By Telegraph to the NEWS.

All Out of Work.

READING, Pa., July 1.—Two thousand and employees of the Reading Iron Works this afternoon informed the management that they would not accept the reduced wages proposed, made recently, and the proprietors decided to close down the establishment, throwing them all out of work.

Heavy Rain.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 1.—Heavy rains continue inundating some of the lower portion of the city. Floods are reported all over Mexico.

Divorce Granted.

Denver, July 1.—The case of ex-Governor Gilpin against his wife for divorce on the grounds of cruelty, that has been on trial in Denver for two weeks, was concluded yesterday. The jury at eleven o'clock last night brought in a verdict for plaintiff.

The Crown Prince.

LONDON, July 1.—A section of the growth last removed from the throat of the German Crown Prince was sent to Professor Virchow at Berlin for examination. The latter has not made a thoroughly satisfactory report which has delighted the Emperor and the princess.

A Royal Marriage.

LONDON, July 1.—The forthcoming marriage of the Emperor of China is officially announced. His wife has been selected. The festivities will cost $200,000. Numerous changes are expected in the Imperial government.

New Officials.

LONDON, July 1.—The statement is confirmed that Holmes, Attorney-General for Ireland, becomes the Justice of the Irish Court of Common Pleas; that Solicitor-General Gibson becomes Attorney-General and Sir John O'Brien will not seek a seat in Parliament. Gibson will be elevated to the bench before the year is out. Sir John O'Brien will then become attorney-general. Madden, now contesting the Dublin University for the place of Holmes, becomes solicitor-general.

The Tariff Men.

NEW YORK, July 1.—The American Protective Tariff League to-day announced the awards of prizes to college students for essays on "The Advantages of a Protective Tariff to Labor and the Industries of the United States." The number of competitors was thirty-eight, representing thirty states and thirty-five colleges. The following are awards: First prize, James H. McBride, University of Pennsylvania; second, H. R. McKenzie, University of Minnesota; third, Kenzie, University of Minnesota; fourth, silver medals were awarded.

Baseball.

DETROIT, July 1.—To-day's game was a heavy hitting exhibition, in which both teams participated. The home club won because they hit more and harder. In almost every case the game was the result of hits, one exception being in the sixth, when Rowe's two errors, made by Brouthers and Anderson, and a wild pitch gave three runs. The umpire, Dosscher, was badly out on the chin by a foul ball. The Detroit game delay, continued behind the bat with his.

HELD SWATH.

IN BADGES. Score—Detroit 17, Philadelphia 13.

CHICAGO, July 1.—The Chicago beat the Washington in the eighth inning to-day, after the spectators were driven away by the rain. The Chicago team would lose another game. The change in the outlook was caused by a single error, Van Halterman's, Ryan's and Anderson's and a wild pitch gave three runs. The umpire, Dosscher, was badly out on the chin by a foul ball. The Detroit game delay, continued behind the bat with his.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 1.—The New York won an easy victory to-day in the club and field.

Only eight innings were played, owing to delay on account of rain. At the end of this inning the features of the game were good batting and the delirium of the visitors, who had but one error. Score: Indianapolis, 5; New York, 2.

PITTSBURGH, July 1.—The Bisons had no difficulty in hitting Galvin to-day. The game was a heavy hitting exhibition, in which both teams participated. The home club won because they hit more and harder. In almost every case the game was the result of hits, one exception being in the sixth, when Rowe's two errors, made by Brouthers and Anderson, and a wild pitch gave three runs.
