period and then reaction sets in. A stimulant is injurious to health. But when you are invigorated you never suffer from any serious harmful effects afterwards.

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate

is a scientific blending of the cocoa bean and the best grade of sugar, powdered very fine. A delicious flavor and dainty aroma will arouse your appetite and please you. Made in a minute with hot milk. Sold only in hermetically sealed tins.

D. GHIRARDELLI CO. SAN FRANCISCO CALIFORNIA

LUCIAN A. RAY, SALT LAKE AGENT.