SPRINGFIELD, Mass.,
May 27, 1871.

We, the proprietors of the Steam Laundry and Springfield Dyehouse (both the largest in Western Massachusetts), have tried many starches in our established business, and cheerfully recommend yours as superior to them all. Truly has the name of "Duryeas' Starch" become familiar as household words. Whilst the noted excellency of our laundry work and its superiority of finish is attributable in a great measure to the perfect purity of your goods, we use it and want no other.

Very truly yours,
ISRAEL HARMON & Co.

LAST night but one of the Vokes family at the Theatre to-night.

THE REMEDY.—To escape the worthless abominations offered under the title of Flavoring Extracts and Baking Powders, rests wholly with the consumers, they are the ones that have to suffer. Purchase only those articles you know by experience to be pure. Look upon cheap goods as an evidence of their adulteration and worthlessness, upon those that dealers complain of as being too high to keep for sale as an argument in their favor; for good, pure goods cannot be sold as cheap as worthless ones, and afford a less profit to manufacturer and dealer. Dr. Price's True Flavoring Extracts and Cream Baking Powder are acknowledged by chemists to be the purest, and the only scientifically prepared articles of their kind in the market, and are now used in a million homes, and daily increasing in popular favor.

NOTICE!

MONEY can be forwarded from Salt Lake City as late as the middle of September for the company that will leave that port on or about the 14th of October, which will be the last company this season.

ALBERT CARRINGTON,
President of P. E. Fund Company.

Higher and Higher. — The mercury seems inclined to go up into the nineties again. Well, it will soon be glad to get down a number of degrees. August is advancing.

New Mining Maps.—We have received a copy of a "New Mining Map of Bingham Canyon, from actual surveys by W. L. Bowen, 1874." They are on sale at Dwyer's book store, East Temple St.

Recovered. — Brother Wm. J. Smith, homeopathist of the 11th Ward, who was severely kicked in both legs, by a vicious horse, some time since, is now able to be about again and attend to business.

Recovering. — The numerous friends of Judge Hector C. Haight, of Farmington, will be gratified to learn that that estimable gentleman is gradually recovering from his late severe attack of illness. He commenced to improve last Sunday, and has been gaining strength since then.

In England.—By letter from Elder Peter Sinclair, of this city, dated July 21st, we learn that he arrived safely at Glasgow the day previous, and on the date of writing went to Liverpool. He had a splendid voyage across the Atlantic, not having been so much as sea-sick.

Departed this Life.—Some time yesterday Elder George E. Groves Taylor, of the 13th Ward, died at his residence. Deceased emigrated from London, England, in 1866, crossing the Atlantic in the company of Saints which left that city May 23rd of that year, in the ship American Congress. He was somewhat widely known, having been president of the Paddington, London, branch of the Church for some time previous and up to his leaving for this country.

Nearly a Fire.—This morning there was nearly a fire in the store of Kinsey, Reed & Greeley, opposite the Walker House. A person was engaged in filling some small lamps, which were on the counter, when the fluid caught fire by some means, causing a big blaze. Several parties endeavored to extinguish the flames, and had quite a lively time in doing so, some of them setting fire to their clothing in attempting to throw the burning lamps out into the street, and one man got his hand scorched. At last some water was pumped upon the flames, which subdued them. The damage done was only trifling, but had it not been for the prompt measures taken, the affair might soon have culminated into a full-grown fire.

Coal. — The coal question, in which so many people are interested, has at last nearly come to a partial solution. We learn, from Mr. George Nebeker, that arrangements are nearly completed for the adjustment of the railroad freight tariff on coal between Ogden and Echo, which will bring it down to near the old rates; and, as a consequence, in a very few days Wasatch coal will be on the market again with little if any advance on the prices which prevailed before the raising of the freight. This intelligence will be received with general satisfaction.

This is so far so good, but the question will only be wholly and satisfactorily solved, and the difficulty entirely removed, when the community will be in such a position that they will not be at the mercy of a railroad company who have the power and who to some extent have manifested the will to create a monopoly for the furtherance of their own ends independent of the distress and inconvenience they may entail upon others. That question will be gratifyingly decided when a railroad between the Weber coal beds and this city is built, or when coal is discovered in proximity to this city. We hope to see one or the other.

Theatre. — There was another large audience and splendid performance at the Theatre last evening, consisting of "Family Jars" and the Vokes' high life below stairs specialty of the "Belles of the Kitchen," which reminds us that when the cat is away the mice are at play, and when "Missus" is out her dresses may receive an airing by her faithful domestics.

Among the peculiarities of the Vokes' performances are the amount of mirthful bustle which they crowd into an hour or two, and the exceeding neatness and unity of all their acting. There is the greatest remove from anything clumsy or coarse in their entertainments. Not a finger nor a toe nor a pin is undramatically out of place nor in the way. Everything goes off with the fitness and exactness of clockwork and with a prompt mutuality and harmony of action on the part of the different characters that are at once a charm and a study to the careful observer.

This evening, for the benefit of the Vokes family, there is a delightful programme, consisting of "Nan, the Good for Nothing," in which Miss Rosina Vokes will assume her celebrated specialty of the title-role, supported by Messrs. Vincent and Thorne; and the beautiful Vokes' sketch of "The Wrong Man in the Right Place," in which all the Vokes' appear, and which concludes with the popular "International Quadrille."

To-Morrow, Saturday, is the last appearance of the Vokes', as they are on their journey to the Pacific.

From Kanab.—Brothers William D. Johnson, Jr., and James A. Little, who arrived from Kanab last evening, called upon us this morning. They report the harvest prospects as being good, and a general time of prosperity in that part of Utah.

Police Court.—Some of the bibulously inclined, of whom there are a few in Salt Lake perhaps think they can indulge with impunity since the resignation of Judge Clinton. This is a mistake, as a couple of persons who had been imbibing to excess were brought into the police court this morning, and "had to pay the piper."

Still at Work. — The gang of horse thieves who have their head quarters in Wyoming and in this City are apparently still operating. We learn that Mr. Carter, of Carter, Wyoming, had a couple of brown mules stolen from his corral at that place, last Saturday, and that when he last heard of the thief he was making headway in this direction, by the old Chalk Creek Road from Fort Bridger. The animals are branded U. S. on the neck and shoulder.

Returned.—Mr. C. R. Savage returned on Wednesday from a visit to Colorado Territory, loaded up with fine views of the Pike's Peak region, and the vicinity of the Arkansas River. We learn from him that Colorado would prove a good market for Utah fruit and vegetables, provided California was not permitted to monopolize it by the lethargy of Salt Lakers. It is not very surprising that California should be doing an excellent business in that Territory, when in Utah, where fruit and vegetables, as good as need be, can be raised in abundance, California does a pretty good trade. In some portions of Colorado, potatoes are being sold at 10 cents a pound, and the price of living is generally very high.

Bad Treatment.—We have sometimes alluded to the treatment that apostates, who lend themselves to be used as tools by the carpet-bag, "Liberal" element, receive after the latter think they are of little present or future use in furthering their nefarious purposes. This was verified not long since in the case of a somewhat prominent apostate, who received a most shameful tongue flagellation, at the hands of a certain Judge who was lately clamorous in asking the people of Utah where "them free schools was." The castigation was of that loud-mouthed, unrefined kind which is so disagreeable to take. The berated party and his friends feel extremely indignant, not to say disgusted, with the Judge, and hope to get even with him yet. The worst part of it was that the little affair took place in a meeting of "Liberals," where a fellow feeling should have made the parties "wondrous kind." It is not smooth water with those who try to make themselves believe they have "outgrown" a system out of which they have merely dropped.

Beaver County.

BEAVER, Aug. 5, 1874.

The returns of Beaver County election show 631 votes polled.

Geo. Q. Cannon received 519, Baskin 112.

For Representative to Legislature, John R. Murdock, people's candidate, received 527 votes. James Low, "Liberal," received 102.

County officers on the People's ticket received about the same majority.

WM. FOTHERINGHAM,
County Clerk.

Ogden Junction, Aug. 6—

Last evening a young man, a stranger in town, part Spaniard, part Indian and part white, who voted the "liberal" ticket on Monday under the name of C. W. Monroe, declaring that he was twenty-one years of age, and his folks lived here, was arrested by officer Owen for stealing a watch from a Chinaman and a shirt from Mr. Harmon at the City Hotel. The watch was recovered, as he confessed that he had sold it to a man in town, who left it at a watchmaker's on Main street for repairs. He is a sweet and cheeky youth, and reposes in the city jail, feeling not quite so "liberal" as he did on Monday last.

The case of John Zeehert, charged with shooting Wm. Norris, came up to-day before Aldermen Thompson. F. S. Richards, Esq., appeared for the prosecution and Judge Hagan, of Salt Lake, for the defence. Several witnesses were examined and Mr. Zeehert was permitted to make a statement. The facts elicited are as we related them on the day of the shooting. After a few remarks from counsel the Court committed the defendant for trial at the next term of the Third District Court, fixing bail at $2,000.

Mr. Norris, though much better than he was yesterday, his wound having commenced to granulate, and his general symptoms being now favorable, was still too unwell to appear at the examination.
